Emergency Unemployment Benefits Reduced

The Maryland Department of Economic and Employment Development (DEED) has announced that effective September 12, 1993, individuals who open a claim for Emergency Unemployment Compensation (EUC) benefits will be eligible for a possible 10 extra weeks of unemployment insurance benefits. This is a reduction from the current level of 20 weeks of EUC benefits. The extension of benefits is payable after claimants have exhausted 26 weeks of state unemployment insurance benefits.

The reduction, required by the U.S. Department of Labor, is because of a drop in the seasonally adjusted national total unemployment rate (TUR), which has been below 7.0 percent for the second consecutive month. The TUR for August was 6.7 percent and the TUR for July was 6.8 percent. When the seasonally adjusted TUR falls below 7.0 percent for two consecutive months, the provisions of the EUC Amendments of 1992 require states paying 20 weeks of benefits to reduce eligibility to 10 weeks for individuals opening a claims for EUC benefits.

Individuals who opened a claim for EUC benefits on or before September 10, 1992, will continue to be eligible for 20 weeks of EUC benefits. Those individuals must have exhausted all state unemployment insurance benefits on or before the week ending September 4, 1993.

The EUC Program is scheduled to end on October 2, 1993. After that date, no new claims will be taken. Individuals who became eligible for EUC benefits on or before September 26, 1993 will be eligible to receive benefits until all benefits are exhausted or until week ending January 15, 1994, which ever is earlier. Congress has not extended the EUC Program beyond October 2.

Garrett County's "Most Beautiful Persons" Named

County coordinator of the "Maryland, You Are Beautiful" program, Pat Vetter announced this week that Grantsville residents Daniel W. and Hazel J. Klotz have been chosen by the selection committee as Garrett County's "Most Beautiful Couple" in honor of their numerous and continuous contributions to the county.

Terry Knotts and Clarence Stem, both of Oakland, have been selected as runners-up, and the late Marjorie Fratz, who resided in Accident, has been honored posthumously by the committee "to recognize her memory and many contributions to the county and to her community," stated Vetter.

Daniel and Hazel Klotz were "very instrumental" in organizing the Garrett County Agricultural Fair, said Vetter, and Mrs. Klotz has not only served as a judge at the fair but was also selected as the first farm queen. She is employed as a tourism counselor at the I-68 Information Center near Friendsville.

Mrs. Klotz also hosted

OVER 100 COATS AND COUNTING - The warmth of Garratt County will touch Armenia this winter in the form of many donated coats. This "coat drive," spaarhsaded by the United Methodist Committee on Relief, has been a success so far with over 100 coats collected as of yesterday. The local drop-off point is at St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Oakland (Oak Street entrance), and clean coats in good repair will be gratefully accepted through Tuesday, Sept. 28. The Relief Committee's goal is to collect 100,000 coats, which will be flown to Armenia where thousands of people will be subject to frigid temperatures with little or no sources of heat this winter. Children's coats are especially needed, according to Dorothy Leighton, drive organizer. Volunteers are pictured above at the basement of St. Paul's as they pack away the donated items. Shown left to right are Mrs. Leighton, Carolyn Payne, Doyle Payne, Betty Foy, and Vickie Evans.

GCC Recipient Of Mathematics Grant

A $300,000 grant from the United States Department of Education Fund for Innovation in Education: Computer Based Instruction Program has been awarded to Garrett Community College, according to Dr. Nancy Priselac, coordinator of mathematics. The grant will provide in-service training for 12 middle and high school teachers and three math instructors from Garrett Community College in the use of computers and technology in the classroom.

The in-service training will evolve around the "Tune in Math and Science" (TIMS) project that has been developed and supported by General Motors Engineering and Management Institute and Michigan State University.

The TIMS project uses distance learning as a way to change how Algebra I is taught and to show the connection between algebra and geometry, with expert teachers, who instruct a 30-minute conceptual package three times a week. "These instructional packages can be used by public school and college instructors to change their role to one of facilitator and still have time to teach additional material from their own text," said Priselac.

The in-service training will use the latest in technological advances as it relates to the instruction of mathematics at the pre-college and college level. All participants will be using scientific and graphing calculators, 486DX Computers, laptop computers, laser printers, and software packages such as Derive,

Deer Park Man Accused Of Child Abuse And Sexual Offense Is Arrested By GCSO

A 48-year-old Deer Park man accused of sexually abusing a child was arrested by the Garrett County Sheriff's Office this week. Larry P. Inglese is currently lodged in the county jail on charges of child abuse, second degree sexual offense, third degree sexual offense, battery, and perverted sexual practice.

Inglese was arrested after the victim's mother transported her to Garrett Memorial Hospital, where officials in turn contacted the sheriff's office about the possible abuse. He is accused of sexually molesting an 11-year-old female on Sept. 18 at a Deep Creek Lake residence. The defendant is reported to have taken photographs of the victim, which were later confiscated by the shariff's office. The child may have been abused for several months, beginning in February of this year, according to a police spokesperson.

Inglese was originally jailed in lieu of $50,000 bond, but the amount was reduced to $25,000 Tuesday, according to a spokesperson.

In other sheriff's office news, an Oakland man was charged in connection with the theft of tires and rims from Cecil E. Jackson Equipment. James B. Richard Jr., 21, was charged with theft, accused of stealing two Goodyear tires and rims from the establishment recently. Richard was arrested on Monday, according to the police report.

An Oakland man was charged with DWI (driving while intoxicated) Sunday after he reportedly drove through a red light at the

Theft Of Bank Funds Reported To State Police

The Maryland State Police, Barrack W, McHenry, is currently investigating the report of stolen money on two separate occasions from First Federal Savings Bank of Western Maryland, Oakland Branch.

Tfc. R.M. Hershberger, investigating officer, indicated that $15,000 in cash was removed on August 30 and $1,000 removed on September 7. The FBI has joined the investigation along with the Criminal Investigation Division of the Maryland State Police.

COTTAGE ENTERED

State police are also investigating the report of a breaking and entering and theft of a summer cottage on the Oakland-Sang Run Road.

Tfc. J.T. Bentlejewski is investigating that case.

Broad Ford School Volunteers Improve School Playground

A number of parent, student, and school staff volunteers from the Broad Ford Elementary School Parent Teacher Association are currently undertaking the renovation of the school playground equipment. They spent this past Saturday painting and repairing existing equipment and cleaning up the grounds for the proposed new equipment.

The group is currently conducting a fundraising campaign for new equipment. The first piece will be installed the middle of October on the K through 2 sides of the school. Funds must now be raised to purchase a unit on the grades 3-5 side of the building.

The Saturday renovation consisted of painting all existing equipment, painting of hopscotch and other games on the blacktop, and boxing in around all equipment for safety purposes. "Safety is our number one priority," said Sandy Bell, co-president of the PTA. "We will also be removing or repairing unsafe pieces of equipment."

The PTA membership expressed its appreciation to

GCC Receives Appalachian Regional Commission Grant For Computers

An Appalachian Regional Commission grant of $52,877 has been awarded to Garrett Community College for the purchase of advanced computer equipment and expansion of computer design program, according to an announcement from Senator Paul Sarbanes's office.

The grant will enable GCC to purchase 10 new advanced computers, auto-CAD Software, digitizing pads and plotters to support fully automated design. A new 10 work-station classroom is being established to house the new equipment.

This new program is essential to modern drafting techniques and will enable the college to offer courses in advanced computer-assisted design for architectural drafting, manufacturing and building construction design, according to a college spokesperson.

As part of the matching funds for the grant, GCC will provide $51,057 of in-kind contributions, including the new laboratory facility.

Commissioners Agree To Establish Local Women's Commission Chapter

The Garrett County Commissioners this week have agreed to establish a Garrett County Commission for Women -- a local chapter of the Maryland Commission for Women -- and have announced the names of the 12 individuals who will serve on the commission.

Frances Callis, executive director of the Garrett County Domestic Violence Resource Center, and Phyllis Trickett, president of the Maryland Commission for Women, presented a formal proposal to the commissioners after researching the program over the past year and meeting with the commissioners on several occasions to update them on their progress.

The commission's purpose, according to the proposal will be to act as a referral agency for women and children needing assistance, to work toward the establishment of crisis shelters for victims of domestic violence (currently, those victims must travel to Allegany County to be housed in a shelter), to stimulate and encourage study and review of the status of women, to inform women of the . rights

Opening Of School Report Given At BOE Meeting; Mainstreaming Discussed

A report on the opening of local schools was given last week by Superintendent Jerome Ryscavage at the Garrett County Board of Education's regular meeting. The main issues discussed included the mainstreaming of students with special needs, a food service status report, and a completion date change for the locker rooms at Southern High School.

Ryscavage reported that as of Sept. 10, the total enrollment was 5,173 students in the local system. He noted that the system has lost a number of teachers, partly because of salaries, and that a secondary school nurse is urgently needed. There is currently only one in the secondary schools, he said.

A situation Ryscavage called a "significant problem" is the public school's attempt and responsibility of serving students with special needs, especially at the elementary level. These students are in need of more than what teachers are accustomed to providing, Ryscavage said, explaining that some are catheterized, others suffer from fetal alcohol syndrome, and others still are in some way severely incapacitated.

"Although the teachers have done a good job teaching and assisting these students thus far, the problem does continue to grow," Ryscavage said. He again stressed that a school nurse is needed. The Garrett County Health Department has been asked to provide a nurse, but has not yet responded. Ryscavage said the board is obliged by the state to have a complete health program by 1995, and the problem should be reviewed with the county commissioners.

"This situation causes additional stress on teachers, and can be a very risky one, should anything run afoul in administering to these special students. We could easily

The Maryland State Police, in conjunction with the Garrett and Allegany Narcotic Task Forces, and the Allegany County K-9 Unit, arrested 12 individuals on Friday and two individuals on September 15 as a result of the Drug Interdiction Program.

The 12 arrested on Friday were all charged within a three-hour period on Interstate 68 at an Operation Intercept location one mile west of Friendsville.

Charged with drug and/or drug paraphernalia possession were Ralph M. Liggett, 29, Wheeling, W.Va., Wayne R. Risher, 27, Manassas, Va.; John W. Ferne Beachy Is September Heroine

A native Garrett Countian who has lived on farms in this area all of her life is the heroine for the month of September in the yaar of Celebration of Garrett County Women. Ferne Beachy, as a farm daughter, wife, Homemaker for over 50 years, mother of five, grandmother of eight, and great-grandmother of two, has seen many changes come to the lives of farmers and their families.

She remembers how as a child on the farm at the 4-H Center in Bittinger, and then on a farm in Grantsville, she helped with the farm chores and drove the cows home. During the 1930s and earl '40s, her family hosted guests from the city, usually Pittsburgh, in their farm home where they would stay for a week, enjoying the home cooking and touring around the county.

"We didn't have much entertainment then," she said. "The city people always had card parties."

As a long-time member of the Homemakers Club, Mrs. Beachy has taken many Rural Women's short courses at College Park, as well as a number of different courses at Garrett Community College. She served as District I Director of Homemakers for three years during which time she visited clubs in five Maryland counties, and she has been a member of the County Council of Homemakers. As a lifelong member of the Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Bittinger, she has been assistant superintendent of the Sunday school and assistant organist. Ferne also loves to quilt.

Much of her time is now donated to her work as president of the Fireman's Auxiliary of the Bittinger Volunteer Fire Department where she and three or four other women prepare and serve dinners for up to 150 people.

"I like to keep active," she says, "but I don't know how long we can keep doing the meals. We cooked two big dinners last week, and we have two more this week. The men help with serving the food and doing the dishes. Many of the young women now work and don't have time to help."

One of the more recent accomplishments in this busy woman's life has been her telling of her experiences on the farm 50 years ago. She and Polly Hanst first teamed up at the Women's Fair in March to tell stories about life on the farm and life in the city 50 years ago. Since then by popular request, they have told their stories for the Women's Civic Club, and will be presenting them again for the AAUW.

"The most rewarding thing for me is being of service to other people," she says. "I don't have time to worry. I live one day at a time."

For Ferne Beachy, each day brings its own rewards.

Friendsville Mayor Enters Guilty Plea In Cumberland Court

Friendsville Mayor Spencer R. Schlosnagle, 28, pleaded guilty to one court of indecent exposure in Allegany County Circuit Court Wednesday.

Judge Frederick Sharer continued Schlosnagle's release on his own recognizance pending a pre-sentence investigation.

Schlosnagle had been charged with that offense stemming from a New Year's Eve incident at the Country Club Mall parking lot in LaVale. The victim contended that Schlosnagle drove his car up to him as he was getting on his motorcycle and exposed himself.

In other Allegany County court news, Rodney F. Rounds, Grantsville, was found not guilty of driving while intoxicated. He had been charged with that offense in February by Cumberland police.

GCSO Investigating Theft And Property Destruction Cases

The Garrett County Sheriff's Office is currently investigating the apparent breaking, entering, and theft incident at a Mtn. Lake Park home, and a case of property destruction involving a car.

Carolyn House notified police early this week after she discovered that her Mtn. Lake Park home had apparently been illegally entered. Several items were stolen from the residence, including stereo speakers, a VCR, a Sega system, assorted knives, and some change. The total loss has been estimated at over $400, according to the report.

House was gone from the residence for several days around Sept. 16-18, and discovered the apparent crime upon her return. Officers gathered evidence at the scene and an investigation is underway.

In a separate case, Regina Moats reported that her vehicle had been damaged. Det. Randy Shaffer responded to the scene and inspected the 1991 Dodge Shadow. He found several scratches on the car, apparently made with a sharp object. The cost of repairs was set at $1,000.

Ms. Moats told the officer that the damage was done on the evening of Sept. 19 around 9 p.m. An investigation is continuing.

WOMEN'S COMMISSION TO BE FORMED - The Garrett County Commissioners this week gave their approval to the establishment of a Garrett County Commission for Women -- a chapter of the Maryland Commission for Women, which will provide education and career information to local women, and will lobby for a shelter for abuse victims to be housed in the county. Two women instrumental in the development and proposal for the commission are shown above. They are, left to right, Frances Callis, executive director of the Domestic Violence/Sexual Assault Resource Center, and Phyllis B. Trickett, chairperson of the Maryland Commission for Women. Also shown, continuing left to right, are Garrett County Commissioners Elwood Groves, John Braskey, and Brenda Butscher. See story for more details.

Caution Urged For Bike Tour

More than 150 cyclists will be on local roads this weekend as participants in the American Lung Association of Maryland's Deep Creek Lake Autumn Bike Tour.

Cyclists will be briefed on proper riding protocol and road marshals will assist at major intersections. With safety as a priority, the ALA asks motorists to exercise caution when passing cyclists.

Participants will depart from Wisp Resort in McHenry at about 11 a.m. Saturday and 9:30 a.m. Sunday. The three routes on Saturday will affect the following Garrett County roads: Sang Run, Deep Creek Drive, State Park Drive, U.S. Rt. 219, Glendale, Rt. 495, Rock Lodge, Dry Run, New Germany, Mosser, Savage River, and Big Run.

Sunday's ride will include: Sang Run, Deep Creek Drive, Rt. 219, Glendale, State Park, Hoyes Run, Oakland-Sang Run, Mayhew Inn, Swallow Falls, Lakeshore Drive, and Mayhew Inn.

Local residents may still register to participate in the tour for a special rate of $25, or to participate as volunteers. For more information, persons may call the local Lung Association office at 1-800-222-9974.

Food For Thought

by
Chef Francesco Pisano
McClives Restaurant

Polenta is Italy's answer to mashed potatoes, a mush of commeal simmered in broth or water until it thickens. Super with corn kernels folded in, plus tangy Parmesan or Asiago cheese.

Or spread thickened polenta in a square pan and let cool. Then brush with oil, cut into squares or wedges, and toast under the broiler or on the grill. Terrific under sauteed mushrooms or ratatouille.

New food labeling, demanded by the Food and Drug Administration, will finally tell us what's inside: how much fat, cholesterol, dietary fiber and sugars, in amounts per serving and as a percentage of the total. Serving sizes have been standardized, too.

What goes with cold salmon? Half and half mayonnaise and yogurt or sour cream, plus mustard and chopped dill to taste.

America's favorite salad is Caesar salad, market research indicates, whether at home or in restaurants. Prepared dressing is actually safer than home made, because it does not contain raw eggs.

Festival Parade To Be Sponsored By First United

The Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion Council has announced that First United Bank & Trust, with headquarters in Oakland and branches in Friendsville, McHenry, Grantsville, Cumberland, LaVale, Frostburg, Westernport, and Barton, will sponsor the 26th Annual Autumn Glory Festival Grand Feature Parade.

The Autumn Glory Festival will be held Oct. 14-17, in downtown Oakland, and throughout the county, with the Grand Feature Parade beginning at 1 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 16. This parade is the largest and most well-attended event of the four-day festival, which boasts an attendance of tens of thousands of visitors.

First United employees will staff a Festival Information Booth at the intersection of Second and Liberty streets, from 9 a.m to 1 p.m. on Saturday before the parade and assist in the Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion Council office from 8 a.m. to noon, helping to provide information to the public.

"First United National Bank & Trust's sponsorship of the Autumn Glory Festival Grand Feature Parade represents its fourth year of commitment to defray the tremendous costs of producing this spectacular event in Garrett County," stated Diane Wolfe, executive director of the Promotion Council. She added that First United has also supported the Autumn Glory Festival by purchasing Golden Ambassadorships since the program's beginning.

For more information or a free festival brochure, persons may contact Festival Headquarters, Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion Council, Courthouse, 200 South Third St., Oakland, MD 21550; telephone 334-1948.

Banjo And Fiddle Championships Are Festival Events

An annual part of the Autumn Glory Festival, the "Official" Maryland State Banjo and State Fiddle Championships, will be held at the Southern High School gymnasium in Oakland on Saturday, Oct. 16. Both contests are being sponsored by First Federal Savings Bank of Western Maryland.

The contests will feature competitions between top banjo and fiddle musicians from a five-state area. The banjo competition will begin at 7 p.m., followed by the fiddle championship at 8 p.m. Trophies and prize money will be awarded to the top four banjo contestants, with a special award for the best "old time" banjo player.

Amateur fiddle contestants will be judged in three age categories: 60 and over; 13-59; and youth. The fiddle contest will also feature a "Championship Professional" category.

Anyone wishing to enter either contest may pick up a registration form at the Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion Council office or by calling (301) 334-1948. They may also register at the door. There is no entrance fee for either championship.

Tickets are available at the Oakland branch of First Federal Savings Bank of Western Maryland at 305 East Oak Street, the Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion Council office and at the door, and seating is limited. Admission is $7.50 for adults and $3 for children under 12. Doors will open at 6:15 p.m. and refreshments will be available.

Mtn. Top College Exposition Set At Garrett Community

The Mountaintop College Exposition has been scheduled for Monday, Oct. 4, at the Wisp Resort, McHenry. The event has been planned by a committee of representatives from the Garrett County Board of Education, Garrett Community College (GCC), and area businesses. The expo will be held from 7-9 p.m.

The purpose of the exposition is to bring representatives to the area from two and four year colleges, military branches, and trade and technical schools. These representatives will be on hand to answer questions and provide information concerning education paths and careers. Local high school junior and senior students are encouraged to attend the event, as are those who are currently enrolled in a transfer program at GCC. The expo will help students narrow down choices, obtain admission applications, and receive financial aid information.

Two seminars will be conducted: Understanding Student Financial Aid and How To Plan For College. They will be held simultaneously at 7:15 and 8:15 p.m.

Door prizes will be awarded throughout the evening, and guests are encouraged to come early to register for the drawings, and to find out about "instant scholarship money."

Solid Waste/Recycling Funding Options Addressed By Committee

The development of a fair and equitable structure for financing the county's entire solid waste management system was the main topic of discussion by the members of the Garrett County Solid Waste and Recycling Committee during the third meeting, held September 8.

The committee members discussed the possibility of allowing limited use of the county's solid waste collection and disposal facilities by out-of-county residents after hearing from several persons who felt the tipping fees for such disposal would have a negative impact. The members, however, decided to make the recommendation to the Garrett County Commissioners that the facilities be maintained exclusively for county residents and property owners.

The members then agreed that the issue could be reconsidered after one year of operation of the new county facility, when more accurate figures could be processed. According to Rodney Glotfelty, director of the Garrett County Office of Solid Waste and Recycling, the amount of out-of-county refuse being deposited at the county's collection sites has been estimated at as high as 35%.

"One refuse hauler told the committee that users of these sites should pay the same amount as he would need to charge his customers if tipping fees were initiated at the landfill," stated Glotfelty.

The committee also discussed the problem of refuse being thrown on the ground at the collection sites, and formed a general consensus that there needs to be adequate enforcement of the current laws as well as more stringent laws being established.

Although extensive discussion was held concerning raising the revenue needed to fund the construction and operation of the new landfill and collection centers (as well as closing out the Round Glade facility in accordance with applicable environmental regulations) a consensus on the exact approach was not reached by the committee. Deliberations on that issue will continue at the next meeting, scheduled for Tuesday, September 28, at 7:30 p.m., in the Continuing Education Building at Garrett Community College.

The meeting is open to the public, and individuals wishing to address the committee on a specific topic should call the Solid Waste and Recycling Office at 334-9337 prior to the meeting.

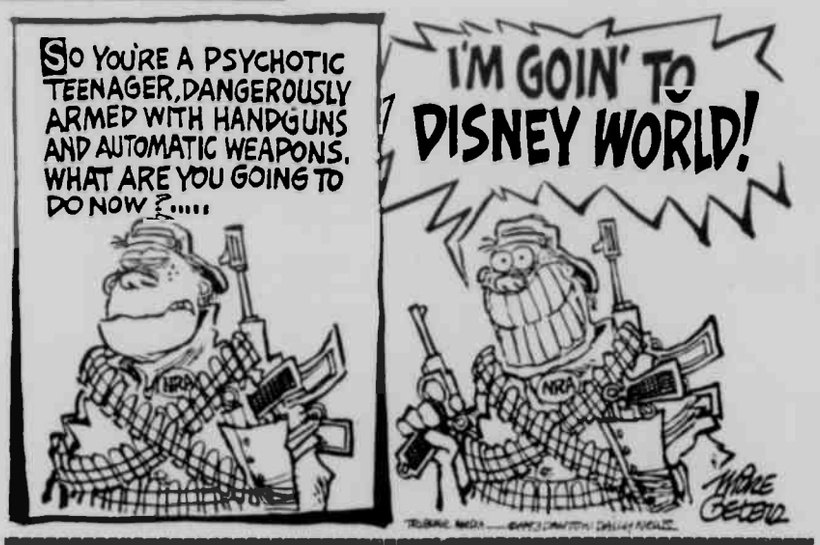
Is It Really the Best?...

Today's issue of The Baltimore Sun contains a story about a young mother and her 13-year-old daughter who were found stabbed and bludgeoned to death in their Baltimore apartment. Another daughter, age 10, was similarly attacked, but is still alive and in critical condition. The police currently have no suspects in the case, but in time will most likely make an arrest.

Once this killer is located and arrested he will be provided free room and board in the local jail. He will eventually be tried and, even if convicted, will continue to be supported by the system. He may be sentenced to death, but there is only a remote chance that he will ever be executed. All of his legal expenses, which could reach tens of thousands of dollars, will be covered. All of the other expenses incurred, such as court costs, paying jury members, transportation, and housing of witnesses, will all be covered by the taxpayers.



If this criminal becomes ill, he will be provided whatever care is necessary to make him well and to make him comfortable, again at no expense whatsoever to him. If he happens to be HIV positive or have AIDS, he will be entitled to testing and treatment, free of charge, while those on the outside he may have infected with the disease are probably unable to afford such extensive care.

The taxpayers will cover all of this man's expenses. The woman he killed was employed as a secretary, so some of the money that she earned will now be used to help take care of her killer.

Meanwhile, he is also entitled to a long list of "rights and privileges" while incarcerated. After all, he is a human being and thus possesses certain basic human rights. It matters not that he so severely violated the rights of three innocent people. It matters not that he is a brutal, gutless murderer of children.

There is something horribly wrong with this picture. We keep hearing the statement that our justice system certainly has its weaknesses, "but it's the best there is in the world." Frankly, we don't believe that anymore. There has to be a better way to deal with this type of criminal. Society should not have to take on convicted murderers as wards of the state and be required to make sure their every need is satisfied at the expense of the public.

We sincerely hope this miserable excuse for a human being vehemently resists arrests when he is found. Such is unlikely, though, because he is obviously a coward. So let's all get our checkbooks out and be ready to start footing his bills.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

The Garrett County Health Department would like to apologize for any inconvenience that the general public has experienced in trying to reach us by telephone during the past week. We have been installing new equipment. The problems have been frustrating for everyone, but have been resolved. We thank you for your patience.

Rex D. Archer,
M.D.,M.P.H.
Health Officer for Garrett County

To the Editor:

Your excellent editorial this week concerning the death of your staff members' relative due to a drinking driver was very welcome.

Unfortunately, the substance abuse is a plague upon our country and I don't see "accountability" on the issue anywhere, to a degree we mean business in a positive way to eradicate its use!

We cannot give lip service to its use or eradication and expect changes. I remember well when the referendum was before the electorate to sell liquor in Garrett County seven days a week who was for and against it! Thank God for those who had the courage to publicly oppose it. They cared enough to face reality with genuine love and compassion for all mankind; not what's popular with so many!

Children learn in the home or should begin there through love and discipline. The examples they see from their parents and close encounters have a profound effect upon them. The values thus implanted many times are with them for life. What are they receiving now at home? Two working parents? Material things don't constitute the many values that hold a civilization together. We need honesty, decency, kindness, generosity and accountability. We must discipline ourselves. We must learn discipline early in our lives to be productive citizens. What isn't learned at home should be aided by the schools who maintain discipline for learning. Certain things are not tolerated in the home or in the schools; the rules apply equally to all; influence or who their parents are shouldn't be an issue in consequences! The church should be a real guiding moral influence. We must become a "society of accountability," not using endless excuses where no one accepts responsibility for anything.

A prime example here of this lack is in the "lack of concern for our mentally ill." Where is the acceptance of responsibility for their care? It is a disgrace!

Thanking you,
Mrs. Louise V. Harvey
Friendsville

To the Editor:

Thanks to the warmhearted people of Garrett County, many refugees in Armenia will have coats this winter even though they have no fuel.

Warm, clean coats in good repair can be accepted up until Tuesday, Sept. 28, at St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Oakland (Oak Street entrance). The United Methodist Committee on Relief is hoping to get 100,000 coats from its nationwide appeal. Coats will be flown to Armenia.

This is an unusual opportunity for helping directly people who may die of cold without assistance. Warm children's coats are especially needed.

To the Editor:

The support and encouragement of the local community, both in Garrett and Allegany County, has given a strong start to the new Salem School. Designed to provide education service to children with unique learning needs, this school offers additional educational programs for which there has long been a need for certain students in this area.

Residents of Garrett and Allegany counties may attend the Salem School on a day student basis to receive Intensity V special education and related services. Intensity VI educational services are offered in conjunction with residential placement at The Maryland Salem Children's Trust. The Salem School provides a nonpublic educational program, approved by the Maryland State Department of Education, for students with learning disabilities, students with serious emotional disturbances, students with multiple handicaps and students with limited cognitive ability.

Businesses, churches, and individuals rallied together to put on the 5-For-Kids Project to raise funds to provide a building for the Salem School. Five cyclists made their way across the state from Garrett County to the Eastern Shore to raise needed funds. Our thanks to Bruce Anderson, Curt Bachtell, Steve Ruckert, Tom Ruckert, Terry Watson and their back-up rider Mike Dreisbach, for committing to four days and three-hundred miles on their bicycles!

The 5-For-Kids Celebration was hosted by Little Caesar's of Frostburg and The Depot Restaurant. We are grateful to Marci Skidmore and Jim Oberhaus for catering a delicious meal for this event. We also thank the members of the choir of the Grace Baptist Church who provided special music. In addition, we would like to specifically thank Casselwood Furniture, Four Seasons Stitchery, Springs Historical Society and the Print Shop for their sponsorship through WCBC Radio. The staff of WCBC attended the celebration and kept the community aware of the event and the bikers' progress. Special thanks to Mary Clites and WCBC station owner Dave Aydelotte for their promotion of 5-For-Kids and the Salem School. Television coverage was given by WHAG-TV on their evening news.

It is important to note the very close cooperation which has been established between the Salem School and the Boards of Education of Garrett and Allegany counties. Al Coviello, assistant superintendent of Garrett County Schools, and Sherie Witt, supervisor of special education for Allegany County Schools, participated in the 5-For-Kids Kick-Off by describing the need for Salem's special education services and by expressing their commitment to continue to support and work with the Salem School staff.

Finally, thanks are offered to the many individuals who contributed to this drive for funds. We are now working on repair and remodeling of the building and hope to move in soon.

It speaks well for this community to see once again the commitment and cooperation of so many when addressing the needs of special children. What was accomplished was a terrific start towards opening this school. The effort will be carried further next month as the LaVale Rotary Club sponsors an auction to provide additional assistance. Thanks to all involved in this worthy project.

Dot Leuba, President
Board of Directors

To the Editor:

My great-grandmother lives next door. She turns 87 in a few weeks. My, what progress she has seen, and what lessons her life presents.

When Bessie Wilt (nee Fazenbaker) grew up in Garrett County, planes were experimental, and cars were mere novelties. About anyplace she went, she walked. Phones were for the affluent few, there was no radio, and television had not been imagined. Country homes had neither electricity nor indoor plumbing. Movies were black and white and silent, and too far away to go to anyway. Except for a scratchy windup Victrola, the only way Bessie heard music was to be in the presence of the performers.

Natural childbirth was not a choice, but a necessity. Bessie lost a son to a childhood disease no longer considered to be life threatening. The practice of medicine was crude and mostly ineffective; dentistry was brutal.

The times of Bessie's youth are not recognizable to me or my friends. None of us would be willing to give up central heat, indoor plumbing, stoves and ovens that don't need wood, refrigerators, oranges in the winter, or the myriad other benefits of modern times. Our lives are infinitely more safe and comfortable. The romanticized vision of the past that many of my friends have picked up from Williamsburg and TV mini-series is nonsense.

With Bessie telling me about the times in which she grew up, I came to realize that progress did not just happen. It was created by the industry, inspiration, and imagination of generations of hard working men and women. But few, if any, of these people were motivated by any benefit for me, personally. Me--the unborn, the unrelated, the unknown. No, they did it because their industry brought rewards to themselves and their families.

The benefits to me and my young friends are the unintended fall out from countless private win-win transactions. Producers, inventors, and marketers won when they gladly exchanged their products for other people's money. At the same time, purchasers of products won when they saw that the products were worth more to them than the money they offered in trade. In the words of today's management guru Steve Convey, transactions were win-win or no deal. This is economic freedom.

While people's private rewards through win-win or no-deal transactions may be the root cause of public progress, this idea is lost on too many of today's government leaders. Whenever leaders use tax dollars, they risk sacrificing "win-win or no deal" because taxpayers do not define "win" and, in any case, don't have "no deal" as an option.

Today, our government pays huge buyouts to induce federal employees to retire and draw large and immediate pensions. It is about to offer tax supported make-work "national service" jobs to rich young people. Government needs to adopt the idea that its actions need to be "wins" for taxpayers.

When our government, at any level, takes from earners and gives to well-off non-earners or uses regulations to block win-win transactions, it needs to worry about subverting and over burdening economic freedom, the system that has produced the greatest benefits for the greatest numbers. Single economic freedom is not inevitable, neither is further progress.

Our leaders must use greater caution when tampering with economic freedom, and, better yet, affirmatively restore it. Sixty-five years from now I hope to regale my own great-grandchildren with stories about how backward times are now.

Sincerely,
Ashlie C. Warnick
Laytonsville

An Update From The Superintendent

By
Dr. Jerome Ryscavage, Superintendent
Of Garrett County Public Schools

The Maryland Association Of Boards Of Education

The Maryland Association of Boards of Education is a non-partisan, non-profit organization founded in 1957 to promote the advancement of Maryland public education, to provide in-service activities to develop better informed and more effective school board members, to monitor and report current education issues, and to represent the school board point of view at the state and national levels. The Association also administers two self-insurance programs one for workmen's compensation and one for property casualty insurance coverage. The Association founded the Legal Services Association in 1987 which supplements existing legal services available to school boards through local counsel. We in Garrett County, along with the 23 other local school boards, are part of the Association.

We benefit greatly in that the Association provides many opportunities for local board members to "rub elbows" with others throughout the state. This is done through informal means afforded by meetings called by the Association as well as formal activities like this week's conference at the Wisp. In addition to the annual conference, the Association sponsors various workshops throughout the year which bring board members together around critical issues. Another very important function that the Association carries out for us has to do with representing our interests with the Legislature. This, of course, occurs most frequently during the legislative session, but is on-going since the Association is headquartered in Annapolis and, therefore, affords easy access to all state officials. Finally, the Association has assisted us directly with advice relative to a number of legal concerns over the years.

This year the Maryland Association of Boards of Education's annual conference will be held at the Wisp conference center from September 22-24. The theme, "The Changing Role of Boards of Education," was chosen since the role of board members has changed considerably in recent years. As a result, the keynoter, panel discussions, mini-workshops, and clinics will be centered around this theme. We will also be doing some things in Garrett County that have never been done before at the conference. Thanks to many in the county, we will be taking conference participants on bus tours of the county, visits to local schools, and boat rides on Deep Creek Lake. In addition, many, many local businesses too numerous to mention have contributed door prizes and other favors representative of Garrett County.

We're looking forward to a great Maryland Association of Boards of Education conference, to say the least.

Moving Toward Quality And Beyond

This article is one of a series designed to support the growth and development of small businesses in Garrett County. It was written by Sandy Major, a counselor for the Small Business Development Center and a business training coordinator at Garrett Community College. Ms. Major believes that while it is critical for companies to provide quality products and services, even more is needed in order to survive in today's tough competitive business environment. How to move one's business toward quality and beyond is the subject of this series of articles. The staff of the SBDC invites persons to learn more about quality or about free small business counseling services by calling 387-3101.

Why Do You Need Quality?

The lifeblood of any business is repeat customers. It costs five to six times as much to go out and get a new customer as to keep an old one. As customer loyalty increases over the time the customer's value to the business increases. Sixty-eight percent of customers who stop doing business with a particular establishment do so because of employee indifference toward the customer. While customers are seeking quality products, they also want to be treated well and will return to businesses that emphasize quality customer service.

Philip Crosby defines quality as 100% conformance to our customers' expectations. It is the business that understands those expectations and responds accordingly that will be successful.

What is a customer worth to a business? The average grocery store customer will spend $100 a week at that store. Over a 10 year period this adds up to $50,000. The average unhappy customer will tell his or her story to at least nine other people. The impact of losing one customer is substantial but the financial implications of losing up to 10 more as a result of one unhappy customer is overwhelming.

According to Stanley A. Brown, author of Total Quality Service: "The competitive advantage stems from gaining high customer-perceived quality for your products and services." This relates to how your customer sees your product or

Of Mice and Murder
by John R. McEwen

Now playing at the Deep Creek Dinner Theater is Agatha Christie's The Mousetrap, a delightfully written whodunit in the style for which Christie has always been famous. With a cast of eight, the show gets rather cozy at times; the actors nearly trip over the toes of the audience members in the small theater.

In a dinner theater, of course, one does not go only to see a play--the whole evening is an expenence. It starts off with dinner, which I was told was supposed to tie in with the murder mystery atmosphere. I didn't really see this, but the food was absolutely delicious, catered by the Red Run Inn's Ruth Umbel. I was rather surprised by being seated with people I didn't come in with; I don't think this is necessary unless the place is packed, which was not the case. As it turned out, my table was delightful company, but one might not always be so lucky.

After dinner and a somewhat lengthy sales pitch by the manager, Mr. Chas. Rittenhouse, the play got underway. For this particular production, they have decided to forego using the actual stage for the acting area and use the lounge area instead, presumably so they could use the fireplace in the theater's lounge. This led to some problems with sightlines, but that seldom really hampered the production.

The play takes place at Monkswell Manor, near London, England. There is an awful snowstorm outside, and all the guests except one, whose car broke down, had pre-registered at the inn and arrived before the weather turned bad. Soon after they are snowed in there is scuttlebutt that a murderer is on the loose, and of course, there is a murder. The second half of the show is spent detennining the identity of the killer, and, as with most mystery stories, everyone present has had means, motive, and opportunity.

The owners of the inn (Giles and Mollie Ralston) were played by Chas. and Sherry Rittenhouse, the owners of the theater. They both did an excellent job, obviously trained and experienced in theatre. They work well together as husband and wife; they have an easy way of exchanging dialogue, and their English accents were the most believable in the show. I especially appreciated Chas.'s ability to remain in character as he walked to the theater's breaker box to shut off whatever was making that grinding noise in the other room. Perhaps it would be better to shut it off before the show begins next time, it was terribly distracting.

Another notable performance was given by Nate Motz in the role of Mr. Paravicini. His Italian was rather broad, but it suited the character, and he and the Rittenhouses were the only three people who actually looked at ease on the stage. Incidentally, Motz was also a very accommodating waiter.

I would suggest a dialect coach for Marshall Pike, who played Christopher Wren. His role was played with the proper childlike exuberance, but his accent was distracting; it might have been better to forget it, as was the choice made by Chip Lee, who gave a surprisingly good performance in the role of Detective Sergeant Trotter. I say surprising because I have never seen him in anything else locally and he seems well suited for it. I understand that his line of work calls for public speaking.

There was a lot of unneccesary smoking going on, some of it by obvious non-smokers, such as Mindy Skiles in the role of Miss Casewell. If the script does not call specifically for it, it is not needed, and if you don't smoke in real life it is not a good idea to take it up on the stage. Also, Skiles's makeup looked a tad pale--perhaps she was ill from smoking--as did that of Ms. Rittenhouse and Michael Rexrode, who played Major Metcalf. Rexrode had a little trouble as a young man playing an older man, but he did admirably, and Skiles did have a nice mysterious quality about her.

Michelle Liller was properly snooty in the role of Mrs. Boyle, although she had the same age-playing problem as Rexrode. Still, she had a very natural delivery, and she and Lee deserve especially honorable mention for their work.

The rather crude technical aspects of the show were handled by Jarrad Henderson, although I have no idea (with no program) if he was the lighting or set designer. I got the general feeling the technical design was done with little thought beyond function. The lighting needed a bit more pink; the overuse of blue could have been the reason people looked pale. The set was fine, although it would have helped to have light switches (even fake ones) where people were turning on and off the lights. I think it would be a good idea to have Mr. Henderson posted where he can see the stage, particularly because of the radio effects, which were seldom timed correctly.

One can only assume the direction was done by Mr. Rittenhouse, and it seemed generally sensible, if somewhat distracted. The tech aspects could have used a little work, as I have said, part of that problem was because the real stage was not being used.

All in all, it was a very pleasant evening, and one can hardly go wrong with Agatha Christie's scripts and the Red Run Inn's food. I would have appreciated having a program, though. Let's see, there must be a good printing establishment around here somewhere.

W.Va. Man Given Fine For Drug Possession Count

A W.Va. man was found guilty of possession of marijuana and fined by sitting Judge Joseph A. Ciotola in Garrett County District Court last week.

Shawn P. Grove 21, Harpertown, was found guilty of that charge and was fined $100, according to court documents. Charges of possession of marijuana with intent to distribute and possession of drug paraphernalia were not prosecuted by the State's Attorney's Office.

Grove had been charged with those offenses by the Garrett County Sheriff's Office after a deputy had been dispatched to Fingerboard Road for a loud party on August 8. The deputy reportedly observed Grove and several other males standing beside a vehicle. The officer said as he approached the men they began to walk away until he advised them to stop.

The officer said he found a cloth zippered bag lying on the ground near the vehicle. The officer found a metal pipe inside the bag containing suspected marijuana residue, a plastic bag containing three grams of suspected marijuana, $145 in U.S. currency, and a magnifying glass. The deputy also said he observed an open back pack in the vehicle containing a water pipe used for smoking marijuana. A subsequent search of the vehicle revealed two additional bags of suspected marijuana, a roach clip, and a set of portable scales.

In other District Court news, Jackie W. Hinchman, 38, Oakland, was found guilty of a felony bad check charge. He was sentenced to a six-month jail term (all was suspended but time served) and placed on 12 months of supervised probation. The fine was waived.

Hinchman was ordered to pay $473.49 to Piper Building Supply, Inc. He had reportedly written a bad check to that business on May 25.

DWI CASES

A number of DWI (driving while intoxicatad) and DUI (driving while under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs) cases were heard in District Court last week.

Michael E. Evans, 35, Md., was found not guilty of DWI and driving on a license restriction. He was found guilty of failure to drive right of center and was fined $40 for that offense.

Rodney R. Pike III, 22, Md., pleaded guilty to DUI. He was given a 30-day suspended sentence, fined $250, and placed on 12 months of supervised probation.

Larry G. Wilson, 30, Md., was found guilty of DWI and fined $250. He was also placed on one year of supervised probation.

Oakland Man Pleads Guilty To Four Counts Of Burglary; PSI Is Ordered

An Oakland man accused of involvement in several incidents of theft last March pleaded guilty to four counts of burglary in Garrett County Circuit Court last week. Presiding Judge Fred A. Thayer accepted the pleas of Russell W. Slagle, 20, and ordered a pre-sentence investigation.

Slagle was arrested several months ago after he became a prime suspect in a series of breaking and enterings occurring in the Deep Creek Lake area last March. The defendant pleaded guilty of burglary in cases involving the following victims: John A. Ravne on March 26, Joseph G. Lipovich on March 31, William Baranowski on March 16, and Frederick Bright sometime between March 7-19. Stolen from Rayne was a compact disk player, speakers, a stereo receiver, a satellite receiver, 50 compact disks, and two pairs of binoculars. A video cassette player was taken from Lipovich, and Bright lost an antique firearm, two bottles of liquor, and various tools. Baranowski reported the theft of a VCR, cassette AM-FM stereo, and a 12-pack of beer.

A fifth case involving victim Edna Whitley in which speakers were stolen was not prosecuted by order of James Sherbin, state's attorney.

Thayer revoked bail for Slagle and remanded him to the custody of the Garrett County Sheriff pending sentencing.

In other circuit court news, a jury found an Oakland man not guilty of DWI (driving while intoxicated). Christopher S. Tasker, 36, was charged by the sheriff's office with the offense on February 21. His attorney made a motion for acquittal in last week's hearing, but the motion was denied by Thayer.

The jury returned with the verdict of "not guilty" and Tasker was released.

A Friendsville man was found to be in violation of probation and his original four-year sentence was reimposed, according to the court document. John H. Miller, 31, pleaded "no contest" to the charge, which was brought about after he apparently failed to keep in contact with his probation officer concerning a change of address, and after he did not attend an addictions program as ordered.

Miller was originally convicted of breaking and entering in November 1992, having been involved in the illegal entry and subsequent theft of the Friendsville Amoco in June 1992. His original sentence was five years in prison, all but one year suspended. In last week's trial, Thayer reimposed the four-year term.

How To Cope With Hayfever Symptoms

One person in ten has hayfever, a common term for allergic rhinitis. Nasal swelling, congestion, runny nose, watery eyes, itching, and sneezing often occur. Those effected may be sensitive to plant pollens, molds, animal dander, mites in house dust, and other environmental materials. When possible, avoiding these materials is a simple and direct way to prevent hayfever. Archer To Speak On Healthier Year 2000 Next Week

Garrett County Health Officer Dr. Rex. Archer will speak at two public meetings next week, sponsored by the League of Women Voters of Garrett County. The first meeting will be held on Monday, Sept. 27, 7:30 p.m., at the Ruth Enlow Library in Oakland, and the second will be a luncheon meeting at noon on Wednesday, Sept. 29, at Cornish Manor, also in Oakland. The topic, "Garrett Countians for a Healthier Year 2000," will be the same for both meetings, which are set up at two different times to accommodate a broader audience, a league spokesperson said.

At its annual meeting in 1992, the local league voted to support and promote the 12 task forces of the Garrett County Health Department that make up this prevention effort aimed at setting health objectives for the year 2000. The spokesperson explained that the idea is to involve all segments of the community in achieving better health and a healthier environment for all.

She founded the Grantsville 4-H Club, and served as an adult leader for many years. She is a former member of the Grantsville Business and Professional Women's Club, is currently an active member of the Casselman Valley Homemakers' Club, and of the Grantsville Christ Lutheran Church Women.

He is an active board member of and helped to organize the National Pike Festival in Grantsville, an active member of the Grantsville Rotary Club, is president of the Grantsville Cemetery Association, and is district chairperson for the Republican Central Committee in Grantsville.

Mr. Klotz often volunteers with area food banks and frequently checks in on his elderly neighbors to see if they are well, said Vetter. He is a frequent blood donor for the American Red Cross and, in 1984, he received a Lifesaver Commendation award for heroic action from the Woodmen of the World for rescuing a driver from his burning tractor-trailer.

"Their generosity has been steady, and their list of accomplishments is quite long," concluded Vetter, who noted that the couple will be honored at a local ceremony on October 5, at 9 a.m., at the Garrett County Commissioners' meeting room, and will be recognized statewide on November 10 in Annapolis. The Klotzes will also be featured in the annual Autumn Glory parade.

In Loving Memory of
Sally Duckworth Coddington
(9/25/44--11/26/87)
who went home to be with her Lord Thanksgiving Day, November 26, 1987. Because of her faith and trust in the lord Jesus Christ, she now spends eternity in heaven.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore
As time goes by, we miss you more
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can fill your vacant place
We cherish the memories of her smile and laughter, and the contentment she had in life.
Each time we see your picture, you seem to smile and say, "Don't cry, I'm only sleeping
We'll meet again someday."
Loving and remembering her.

In Loving Memory of
Sally Duckworth Coddington
(9/25/44--11/26/87)
who went home to be with her Lord Thanksgiving Day, November 26, 1987. Because of her faith and trust in the lord Jesus Christ, she now spends eternity in heaven.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore
As time goes by, we miss you more
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can fill your vacant place.
We cherish the memories of her smile and laughter, and the contentment she had in life.
Each time we see your picture, you seem to smile and say, "Don't cry, I'm only sleeping
We'll meet again someday."
The Family

"Their generosity has been steady, and their list of accomplishments is quite long," concluded Vetter, who noted that the couple will be honored at a local ceremony on October 5, at 9 a.m., at the Garrett County Commissioners' meeting room, and will be recognized statewide on November 10 in Annapolis. The Klotzes will also be featured in the annual Autumn Glory parade.

In Loving Memory of
Sally Duckworth Coddington
(9/25/44--11/26/87)

who went home to be with her Lord Thanksgiving Day, November 26, 1987. Because of her faith and trust in the lord Jesus Christ, she now spends eternity in heaven.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore
As time goes by, we miss you more
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can fill your vacant place.
We cherish the memories of her smile and laughter, and the contentment she had in life.
Each time we see your picture, you seem to smile and say, "Don't cry, I'm only sleeping
We'll meet again someday."

Rams Blanked By Applemen In Penalty-Ridden Contest

The Southern High Rams dropped to 1-2 on the season last Friday night and were shut out for the second week in a row as they fell to powerful Musselman, 21-0, on the Applemen's gridiron at Bunker Hill, W.Va. The contest was marred with penalties, with referee flags being thrown a total of 24 times resulting in 231 yards lost.

The Rams stayed even with the 3-1 Applemen in first downs and trailed in total offense by less than 100 yards, but could not put the ball into the end zone.

Chris Luttrell opened the scoring by hauling in a 38-yard touchdown pass from Chris Warner in the first quarter and then booting the extra point to make it 7-0.

Another pass from Warner, this time for 15 yards to Mack Canby, gave the home team their second touchdown. Luttrell again kicked the extra point.

The Rams produced their best drive of the contest late in the second quarter, but according to officials the drive was just six inches short of a touchdown when the first half expired.

The third period was all defense, as both teams traded possession several times. Musselman added an insurance score in the fourth quarter with a four-yard touchdown run by Chad Hammond. Luttrell booted his third successful conversion point of the evening.

Leading Musselman's 189-yard rushing attack was John Shifflet, who carried 10 times for 103 yards. Warner connected on five of eight passes for another 83 yards.

David Crosco was the Rams' leading ground gainer as he recorded 65 yards on nine carries.

"We really didn't play that badly," stated Southern Coach Fred Gregg. "If we had gotten that touchdown right before halftime and just been down 14-6 or 14-8 at halftime, it might have given us enough of a boost to come back and win the game.

"We kept shooting ourselves in the foot with the penalties, but the kids really did play very hard," he said. "If we can play with that same level of intensity every week, we will be successful in most of our games."

The Rams will face still another formidable opponent this week when they host Keyser, a 2-2 team that is not of the same calibre as Musselman, but could pose real problems for a Southern squad that is literally racked with both injuries and illness.

"We had 16 kids missing from practice Monday afternoon," Coach Gregg stated, noting that about half of them are injured and the other half were out of school with the flu.

Among the players who are definitely out of the Ram line-up this week are Josh Woods (ankle), Andy Woods (knee), Josh Hinebaugh (foot), and Fabrice DuFour (shoulder). Listed as "doubtful" or questionable" are Mark Elliott (neck) and Scott Dawson (ankle).

"The situation is really getting serious for us," Gregg said. "You can fill in and move people around only so much, and when you have a small roster to begin with, the loss of just a few kids makes it extremely difficult."

The Rams who are able to take the field Friday night will face one of the largest teams on their schedule, as the Golden Tornado line includes several players well over 200 pounds.

Keyser's pro-I slot-I offense is led by its junior quarterback, Aaron Sanders (5-11, 155).

"Sanders is a very good team leader, a good runner, and he can throw the ball," Gregg said.

His favorite target is junior tight end slot Robert Redman (6-3, 200), while sophomore tailback Corey Shoemaker (5-8, 140) leads the rushing attack.

The Tornado's 5-2 monster defense is led by a "monster" nose guard in 6-4, 280-pound senior Marshall Richardson and tackles Jared Keplinger (6-1, 260), a sophomore, and Nathan Junkins (6-2, 250), a senior.

"These kids aren't overweight," Gregg said. "They are really tall and wide."

Despite the size of the defensive line, Gregg believes the real strength of the Keyser defense lies with a pair of senior linebackers Jason Sanders (6-0, 190) and Anthony Hofstad (5-10, 170).

"They are two excellent football players," he said.

Gregg said the keys to victory for the Rams will be for the defense to control Sanders with lots of pressure and the offense to be able to run on the perimeters.

"If we don't keep pressure on Sanders, then he's going to have a field day out there," Gregg said. "Offensively, we are going to have to find a way to run outside because there's going to be just too much size and strength in the way up the middle."

Keyser's losses have come at the hands of Musselman and Bishop Walsh. Its two victories have been over Tucker County and, last Friday, over Sherando.

The kickoff at the Southern athletic field this Friday night will be at 7:30 p.m.

Regular Racing Season Ends At Cumberland

The Cumberland Raceway closed the regular racing season with R.G.'s Food Shops and Pepsi-Cola Night. There were 76 cars in the pits and all features had inverted starts.

Chuck Harper, who made a first-time 2-hour trip from Beverly, W.Va., got his first win in the Late Models. Harper received a $250 bonus, trophy, two jackets, pizza, mug, gas, a case of Pepsi and a T-shirt presented by Wayne Droll of R.G.'s Food Shops. Jack Pencil, of Bedford, Pa., got his first win this year at Cumberland in the Semi-Late Feature. Pencil received a $150 bonus and the same goodies from R.G.'s and Pepsi. Denny Sponaugle, of Wiley Ford, W.Va., got his second win in the Pure Stock Feature, a $50 bonus and the same goodies from R.G.'s and Pepsi.

In the Late Model Feature, Scott Brode, from the outside pole position, took the lead, with Chuck Harper behind him. Brode held off Harper for 15 laps before lapped traffic came into play. Harper, who was flying in the high groove, got by Brode on lap 16 for the lead and went on for the win. Tom Clise, who started tenth, also got by Brode for second place. Harper, who took a total of $1,100, and all the gifts said he liked the big race track and everyone treated him so nice here. Behind Brode, who finished third, was Todd Price, Wayne Johnson, Bob Salathe, J.R. Keifer, Larry Wright, Chris Harr and Carl Shaffer. The most chilling moment was when Greg Tressler, #13, caught on fire on the front stretch. Tressler drove the car to turn two in a ball of fire before getting out. Luckily he was not injured. Heat winners were Tom Clise and Bob Salathe. Flanagan Enterprises, of Fort Ashby, W.Va., gave Scott Brode an extra $25.

In the Semi-Late Feature, Allen Buckley led for six laps before Jack Pencil, who had not won this year at Cumberland, came from sixth to take the lead on lap seven, held off the field through five cautions, and got his first win at the Cumberland Raceway. Behind Pencil was Bob Elbin, Allen Buckley, Jerry Robinson, who started tenth, got fourth, followed by Jim Deneen, Mike Altobelli, Lynn Ogden, Jim Sacco Jr., John Hedges, and Gene Furlow. Heat winners were Jim Deneen and Jerry Robinson.

In the Pure Stock Feature, John Malcolm led for two laps before Denny Sponaugle came from seventh place to take the lead on lap three. Action began when Greg Fuller and Wade Peer, from the middle of the pack, came charging to the front in pursuit of Sponaugle. It was blanket racing and anyone's race, but Sponaugle held up under pressure for the win. Wade Peer finished second, followed by Greg Fuller, Troy Harrison, George McGee, Johnny Harr, Darras Deneen, J.R. Isner, Bill Buchanan and John Malcolm. Heat winners were Wade Peer, Greg Fuller and Troy Harrison. The Consy winner was Darras Deneen. A & B Metal Fabricators, of Cresaptown, gave a $25 bonus to the first, second, and third place finishers in the Pure Stock Feature.

This year's season ended with the closest Point Race ever at the Cumberland Raceway. Track champions are Scott Brode, Late Models; Mike Altobelli, Semi-Lates; and Greg Fuller, Pure Stocks.

October 9 is the Queen City 50 for Late Models plus Semi-Lates. Rain date is October 10. Gates open at 3:30 p.m.

Huskies Fall 19-12 In Battle Of The Unbeatens

In a battle of two of the area's top unbeaten teams Friday night in Frostburg, the Northern Huskies dropped a 19-12 decision to the Beall Mountaineers.

The Huskies went into the contest as the area's third ranked team, while the Mountaineers were rated number two. The wet, foggy conditions seemed to be more of a hindrance to Tom Vent's Huskies, who rely heavily upon their passing game, while Beall prefers to keep the ball on the ground. The conditions resulted in a number of turnovers by each team, as the Huskies fumbled the ball away twice and Beall lost it three times by the fumble.

The contest was a key Region 1 Class 1A match-up, and the two teams could conceivably meet each other again in the playoffs.

A 31-yard touchdown run by Beall's Adam Patterson at the 8:41 mark of the first quarter, followed by a successful conversion kick by Walker Chapman, yielded the only points of the first half. The touchdown capped a four-play, 52-yard drive.

First Quarter

B-Adam Patterson 31 run (Walker Chapman kick).

Third Quarter

B-Mike Determan 33 pass from Jason Feagley (run failed).

N-Tim Hinebaugh 84 kickoff return (run failed).

Fourth Quarter

N-Derek Mason 8 run (pass failed).

B-Todd Vogtman 80 kickoff return (kick failed).

The Mountaineers nearly scored on their next possession, as Jason Feagley hit Phil Carter with a 48-yard pass and Chad Cutter added a 12-yard run to put the ball on the Huskies' three-yard line. But the Huskies forced the first of three Mountaineer fumbles and took possession.

The Huskies' ensuing drive was stopped abruptly when Feagley picked off Derek Mason's pass and returned it 50 yards. Mason made a touchdown-saving tackle on Northern's three-yard line.

Two plays later, Northern's Alan Sebold jumped on an errant pitch-out to squelch another Beall threat.

Another outstanding defensive play by the Huskies took away still another Beall scoring opportunity late in the second quarter when Rob Speicher picked off Feagley's aerial after Beall had driven to Northern's 14.

Beall finally scored its second touchdown in the third period by taking the second-half kickoff and moving 53 yards to the end zone. The touchdown was recorded on a 33-yard pass from Feagley to Mike Determan. The run for the two-point conversion failed, despite the fact that the Huskies were called twice for encroachment.

The Huskies got right back in the game moments later when Tim Hinebaugh took the next kickoff and returned the ball 84 yards for a touchdown. The two-point conversion run was stopped short, making the score 13-6.

Another Beall drive in the fourth quarter was halted once again by a fumble and the Huskies responded with a 73-yard touchdown drive, capped by an eight-yard run by Mason with 10:12 left in the game. Mason's pass for the two-point conversion, which would have put the Huskies on top by one, was incomplete.

The single-point deficit was short-lived, however, as Todd Vogtman took the ensuing kickoff and raced 80 yards for Beall's final touchdown. The kick for the conversion was no good, leaving the Huskies in a position to come back for a touchdown and a winning two-point conversion.

However, the Huskies' final drive of the night ended on the Beall 35-yard line with 6:38 left on the clock when Alan Sebold was stripped of the ball by Carter. The Mountaineers managed to run out the clock with 11 plays and three first downs, as the game ended with the ball on Northern's 10-yard line.

Sebold was named the Most Valuable Offensive Player of the Week by the Northern coaching staff, Larry Wakefield was selected Most Valuable Defensive Player, and Tim Hinebaugh was the Most Valuable Special Teams Player of the Week.

"I thought it was a great high school football game," stated Coach Vent. "Obviously it didn't come out the way we wanted it, but we were very happy with the way our kids played. Beall's a very good team. I'm still not convinced they are better than we are, but they were Friday night. We may get another shot at them in the playoffs.

"I think the bad weather conditions was more advantageous for them because we really wanted to pass the ball a lot," he said. "But I'm not about to blame the weather for our loss."

Vent said his team emerged from the contest relatively injury-free, with the exception of several nagging injuries.

The Huskies will be the favorite this week when they travel to Turkeyfoot on Saturday afternoon, but Vent is not about to chalk up a win before the game.

"Turkeyfoot is not anywhere near the calibre of a Beall team, but they have absolutely nothing to lose when they play us," he said. "They are coming off a win over Notre Dame and they consider us a big rival. I'm sure they will be very ready to play us Saturday afternoon."

Turkeyfoot topped Notre Dame last week behind a 180-yard performance by tailback McClintock.

Alan Sebold
Most Valuable Offensive Player of the Week

Larry Wakefield
Most Valuable Defensive Player of the Week

Tim Hinebaugh
Most Valuable Special Teams Player of the Week

"We've had a tough week of practice so far," Vent said. "Too many of our kids aren't focused very well right now. We need to just take it one game at a time."

NHS Jayvees Fall To Fort Hill And Beall

The Northern High junior varsity football team dropped a pair of games this past week, losing to the visiting Fort Hill jayvees Saturday, 22-0, and then falling to the Beall jayvees Monday, 22-8, also at Northern.

Jason Lancaster opened the scoring for Fort Hill on Saturday with a one-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. Sparky Sharpless followed with two touchdowns, the first on a three-yard run and the second on a 40-yard pass reception from Brandon Davis.

Defensive standouts for the Huskies were Mike Holiday and Cody Brenneman. Brian Heslop and Bill Spiker paced the offense.

The Huskies led Beall 8-6 at halftime on Monday after a 40-yard touchdown run by Heslop and a two-point conversion pass in the second quarter. Beall had taken a 6-0 lead in the first period on a 10-yard touchdown run by Ryan Patterson.

Steelers Roll Over Jets, 21-0, In Youth Play

The Northern Steelers remained unbeaten in Mountaintop Youth Football League competition Saturday night by blanking the host Oakland Jets, 21-0.

The Steelers put their first points on the board in the first quarter when John Snelling picked off a Chad Warnick pass and ran it back 43 yards for a touchdown. Jimmy Warnick hauled in Scott Sisler's pass for the conversion.

The Steelers made it 14-0 in the second quarter when Brad Mason capped a drive with a two-yard scoring run and then also ran for the conversion.

After a scoreless third period, Mason added an insurance touchdown for Northern on a seven-yard run and T.J. Snelling successfully ran for the conversion.

Mason finished with 140 yards on 26 carries, while John Snelling picked up 49 yards on seven attempts.

Defensive standouts for the Steelers were John Snelling and Warnick, who each grabbed an interception, while Andy McKenzie and Mason were each credited with a fumble recovery.

Instead of being idle this week, the Steelers will travel to Cumberland to take on the K of C Saints of the Queen City Football League at Bishop Walsh High School in an exhibition game Saturday, beginning at 10 a.m.

The Jets will play this Sunday afternoon at Parsons, W.Va.

NHS Volleyball Team Defeats Campers, Rams

The Northern High School girls' volleyball team upped its record to 3-0 this past week by defeating visiting Allegany Monday evening, 3-2, and then rolling over arch rival Southern last night in Oakland, 3-0.

The Huskies came out strong against Allegany on Monday and streaked to a 9-1 lead in the first game. The Campers came back to cut the gap to 11-9, but the Huskies put it away with service points by Stephanie Kamp to win 15-10.

After taking a 7-2 lead in the second game, Allegany again came back to trail 7-5. Kamp's serving provided five more unanswered points and Kaindi Buckel sealed the 15-8 win with an ace.

The lead exchanged sides several times in the third game, with Allegany coming out on top, 15-10, behind a five-point effort by Jennifer Yarnell.

Allegany led all the way in the fourth game, with Anna Murray recording seven service points in the 15-11 Camper victory.

The Huskies were ahead 3-2 in the deciding game before scoring 11 straight points. Lisa Stephens wrapped up the game (15-4) and the match with an ace.

Kamp led all scorers with 34 service points, as she recorded 42 good serves out of 43 attempts. Ellida Schofield added eight points, while Stephens and Buckel each finished with seven. Stephens also had 11 spikes, three kills, and a pair of blocks. Amy Platter provided nine spikes and seven kills, and Schofield and Kamp each had seven spikes.

The Northern junior varsity was also victorious in the preliminary match, topping the Alco jayvees, 15-3 and 15-6. Mindy McCarty scored 13 points including three aces to lead the Huskies. Nikki Elliott had eight points, all aces, and Sarah Beitzel finished with eight service aces.

The Huskies had little trouble disposing of the Southern Rams last night, as they won the first two games by scores of 15-1 and took the third, 15-9.

Kamp again paced the Huskies with 16 service points, while Lisa Harvey and Marlena Whitacre recorded four each for the Rams, who dropped to 1-3 on the season.

The Northern jayvee won the preliminary match, 15-4 and 15-4, with Noelle Collins leading the scoring for the Huskies. Katie Glotfelty was the top scorer for Southern.

The 3-0 Huskies will play at Beall Monday when Southern will travel to Fort Hill.

A WINNING TRADITION in volleyball has been established at Northern High School by Coachee Vonda and Bob Yunker and the past several varsity and junior varsity teams, and the Huskies have taken the court again this year as one of the area's teams to beat. GCC Volleyball Team Ups Season Record To 8-2

The Garrett Community College women's volleyball team upped its season mark to 8-2 this past week by splitting a tri-match last Thursday at home and then winning another three-team event Monday evening at Westmoreland.

The Lakers crushed Penn State-New Kensington last Thursday, 15-1 and 15-3, before falling to Hagerstown Junior College, 18-16, 15-3, and 15-3.

Rebecca Few led the Lakers in the first game against New Kensington with 11 service points, including one ace. Sheila Butt had six service points and three aces in the second game.

The Lakers also breezed past Penn State-Beaver Monday night at Westmoreland, winning 15-4 and 15-3.

Wanda Swartzwelder had five service points for the Lakers in the first game, while Dawn Deshong recorded five in the second game.

Garrett then topped Westmoreland, 15-6 and 15-7, behind a six-point effort by Few in the first game and a six-point performance in the second one.

Sheila Butt went 36-for-36 in service receptions and had seven assists.

The Lakers will host Charles CC this Friday.

More Experienced Spartans Defeat Rams In Soccer

In the third outing of an inaugural season, the Southern High soccer team was exposed to some of the most well-honed skills in the region at Bishop Walsh last Saturday. The Rams were defeated 9-3, as their season mark dipped to 1-2.

The game began with the Rams in control in front of the home squad's net. The intense pressure resulted in some panic by the Spartans that caused a reactionary hand ball foul in the penalty area. Junior midfielder Derek Spirk was called upon to take the kick which he quickly buried low into the left corner of the net. His fourth goal of the season put the Rams unexpectedly on top, 1-0.

The Rams' defense was effective for the first eight minutes, having caught the Spartans in their offside trap eight times, but the much more experienced BW team settled down and began its offensive attack.

The next five goals were scored by the Spartans almost at will when they adjusted and repeatedly broke the offside trap. Scoring first for BW was Jason Helmstetter, followed by two goals each by Gerardo Sasia and Jeff Harbel.

But the Rams refused to quit, and with 10 minutes left in the first half, sophomore forward Danny Nelson broke up an outlet pass and took the ball back at the BW net. He hit a hard shot toward the right post that deflected off a defender where another sophomore forward Joey DiSimone picked up the ball and jammed a hard shot low and to the left of keeper Andy Tichnell for the second Rams talley and DiSimone's third goal of the year.

BW responded with one more goal by Sasia with just two minutes left in the half.

The second half opened with two quick goals by Spartan Ryan Steiner, another by Helmstetter, and a final net by Ryan Nelson with 25 minutes left in the period.

The Rams never lost their intensity as just five minutes later Danny Nelson redirected a crossing pass from DiSimone past a frozen BW keeper. The goal was Nelson's second of the year.

Southern Coach Tom Powers commented that he was "pleased" with the outing in spite of the lopsided score.

"The kids grow and improve every time we put them on the field," he said. "It's fun to watch them demonstrate what we practice and it's really nice to see them learn and try things they see our opponents do against us. Our first year has to be a learning season for all of us and we're more competitive than anyone thought we'd be. The team should feel great about the BW coach's comments after the game. He said they almost never have three goals scored on them and was very complimentary of the heart our kids displayed."

The Rams will play again this evening at home against Beall. Game time is 7:30 p.m. The first home game of the season saw nearly 300 fans in attendance. In a preseason tournament held at Alleghany Community College Beall and Southern tied 1-1.

Soccer Passes Available For Fair Winners

Those who were declared winners at the fair booth "Beat the Keeper" sponsored by the Mountaintop Soccer Association may pick up their soccer passes at the gate this evening, Sept. 23, at the Southern vs. Beall soccer game.

Season passes and single game passes will be available to those who identify themselves as a "Beat the Keeper" winner and are listed on the winners' record as submitted by Ned Holloway, fair booth coordinator.

The same procedure will apply for Northern winners at the Huskies' first home soccer game.

Youth Soccer Coaches Learn From Ramsay

Over a dozen coaches from the Mountaintop Soccer Association (MSA) spent all day Sunday, September 19, honing their skills in a clinic offered by Graham Ramsay, director of education and training for the Maryland State Youth Soccer Association (MSYSA).

Taking part in the local session were Jann Dehus, Jan Finkel, Ned Holloway, Mary Lantz, Karen Metheny, Dennis Murray, Adele Naylor, Paul Naylor, Bill Pope, Allen Rush, Karl Schwalm, Paul Stone, Tim Taylor, and Gerald Wildeson. As a result of their participation, these coaches will receive their MSYSA Community "F" licenses.

Formerly a professional player in England and now a coach who travels around the United States and the world, Ramsay has firm and well-founded beliefs about soccer, according to one clinic participant, especially when it comes to presenting it to children. "Fundamental to his thinking is that soccer is a game to be played and enjoyed," the participant said. "To make that happen, he gets children to forget about the scoring of goals and how to get clever with the ball."

Ramsay teaches skills and techniques in the form of games, many of which are variations of tag. He says, in fact, that "any coach with a sufficient supply of tag-type games is more than ready to get the game of soccer across to children." Recognizing that soccer is less than familiar to most Americans, Ramsay likens the game to the more recognizable basketball, football, and so on. In any case, he says footwork is all-important and must be developed. As Ramsay notes, "A basketball player handles the ball about four minutes in a 40-minute game, but spends the entire 40 minutes on the feet."

Comments about Ramsay's clinic were all positive and enthusiastic. One clinic participant remarked having found out "just how much I don't know, and I played in high school and college."

Another said, I'm new to this and was happy to have a couple of my hunches confirmed."

"I can't wait to get to practice," concluded another.

The MSA plans to have another clinic next spring.

DCL Soccer Team Defeated By Pigs, And The Referees

The Deep Creek Lake Soccer Club traveled to Cumberland Sunday for the second time in as many weeks for a game against When Pigs Fly of Frostburg. The Pigs won the contest, 4-2, on the Allegany Community College field, as the teen referees lost control of the game and allowed the players to influence their calls.

The match progressed normally through the first quarter, as Deep Creek was clearly in control of play. Mike Hoffeditz touched Steve Prosser's cross from the left side and Mike Seibert drove the ball to the back of the net from 18 yards out to give Deep Creek a 1-0 16 minutes into the game.

Frostburg responded with a goal two minutes later and the quarter ended in a 1-1 tie.

In the second period a Frostburg player was sent off the field, but a substitution was allowed by the referees. In the 25th minute, the Pigs were awarded a penalty shot after a well-executed slide tackle by a Deep Creek player. The goal was scored, giving Frostburg a 2-1 lead.

Deep Creek was awarded a penalty shot after a hand ball by a Pig, but the shot sailed over the cross bar and the half ended with Frostburg on top.

The Pigs took a 3-1 lead with a goal in the third period. Another Frostburg player was then sent off after he knocked a Deep Creek player to the ground, but again the referees allowed a substitution.

Frostburg was awarded another penalty shot on a questionable call in the fourth quarter and took a 4-1 advantage.

The final point of the game came after a Deep Creek player was kicked by a Pig. Jason Ostrander scored on the opportunity to make the final score 4-2.

"Representatives of teams in the Adult Soccer League need to reach a new agreement on officials," stated Ned Holloway of the Deep Creek Club. "Nine penalty kick situations in two games is unacceptable, and this number does not account for what happened in the other six games played over the last two weekends."

Deep Creek (1-1) will play on the road again this Sunday, Sept. 26, against Whit's Pizza of Barton on the former Bruce High School field. Kickoff is set for 1 p.m.

Historican Succumbs

The Mountaintop, with Dr. B.B. Maurer. She was also the author of St. Paul's History, used for the church's 150th anniversary celebration in Accident. Additionally, she authored the history of Accident titled The Flowery Vale. The book described the love of her native birthplace and the people from the time of the first settlers, the James Drane family, to the present.

Since the early 1950's, Mrs. Strauss had an active interest in the restoration of the Drane House, the earliest residence in Garrett County. She made possible the placing of the house on the National Registry of Historical Homes. Prior to her death, she had noted that her dreams and many years of hard work were rewarded when the actual restoration of the Drane House began in 1992.

Mrs. Strauss wrote one other book on The History of the Hoyes Community. That book was never published, but the manuscript is available at the Accident Branch of the Ruth Enlow Library.

A life member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church ELCA in Accident, she was a former choir director, youth leader, and taught Sunday school for many years.

Survivors include her husband, Charles Strauss Sr., Accident; one son, Charles Strauss Jr., Peach Tree City, Ga.; one daughter, Nancy Umbel, Fort Ashby, W.Va.; three brothers, Emmert Miller, Keymar; Paul Miller, Accident; and Robert Miller, Salisbury; three sisters, Helen Ault, Accident; Gladys Wisowaty, Baltimore, and Kathleen Smith, Towson; and four grandchildren.

There was no viewing and Mrs. Strauss willed her body to science at the University of West Virginia Medical Center.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, September 25, at 11 a.m. at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Accident, with the Rev. Stephen Yelovich, the Rev. William Carlson, Emeritus, and the Dr. B.B. Maurer officiating.

The family requests that no flowers be sent for the memorial service and suggests that memorial donations be sent to the St. Paul's Lutheran Church Building Fund or to the Ruth Enlos Library, Accident Branch, in memory of Mrs. Strauss.

Mathcad, Minitab, and Wordperfect. The grant award of $100,000 in the first year of funding will provide new computers and technology for the Mathematics Department of Garrett Community College with the second and third years of funding providing 20 laptop computers and three 486DX computers to Southern and Northern high schools. The grant will also fund a series of workshops on the Garrett Community College Campus by national experts in the teaching of mathematics through computers and technology. All workshops are open to the public.

The first workshop presenter will be Martha Aliaga on September 24 and 25 who will speak about "Preparing all Students for Understanding Calculus." Aliaga is an instructor of mathematics at the University of Michigan and uses cooperative learning and demonstration techniques to teach concepts necessary for success in calculus.

The second workshop presenter will be Ted Gardella on September 4 and 5, to speak about the role of teachers as facilitator in the mathematics classroom. Gardella is a lead instructor for Algebra I, Tune in Math and Science for the GMI Engineering and Management Institute in Flint, Michigan.

The third workshop presenter will be Rachel McAnallen from the University of Vermont who will be on campus for one week starting May 22, 1994. She will work with teachers in the use of geometry manipulative and then go into the classrooms to work with students while teachers observe. In conjunction with the workshops presented by national experts, a series of in-service workshops will be held on the GCC Campus for participants.

The 12 teacher participants from Garrett County are John McBride, Jim Zimmerman, Bonnie Langan, George Grove, Karen Thrasher, Christina Harvey, Jacquelyn Noe, Bill Carlson, Jane Wildersen, Don Lipscomb, Carol Slagle, and Donna Durst. The three instructors from Garrett Community College participating in the program are Louise Grove, Matthew Glotfelty, and Judith Ramer.

The participants will be assisted during the program by student mentors from Garrett Community College: Linda May Gerard, Tim Foster, Kim Durst, Richard Kariuka, Terri Hockman, Jim Garner, Rebecca Few, and Sungvien Smith. Persons desiring further information regarding the grant and the in-service training, may contact Nancy Priselac at (301) 387-3045.

Japanese Visitors Welcomed By Salem Children's Trust

Among the places visited recently by 12 Japanese business and church men and women recently was the Maryland Salem Children's Trust in Grantsville.

The purpose of their visit was to learn about community outreach programs they might wish to replicate when they return home, according to a group spokesperson.

Hosted by St. John's Episcopal Church, Frostburg, members of St. Timothy's Episcopal Church, Tokyo, visited their sister church September 10-18 to gather information on how the Japanese church might better serve the Tokyo community by providing specialized services not currently available.

The group visited Frost Village, Frostburg Nursing Home, and the Tressler Lutheran Day Care Center in Midland to explore care for the elderly. They also visited the Frostburg Inter-Faith Community Pantry and Salem Children's Trust in Grantsville. They took a day trip to Morgantown to visit Mountain View Rehabilitation Hospital, the Ronald McDonald House, and the neighboring children's hospital. Sightseeing tours included the Frostburg State University campus, Penn Alps, and Cooper's Rock State Park.

At a potluck luncheon on Sunday, September 12, Delegate Betty Workman from Allegany County extended greetings from Governor William Donald Schaefer. Mayor Harry Bowman welcomed the group to Frostburg. During the afternoon, the visitors met with regional leaders from the Episcopal Diocese of Maryland.

Led by Father Andrew Ohata, his wife Atuko, and their sons, Satoasi, Makoto, and Sinobu, the group was made up of church leaders, retired business executives, and medical personnel. Included were Mutsumo Yamanaka, Takeo Sato, Seinosuke Inui, Kazuko Iizuka, Mutoko Arai, Miyoko Hanawa, and Yasuko Usuki.

After leaving Frostburg, the group traveled to Baltimore and Washington, D.C. where they visited a soup kitchen, a hospice, and the Baltimore Ronald McDonald House. They also toured the Baltimore and National cathedrals where they were welcomed by church leaders.

THE ART OF ORIGAMI was shared recently with the residents and staff of Salem Children's Trust by Fr. Andrew Ohata, right, and his wife, Atuko Ohata, left. They were part of a group of Japanese church and business leaders who came to American to learn about church and community outreach programs. They were hosted by their sister church, St. John's Episcopal, Frostburg. Ohata pastors St. Timothy's in Tokyo. See story.

LOAR AUXILIARY HOLDS FUN FEST - The Loar Auxiliary of Garrett County Memorial Hospital recently held a Fun Fest on the grounds of the hospital to familiarize the community with the auxiliary and the role they play at Garrett Memorial, according to Betty Pritt, auxiliary president. "Although funds were raised from the event that will benefit the hospital, the main purpose of holding the Fun Fest was to give the community a better understanding of what the auxiliary does and to hopefully recruit volunteers," she stated. The primary role of the Auxiliary is to generate funds and donate them for the use and advancement of Garrett Memorial. The main source of funds is through sales from its gift shop located in the hospital, supplemented by bake sales and yard sales. Persons wishing to become Auxiliary volunteers may call 334-2155, ext. 233, or stop by the gift shop located in the lobby of the hospital to fill out an application. Below, the main event of the Fun Fest was the chili cook-off. Shown is Chuck Nolan, a former resident of New Mexico, sampling his chili. Oakland residents Irene Sigel and Lee McDaniel were the first place winners of the event, while Jim Harvey, Deep Creek Lake, placed second. Other features of the event included Bingo and a flea market and book sale held by VIVA volunteers at the hospital. Entertainment was provided throughout the day by Kimberly Grimm Weimer, former Miss Maryland; the Crellin Assembly of God Youth Choir, Ben Sincell, Hammers and Strings, and Brenda a Body Shop.

Tenth Rabies Case Confirmed By GC Health Dept.

The Garrett County Health Department reported the 10th rabies case in Garrett County for 1993 last week. According to Tina Buckel, sanitarian for the health department, the confirmed rabid animal was a raccoon.

The raccoon apparently came onto a property located along Silver Knob Road and fought with three dogs. The Garrett County Sheriff's Office responded to the call but the dogs had killed the animal by the time the deputy arrived. The deputy responded quickly and appropriately, Buckel said, by giving the owner of the property a pair of gloves to wear as protection while placing three exposed dogs into a caged area. The owner of the property also washed his hands immediately after the incident, thus preventing any human exposure in the incident. The three dogs involved with the rabid raccoon had to be euthanized.

Buckel wished to remind the public of the importance of not handling pets for at least two hours after contact with a wild animal, or to wear gloves, as in this case. The rabies virus is transmitted through the saliva of the infected animal and can survive on the fur coat of a pet for up to two hours after a confrontation.

SAVED BY THE BELT - The young driver of this demolished 1981 Subaru fortunately sustained only minor injuries in a dramatic crash Tuesday afternoon, which occurred at approximately 4:10 p.m. on Old Crellin Road. Michael P. Glotfelty Jr., 16, Oakland, was operating the vehicle northbound when he slipped off the shoulder on the right side and lost control in returning to the roadway. According to a Garrett County Sheriff's Office report, the vehicle crossed the center line, struck a tree, spun around, and hit a second tree. The Garrett County Rescue Squad and the Oakland Volunteer Fire Department responded to the scene along with Cpl. L. Gnegy of the sheriff's office. Glotfelty was transported to Garrett Memorial Hospital where he was treated and released. Cpl. Gnegy said the accident could have been a tragic one, had the driver not been wearing his seat belt. Glotfelty was cited with negligent driving and failure to keep right of center, according to a sheriff's office report. There were no passengers in the vehicle.

The Garrett County Health Department is currently sponsoring a series of low cost rabies clinics through Saturday, September 27. Cats and dogs three months of age and older are eligible for rabies protection. For more information persons may call 334-8980.

Time To Display Festival Bunting

The Autumn Glory Festival Committee reminds county businesses that it's time once again to display their Autumn Glory Festival bunting. The festival will be held on Thursday, Oct. 14, through Sunday, Oct. 17, in downtown Oakland and throughout the county.

Those who wish to purchase a set of bunting may contact Marvin's Men's Wear at 334-9211.

For more information or a free schedule of events, persons may contact Festival Headquarters, Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion Council, Courthouse, 200 South Third Street, Oakland, MD 21550; telephone 334-1948.

"WHO'LL OPEN THE BID?" Inquires auctioneer Jim Teets of the lovely vase donated by Grand Central Station of Oakland. Teets was the auctioneer for Bausch and Lomb, Inc. which held a benefit auction, food, bake, and craft sale this past Saturday for the Rotary Christmas basket project for the needy. Oakland Rotary project chairman Dr. Dave Bolinger indicated the proceeds would benefit the club's Christmas food basket project held each year to benefit needy families all over Garrett County - from Bloomington to Finzel. Below, B & L employees dish up sloppy joes and chili dogs for the hundreds of people who attended the benefit. "Bausch & Lomb has always helped us with this project, but this auction and sale idea has been great," stated Bolinger. "Through their generosity, we'll be able to help many more families during the holiday season."

FAMOUS ROTARY FRIES were a big hit at the Bausch and Lomb, Inc. benefit auction and sale this past Saturday as that company raised funds for the Rotary Christmas Basket project to help feed the needy in Garrett County at Christmas time. Below, a mom scans the yummy baked goods donated by B & L employees at the bake sale as her curious youngster picks her favorites. It was reported that a framed, autographed Mark Stutzman Elvis stamp went for $350, purchased by Bausch and Lomb, which will now raffle off the item for even more profit for the Rotary project. Unofficial reports indicate that over $5,000 was raised for the project at Saturday's event.

Sheriff's Office Warns Public Of Bad Check Scam

The Garrett County Sheriff's Office this week issued a warning to the local public concerning an apparent bad check scam underway in the area. The officers are currently investigating the theft scheme, and any person who may have information about it is urged to contact the office at 334-1911.

According to Major Harland Tichnell and Det. Jeff Murphy, there are two women involved in the scheme, and one of the two is suspected to have written numerous bad checks. The name she has been using on the bad checks is "Belane Arvai" or "Maria Arvai." The woman accompanying her is using the name "Odette Koroknia." She is not accused of writing any of the false checks, but is reportedly traveling with Arvai.

Any person who has received a check signed with any of these names should contact the sheriff's office immediately. They will be asked to bring the check to the office so that it may be included in the investigation.

The Office of

will be closed
Thursday, September 30, 1993 &
Friday, October 1, 1993.
The office will reopen on Monday, and responsibilities, and to promote expansion of educational and employment opportunities.

Along with the formal proposal, Trickett and Callis also presented to the commissioners a draft of the bill needed to enable the county to establish the local commission. The details of that bill have not yet been made available, however, as the commissioners have requested that minor changes be written into it.

"It was not something I wanted to put in as a regular county budget item," stated Commissioner Brenda Butscher. "We've had concerns about funding the commission -- especially in these hard economic times -- but we have agreed to establish the commission with the understanding that mechanisms will be put into place that will allow the commission to raise its own funds.

"The big selling point for me was the shelter for abused women. We need one in Garrett County."

Callis stressed that "any and all women will benefit from this commission." She also reported that the commission will prove invaluable as "more and more women are raising chiklren alone, and are having to play the role of both mother and financial provider."

Trickett reported that Garrett County has now become the 14th local jurisdiction in Maryland to establish the commission chapter.

Along with Trickett and Callis, 10 local citizens have been selected to serve on the commission. They are Earleena Tressler, president of the Grantsville Business and Professional Women; Darryl Walters, public defender's office; Sue Shockey, Private Industry Council; Donna Shafer, student; Debbie Holler, Domestic Violense, Sexual Assault Center; Bonnie Tucker, Garrett County Courthouse; Sue Sines, New Horizons; Deanna Groves, Junior Women's Civic Club; Beverly Beard, Social Services; and Susan Athey-Oxford, Office of Children, Youth, and Families.

School Report

be held liable in a bad situation," Ryscavage said.

"This problem is not going to go away," said Beverly Murphy, board president. "We need to talk with our delegation about solving it."

Later in the meeting, Thomas Shaffer, Garrett County Teachers Association (GCTA) UNISERV director, addressed the board on behalf of teachers regarding the mainstreaming of the special needs children in the regular classroom.

"Teachers are deeply concerned and frustrated with this totally new instructional experience," Shaffer said. "While the Association does support inclusion of mainstreaming of these students, it should be accomplished in instructionally appropriate individual education plan settings. We, however, strongly insist that several conditions be met."

Shaffer elaborated on the conditions, first stating that regular and special students as well as their teachers need preparation time through appropriate transitional experiences and guidance, and secondly that appropriate and adequate resources in materials, equipment, and support personnel, including school nurses, be provided. He also suggested modifications in class size, scheduling, and curriculum, redesigned to accommodate the demands placed on school personnel as a result of the inclusion actions.

"We as teachers, school board members, and professional staff must not forget that effective teaching needs effective training," Shaffer said. "This is a totally new experience for many teachers and deserves this board's immediate attention." He then suggested that some minimal funds that had been tacitly approved for capital improvement be otherwise utilized in obtaining the services of a school nurse.

Board members did not directly respond to Shaffer, but did agree that more attention will have to be given this situation.

Ryscavage continued with the opening of school report, noting that transportation for students has been operating "relatively smoothly," with just two overload situations to be worked out. The boiler replacement at Northern High is underway, the old boilers having been completely removed. The space is now being prepared for the new boilers which should be installed by Oct. 1.

An extension of the completion date for the Southern High lockers was granted by the school board. The delay is apparently the result of the actual lockers, which will not be shipped as originally scheduled. Originally set for Sept. 20, the job is now set for completion in mid-October.

Ann Sherrard, dietician with the health department, met with the board to provide a Food Service Advisory Committee report. She told board members that last year's changes to the "a la carte" items were successful and are being continued this year. The change involved a movement away from unhealthful foods such as various "chips" and cookies toward more well-balanced offerings such as fresh vegetables and bottled water.

"We are anticipating new products for the a la carte menu," Sherrard said, explaining that the advisory committee contacted student council members at both high schools and Northern middle and had the students sample and rank several new foods. The students were also asked to suggest prices for the items, and Sherrard noted that the suggestions were very reasonable and basically accurate.

Richard Buckingham, food service manager, noted that a new product - 1% fat milk - has been introduced this year. While sales are picking up with the item, Buckingham told board members that the first shipment arrived soured because of a truck refrigeration problem, and cafeteria managers were unaware of the situation until students began buying and tasting the bad milk.

"Since that event, it's been a little difficult persuading the students to buy it again, but sales are slowly increasing," Buckingham said.

Sherrard noted that progress in reducing fat in the school menus has been slow, but that the focus on fat-reduction will begin soon. She also noted that the advisory committee is working toward lowering fat while keeping caloric content high, as is recommended for growing children.

Toward Quality

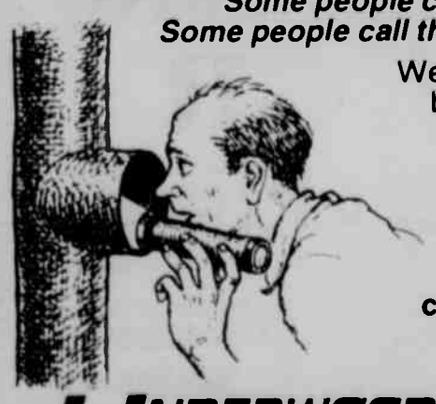
service. It is the extras that you provide in the way of quality and service that increase the value of your product. This quality edge pays. Recent studies have found that eight out of 10 buyers say quality is equal to if not more important than price in their purchasing decisions. Ten years ago only four out of 10 said so.

The Sandy Corporation published a study in 1988 that indicated that the average revenue lost by service businesses due to customer dissatisfaction and the cost of replacing customers is 10% of the annual revenue.

The bottom line is also impacted by the cost of having to correct problems caused by things having been done wrong. Surveys indicate that service businesses spend between 25% and 40% of their operating budgets correcting foul ups. Quality means doing it right the first time to avoid these wastes.



It's vital, then, that those working with customers provide quality customer services that will bring the customers back and do the right things "right" the first time. How does this happen? It begins with the management of the business knowing the customers and understanding their needs. Most organizations believe they are close to the customer but very few really are. Just talking about service is not enough. In his book Customers for Life, Carl Sewell states: "The most important thing to the customer is: Did you do what you promised? Keeping your word is worth more than all the empathy, smiles, and chocolates on your pillow in the world."

In upcoming articles we'll be exploring how businesses can keep their word, do the right things "right" and deliver customer services that will bring back customers.

Robert E. Teel To Hold Revival In Loch Lynn

Evangelist Robert E. Teel will be ministering in revival services at the Loch Lynn Church of God September 26 through October 3, at 7 o'clock each evening.

Born in Ada, Okla., and reared in southern California, Teel was a national ring champion in the sport of gymnastics and reportedly many experts believed he was destined to win a gold medal for the United States. At the height of his gymnastics career, he began to abuse drugs and alcohol which banished all hopes of Olympic competition.

A church spokesperson said he was "delivered from drugs and alcohol by the power of Christ in 1972 and has invested all his time and efforts since that day proclaiming the gospel."

Teel said he feels "that we are truly living in the last days" and encourages the local church to become involved in the study of the word of God.

The public is invited to attend the services.

State Task Force Formed To Enhance Teacher Education

Maryland's two top education leaders this week pledged their joint efforts to link teacher education reform to school reform and redesign teacher education.

"We need new teachers for new schools," State School Superintendent Nancy Grasmick said in her opening remarks at the first meeting of the Maryland Teacher Education Task Force. The superintendent was joined at the kickoff meeting of the task force by her partner in this teacher education reform effort, State Secretary of Higher Education Shaila Aery.

Both education leaders urged the task force to seize the "unique collaborative opportunity" born of the current education reform movement. Dr. Aery said the reform movement is "an opportunity that must not be lost."

This initial task force meeting was held at Morgan State University. The task force includes statewide representation with members from local school systems, colleges and universities, legislators, business, the Maryland State Teachers Association, and local and state boards of education.

Grasmick and Aery charged the task force to focus on strengthening undergraduate preparation, enhancing professional training in schools, and eventually eliminating undergraduate majors in education. The task force is asked to recommend ways to shift much of the training of teachers toward clinical experiences involving direct contact with public school students.

The task force will also seek to recommend ways of giving college graduates in arts and sciences greater access to the teaching profession.

Over the next six months the task force will produce a report and recommendations to be presented to the State Board of Education and the Higher Education Commission. The recommendations will target the year 2000 for full implementation.

Grasmick and Aery stressed the importance of linking teacher education reform to school reform.

These are exciting times in Maryland education," Grasmick said. "It is time to abandon old ways of thinking and traditional approaches. This task force is to have great latitude as it charts the future."

Jamaican Potter To Offer Four Clay Workshops

Jamaican potter Samuel Wallace, who currently resides in Baltimore and is a member of the Clayworks artist community there, will be offering four evening, hands-on workshops at the Southern High School art department during the month of October. The classes will include local field trips to prospect for clay and build a wood-fired kiln.

Workshop I will be held on Mondays and Wednesdays, October 6, 11, 13, and 18; Workshop II will be held Tuesdays and Thursdays, October 7, 12, 14, and 19; Workshop III will be held Mondays and Wednesdays, October 20, 25, 27, and November 1; and Workshop IV will be held Tuesdays and Thursdays, October 21, 26, 28, and November 2. All classes will be conducted from 7-9:30 p.m.

Classes are open to anyone who is at least 15 years of age. The fee is $10.

Wallace became a resident artist at Baltimore Clayworks in May 1992, is a recipient of a Folk Arts Grant from the Maryland State Arts Council, has exhibited in the Baltimore area, and has been selected to exhibit at the National Conference on Education in the Ceramic Arts in San Diego. He also teaches for the Bright Starts program through the Mayor's Committee on Art and Culture, and through the Artists in Education program.

The workshops are part of a four-month residency program being conducted in four of the state's most economically disadvantaged counties -- Garrett, Allegany, Somerset, and Dorchester -- during the fall and next spring.

For more information or to register for the classes, interested persons are asked to call 334-2420.

Seniors' Painting Courses Offered

Two Painting for Seniors courses are being offered by the Continuing Education Division of Garrett Community College. Both courses are scheduled to be held at the new Mary Browning Senior Center in Oakland (old Center Street School building).

The first of the two offerings will focus on oil painting with instructor Edna Bender. This class will be held each Friday from 9 a.m. to 12:15 p.m., beginning September 24 and continuing for five sessions.

The second offering, focusing on tole painting with instructor Louise Kitzmiller, is scheduled to be held each Wednesday from 9 a.m. to 12:15 p.m beginning September 22, also for a total of five sessions.

Maryland senior citizens (persons 60 years of age or older) may attend this course tuition free, but will be charged a $12 fee. They must also supply their own materials. A fee of $15 plus materials will be charged for others wishing to enroll. For more information, persons may call Patricia Baer at (301) 334-8304.

Home...

What is home? A blend of memories and mortar...walls and roof and smells of breakfast cooking...a place of rest at the end of the day...a feeling of possession, of belonging...a place of hates, loves, anger...the center of things living.

Home may be a mansion on a hill, a cramped apartment, a farmhouse, a hovel, a new contemporary split-level, the house your father built...but only to you and your family is it home. No one else may call it that. For home is a part of you!

Centuries ago a shepherd-poet felt like this. Lonely seasons on the grazing slopes had taught him to love and long for home. He realized, however, that through his life, and beyond, the nearness of God was part of the sense of home. Goodness and mercy would follow him all the days of his life. And he would dwell in the house of the Lord forever!

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

The Rainbow Promise
Sept. 26, 1993

Background Scripture:
Genesis 3:14-24, 6:5-8, 11-27, 9:8-13

Devotional Reading:
Psalms 36:1-4, 7-9, 62:1,2

A TV program recently told of yet another expedition to Turkey to find Noah's ark on the slopes of Mt. Ararat. At a time when the world so desperately needs to rediscover the meaning of the story the flood and Noah's ark, I cannot help but wonder why anyone would spend so much time, effort and money on finding the ark itself.

For, even if this expedition were to find the remains of a 5,000 year old sailing vessel on the slopes of Ararat, it would prove nothing and it would benefit no one. What we need is the message behind the ark, not the ark itself. This story, like some of the other stories in Genesis, is one whose truth is not historical so much as it is eternal.

Not that I do not believe the great flood actually took place. There are stories of this sort throughout much of the world, as far away as Australia and the Amazon. In the Middle East there are epics of a great flood that predate Genesis. There are striking similarities between some of them, but the story in Genesis is the only one with a specific message from God to humankind.

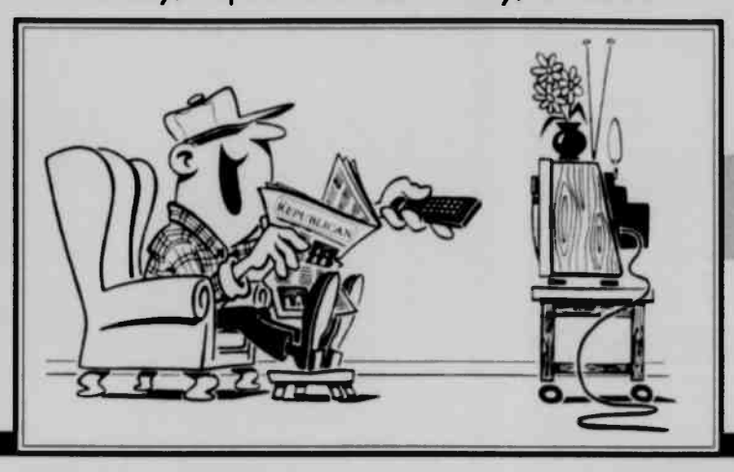
IN MAN'S IMAGE

So, there may be a historical reality behind it, but the story in Genesis is not history. It is more like the stories that Jesus told. They had an important truth, but not everything in the stories was to be taken literally.

In the story of Noah this is particularly true in the writer's portrayal of God. We are told that "The Lord saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth. And the Lord was sorry that he had made man on the earth" (6:5,6). If you take that to be a literal L.Y. you must conclude that God realized that he had made a mistake in creating humanity. Humans make mistakes and regret what they have done, but not the all-wise, all-knowing Creator.

Voltaire who once said that if God made him in his image, man had certainly returned the compliment. It is typical for human beings to project their own humanity on to their God, but that doesn't mean that God is like us with ups or downs, regrets and remorse, and changes of mind. Nor does he have to be reminded of his purpose. All of these are human traits, not divine. When the flood story indicates that God originally intended to destroy all humanity, but was persuaded to change his mind and save Noah and his ark, I cannot help conclude that we are looking inside the mind of a human being, not the God of the Universe.

SIN & REDEMPTION



What, then, is the message of this story? Essentially, it is a story about the consequences of sin and the promise of redemption. Whether a wooden ark rests on Ararat or not, that is truth now, always has been and always will be.

In the story of Adam and Eve we saw that there were consequences to their disobedience. They lost the garden of Eden and their existence would be a lot harder and demanding because of it. There is a cause and effect relationship. God says, "Because you have done this..." It is true also in the story of the flood. Genesis tells us, "Now the earth was corrupt in God's sight, and the earth was filled with violence..." Therefore, there would be great destruction. Sin always exacts a terrible price.

But the end of the story of Noah is one of redemption. Despite the staggering evil of human behavior, God holds out to us his redemption--not because we deserve it, but because he desires to do so out of love. Although humanity has tried to deface the divine image within and scuttle his great plan, he offers us the rainbow promise of his saving love.

COVER STORY

'Precious Victims' a departure for Overall

Park Overall

A real-life case forms the basis of "Precious Victims," a made-for-TV movie about a young Illinois mother accused of murdering her two infant daughters in separate incidents. Park Overall, Robby Benson and Richard Thomas star in the drama, which airs Tuesday, Sept. 28, on CBS.

Paula Sims (Overall) appears near hysterics as she runs to her neighbor's home one night in 1986 to report that her 12-day-old daughter has been kidnapped. The police find her story hard to believe. Their investigation ultimately is abandoned for lack of evidence.

The Simses later have a son, followed by a second daughter in 1989. Shortly thereafter, Paula comes forward claiming that this second infant girl has been stolen. Investigators connect the two incidents, and prosecuting attorney Don W. Weber (Thomas) begins to build a murder case against Paula.

Overall, best known as acerbic nurse LaVerne Todd on 'Empty Nest," despairs that the basics of the plot make "Precious Victims" sound like just another movie of the week.

"It's based on a true story, so unfortunately, it's one of those trashy, true-life dramas, right? which the critics always bash, and people go, 'Ah, God, I'm not watching that!'" she says. "I'm sorry the trend has gone that way, because this one is not trashy. It's very stark, very haunting, very disturbing and very different. The cinematography is beautiful. Everything about it is just a cut above.

"When I read this script, I thought, 'Gosh, who could do this?' And I thought, 'Only I could do this,'" she recalls dryly. "I understand rural living, I understand 'factory class' and I understand that isolation when you are locked into one man."

Choosing her words carefully, she adds, "It's hard to talk about it, because I don't want to give anything away, but (this was) a gendercide, in my estimation." Killing female children still is practiced in certain cultures, she notes.

The actress is being cautious for another reason as well. Although Paula Sims is serving a prison term, her husband, Robert, is a free man.

"The beauty of this piece is that all of the acting is between the lines. When you see it, you have to figure, on your own, what his part is. We're not going to tell you, because we don't know. In my personal estimation, she couldn't have done it alone," Overall speculates. "Whether he had any part in the actual murders ... I can't say. I will say that (Paula) lost her soul to her man."

Overall theorizes that, as a child, Paula was molested by someone, an early trauma that set the stage for later events.

"If Robert, who I think does not care for women, made any (threatening) innuendo to her at all, she was just trying to save those girls," she says firmly. "I don't think she killed those girls out of malice. I think she tried to save them (from a worse fate).

"I tried to do right by her. She deserves that, no matter what she did or why she did it. She's a human being."

TV-PIPELINE

BY TAYLOR MICHAELS

Bonnie Hunt

Q: Are Helen Hunt ("Mad About You") and Bonnie Hunt ("The Building") related? –Rita G. Cormulley, Springfield, Ill.

A: Only in the sense that they are two of the most cherishable comedy actresses to appear on TV in the past decade or so.

Q: I am a fan of a commercial on Fox 19 WOIO, and I would like to write and ask for the name of the song in it. I need an answer by October. What is their address? –D.M. of Ohio.

A: The address is 2720 Van Aken Blvd., Cleveland, Ohio 44120.

Q: Is Stephanie Zimbalist planning to return to series TV? She's one of my favorite actresses, and seeing more of her would be great. –Randy S. Warner, Hanover, Pa.

A: The child of a show business family, Zimbalist probably would never say never, but "Remington Steele" proved exhausting and frustrating for her. To this day, few fans realize to what extent her Laura Holt character carried the classy mystery series. Since that show was cancelled in 1987, she's proven her versatility in projects that included a lengthy tour in the musical "My One and Only" opposite Tommy Tune. She stars with Perry King later this season in a USA Network thriller, "Jericho Fever," about a couple seeking the cause of a plague.

Q: Is the movie "Jonathan Livingston Seagull" available on video? –Dorothy Fonseca, N. Providence, R.I.

A: Yes. It's available from Paramount Home Video. Ask a retailer to order it ... or keep reading below.

FOOTNOTE: I'm starting to get upset ... not with you, but for you. I can hardly open a video inquiry these days without reading that familiar phrase: "My video store is of no help at all." This is infuriating, and I wish I could do more to help. As I've explained, it's next to impossible to get a video distributor to accept an order for a single copy of a video — they just don't think it's worth their while.

There are a few national specialty outlets, however, and the Video Library of Philadelphia is one. Try calling them at (800) 669-7157 when local video stores turn a deaf ear. For the more adventurous video seeker, maybe an investment of $3 in a copy of Premiere magazine would help. The back pages are a treasure trove of ads for companies that offer hard-to-find videos by mail order, as well as nostalgia items, posters, autographed collectibles, etc. NOTE: I am not in a position to personally endorse any of these advertisers.

Suzuki, PBS unravel 'The Secret of Life'

BY MICHAEL SCOGIN

PBS taps into the scientific and social revolution swirling around the reading and manipulation of DNA, the genetic blueprint of life, in the eight-hour documentary "The Secret of Life," beginning Sunday, Sept. 26, and airing nightly through Wednesday, Sept. 29.

"As a geneticist, I'm still staggered at the rate of discovery in technology today," says series host David Suzuki, noted science broadcaster and professor of genetics at the University of British Columbia. "We show a group of elementary school children who are isolating fragments of DNA from one species and transferring it to another species as a class exercise, something that when I graduated as a fully licensed geneticist in 1961, I never dreamed I would live to see possible."

"The Secret of Life" investigates this rapidly advancing scientific and social explosion, which has enabled researchers to creep closer to cures and treatments for diseases such as AIDS, cystic fibrosis and inheritable breast cancer.

Scientific advances do not come without social implications, as "The Secret of Life" discovers in its examination of genetically engineered animals that produce human proteins, hemoglobin and organs.

"The general public has a tremendous stake in how DNA technology will be applied," says Suzuki. "They paid for most of it, and they will be most affected by the products and the techniques that are developed (from it). Its implications will affect every one of us and, I believe, go to the very heart of defining what it is to be a human being."

TV Data Technologies

David Suzuki is the host of "The Secret of Life," airing Sunday through Wednesday on PBS. The series explores the scientific and social ramifications of DNA research.

Brian Dennehy plays Perry Sundquist, an alcoholic lawyer on the verge of disbarment, in "Final Appeal," a fact-based NBC movie airing Sunday, Sept. 26. Sundquist must rebuild his life while preparing for the toughest case of his career — defending his sister, Christine Biondi (JoBeth Williams), from murder charges after her abusive husband is killed. Biondi's plea of self-defense, however, is undermined by her husband's mistress (Ashley Crow).

IN FOCUS

Renowned naturalist and environmental advocate Morley Nelson is featured in "The Vertical Environment," an examination of the world of falcons, hawks and eagles. The hour-long special airs Monday, Sept. 27, on PBS.

Nelson's fascination with birds of prey began at age 12, when he saw a falcon strike down a teal duck in midair. He has dedicated his life to identifying and preserving raptor ecosystems and educating people about the magnificent birds.

TIME OUT

'SportsNight' heads ESPN2 lineup

BY MICHAEL SCOGIN

Keith Olbermann

ESPN, the cable industry's largest network and the life-support system for millions of American sports nuts, makes a play for a younger viewing audience on Friday, Oct. 1, when it launches its companion network, ESPN2.

The new network will balance live events, sports information and analysis, alternative sports, music and humor to attract casual sports enthusiasts, the coveted 18- to 34-year-old audience and ESPN diehards.

Three nights a week — Tuesday through Thursday — the network will feature live events, such as the National Hockey League games, NCAA basketball, arena football, volleyball and extreme sports.

But the flagship program of ESPN2 is "SportsNight," three hours in prime time, Friday through Monday, of highlights, commentary, interviews and sports news featuring the irreverent style and acerbic wit of host Keith Olbermann.

A veteran of ESPN's "SportsCenter" since March 1992, Olbermann and partner Dan Patrick took the nightly sports report program to a higher level, bringing it dry humor and intelligent writing while bouncing barbs off each other in what became an almost trademark style. Olbermann's new position means an unfortunate end to one of the network's most popular duos.

"That was the tough part," says Olbermann. "Everything else made a lot of sense. I really enjoyed working with Danny, and we had a lot of fun."

Olbermann's role on "SportsNight" is drastically different. While "SportsCenter" was a tightly written, impeccably timed production, "SportsNight" is mostly unscripted and features a looser, more casual style and feel than its sister program. SportsSmash updates breaking sports news on the half-hour.

"I like to describe it as a hybrid between 'SportsCenter' and what we do on ESPN radio," says Olbermann. "On radio we tend to do a lot of analysis segments with sports experts, and we look at something in depth for seven minutes rather than 30 seconds. If you marry that to the comprehensive news coverage of 'SportsCenter,' the end result of that is 'SportsNight.'"

ESPN2's lineup also includes "Talk Two," a national sports call-in program airing weekday nights. Fantasy sports league players will enjoy "Jock and Roll," a late-night show updating current box scores, game summaries and standings.

MOVIE MARQUEE

Bad week for children, husbands in TV movies

Julia Roberts

With "Whose Child is This? The War for Baby Jessica," ABC wins the network race to turn the sensational custody case into a movie of the week. Starring Susan Dey, Michael Ontkean and Amanda Plummer, the movie airs Sunday, Sept. 26. CBS counters with the suspenseful "Sleeping With the Enemy," starring Julia Roberts as a woman who takes drastic measures to escape her abusive husband, Patrick Bergin and Kevin Anderson also star. In "Final Appeal" on NBC, Brian Dennehy plays an alcoholic lawyer on the verge of disbarment who defends his sister (JoBeth Williams) when she is accused of murdering her husband, Lindsay Crouse co-stars. Sunday also brings the debut of "Universal Soldier" on The Movie Channel. The futuristic thriller stars Jean-Claude Van Damme and Dolph Lundgren.

Monday, Sept. 27, on NBC, "Shattered Trust: The Shari Karney Story" stars Ellen Burstyn, Melissa Gilbert and Kate Nelligan in the story of a lawyer (Gilbert) whose painful realization that she was sexually abused as a child by her father compels her to work for changes in child molestation laws. TBS airs 1985's "A Death in California," starring Cheryl Ladd, Sam Elliott and Alexis Smith in the fact-based account of a woman who becomes trapped in a relationship with the man who killed her fiance. On Cinemax, Dennis Farina, Leo Rossi and Fran Drescher star in "We're Talkin' Serious Money," a 1993 comedy about small-time hoods who botch a bond heist.

Park Overall, who plays acerbic nurse Laverne in the NBC comedy series "Empty Nest," takes a dramatic turn at CBS in "Precious Victims." Airing Tuesday, Sept. 28, it tells the true story of a young mother accused of murdering her two infant daughters. Robby Benson co-stars as the woman's husband, who is also suspect, and Richard Thomas appears as the prosecuting attorney.

On Thursday, Sept. 30, The Discovery Channel presents the debut of "Movie Magic," a 12-part series focusing on the creation of filmdom's spectacular special effects. The premiere episode explains how models and miniatures are used for larger-than-life scenes, using examples from the action film "Cliffhanger." Later editions reveal the science and art of pyrotechnics, computer imaging and animatronics, tracing the processes from their design stages on storyboards to the final result on the big screen.

SOAP TALK

Marj Dusay joining 'Guiding Light'

BY CANDACE HAVENS

It has been a year since Beverly McKinsey left the role of Alexandra Spaulding on "Guiding Light," and fans have been anxiously awaiting the return of one of their favorite characters.

Well, the wait is over. Marj Dusay took over the role beginning Friday, Sept. 24.

In the story, Alexandra has been living abroad for the past year. She shows up in an Indonesian jungle and makes an unusual entry into Springfield.

Executives at "GL" promise viewers will not be disappointed by the new Alexandra. "We are very excited to have Marj join our cast in this key role," says Jill Larsen Phelps, executive producer of "GL." "We are fortunate to have this wonderfully strong, talented actress with us. Our audience had missed Alexandra. And we can all look forward to seeing new sides to this complicated, fascinating woman."

It will be wickedly fun to see what happens to Jenna and Roger once Alexandra returns to town. She will most assuredly want her family business back. Viewers can also look for her to meddle in the lives of Nick and Mindy -- the couple has always been a thorn in her side.

Dusay says she has been interested in the role since McKinsey elected to leave in August 1992. She is happily making the move from Los Angeles to New York to work on the soap.

Fans may remember Dusay

Marj Dusay

from her short stint as the evil Vivian on "Days of Our Lives" when Louise Sorel was out with back problems. The actress also portrayed the manipulative Pamela Capwell on "Santa Barbara" and Myrna Clegg on "Capitol."

Dusay has starred in several television shows and miniseries, and guest-starred in more than 200 roles on other prime time series.

In other soap news, fans of Michael Sabatino ("Lawrence: Days") will be happy to hear he has a new job. According to one of his former cast mates, Sabatino is set to join the cast of "The Bold and the Beautiful." It looks like the Bells know a good thing when they see it.

There is no word yet on what Crystal Chappell ("Carly: Days") and Matthew Ashford ("Jack") will be doing in the future.

Eighty-four program participants, or 45.4% enrolled in credit college studies at GCC and Davis and Elkins College, and one participant enrolled at the Diesel Institute. Fifty-seven participants, or 30.8%, enrolled in non-credit training. Five program participants graduated from Garrett Community College in May 1993, representing 6% of the total 84 program participants who remained enrolled in credit classes.

New Horizons helped participants meet training costs. Tuition/book assistance was made available to 57 participants in non-credit vocational classes, which is 30.8% of total target group, and 13 participants enrolled in vocational credit classes received tuition/books/fee assistance, which is 7% of total group. Seventy-four program participants qualified for financial aid through Pell Grants. Child care and transportation subsidies enabled 24 clients to receive assistance while enrolled in training.

Approximately 63 documented job referrals were made to 48 program participants. Fifty-five program participants secured 67 jobs either full- or part-time during the funding year, which is 29.7% of total participants. The 67 jobs represent 161.5% of the grant goal of 40 jobs secured during the funding year.

Persons interested in learning more about the New Horizons Programs and eligibility requirements are encouraged to call New Horizons at 387-3071, ext. 171, Monday through Thursday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

As residents well know and visitors soon discover, autumn in New England is a marvel of sights, sounds and scents. The dramatic gold, copper and crimson hues of the changing leaves; the roar of the crowd at an Ivy League football game and the comforting aroma of a boiled New England dinner of corned beef and cabbage signal that fall has arrived in the nation's Northeast.

September marks the beginning of autumn, and it's also National Honey Month. National Honey Month was designated to honor the nation's beekeepers, and where better to start the celebration than in the land of the Pilgrims? After all, the Pilgrims were quite probably the nation's first beekeepers.

While the New World contained a bounty of edible flora and fauna, including a sweetener the native tribes made from the sap of the sugar maple, the Pilgrims felt the need to import European honey bees to add — in their phrase — "bee sweetenin' " to the "tree sweetenin'." Most food historians believe that the strain of Old World honey bees introduced by the Pilgrims was a Dutch one. The Pilgrims spent a period of exile in Holland before coming to America, so the experts speculate that they obtained the bees at that time and stowed them on the Mayflower. It's also possible that the Pilgrims purchased bees from Dutch settlers in New Amsterdam (New York), although there is no record of such a transaction.

In any event, the Pilgrims were definitely keeping honey bees by 1634, four teen years after they landed at Plymouth. The native tribes quickly dubbed the insect the "white man's fly."

While maple syrup and a later arrival, molasses, came to be identified with New England or "Yankee" cuisine, honey was always present and valued for its lighter, more delicate flavor. Today, the art of beekeeping and honey harvesting in New England is still thriving. New England apiarists collect a variety of honeys, such as blueberry and raspberry honey from Maine and the more familiar clover and wildflower honeys from Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont.

Honey enhances recipes that feature the famous triad of native American foodstuffs—corn, beans and squash — that kept the Pilgrims from starvation during the early years. The Pilgrims weren't especially taken with corn — a gram they had never seen before—but necessity forced them to eat it, and soon cornmeal hasty puddings and johnnycakes were staples of the Pilgrim hearth. The featured recipe for Honey Cornmeal Pancakes with Honey Orange Syrup is a delicious and delicate update on these early American favorites.

The New World squash and beans the Pilgrims encountered reminded them of similar plants in Europe, so they accepted these foods immediately. Pumpkin pie and baked beans are true New England originals, and both are doubly tasty with the addition of honey. You'll find Honey Pumpkin Pie and Quick New England Baked Beans easy to prepare as well as satisfying on a cozy September Sunday.

Neither pumpkin pie nor baked beans could have been created without another import, swine, which arrived in Massachusetts a year or two after the first cattle in 1624. The pig was valued for its lard, which was used as the fat in the pie crust. Salt pork or bacon were used to flavor a wide variety of dishes, including the traditional salt pork slab in Boston baked beans. Pork was by far the most important source of meat in New England for many years, and by 1640, Massachusetts was a leader among the colonies in salt pork production and trade. Honey Baked Ham pays delicious tribute to this important pair of Pilgrim imports.

Pilgrim porkers were often sent to the woods to feed on mast, the fallen nuts from the forest trees. (The Pilgrims also fed their pigs clams; the Pilgrims ate clams only when forced to by hunger.) Acorns, beechnuts, chestnuts, hickory and black and white walnuts were all abundant on the woodland floor during autumn.

Honey Nut Bread is a variation on a colonial recipe, which proves that at least some of the walnuts were saved for the table. Serve a slice of this golden moist quick bread with a cup of raspberry leaf tea and honey, the morning brew for the beekeeping Pilgrims.

"One Little Candle" Campaign Marks Mental Illness Awareness Week

by Carol Cox

The Garrett County Alliance for the Mentally Ill is sponsoring a special recognition of Mental Illness Awareness Week, which will be marked nationwide October 3-9.

Each year since 1983, the American Psychiatric Association has led a growing number of mental health organizations, facilities, and advocates in observing the first full week in October as Mental Illness Awareness Week (MIAW).

The U.S. Congress declares the week annually through a joint resolution; the President signs it into law, and tens of thousands of dedicated APA members, other mental health care professionals, affiliates of the National AMI, civic groups, local government officials and concerned citizens join in a true grassroots campaign to bring information, hope and treatment to millions.

According to the Garrett County AMI president, Carol Cox, the local affiliate is urging individuals, facilities, and churches to join in a candlelight observance of the opening day by placing a candle (or electric candlelight) in a front window at 7 p.m. on Sunday evening, October 3, as a show of support for deeper understanding of mental illness.

"If everyone throughout Garrett County who cares about the plight of the mentally ill and their families will light just one candle on October 3 at 7 p.m., the brightness of caring and understanding will surely shine through," Cox said.

In addition to the county-wide candle lighting effort, the Garrett County AMI will be offering printed information on the various types of mental illness and additional education through newspaper articles and public service announcements on local radio stations. They will also sponsor local recognition by the Board of County Commissioners.

Local churches are urged to recognize MIAW during their Sunday services on October 3, and to reach out to the needs of persons with mental illness and their families within the religious community.

Anyone interested in learning more about mental illness is urged to contact the Garrett County Alliance for the Mentally Ill at P.O. Box 733, Oakland 21550 or by calling (301) 334-4357.

Mtn. Fresh Assoc. Planning Cookbook, Seeking Recipes

The Mountain Fresh Producers Association is currently in the beginning stages of assembling a cookbook of recipes featuring fruits and vegetables grown locally or readily available in the area, and is inviting members of the community to submit recipes.

"Our aim is to learn some new ways to serve old favorites and to encourage the public to use more fruits and vegetables in everyday cooking," stated Barbara Sanders, chairperson for the cookbook project. "The Recommended Dietary Allowances guidelines suggest we should consume five to eight servings of fruits and vegetables every day."

Persons interested in submitting recipes should choose produce readily available in the area, and may submit as many recipes as desired. The recipes may call for either fresh, frozen, canned, or dried produce

Selection of recipes to be included in the cookbook is at the discretion of the selection committee Forms for submitting recipes are available at the Cooperative Extension Service Office, 202 S. Third Street, Oakland, or at the Mountain Fresh pavilion during the normal hours of operation.

"We hope to collect the recipes this summer and fall, and compile the cookbook during the winter," said Sanders. "It will be ready for sale at the Mountain Fresh Market next year. We plan to make the cookbook attractive and perfect for gift giving."

More information may be obtained by calling Sanders at 1-304-789-6450

Glimpse Of The Past . . .

A PANORAMIC VIEW of Friendsville around the turn of the 20th century appears above. John Friend is credited with being the first settler (circa 1765) in what is now Friendsville. Development of the town rapidly followed the completion of the National Road (U.S. Rt. 40) in 1818. By 1830 a post office called "Friends" was established, but the name of the town was changed to Friendsville in 1832. The first frame houses, some of which still stand along Main Street, housed the workers employed in the town's iron works. Lumber, coal, and the railroad made Friendsville a boom town during the early years of this century. This photo, on loan by Mary Strauss, is published courtesy of the Garrett County Historical Society and The Republican. The Society's annual fall bus tour, which was originally slated for this Saturday, Sept. 25, has been cancelled.

The Golden Years
by Melissa Groves

Weight-lifting with the lower extremities? By people age 85 to 100? That was the case in a study of 100 volunteers to determine if exercise could strengthen weak, aging leg muscles. After the exercise program, medical researchers found the volunteers were able to walk through halls and up steps at a rate averaging 20 percent better than before. Some, who had been getting around earlier with the use of walkers, were able to walk unassisted.

Another, broader study is set for a retirement community in Connecticut. Over a period of five years, several hundred volunteers will participate in six-month conditioning programs. Instruments will monitor body systems as they exercise on treadmills and stationary cycles. Funded by the National Institute on Aging, the study will yield data on the relationship of exercise vs. physical inactivity on the health status of the elderly.

Liars Needed For Autumn Glory Storytelling Event

The Tall Tale Liars' Storytelling Festival will be held in conjunction with the 26th Annual Autumn Glory Festival on Saturday, Oct. 16, from 9:30 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. at St. Paul s United Methodist Church, 316 East Oak Street, Oakland.

This festival is coordinated by Dr. Gail N. Herman, professional storyteller. "The truth can sometimes be absolutely outrageous and lies can often sound truer than the truth itself," said Dr. Herman. "Fact is often sprinkled with an enthusiastic joining together of fantastic memories to create tall tales, whoppers, and first-person humorous yarns. Traditionally, from Appalachia to the Ozarks, fishermen, hunters, loggers, and industrial workers have improved on actual happenings with exaggerated marvels. While being entertained, the listener is also introduced to the teller's nostalgia for the good old days and perhaps even a little resentment of the machine-addicted modern society."

Herman said that, although tails of various occupations and backwoods life are also good reading, they only come to life when the tall tale teller improvises them for the listeners. In some states, these stories were traditionally told from the "liar's bench" where a person might go and be sure of an audience at any time of day.

LOOKING FOR LIARS to participate in the Tall Tale Liars' Storytelling Festival, which will be among the many events of the 26th annual Autumn Glory Festival, is Dr. Gail Herman, coordinator of the event. "The truth can sometimes be absolutely outrageous and lies can often sound truer than the truth itself," Dr. Herman said. All are invited to participate in the festival by preparing and then telling a tall tale, or "true" personal story. Persons may register by contacting Dr. Herman at 387-9199. See story for details.

Local and out-of-town storytellers and community people are invited to tell tall tales and "true" personal stories, and there will also be a presentation of tall tales by children. Tellers are invited to contact Dr. Herman at Route 2, Lodge Circle, Sky Valley, Swanton, MD 21561, (301) 387-9199, to register for telling tales at the event. Prizes will be awarded.

Admission to this contest is $3 for adults, $2 for senior citizens and children ages 4-12. Children must be accompanied by an adult.

This event is sponsored by the American Association of University Women for the benefit of the Tapestry of Talent Student Storytelling Festival of Garrett County. For more information or a free festival brochure, persons may contact Festival Headquarters, Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion Council, Courthouse, 200 South Third Street, Oakland, MD 21550; telephone 334-1948.

NEWS from THE MARYLAND FOREST, PARK & WILDLIFE SERVICE

SAVAGE RIVER STATE FOREST ROAD OPENINGS

At 53,000 acres, the Savage River State Forest is Maryland's largest. The variety of habitats found from its stream valleys to ridge tops support and incredible diversity of plant and animal life.

In order to properly manage such a large natural resource, access is a must! As such, over 200 miles of roads crisscross the Savage River State Forest. These roads provide access for forest and wildlife management personnel as well as forest visitors.

Twenty percent of the roads in Savage River are county maintained and are used by the general public in their daily commutes through the forest.

The rest of the roads located in the state forest are maintained by the Maryland State Forest and Park Service. More than 80% of these are open year-round, allowing access for MVA licensed vehicles. Hunters, naturalists, photographers and just plain outdoor enthusiasts enjoy the access to various sites in the state forest afforded by these roads.

Twenty percent of these state forest roads are gated either year-round or during certain seasons. Roads are gated to protect the forest resource in various ways: to promote road stabilization, enhance wildlife management practices, deter poachers, discourage trespassing on adjacent private lands, provide recreation and to protect state forest facilities. Roads gated on a seasonal basis are usually opened to allow hunting and firewood collection during the fall.

Below is the road opening schedule for September 1992 through January 1993. The State Forest Manager reserves the right to change the schedule, as necessary. If you have any questions concerning these openings, please call the Savage River State Forest Headquarters at 301-895-5759.

On a final note, please keep in mind to never park in front of a closed gate! By blocking the road, you hamper the rescue, firefighting and enforcement efforts of your State Forest Rangers. Don't slow the Ranger's response time . . . remember, you may be the hunter or hiker who needs emergency help!

Two new members introduced themselves: Lindsey Teets and Dana Feather.

AURORA PTO

The Aurora PTO met September 14 at the school with plans for a Buckwheat Festival float among the agenda items. The Halloween Festival Committee is planning for some observance of Halloween in lieu of the traditional festival. The one-half beef donated by Dr. William Fedde and harvest baskets will be raffled as usual.

It was asked that the teachers make a list of needed supplies to give to the parents and there will be $50 for each teacher allotted for supplies from the office account. A supply of magazines were donated by Rowlesburg, sets of books have been donated from a Grafton resident, and books and supplies have come from libraries in Oakland and Terra Alta and from other counties. The PTO will undertake a fund-raising project following a Tupperware plan.

The double-wide for the school lunchroom is ready and will be delivered soon. The school calendars will be arriving soon. The spring carnival committee requests that people save glassware they may wish to give away for use in the pitch at next spring's carnival. There will be book fairs held at both Albright and Aurora sites. Books from the Newburg library will be sent to Albright for use by Aurora Jr. High.

John Lofink, principal, noted a need for volunteers to build shelves in the shop room to supply a library. He is investigating picture packages and he said that candy bar sales are planned for a later time. He also noted that the Aurora Jr. program has been "deeply damaged" by the migration of so many students to Tucker County.

Sports participation for Aurora Jr. High students will require girls' basketball and boys' basketball to be played from the East Preston gym and football participants need different scheduling if they are to play with the East Preston team.

Low interest mortgage loans offered to qualifying homebuyers

ANNAPOLIS — Governor William Donald Schaefer announced last week that a special one time pool of $34.7 million in low-interest mortgage loans is available to limited income homebuyers through the Community Development Administration (CDA), an agency of the Maryland Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD).

The funds will be available effective Aug. 16 at 6.75 per cent, one of the lowest in the history of state's mortgage lending programs. The loans have a 30-year-term.

In order to stimulate home buying in Maryland, special conditions are provided for these funds. CDA is increasing the limits on home purchase prices and family incomes. The maximum purchase price for new or existing home in urban and suburban areas is $127,500 for rural areas the maximum purchase price is $95,000.

The income limit, regardless of family size, is $50,300. A portion of this funding will be available to help previous homeowners, who in the past were not eligible for the program.

"This is a fabulous opportunity for anyone who has been holding off on buying a home," Gov. Schaefer said. "These are special terms and conditions which the state may never be able to offer again."

Properties that are eligible for this program include detached and semi-detached houses, townhouses and condominiums.

In rural areas, the homes with purchase prices up to $95,000 are eligible in Allegany and Garrett Counties.

State officials expect these funds will provide funding for approximately 347 homebuyers.

Governor Announces $5 Million Telecommunications Savings Plan

Governor William Donald Schaefer has announced plans for using state-owned telephone switching systems to reduce state telecommunications costs. The Baltimore Telecommunications Master Plan, administered by the Maryland Department of General Services (DGS), calls for the state to switch to private branch exchanges (PBX) from telephone company service.

"This telecommunications master plan is another example of using technology to save money," said Governor Schaefer. "The state will save $5 million over the next 10 years by moving services from the telephone company to state communications equipment."

The Baltimore Telephone Master Plan will replace Centrex, a switching service provided by C&P Telephone Company of Maryland, with switching through the state-owned PBX located in the State Office Building at 301 West Preston Street. Initially, four state offices with 3,000 telephones will be linked by fiber optics to the host PBX. The PBX, which was purchased from AT&T in 1985 currently provides telephone service to 4,000 users in the Preston Street State Office Complex. It will be upgraded to handle additional switching traffic.

The first state office facility to be remotely linked to the Preston Street PBX will be 6 St. Paul Centre, a 28-story office tower acquired by the state last March. Other state offices to be connected include the Department of Human Resources at 311 West Saratoga Street, the Maryland State Department of Education at 200 West Baltimore Street, and the Mass Transit Administration which will be relocated to 907 North Howard Street in the spring of 1994.

"Just as our recent purchase of Baltimore office buildings will save millions of dollars in rents over the next 15 years, moving switching services from the telephone company to state-owned PBX's will save additional millions in telephone costs," said General Services Secretary Martin W. Walsh, Jr. "DGS will continue to look for opportunities to avoid costs by maximizing the use of state-owned telecommunications facilities."

Over the last two years, the contracting efforts of DGS have produced over $15 million in new buying power for the state. Reduced expenditures and commissions produced almost $8 million in annual savings. In addition, the state recovered a one-time net refund of $2.1 million for overbillings.

"DGS administers multi-year contracts with private telecommunications corporations totaling $57 million annually," according to Walsh. "The savings of the last two years have been the result of a dedicated, professional 28-member DGS telecommunications staff being able to produce big results in tough budget times."

Last year, all 2,100 outlets of the Maryland State Lottery Agency were placed on a state-of-the-art communications network. Use of the DGS-developed Digital Backbone Network (DBN) will save the Lottery more than $9.7 million over 10 years. Since its inception in 1988, the DBN, a leased transmission system that takes advantage of the state's aggregated demand, has reduced state data communications costs by 66 percent.

In June 1991, DGS negotiated two telephone contracts that are saving taxpayers over $3 million. A new contract for Centrex telephone service (privately owned switching) was negotiated with C&P Telephone Company of Maryland that is saving more than $1.8 million over seven years. Later, DGS entered into an agreement with C&P to prepay the capital cost component of Centrex, saving an additional $1.2 million. Another competitively bid agreement with American Telephone and Telegraph (AT&T) for long distance service is saving $4.1 million over the three-year life of the contract.

Governor Schaefer, in May 1992, announced the state had paid all start-up and capital costs associated with the highly-successful Maryland Relay Service (MRS). By paying $4 million implementation costs upfront, the state saved almost $1 million in financing costs over the five-year life of the contract with Spring Corporation. Just over a year old, MRS uses a third-person "relay" to pass conversations between those callers with hearing or speech disabilities to and from hearing callers. MRS, the fourth busiest relay service in the nation, processes over 149,000 calls a month and has the highest per capita use in the country. Call volume continues to grow.

In August 1992, the state entered into a three-year contract with PageNet of Maryland to provide statewide telephone pager services. Over the life of the contract the state is expected to save $430,000. The deal is also expected to save local governments more than $200,000. The contract has reduced annual state pager costs by 61 percent.

In June 1992, DGS aggregated state demand and negotiated a three-year contract with MCI Telecommunications Corp. That reduced the cost of "800" telephone service by up to 50 percent. The state has 191 toll-free numbers in operation. These numbers enable citizens throughout Maryland to call state agencies for information and assistance without incurring a long distance charge for the call.

DGS, after determining requirements from dozens of state agencies, also negotiated contracts for almost 3,200 public pay phones located on state property with AT&T and C&P that will produce annual commission revenues in excess of $2.68 million.

All of these contracts -- administered by the DGS Assistant Secretariat for Telecommunications -- are available to local government agencies and boards of education. They may purchase equipment or services as part of the telecommunications contract negotiated by DGS.

COAL-MINING RE-ENACTMENT - The old Brant Mine at Deep Creek Lake Recreation Area was the site of a recent coal mining demonstration, and will be featured again during the Autumn Glory Brant Mine Hike, Sunday, October 17, at 11 a.m. Jim Preston and his grandson Jamie were part of a Living History Re-enactment being presented at the Deep Creek Lake Recreation Area during the summer. Persons who wish to participate, are asked to meet at the camp check-in office for the guided tour. More information may be obtained by calling Diane Miller at 387-5563. National Farm Safety & Health Week Is September 19-25

Can you pass this farm safety quiz?

The National Safety Council estimates 1,200 deaths and 140,000 disabling, non-fatal injuries related to agriculture occurred in 1992. To decrease deaths and disabling injuries requires increased awareness of potential dangers and determination to learn and use ways to avoid them.

You can test your awareness of potential dangers on the farm by taking the following quiz provided by Deere & Company. Be sure to review the answers after you have completed the quiz.

True or False

1. You should never attempt to start an engine by shorting across starter terminals.

2. The operator of a tractor equipped with a rigid ROPS (rollover protective structure) or ROPS cab should always wear a seat belt.

3. You can avoid injury when pulling a corn stalk at least 2' long from plugged stalk rolls if you release the stalk as soon as it begins to be pulled in.

4. Do not permit children to ride with you while you're operating a tractor.

5. The best way to check the tractor and implement hydraulic system for leaks is to quickly run your hand over the lines, fittings, and components.

6. Clothing caught in a wrap point will normally tear away, permitting the person to escape serious injury.

7. When a tractor operator signals a left turn with the yellow flashing lights on, the right-hand flashing lights change to steady illumination (stop flashing) and the left-hand lights start flashing at a faster rate.

8. In cold, winter months, gasoline does not vaporize enough to form an explosive or flammable mixture with air.

9. A tractor can overturn to the rear when driven forward up a steep incline.

10. Maximum speed is 20 mph when towing a load that is not equipped with brakes and is equal to or less in weight than the tractor.

Answers to the Safety Quiz

Only a perfect score is acceptable--for even one mistake about safety on the farm can cause pain, suffering, or loss of life. While a perfect score doesn't guarantee an accident-free farm, it does indicate an awareness of basic safety rules and practices. That's the first step toward a safer farm and work environment. But remember, you have to pass with a perfect score every second of every day on the farm.

1. True. The machine will start in gear if neutral-start circuitry is by-passed. This could cause the machine to move suddenly and cause serious injury or death to anyone in its path. Start an engine only from the operator's seat of the machine, with the transmission in park or neutral.

2. True. If your tractor is equipped with a rigid ROPS (rollover protective structure) or ROPS cab, you must wear your seat belt at all times. Follow the manufacturer's instructions for foldable and telescope ROPS. If you do not have a ROPS on your tractor, do NOT wear a seat belt.

3. False. Your reaction time would be too slow to avoid injury. Always shut off the engine and remove the key from the ignition before you attempt to clear an obstruction.

4. True. Your tractor is a one-person machine. Never permit riders. Never allow anyone to ride on the tractor, implements, or other equipment, including wagons.

5. False. Use a piece of cardboard or wood to find leaks. Never use your hand or arm. Wear safety goggles for eye protection. Diesel fuel or hydraulic fluid under pressure can penetrate the skin or eyes and cause serious personal injury, blindness, or death.

6. False. Work clothes are usually too strong to tear away safely--and the accident happens so fast there is little time to react. Do not wear loose-fitting clothing when operating or working around machines. Keep all shields and guards in place and replace damaged or missing ones.

7. True. All equipment manufacturers that follow the ASAE (American Society of Agricultural Engineers) lighting and marking standard are required to provide a flashing yellow-light system that includes turn signals which use the steady illumination/faster flashing rate to indicate direction of intended turn.

8. False. Gasoline can still form an explosive or flammable mixture with air in cold, winter months. Do not smoke or work near heaters or other fire hazards when working around fuel. Store all flammable fluids away from fire hazards.

9. True. Driving forward up steep inclines, hitching above the drawbar height, starting a heavy load quickly, and immobilizing the rear wheels are all practices that can cause a tractor to overturn to the rear.

10. True. According to recommended speed-weight ratio guidelines, 20 mph is the maximum speed when towing a load not equipped with brakes that weighs the same or less than the tractor. Reduce maximum speed to 10 mph when towing a load up to double the tractor weight. Do not tow loads that exceed twice the tractor weight. Reduce speed and use additional caution when towing loads under adverse surface conditions, when turning, and on inclines.

Farming In Maryland.....

Drought Assistance Available To Eligible County Producers

The Garrett County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service will administer a crop disaster assistance program to compensate eligible producers for 1993 crop losses caused by the recent drought conditions. Program applications may be filed through March 4, 1994.

"To be eligible, producers with crop insurance must have had losses greater than 35 percent," said county ASCS official, Michael R. Kozier. "Producers without crop insurance must have losses greater than 40 percent."

The 1993 crop disaster program provides cash payments for production losses on feed grains, wheat and all commercial crops.

Crop production evidence must be submitted for each application. Producers should call the Garrett County ASCS at 334-1901 before destroying a crop. Corn producers planning to apply for payment should leave three to five representative strips of corn when chopping for silage, so that the corn can be appraised.

Disaster payments will be computed according to the 1990 Farm Bill. For further information contact the Garrett County ASCS Office at the courthouse.

Number Of Farms In Maryland Drops By 600 Last Year

The number of farms in Maryland in 1993 is estimated at 15,000; down 600 from the 15,600 farms in 1992. Total land in farms for 1993 is 2,200,000 acres which is unchanged from the previous year. The average farm size increased to 147 acres compared with the average size of 141 acres in 1992 and 146 acres in 1991.

The number of farms in the United States in 1993 is estimated at 2.068 million, down one percent from 1992. Total land in farms is 978 million acres, down 1.8 million acres from last year. The rate of decline in number of farms followed the historical trend while the land in farms declined marginally. The average farm size increased from 468 acres in 1992 to 473 in 1993.

The number of farms in the economic sales class between $1,000 and $9,999 decreased from 1,006,000 in 1992 to 997,300 in 1993. Those with sales in the $10,000-$99,999 group decreased from 762,700 to 731,440. The $100,000 and over group increased from 325,440 to 339,500 farms.

Estimates for the number of farms and land in farms refer to June 1. A farm is defined as "any establishment from which $1,000 or more of agricultural products were sold or would normally be sold during the year."

Weekend Rain May Help

A general rain across the state this weekend improved the topsoil moisture rating to zero percent very short, 43 percent short, 52 percent adequate, and five percent surplus. Subsoil moisture also improved to 14 percent very short, 57 percent short, 29 percent adequate, and zero percent surplus. Conditions allowed an averaged of 4.8 days suitable for fieldwork during the week, according to the Maryland Agricultural Statistics Service.

Statewide, hay supplies were short to mostly adequate. The cool, wet weekend conditions improved pasture feed for the second straight week which rated poor to fair. Second crop soybeans may have benefitted from the weekend rains improving the average condition of all soybeans to fair condition. Field corn condition did not change and is in poor to fair condition. Sorghum was in mostly fair to good condition.

Maryland's progress for the week ending September 19 was as follows, listing the item, this year's percentage, last year's percentage and a percentage for the 5-year average.

Corn in dent stage or later, 100, 72, 86; mature, 62, 36, 53; grain harvested, 18, 6, 15; silage harvested, 66, 19, 57.

Soybeans setting pods, 97, 94, 94; turned, 36, 31, 30; shedding leaves, 8, 10, 10.

Sorghum turned, 34, 65, N/A; mature, 12, 15, N/A.

Alfalfa hay, fourth cutting, 64, 41, 45; other hay, third cutting, 70, 66, 46; fourth cutting, 45, 16, 12.

Apples picked, 42, 29, 41.

WEATHER

Maryland weather for the week ending September 17 had above normal temperatures and precipitation. Temperatures averaged 70.0 degrees, 2.5 degrees above the normal of 67.5 degrees for the September 11 to September 17 period. Minimum temperatures ranged from 33 degrees at Oakland to 56 at Westminster, but generally around 50. Maximum temperature was 93 degrees at Bel Air and generally around 90. Precipitation averaged 1.10 inch, 0.29 inch above the normal of 0.81. Precipitation ranged from 0.06 at Snow Hill to 3.64 inch at Westminster. Regional averages were: western, 1.21; north central, 2.05; southern Maryland west of the Bay, 0.58; and the Eastern Shore, 0.32.

Wetlands Bill Doesn't Go Far Enough

A wetlands bill introduced by Sens. Max Baucus (D-Mont.) and John Chafee (R-R.I.) addresses key agricultural issues, but fails to answer questions dealing with prior-converted cropland, wetlands classification and property rights protection, according to the American Farm Bureau Federation.

Testifying Wednesday before the Senate Environment and Public Works Committee, chaired by Baucus, on the comprehensive wetlands bill (S.1304), AFBF President Dean Kleckner said his organization believes classification of wetlands should be included in the bill.

"Wetlands functions and values vary considerably and a successful and fair wetlands policy must take that into consideration," Kleckner stated. "Wetlands categorization is not only possible, it is an essential ingredient in a reform effort."

Likewise, Kleckner testified that protection of private property rights is essential to the success of wetlands legislation, since 75 percent of the nation's wetlands are located on private property.

"Protection for private property rights is central to this debate and a primary reason that wetlands policy is so contentious," he said. "Landowners around the country believe that the current regulatory program is restricting the use of their property and adversely affecting property values. The Corps and the EPA must be directed to take into account the property rights concerns of landowners and be directed to minimize the adverse effect of their actions on the use and value of private property."

According to Kleckner, the only option currently available to a landowner who wants compensation for the "taking" of land by wetlands regulations is to sue the federal government in claims court. That option, he said, "is simply too expensive and too time-consuming for the average citizen to justify. It is currently accessible only to the wealthy."

"If this remains the only vehicle for seeking redress, then most Americans will find themselves precluded from protection of (property rights) one of the most basic constitutional rights," Kleckner testified. "New ways must be found to enable landowners without wealth to obtain compensation for lost use and value of one's property."

The farm leader said his organization agrees with the exemption included in S.1304 for prior-converted cropland--areas modified for crop production that no longer function as wetlands. However, the Baucus/Chafee proposal limits the exemption to the production of annual crops, "thereby, unintentionally excluding perennial crops such as hay and fruit from similar treatment."

He also recommended that "farmed wetlands"--areas dry enough to be cropped virtually every year--also be given "prior converted" status in the final package. Kleckner emphasized the need for strengthening normal farming and ranching exemptions from Clean Water Act wetlands regulations.

Kleckner said he agrees with the direction of S.1304 and Clinton administration proposals regarding agricultural exemptions. He urged the committee, however, to "explore additional changes to ensure that the exemption works as intended.

Kleckner stated that Farm Bureau supports a "one-stop shopping" concept that consolidates all wetlands delineation authority for agricultural land within the USDA, rather than the current system that extends authority to four separate federal agencies.

Farm Bureau also believes an informal appeals process should be established for permit denials and wetlands delineations.

"We would recommend that this appeals process be subject to judicial review as well," Kleckner said. "Combined with the proposals for certification and training of wetlands delineators, we believe that it will have the effect of forcing integrity down through the system."

THE SUPREME CHAMPION EWE at the recent Garrett County Fair was raised and entered by Tommy Hollar. Out of the five grand champion breeds, Hollers Hampshire ewe was selected the overall breed Supreme Champion.

Kudzu – A New Weed In Our Area!

Two or three years ago there was an article, I think in the Pennsylvania Farmer, on a "terrible" weed called Kudzu. This weed found its way from Japan and was mainly confined to the southern states. This week about one-half acre of the weed was found growing in a newly cleared area of woods in southern Garrett County. The weed is vine-like and has a rather large heart-shaped leaf. Right now it is producing a showy, violet-purple flower. Each of the flower petals has a yellow spot at the base. Kudzu is a perennial plant that grows quickly. It is a vine and does climb. It can be controlled with an application of Round-up.

Maryland Milk Production Up

Maryland dairy operators produced 119 million pounds of milk during July 1993, an increase of three percent from the same month a year earlier. The number of milk cows increased to 100,000 from the 98,000 of a year earlier. The yield per cow was up slightly and averaged 1,190 pounds per cow during July 1993 compared with 1,175 pounds in July 1992.

Pricing Leads MMI's Meeting Discussions

Pricing structures, long-range marketing plans, production trends and new international alliances will be discussed at Milk Marketing Inc.'s District 3, Local 1, 2 & 3 annual local membership meeting on Tuesday, October 5.

The 10 a.m. meeting is being held at Seven Springs Resort, Champion, Pa.

"MMI has made some difficult decisions in this past year," says Don Schriver, executive vice-president and chief executive officer. "And members, as always, will want to discuss these tough decisions. That's the biggest reason for the meeting. It's MMI's chance to share directly with members, offer them an overview of MMI's past year and ask them how can their marketing association do a better job on their behalf."

Following the management presentation, MMI Director Tom Croner, Berlin, Pa., will review the board activities.

Southern States Co-op Elects Local Officers

Ronald J. Harvey, Oakland, and Herbert H. Myers, Kitzmiller, were elected to the local board of directors at the Southern States Annual Membership Meeting at the Southern States Oakland Co-op, held at the Mtn. Lake Park facility on September 10. More than 200 stockholder-members and their families attended the session.

Elected to the Southern States Farm Home Advisory Committee were: Sue Steyer and Evelyn Wildesen, both of Oakland.

Wildesen was chosen chairman of the Farm Home Advisory Committee, and Steyer was named secretary.

John Gray, Winchester, Va., Southern States' district manager, talked about the cooperative's overall operations and showed a slide/tape presentation of President and Chief Executive Officer Gene A. James giving a condensed version of the annual report.

The report on local operations and services rendered to farmer-members in the community was given by Rex Hoalcraft, manager of Southern States Oakland Co-op. He reported that total operating volume for the past year was approximately $2 million. His report included the use of a number of color slides showing Southern States facilities and services, as well as patrons' farming operations.

The session also included a special recognition ceremony for the newly elected and retiring board members and Farm Home Advisory Committee members. Those retiring include: board members, Ralph Miller and Elwood Sanders, both of Oakland, Farm Home Advisory Committee members, Pam Crosco and Ellen Zimmerman, both of Oakland.

Safe driving awards were presented to A.T. Bernard, Kevin Louie, Richard Swift and Frederick Fitzwater, employees of the dealer.

ARMED SERVICES REVIEW

U.S. Navy Petty Officer 2nd Class James A. Neary, son of Zalma M. Neary of 337 Coolidge Ave., Oakland, recently returned from a seven-month Indian Ocean and Mediterranean deployment with Naval Mobile Construction Battalion One, Gulfport, Miss.

While preparing for a regularly scheduled deployment to Camp Mitchell, in Rota, Spain, the NMCB ONE, "Sea Bees," were directed to deploy to Somalia. There the battalion joined other U.S. and U.N. coalition forces who were supporting the humanitarian efforts of Operation Restore Hope, providing food to the starving Somali people.

Moving inland from Mogadishu and constructing camps in Baidoa, Badera, Baledogle, Beledweyne and Oddur, the battalion repaired main supply routes between several towns which allowed convoys to travel faster and safer. They also repaired runways and taxiways at airfields, as well as schools and orphanages. For their contributions to humanitarian efforts, the Sea Bees of NMCB ONE were awarded the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal.

After 75 days in Somalia, the battalion returned to Camp Mitchell and resumed its regularly scheduled deployment, sending units to detachment sites in Sigonella, Sicily; Edzell, Scotland and Thurmond, Maryland. A detail at Souda Bay, Crete deployed in December 1992 and completed its entire deployment without interruption.

Neary, a 1983 graduate of Southern High School, joined the Navy in June 1983.

U.S. Seaman Recruit David S. Hanlin, son of David R. and Cora Y. Hanlin, Mount Storm, W.Va., recently returned from a successful six-month Mediterranean Sea, Persian Gulf and Indian Ocean deployment aboard the multi-purpose amphibious assault ship USS Wasp, homeported in Norfolk, Va. as flagship for the Central Command Amphibious Ready Group (CARG 2-93).

CARG 2-93 deployed ahead of its regularly scheduled Mediterranean Sea deployment to support the humanitarian efforts of Operation Restore Hope, providing much needed food supplies to Somalia. In April, the CARG's four ships, Navy and Marine helicopter squadrons and a 2,100-man marine expeditionary unit deployed to the Persian Gulf and participated in multinational exercises in the region.

Exercises in the Gulf were cut short when the CARG was ordered back to Somalia to support United Nations Coalition forces. There the USS Wasp conducted 46 straight days of continuous flight operations.

This deployment has exemplified the mobility, flexibility and capability of the Navy and Marine Corps team to operate forward, demonstrating U.S. power and resolve, from the sea.

Hanlin visited Bosaaso, Somalia; Jebel Ali, Abu Dhabi and Dubai, United Arab Emirates; Bahrain; Rota, Spain and Toulon, France.

The 1992 graduate of Union High School joined the Navy in August 1992.

U.S. Navy Airman Apprentice Franklin Sanner, son of Paul and Janet Dixon, Terra Alta, W.Va., recently returned from a six-month Mediterranean and Red Sea deployment aboard the aircraft carrier USS Theodore Roosevelt, homeported in Norfolk, Va., the lead ship in its battle group.

The ship, with its 5,200-man crew and embarked air wing personnel, as well as its Special Purpose Marine Air Ground Task Force of 600 Marines, supported Operation Deny Flight, enforcing the U.N. sanctioned "no-fly" zone over Bosnia Herzegovina. Aircraft from USS Roosevelt also supported Operation Provide Promise by monitoring humanitarian air-drop missions into the troubled former Yugoslavia.

Additionally, the aircraft carrier demonstrated its value as a tool of foreign policy following a U.S. missile attack on the Iraqi intelligence-gathering facilities. The ship transited on short notice from the Adriatic into the Red Sea to assist in Operation Southern Watch, enforcing yet another "no-fly" zone over Southern Iraq.

This type of rapid movement from one crisis area to another is an example of naval post cold war employment outlined in the Navy's new strategy entitled "...From the Sea."

Since departing Norfolk in March, the carrier spent 165 of 183 days at sea. Sanner enjoyed port visits to Rhodes and Corfu, Greece, and Naples, Italy.

Sanner is a 1992 graduation of Northern High School, Accident.

U.S. Marine Sgt. Damon A. Dunson, whose wife, Donna, is the daughter of Allen L. and Barbara J. Murphy, Loch Lynn, recently received the Navy Achievement Medal.

Dunson was cited for superior performance of duty while serving as a training supervisor with Marine Aircraft Support Squadron One, 3nd Marine Aircraft Wing, Marine Corps Air Station, Cherry Point, N.C., where he is currently assigned. "Demonstrating exceptional mastery of administration and scheduling skills, Dunson was paramount in the generation of a major training report prepared for the Commandant of the Marine Corps. Additionally, his meticulous attention to detail and exceptional professional ability significantly improved the squadron's training program," the citation stated.

The award, presented during formal ceremonies, is official recognition for Dunson's "outstanding accomplishments, achievements and devotion to duty."

The 1981 graduate of Morgantown High School, Morgantown, W.Va., joined the Marine Corps in April 1989. He is also a graduate of West Virginia University with a BS degree.

Salisbury-Elk Lick PTO Plans Annual Funfest

The second annual Funfest, sponsored by the Salisbury-Elk Lick Parent-Teacher Organization (PTO) is scheduled for Saturday, October 16, at the Salisbury-Elk Lick High School. The event will get underway at 10 a.m. with several activities and food items to be offered.

Booths set up by classes will include face painting, pie throwing, a dunking booth, a used book sale, and others. The major event of the day will be the auction beginning at 11 a.m. Items in the auction will include contributions from local businesses and residents as well as from major league sports teams.

"You may have the opportunity to purchase a signed picture of your favorite athlete or an airplane ride," a PTO spokesperson said. Craft items, used and new furniture, and services and gift certificates will be auctioned off.

The spokesperson explained that the event takes the place of a sales drive previously utilized by the school which involved giving students over-priced items to sell. The PTO members felt the Funfest was a better way to raise money, as it eliminates the pressure on students and their families, and involves the community in a day of fun and togetherness, the spokesperson said.

The proceeds from the event will support projects by the PTO such as the Weekly Reader magazine program, field trips, assembly programs, supplies for teachers, and other items.

Persons who wish to donate items for the auction may drop them off at the Salisbury-Elk Lick High School on Friday, Oct. 15, from 3:30 to 7 p.m. For more information, persons may call Debra Brenneman PTO president, at 814-662-2946.

Both courses will be taught by cake decorator, Ruth Harvey. Both courses will be held at the Oakland Center and will cost $16 plus $4 registration fee and materials. For more information persons may call Patricia Baer at 334-8304 or the Continuing Education office at 387-3069.

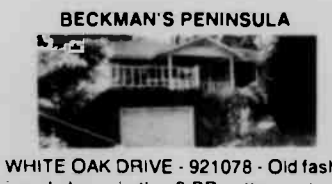
Tuition for this course will be $5 and students must be 16 years of age to register. Registration will be limited to 25 students and will be taken on a first-come, first-serve basis. DEEP CREEK LAKE IT REALLY IS AFFORDABLE!!

by Karen Frazee-Spiker, Broker

Many times a misconception occurs because a few proud statements are made that give an illusion to the bystander that those statements apply to everything. Maybe these thoughts have entered your mind.

"The prices are just too high at Deep Creek..."
"only the very rich can afford to live there..."
"nice homes cost more than $250,000."

I believe we can be proud that we have some very large and attractive waterfront properties at Deep Creek Lake, and yes, in many cases, prices exceed $350,000, $450,000, even $500,000. However, there are still many opportunities to own and enjoy Deep Creek Lake with a much smaller investment.



We have selected at random a few of these opportunities for your review -- all are LAKE ACCESS AND/OR LAKEFRONT priced under $125,000.

Three Cleared, One Found Guilty Of Drug Charges

Three men were cleared of drug charges and one man was found guilty stemming from the same case heard in Garrett County District Court last week. Judge John F. Kelly Sr. was the sitting judge in last week's proceedings.

Robert J. Windle, 29, Gaithersburg; Aaron A. Dellacqua, 27, Temple Hills; and Bruno S. Ortiz, 28, Falls Church, Va.; were all cleared as the State's Attorney's Office decided not to prosecute drug possession and drug paraphernalia possession charges against each of the men. That decision was based on the statement of the fourth defendant in the case.

Found guilty of those charges was Gary D. Hicks, 31, Edgewater. For the drug possession charge, he was handed a 60-day suspended jail term, fined $150, and placed on one year of unsupervised probation. On the paraphernalia charge, he was fined $100 and placed on one year of unsupervised probation.

The four had been charged with those offenses by the Department of Natural Resources Police on July 11 at a state park campsite. Police reports indicate that the four were told be quiet when one officer observed Hicks placing suspected marijuana in a rolling paper. The officer also observed additional suspected marijuana in the back of the defendant's van.

In other District Court news, Eric G. Weimer, 31, Rawlings, was found guilty of possession of marijuana. He was handed a 60-day suspended sentence, fined $150, and placed on one year of unsupervised probation. He was also found guilty of driving while under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs, handed a $150 fine and placed on one year of unsupervised probation. A charge of possession of drug paraphernalia possession was not prosecuted because of a plea agreement with the State's Attorney's Office.

Weimer had been stopped by the Garrett County Sheriff's Office on January 17 for a faulty exhaust when a deputy observed the defendant looking at a pouch on the inside of his car door. The deputy reportedly spotted a bag a suspected marijuana in the pouch and a subsequent arrest resulted in a further search of the vehicle which revealed two additional bags of suspected marijuana and a metal smoking pipe.

MONDAY BLAZE KILLS TWO - This Monday morning blaze resulted in the death of two residents of this mobile home located along Allegheny Drive in Mtn. Lake Park, as Elizabeth Ann Ray, 32, and her daughter, Hollie Marie Ray, 7, were unable to escape from a back bedroom. Above, Oakland fire fighter Dennis Murray, who was injured at the scene, attempts to douse some of the flames that had engulfed the structure before help arrived. The cause of the fire was believed to be a kerosene heater, however the investigation is still underway by the state fire marshal's office. See story.

Local BOE President Selected To State Exec. Committee

Beverly A. Murphy, president of the Garrett County Board of Education, was selected last week at the Maryland Association of Boards of Education (MABE) conference to serve another term on that association's executive committee. She is the sole representative of the county on the committee.

MABE's conference took place at the Wisp Resort and Conference Center. This was the first time the MABE conference was held in Garrett County, and Mrs. Murphy was apparently a driving force behind the planning of the local event.

Other members of the executive committee include representatives from Caroline, Cecil, Frederick, Harford, Kent, Montgomery, Talbot, Washington, and Wicomico counties. This is not the first term Mrs. Murphy has served on the committee.

The state's 24 school boards and the state board of education belong to MABE, which provides in-service training for school board members and represents them on public education issues in Annapolis and Washington.

Thayer Finds Thanos Competent To Dismiss Lawyers; Signs Death Warrant

The Honorable Judge Fred A. Thayer of Garrett County Circuit Court declared convicted murderer John F. Thanos to be competent enough to make the decision to relieve his public defenders, Thomas Saunders and Steven Harris, on Monday. Thayer also found Thanos capable of making the decision to seek no further review of his case, and to reject his statutory right of a 240-day stay of execution. The judge then signed the warrant for execution, setting the date for Thanos to die in the first week of November.

Thanos was convicted earlier this year of the murder of two teenagers - Melody Pistorio, 14, and Billy Winebrenner, 16 - who were gunned down in a Middle River (Md.) convenience store during a robbery on Labor Day, 1990. The trial was a change of venue case, being heard by Thayer and a local jury. The defendant was found guilty of two counts of first degree murder and a death sentence was handed down, which was immediately appealed.

The hearing Monday was a result of a hearing last month during which Thanos expressed his desire to fire his defenders. His attorneys in turn claimed he was incompetent to make this decision, and Thayer had to decide the issue. Thanos has apparently threatened to commit suicide and has attempted to do so on various occasions during his incarceration. As this is against the law, his defense lawyers claimed that his attempt to fire them and serve as his own defender was yet another attempt at suicide. Thayer disagreed.

The judge explained his rationale for the decision, saying that Thanos was not unable to make the decision - which would indicate some incompetency - but he was openly refusing the services of the lawyers. Thayer reminded the lawyers that

Eleventh Rabies Case Reported

The Garrett County Health Department (GCHD) today announced the 11th case of rabies in Garrett County for 1993. According to Tina Buckel, sanitarian for the GCHD, the confirmed rabid animal was a raccoon.

The raccoon came onto a property located near the intersection of Rts. 135 and 495 and the animal reportedly fought with a dog before a resident on the property shot the raccoon. The dogs vaccination had been expired for almost a year and it had to be euthanized, stated Buckel, who added there was no human exposure in this incident. "Once again, the owner of the dog was careful not to touch the dog with bare hands within two hours of the altercation."

Buckel continued, "It is important to check your pet's vaccination records to make sure they are kept up to date"

Dogs and cats need to be re-vaccinated every three years if they are over a year old and have previously received a rabies vaccination. The Health Department concluded its final round of low-cost rabies clinics for the year last week. Therefore, pet owners are advised to take their unvaccinated pets to a veterinarian.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK PROCLAIMED - The Garrett County Commissioners have proclaimed the week of October 3-9 as Fire Prevention Week, in conjunction with National Fire Prevention Week, and have called on citizens to practice fire safety and to recognize the value of escape planning from buildings. The proclamation states that "those members of the fire service in Garrett County are dedicated to the safety of life and property from the devastating effects of fire, and they are joined by other concerned citizens of this county, as well as schools and organizations, in their fire safety efforts. Those efforts are supported by the activities of organizations such as the regional and county volunteer fire and rescue associations, the National Fire Protection Association, and the American Red Cross." Shown in the above photo, standing, left to right, are Rebecca DeWitt, Kitzmiller Volunteer Fire Department and EMS Officer; Pat Bowser and Terry Speer, both of the Friendsville Volunteer Fire Department; Bob Legeer, Bittinger Volunteer Fire Department; Mike Simmons, Grantsville Volunteer Fire Department; Phil Rook, Oakland Volunteer Fire Department; Andy Anderson, Deer Park Volunteer Fire Department; and Edward Bach, president of the Accident Volunteer Fire Department. Seated, same order, are the Garrett County Commissioners, Brenda Butscher, Elwood Groves, and John Bresko.

Several Arrests Logged By GCSO

The Garrett County Sheriff's Office logged several arrests this week on charges including forgery, sex offenses, CDS (controlled dangerous substance) possession, and breaking and entering. The officers are also seeking information about a possible hit and run which happened last week in Mtn. Lake Park.

A 21-year-old Mtn. Lake Park man was arrested this week, charged with two counts of forgery and one count of felony theft. Michael V. Sebree is accused of trading a 1991 Chevrolet Cavalier to a car dealership in Cumberland after he forged a co-owner's name on the title. Tammy J. Murphy is the victim in the case.

An Accident woman was charged last Wednesday with

Mtn. Lake Park Mother, Child Killed In Monday Morning Fire

A kerosene heater is believed to be the cause of a blaze that gutted a mobile home in Mtn. Lake Park Tuesday morning and killed two of the residents.

The bodies of Elizabeth Ann Ray, 32, and her daughter, Hollie Marie Ray, 7, were discovered in a bedroom addition that had been built onto the back of the trailer. They were pronounced dead at the scene by forensic investigator Jeff Hinebaugh, of Garrett County Memorial Hospital.

Oakland and Deer Park volunteer fire fighters were called to the residence, located at the corner of Allegheny Drive and D Street, at 6:31 a.m. The blaze was discovered by a neighbor, Ernest R Welch, who had come out of his house to get his paper from his mailbox. Welch called 911 and told the Garrett County Office of Emergency Management that flames were coming from the structure. Welch said he also knocked on the door of the residence, but there was no answer.

The mobile home was fully involved in flames when firemen arrived, but the blaze was brought under control in about 20 minutes. Oakland fire fighter Dennis Murray discovered the bodies shortly thereafter. The body of Mrs. Ray was found on the bedroom floor, while that of the child was discovered in the upper bed of a set of bunk beds.

It appeared that Mrs. Ray had attempted to get her child out of the trailer because the window of the room was open when firemen arrived. It was believed that both victims died of smoke inhalation; however, autopsies were to be performed Wednesday.

Mrs. Ray's husband, Alonzo Ray, 32, a part-time employee for the town of Mtn. Lake Park, was admitted to Garrett County Memorial Hospital the evening before the fire, reportedly with a blood clot in his leg. Another of Mrs. Ray's children, James Reed, was also not at home at the time of the fire.

Also perishing in the blaze were two of the families pet dogs and three parakeets. Fire fighter Murray was bitten on the hand by another of the family's dogs outside the trailer and was also burned on his wrist from molten aluminum. He was later treated and released at Garrett Memorial Hospital.

Steve Wendling, deputy fire marshal from the Maryland State Fire Marshal's office, responded to the scene and determined that a kerosene heater was the most likely cause of the blaze. Spearheading the investigation is Deputy Chief Fire Marshal Charles Cronauer. Besides Wendling, Deputy Fire Marshal James Woods is also participating, as is the Carroll County canine team.

WIC Coupons To Be Accepted At Two More Stores

Two grocery stores have now been added to the recently downsized list of vendors who may accept coupons for the Women, Infants, and Children program (WIC). Although not yet identified, a pharmacy in Garrett County will also be added to the list.

The Maryland Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DHMH) recently decreased the number of WIC vendors in the county from seven to three but, as expected by local WIC coordinator Carol Bass, the department has reviewed hardship cases and has agreed to add two stores to the list.

Joining the Oakland Food Lion, the Grantsville Foodland, and the Mtn. Lake Park IGA as WIC vendors will be Accident IGA and Browning's Foodland, Oakland, as of October 1. According to Bass, a pharmacy to accommodate the program will be named at a later date.

The announcement to add the two stores was made Friday during a meeting of the Western Maryland delegation which includes District 1-A Delegate George C. Edwards and District 1

ALA Endorses Flu Shots For High Risk Groups

Influenza (the flu) affects thousands of Marylanders each winter. In 1990 alone, there were more than 70,500 deaths from flu and pneumonia across the country, according to the American Lung Association of Maryland.

"Many of these cases could have been prevented had the individuals received a flu shot," said E. James Britt, M.D., spokesperson for the ALA. "Despite common misconception, the vaccine is safe and does not cause a mild case of influenza."

The optimal period for the yearly flu vaccination is October 15 through November 15. Flu shots are available through local health departments or personal physicians. This year, flu shots are covered by Medicare, enabling more senior citizens to become vaccinated.

High-risk individuals are especially encouraged to receive shots. This includes those age 65 and older, individuals with chronic heart or lung disease, children with asthma, health care providers, and employees who work with others in high-risk groups.

Flu begins in the respiratory system and its symptoms include fever, chills, weakness, loss of appetite, body aches, sneezing, and coughing. Pneumonia is the most common complication of influenza and is characterized by a serious infection or inflammation of the lungs.

For a free brochure about influenza or pneumonia, or for more information, persons may call the American Lung Association of Maryland at (800) LUNG-USA.

The ALAM is dedicated to fighting lung disease through research, advocacy, and teaching.

Hospice Slates Open House In Hospital Room

Hospice of Garrett County, Inc., will have an open house on Sunday, October 3, between 1 and 3 p.m. to allow the public to tour the Hospice Patient Room at the Garrett County Memorial Hospital.

The room has been completely renovated with an efficiency kitchen that has a microwave, sink and refrigerator, a small table and chairs for light meals, television and reading materials. Local Infants And Toddlers Program Services And Requirements Explained

Director Seeks Eligible Children

by Mary Sincell McEwen

Children grow rapidly and gain knowledge daily from birth, and in the first four years of life make huge leaps and bounds in language, motor skills, and social behavior. Some children, however, fall behind the norm and begin to lose ground. They may not speak as early as they should, they may not be able to walk when expected, or may display other atypical behavior evident to an observer. These children may be "developmentally delayed" and may require some special help in the extremely important first years of their lives.

A basically cost-free service for local children (newborns through age 3) who are developmentally delayed is readily available in Garrett County, although its existence is somewhat unknown among residents. This service is the Maryland Infants and Toddlers Program, which is offered by the Office of Children, Youth, and Families "OCYF", currently located at the Garrett County Board of Education office. The Infants and Toddlers Program is an early intervention service for delayed youngsters and their families, and serves qualified children no matter what may be the income status of the family. For a child to be aided by this service, he or she must be experiencing a 25% developmental delay, as determined by officials of the program, the education board office, and the Garrett County Health Department.

According to Bob Stephens, executive director of the local OCYF, Maryland is one of five "birth states" in the country, meaning that while most states offer these sort of services for children aged 4 and up, Maryland law requires that the services be available from birth. Because the first three years of a child's life encompass the most critical time for learning, according to studies done by OCYF and other agencies, early intervention is considered of supreme importance. The earlier the agency can help a family face its challenges, the less help the family will need in the future.

"Intervention is most effective when it occurs early in a child's life," stated Maureen Black, Ph.D. at the University of Maryland Medical School. "It is easier to help a family establish healthy patterns of interaction than to reverse unhealthy patterns."

Stephens explained that any person with any concern about a child, whether it be their own or a grandchild, may contact him directly at the local office. The child can be tested locally and it will be determined if he or she does indeed have a 25% developmental delay. Physicians are also urged to refer a child to the Infants and Toddlers Program if they suspect the child's development to be delayed.

"The doctors here seem to be a little reluctant to refer a child to the Infants and Toddlers Program," Stephens said, explaining that in a small area like Garrett County, doctors are so busy they may shy away from something that they fear may further complicate their work.

"But once the child is referred, the physician has no other responsibility to us," he said. School counselors and health department officials may also refer a child who may benefit from the program.

Stephens stressed that the agency is actively seeking more children to serve. Currently the program is providing assistance to nine children in Garrett County, but by state figures, the number should be about 15. Those who are assisted do not pay for the basic services, as the program is funded by the state and through certain federal monies of the education board.

Early intervention services may include audiology and speech therapy, physical therapy, fine motor skills therapy, family training, counseling, some health services, social work, special instruction, and other assistance.

Stephens said an Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP) is used with each participant, utilizing a family-centered philosophy of care that recognizes families have unique strengths and play critical care-giving and decision-making roles. Each family and the support it receives is unique, tailored to the family's needs. Stephens said the plan of assistance for a child is decided upon by the family and a multidisciplinary team consisting of representatives from various service and support agencies. This inner-agency process provides a more complete plan of action for the family.

The assistance provided a special needs child occurs mainly in the home, and involves the participation of parents and other family members.

"We have discovered that the only way to truly make this work is by involving the family. We try to listen, ask the family members for ideas, and hear their difficulties," he said. "We have also found that it is not effective to have a physical therapist work just one hour a week with a child without teaching other members how to administer the therapy for the rest of the week. It has to be a group effort in which the entire family learns to cope daily with its own situation."

The program is not designed for children with medical problems, Stephen explained, but more for

Plans Finalized For Life Chain, Set For Sunday

Plans have been finalized for the second annual Garrett County Life Chain, which will be held this Sunday, Oct. 3, in downtown Oakland. Similar chains are planned in over 800 cities and towns in the U.S. and Canada by various organizations and churches as a peaceful demonstration against abortion.

Pre-registration for the local chain has been underway in area churches and through the local coordinator, JoAnn Fletcher, president of the Garrett County Right to Life chaptar. Registration will also be held at check-in pointa the day of the Life Chain, beginning at 1 p.m. The chain will last for one hour, from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m., with participants holding signs provided by the Life Chain committee.

FATAL FIRE SCENE - Oakland and Deer Park fire fighters engage in mop up operations after bringing under control a mobile home fire that killed two Mtn. Lake Park residents Monday morning. Elizabeth Ann Ray, 32, and her 7-year-old daughter, Hollie Marie Ray, died in the 6:30 a.m. blaze that was believed to be caused by a kerosene space heater. The bodies of the pair were found inside a back bedroom, just inside the window pictured above left. Below, Deputy Chief Fire Marshal Charles Cronauer inspects the kerosene heater believed to have caused the fire. See story on front page.

Registration points have been set up and are as follows: participants from the Mtn. Top Christian Assembly of God Church, Oakland Church of the Nazarene, and Faith Evangelical Free Church are to register at the Oakland Church of the Nazarene, located at the corner of Eighth and Oak streets. Participants from St. Peter's Catholic Church, St. Ann's Catholic Church, Rocky Drean Assembly of God, Glade Mennonite, and Oak Park Church of the Brethren are to register at St. Peter's Catholic Church, located on Fourth Street. Members of the Crellin United Brethren should check in at the registration table located at the corner of Rt. 219 and Green Street. All others who have not pre-registered or are not listed above, should sign in at the table located at the corner of Rt. 219 and Center Street.

One dollar donation is requested from each participant to help defray expenses of the event. Each is also asked to donate a "baby shower" item for the Mountain Top Crisis Pregnancy Center, which will be collected at the check-in points.

In conjunction with the Life Chain, an open house will be held at the Crisis Pregnancy Center from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. The center is located along G Street in Mtn. Lake Park, just south of Rt. 135.

According to Ms. Fletcher, the Life Chain is expected to be "entirely peaceful." National director Royce Dunn noted, "Of the more than two million Christians who have participated in previous Life Chains, no report has reached our office of any pro-life participant turning to violence of any kind."

During the Life Chain, participants are asked not to respond to taunts from motorists and to accommodate, with kindness, any abortion advocate who endeavors to enter the chain. Following the event, participants are asked to voluntarily clear their area of any litter that was present on their arrival, and they are asked to not hold up traffic at intersections.

The Life Chain, according to organizers, is not primarily a public protest, and a large turnout is not its chief goal. "The chain's primary purpose," Dunn said, "is to minister to the participants themselves. We must acknowledge our past failure to defend and aid the victims of abortion, both child and mother. We must also aid woman who have had abortions and who may have been victims of boyfriend or husband demands."

Persons desiring more information about the Garrett County Life Chain, or wishing to register, may contact Ms. Fletcher at 301-689-3756.

Second Annual Trivia Challenge To Begin Oct. 4

The second annual WKHJ-Uno's Trivia Challenge for Charity is slated to begin Monday, Oct. 4, on WKHJ-Radio, 98.9 FM. This year's challenge will generate approximately $4,000 to local charities - $1,000 more in prize money than last year - according to Cathy Clocker, promotions chairperson for the radio station.

Numerous three-member teams from businesses and private groups took part in the challenge last year, which lasted several months. The top-scoring team - the TDEC Tornadoes - won the $1,000 grand prize for its charity, Big Brother Big Sisters of Garrett County. Every competing team won a monetary prize for their charities, as well as free lunch for three at Uno's Restaurant and Bar, Deep Creek Lake.

"This year's grand prize winner will win a total of $1,325," Mrs. Clocker said. "The second place winner will win $825, semi-finalists will win $325, and quarter finalists will win $125. Each team that plays will receive $25 for its selected charity, plus lunch for three at Uno's. The grand prize winners will also be treated to a party for 25 at Uno's."

Two teams at a time will compete through a week-long on-air trivia contest. The first team will be called by the radio station at 8:55 a.m., and will be asked two questions by Terry King, station manager. The second team will be contacted at 9:55 a.m. and also asked two questions. At the end of the first week, the team with the highest number of correctly answered questions will move on to a second week of competition, and the losing team will receive the $25 donation for its charity. If a team makes it through two weeks with the highest score, it will move to the quarter finals, which take place after all teams have taken part in the regular competition.

Mrs. Clocker noted that in the event of a tie, the team answering the most questions correctly before missing one will be declared the winner. This is a change from last year's rules, as is the number of questions asked each day.

Any three-person group may register in the KHJ-Uno's Trivia Challenge, either representing a business or private group. Each team must play for a local charity of the team members' choice.

"Winning $1,000 for Big Brothers/Big Sisters was extremely gratifying," said Betsy Marple, TDEC team captain. "We're looking forward to playing again this year. Win or lose, it's a lot of fun."

To register in the trivia contest, persons should send the names of the three-member team, the chosen local charity, and a daytime phone number and address to WKHJ, P.O. Box 2337, Mtn. Lake Park, MD 21550. Teams may also phone the station at 334-4272, or fax information to 334-2152.

The prize money will be provided by WKHJ and Uno's Restaurant and Bar.

Thefts, Property Destruction Cases Probed By GCSO

The Garrett County Sheriff's Office was notified of several incidents of theft and property destruction in the past week. Numerous items have been stolen from area residents, including tires, tools, stereo and video equipment, and a gun.

Richard Stuck of Oakview Motors, Mtn. Lake Park, called the police when he discovered the apparent theft of four wheels and tires. Stuck explained that a Ford pickup had been parked in the rear of the parking lot on Sept. 26, and on Sept. 27, Stuck found it to be jacked up and all four 15" tires and wheels were removed.

The culprits also scratched a 1994 red Dodge Ram as they left the lot, officers speculate. The investigation is continuing.

In another case, Richard Cropp contacted the sheriff's office when he found that a vacation residence he was caring for had been illegally entered. Officers responded to the home, located in Kitzmiller and owned by Vladimir Dupre. The kitchen window was broken and stolen from inside was a television, VCR, and a lawn mower. Detectives were able to lift fingerprints from some objects in the home, according to the report. The theft took place sometime around Sept. 22.

William C. Kremann reported the breaking and entering of a home in the Youghiogheny Mountain Resort, and the subsequent theft of a Remington 22 calibre single-shot bolt-action rifle. The gun was valued at $20, according to the report.

The home was reportedly found ransacked, with drawers open and other items lying out, as if the culprits intended to take more. The rear door of the house was found open, and a shed outside was also broken into.

This incident occurred sometime between Sept. 12-26.

Mary Teets reported a property destruction involving her 1987 Ford Escort. The vehicle broke down in Mtn. Lake Park and was left parked on B Street last Friday at 9:30 p.m. The owners returned to the car at 11:30 p.m., and one of the windows had been broken out. The damage estimate was listed at $200.

Sheriff's deputies are continuing their investigation.

Fire Prevention Week...

Nearly every week of the calendar year is designated or proclaimed as a week for some kind of special awareness or recognition. It happens that National Fire Prevention Week is Oct. 3-9, right on the heels of a tragic fire that claimed two lives in Mtn. Lake Park.

A mother and her young daughter, known by many local people, became grim statistics early Monday morning when they were unable to escape the blaze that raged through their mobile home. The mother apparently made a valiant effort to save her child and herself, but succumbed to the intense heat and smoke.

Sadly, similar tragedies occur somewhere in the country every day. What makes the situation even more unfortunate is that the great majority of them are avoidable and the result of carelessness.

During a time of such intense grief for the Ray family, we will not speculate on the "if onlys" that may or may not exist in this particular case. However, we see this as an opportunity to make a special plea to local residents to be more aware of fire safety and realize the potential results when that awareness is lacking. Fire can strike suddenly and without warning, and leave death and destruction in its wake within minutes.

All families should take at least a few minutes next week (or better yet, today) to discuss fire safety procedures and to inspect their homes to identify any fire hazards that may exist. Young children should be taught what to do in the event of a fire, depending upon its location in the house. Family fire drills, utilizing as many avenues of escape that may be available, should be conducted. Flues should be inspected and great care should be taken in the use of woodstoves and kerosene heaters, especially now that the night-time temperatures are approaching the freezing level.

One of the simplest, and most important, things that should be done right away is for persons who still don't have smoke alarms in their homes to purchase and install them, and for those who presently have alarms to check the batteries in them. These inexpensive devices have already saved thousands of lives. It is also a state law to have them in all family dwellings.

The lives of Elizabeth and Hollie Ray cannot be regained; however, their deaths need not be totally in vain if even the members of one local family respond to this tragedy by making their own home and lives safer.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

"See You At The Pole" is a national annual event that brings youth of different faiths to the flagpoles of their respective schools to pray. How exciting it was when approximately 40 youth and adults met at the flagpole at Southern High School on Wednesday morning, Sept. 15, to join together to offer prayer for each other, teachers, students, and communities. These young people recognized and acknowledged the power of united prayer.

In a day when headlines read of pessimism and tragedy, this activity demonstrated the hope that lives within the heart of the youth of our community. This Hope is not just a feeling, but a Person--Jesus Christ!

May our youth continue to hold this Hope. Paul instructs Timothy in the scripture, "Let no man despise thy youth, but be an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity" (I Timothy 4:12). I'm proud of these youth of our area and trust that their lives will continue to exemplify and reflect Jesus Christ! They truly can represent light, hope, and love in a dark and hurting world.

Sincerely,
Tim Miller

To the Editor:

Arthritis is commonly thought of as a disease of the elderly, but an estimated 200,000 American children experience the daily pain and limitations of arthritis. During the week of October 4-10, the Arthritis Foundation is focusing its efforts to inform people about childhood arthritis. Unfortunately, the children in Maryland with arthritis are all too aware of its impact each day of the year.

Much like arthritis in adults, childhood arthritis is painful, limits activity and can sometimes be crippling. But children also face unique challenges. Growth may be affected by the disease process or the medication that is necessary. Activity with other children may be limited because of fatigue or physical limitations. Emotional stress is greater during an already difficult stage of life. Plus, the entire family unit is affected as plans may have to change at the last minute because of an arthritis flare-up, medical expenses provide increased financial burdens, sibling rivalry is enhanced and family stress is increased.

Luckily, the research and support of the Arthritis Foundation provides help and hope to families coping with childhood arthritis. Greater knowledge about the disease is being acquired and treatments studied. Meanwhile, information, support and services are available through the Arthritis Foundation that can make life with arthritis easier and less painful.

Yes, arthritis affects 37 million Americans, 640,000 in Maryland alone. But it is more than minor aches and pains that only affect older people. Arthritis affects people of all ages and can have a tremendous impact on one's life no matter what age. However, there is help and hope available. I encourage everyone in Maryland with arthritis, or who knows someone with arthritis, to call the Arthritis Foundation, Western Maryland Branch at 759-9411 or 1-800-365-3811 for information and services that can make a difference.

Sincerely,
Norine M. Walker

To the Editor:

Usually the cartoons on the editorial page get my attention, even if I do not read anything else on that page. Some of the cartoons I consider really good, some mean absolutely nothing, and some are downright dumb or stupid such as the one on the editorial page of Thursday, Sept. 23, 1993. Said cartoon is not only dumb or stupid, but it takes a cheap, lying shot at the National Rifle Association. This association does not knowingly accept as members dirt-bags like the one shown.

The anti-gun media and the anti-gun nut organizations rely heavily on the "Big Lie" to keep going. Washington, D.C. prohibits guns, period, but is considered by many as the murder capitol of the world, proof positive that gun controls simple do not work.

On the same editorial page as the cartoon is an editorial about a mother and her 13 year old found stabbed and bludgeoned to death and a 10 year old daughter left in critical condition. The editorial goes to great length telling how killers are coddled and supported by the system. Perfect case in point is the convicted murderer of Deputy Sheriff Livengood. This convicted murderer should have been executed many years ago, but the "big shots" in power apparently lacked the courage or intestinal fortitude (guts) to do their jobs. This convicted murderer has, over the years cost the Maryland taxpayer's a huge pile of taxpayer dollars.

The bottom line of the whole mess is that there is no gun problem. There is a crime problem. In too many cases criminals are slapped on the wrist and released to continue criminal activity.

The answer:

Lock the bad ones up. Throw the key away. Give them plain food, and water and enough shelter to keep them out of the weather, even if it has to be done by building stockades with barbed wire and machine guns, and of course search lights. This could be done out in a desert area where space is no problem.

Gun control does not work. It is aimed entirely at the law-abiding, voting taxpaying citizen and the criminal element simply thumbs their noses at any law which applies to them.

To the Editor:

I am writing concerning the no-smoking policy in the Garrett Co. Jail. There are many inmates who hava been smoking for as many aa 40 years, which makes quitting very difficult and makes a person irritable and very much on edge; making it difficult to get along with each other and the correction officers.

Quitting smoking cold turkey is bad for your health. Like with any drug there are withdrawals caused. This is costing the jail (taxpayers') money in trips to the doctor to find out why they are not able to sleep and have frequent headaches, among other things.

While not smoking is costing the jail (taxpayers') money, the jail is losing thousands of dollars a year because of not selling cigarettes in the commissary. There would be approximately $350 spent on cigarettes alone each week by inmates. That means the jail loses $1,400 a month and nearly $17,000 a year...(This is figured at $1.25 a pack for generic brand cigarettes.) If the jail were to purchase these for half of the price, that is $8,500 not being made a year. I do believe that is a sizable sum!

These figures were based on a jail population of 32 inmates, 28 of whom smoke. If someone were to do a survey (like the one enclosed) every six months, they would find that the smoker/non-smoker ratio would remain about the same, with the smokers heavily outweighing the non-smokers.

While smoking is forbidden in a public building, jail inmates are segregated from the public. (The jail is not considered a public building.) All public buildings have access to a smoking area or outside.

Here are three possible solutions to the loss of profit.

1. Allow smoking in the sections again. This is the most inexpensive way. It would cost nothing except the cost of ordering cigarettes for the commissary.

2. Supply nicotine patches to inmates free of cost. This is not very feasible, money-wise. Patches are costly and would never show any kind of profit. There are always smokers coming into the jail. The new inmates would always want nicotine patches to cut down on the withdrawal symptoms, costing the jail (taxpayers) more and more money.

3. Designate a smoking area. There are two 12-foot by 12-foot spaces that could be used. Of course they would need a cover on top, and a door into each section. It would be costly at first, for materials only. The inmates could do all of the work under the supervision of state employees. The sale of cigarettes would quickly pay for the materials and turn profitable.

Sincerely,
The inmates of the Garrett County Jail

Editor's note: The signatures of 33 inmates accompanied the above letter.

To the Editor:

I am writing to you on behalf of myself and all the other inmates in the Garrett County Jail. This concerns the treatment and conditions that we, the inmates, have to endure. We realize that we have broken the law and are willing to pay our debt to society; but also we still have rights and deserve to be treated like human beings. People at least let their pets outside for fresh air, give them a pat on the head or a little snack when they are good, but we don't get anything like that. All these people want to do is take away.

The first item to consider is that they hold the prisoners in jail (here) twice as long as the state prison does for the same sentence. All this extra time you, the taxpayers, are paying to support us and our families. For example, on a one-year sentence, if you attend school, work outside detail or work-release or any special project, you will earn 10 days' credit, which is deducted from your sentence. Also you receive 10 days good conduct credit which makes a total of 20 days per month. This lets you serve approximately four months and days on one year, where in Garrett County you'll serve nine months, three days on the same charge.

Another item is the ban on smoking which they are taking like a federal crime. They did not give us a designated smoking area like the other institutions, nor do they offer any type of treatment for heavy smokers. They don't care about a person who has smoked a pack or more a day for 30 years and understand that you go through a withdrawal the same as an alcoholic or a drug user.

The sheriff's office does not feel any remorse for us, but they can take two days and 10 officers with a dog to harass and dismantle our property and the jails looking for contraband (cigs., matches, etc.), so they could put you on lock-up for whatever time suits them; also take away good time and visiting privileges. This punishment (at your expense) is more severe than the judge gives out for a drug charge--that's usually only 48 hours--unless you are a local resident.

This also pertains to our bad habit. Either the sheriff or the warden discontinued our outside community service work detail. They're afraid we'll try to smuggle in contraband.

Anyone who is concerned at all about the community welfare should ask the county, state roads dept., Mtn. Lake Park, or Broadford Recreation area what effect this smoking deal has had on them, by taking away the help that we inmates are giving them.

Let's look at a few other little problems with our Mansion on the hill. It's called sanitation. We have one toilet and one shower for 14 inmates and no drinking water except from the bathroom sink. On weekends when we have inmates com-

GARRETT COMMUNITY COLLEGE

This article is one of a series designed to support the growth and development of small businesses in Garrett County. It was written by Sandy Major, a counselor for the Small Business Development Center and a Business Training Coordinator at Garrett Community College. Sandy believes that while it is critical for companies to provide quality products and services, even more is needed in order to survive in today's tough competitive business environment. How to move your business toward quality and beyond is the subject of this series of articles. The staff of the SBDC invites you to learn about quality or about free small business counseling services by calling 387-3101.

ON LISTENING TO OUR CUSTOMERS

Our last article dealt with the competitive advantage of providing quality customer service that will bring customers back. This process begins with getting to know our customers and meeting their expectations. Meeting those expectations 100% of the time is the definition of quality.

When we see 100%, our reaction is usually, "Nobody is perfect -- how can we be expected to do it right all of the time." When we look further into quality, we learn that 100% doesn't mean perfection -- it means giving the customer what he or she wants. And how do we know what our customers want? We ask them. Just talking about customer service is not enough. We really need to listen to our customers in order to understand their expectations.

I heard about a grocer recently who had a quart of eggnog returned to him. The customer explained that the "eggnog was bad." The grocer tasted it, and told her, "No it's not -- it's fine." When the customer insisted that the eggnog was not "fine," the grocer reached in his pocket and handed her a dollar bill, saying, "Here. It cost ninety-five cents; here's a dollar. But the eggnog is still OK." As the customer left the store, she stated that she would never return.

The grocer realized that in spite of having refunded her money, he had failed to listen to his customer and meet her expectations. In the process, he lost a customer. Probably he lost several more since she probably told some friends about it. An unhappy customer usually repeats his or her story to eleven other people. Since it costs five times more to create a new customer than to keep an old one, it turned out be a very expensive mistake for the grocer.

Unfortunately 96% of unhappy customers will not complain to the businesses that fail to meet their expectations. But only 5% of these unhappy customers will buy again from those businesses. We need to view customers who complain to us, who tell us where we have opportunities to improve our service, as friends. We should encourage them to always let us know when something is wrong, or could be done better.

Anytime we hear that our service has been less than our customers expected, we should listen as if our future depended on it. It does.

CLINICAL DEPRESSION
by Carol Cox

At least 10 million Americans have some form of clinical depression in any given six-month period, making it one of the most prevalent illnesses in our society today.

Its causes are believed to be largely biological and, like many other serious disorders, depression knows no social, economic or gender boundaries. Its symptoms--which include prolonged feelings of hopelessness and sadness, irritability, major changes in eating and sleeping habits, concentration/memory difficulties and physical complaints such as headaches or back pain, are likely to affect 25% of all women and 12% of all men at one time or another.

Approximately 12 million children--infants through 18-year-olds--suffer from diagnosable psychiatric disorders such as depression, attention deficit disorder and pervasive development disorders.

Serious depression, once thought to affect only adults, is now known to affect one in 50 children. Some scientists think even toddlers may suffer from a form of depression. They can feel sadness and loss, especially when they have suffered a severe deprivation such as chronic illness, physical handicap, parental death or abuse and neglect.

Living with a depressed person is difficult under any circumstances. When the person is your husband or wife, the problems escalate. The role of spouse carries with it the expectations of love, companionship, parental partnership and economic support. But depression reduces sexual desire, energy levels, social abilities and productivity. In can destroy a relationship. Depression can cause people to become withdrawn, rejected and irritable. If the non-depressed spouse, realizes that illness causes these behaviors, he or she may find it less difficult to feel hurt and to respond in a non-rejecting way.

Until symptoms are alleviated, depressed people need patience, understanding, encouragement and assistance. Counseling is often helpful for the non-depressed person to learn how to walk this fine line, to clarify alternatives, to offer solutions and to "stiffen spines" for the times when it's necessary to get tough to ensure treatment.

For more information on depression, call 334-4357. I'll send you printed material.

Gov. Schaefer Speaks Out

VOLUNTEER MARYLAND: A COMMITMENT TO SERVICE
by Governor William Donald Schaefer

In late August, I attended a National Service Forum with President Clinton held at the University of Maryland's College Park campus. Young people from around the country came to share their experiences and insights with the President on what they thought national service should encompass. I was impressed by the dedication and spirit of these young people, who believe community service is a responsibility of every citizen.

A remarkable young woman from Baltimore, Mary John, came to the forum to share her experiences with the service work she is doing through a program called Volunteer Maryland. Mary began her work with Volunteer Maryland in January 1993 and is one of the pioneers of the program, which has become a model for the nation.

Funded by the federal Commission on National and Community Service and run through the Governor's Office, Volunteer Maryland offers both full- and part-time service opportunities for adults. Participants, called coordinators, work in partnership with non-profit organizations and government agencies to become the inspirational leaders in encouraging people to get involved in volunteer work.

The 1993 Volunteer Maryland Coordinators represent a vast cross-section of Maryland residents; ranging in age from 19 to 67 years; coming from all backgrounds; from all parts of the state; with varying levels of education. The more than 70 full- and part-time coordinators are highly motivated and believe that volunteer work should be a way of life for everyone. The commitment begins in their hearts.

The incredible work being done by these volunteers is equally as diverse: Mary John works in partnership with the Department of Juvenile Services and has been recruiting and training adults from the private sector to become mentors to troubled youths in detention centers. Other Volunteer Maryland coordinators are recruiting and training volunteers for tasks such as teaching AIDS prevention to the deaf community, restoring waterways, teaching Fetal Alcohol Syndrome prevention to teenagers, teaching people how to read, and running recycling centers.

Coordinators and host sites work together for one year with the double mission of increasing the number of citizens who volunteer and increasing the ability of these vital organizations to use volunteers more effectively. Overall, coordinators have found that when asked, people are very willing to give their time and energy to help. And, when run properly, volunteer programs greatly enhance the delivery of services.

In January, Volunteer Maryland will begin 40 new partnerships with trained coordinators and host sites. To find out more about this innovative approach to volunteerism, please call Volunteer Maryland at (410) 514-7270. There are plenty of worthwhile causes and great rewards.

As another part of Maryland's continuing efforts to recognize the value of volunteerism, the "Maryland You are Beautiful" program will again honor outstanding Maryland volunteers at the Seventh Annual "Maryland's Most Beautiful People" Volunteer Awards Ceremony at 7 p.m. on November 10 at St. John's College in Annapolis. With special performances by the University of Maryland Studio Orchestra and Miss Maryland 1993, it promises to be an exciting evening in honor of some very special Maryland citizens whose tireless services benefit hospitals, hospices, fire departments, schools, the homeless, and much more. The event is free and open to the public, but tickets are necessary. Please call the "Maryland You are Beautiful" program at (410) 974-3085 for tickets or additional information. I'll look forward to seeing you there.

If you have ideas on how to expand or improve our volunteer efforts in Maryland, please write me: Governor William Donald Schaefer, State House, Annapolis, MD 21401.

those with physical and mental capacity delays. Anyone may ask about a child - newborn through age 3 - about whom he or she is concerned. The director noted that grandparents are often more critical and observant of a child than parents because the older adults are able to compare their grandchildren's growth and development to their own children's.

"It's sometimes difficult for a parent to see or admit to a possible delay in his or her child," Stephens said. "But if there is any concern at all, we are here to assess the situation. It may turn out that the child is developing at the accepted rate. If he isn't, we are here to help."

Specifically, an eligible child is one who is experiencing delays in one or more of the following areas: Cognitive - her ability to learn; Physical - her ability to move, see, and hear; Speech and Language - her ability to communicate; Psychosocial - her ability to have relationships with others; and Self-Help Skills - her ability to dress, feed, and take care of herself.

Even if diagnostic procedures do not indicate a 25% delay, a child may still qualify for services if she demonstrates atypical development or behavior in any of these listed categories. A child is also eligible if she has a diagnosed physical or mental condition that puts her at risk for developmental delay. Some examples are sensory impairments, inborn errors of metabolism, fetal alcohol syndrome, epilepsy, Down's syndrome, and other chromosomal abnormalities.

The Infants and Toddlers Program is a product of laws passed in the last 20 years designed to recognize and provide service to children with special needs. One of the first steps was the 1970 U.S. Congress's enactment of the Early Education for Handicapped Children Program, followed by the 1975 Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. In 1983, Congress passed PL 98-199, setting aside funding for the development of grants for preschool programs, and in 1986 Congress enacted landmark legislation for early intervention, offering states significant incentives to serve all eligible 3-5-year-olds, and mandating family-centered programs for developmentally delayed infants and toddlers from birth to age 3. Former President Bush then signed the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act Amendments of 1991, re-authorizing the infants and toddlers requirement and supporting even greater outreach programs for children and families.

For more information on the Infants and Toddlers Program, persons are invited to contact Stephens directly at 334-5030. Persons concerned about the development of a child older than age 3 may contact Child Find at 334-5002 to learn of other services available in Garrett County.

The Office for Children, Youth, and Families is currently located in the Garrett County Board of Education building, but will be moving to another nearby location in October. Notification of the move will be published in a future issue of The Republican.

Proceeds from the event will go toward new playground equipment. Pictured are members of the school's P.T.A. who are preparing for the sale. Jury Convenes

David Martin, clerk of circuit court, led a tour of the clerk's office, which has gone to an "open filing" system since the last Grand Jury visit. This system has provided more space, but more is needed.

Jury members learned that all documents - except court records - are put on microfilm. The Grand Jury recommended that the clerk's office investigate the possibility of installing a sprinkler system, as there is presently no such protection of court records.

Sheriff's Office/Jail

The jail was found to be clean and orderly, according to the Grand Jury report. Space is very limited, the report states, and expansion is planned to increase inmate capacity from 44 to 54. Additional administration space will be attained as a result of the expansion, which will occur when a currently-housed agency relocates to another location. The relocation is to take place in the near future, after which the expansion project will begin.

Jury members were given information about the recent addition of a police dog, provided by Pizzeria Uno, the Fraternal Order of Police, and the B.P.O. Elks. The animal is a "utility dog" with the ability to detect drugs, track suspects, control crowds, and other functions.

The new S.A.L.T. (Seniors and Law Enforcement Together) program was described to the members by Sheriff Van Evans, as were programs involving the home detention of inmates and neighborhood watch organizations.

The D.A.R.E. (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) program was discussed, and members were told the goal of the project is to present drug awareness education to county students.

The jury commended Evans on the implementation of new programs and the continuation of those already in progress.

Animal Shelter

Three members of the Grand Jury visited the Garrett County Animal Shelter on Oakland-Sang Run Road. The facility was found to be clean and well-ventilated. Members noted that the employees appeared to be "extremely dedicated" and should be commended for the services they provide.

Landfill

The landfill at Round Glade and the construction site of the new landfill was visited by three jury members. Solid Waste Manager Rodney Glotfelty explained that the present landfill will be closed within ten days of the opening of the new facility. Closing down the current area will involve the capping of the disturbed area to decrease absorption of water into the filled area and drilling of monitoring wells to keep track of leachate entering streams in the immediate area.

The new facility will contain two areas, one for the placement of stumps and demolition material (such as concrete and rock), and the other for household garbage. The first area will require minimal maintenance with the exception of sediment and erosion control. The second area will include scales for weighing the material and a facility for recycling various items. By state mandate, 15% of all refuse must be recycled.

The cell, or area to receive the refuse, is lined with clay and an impervious liner. All refuse will be packed as it is placed in the fill area and covered with six inches of packed earth each day. The leachate is collected in two settling ponds and pumped back over the fill as required. This practice is necessary to meet the Maryland Department of the Environment (MDE) and the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) regulations.

The six satellite collection areas will be upgraded to include "roll-off" dumpsters for household garbage and recycling bins. Plans are to fence in and man the sites, the jury members were told. A committee has been formed to work on various ways to accomplish this.

The jury commended Glotfelty's efforts in his newly-appointed position.

Treasurer's Office

Patty Glover, county treasurer, reported to the jury on the responsibilities of her office. Since last summer, she has hired two employees to process tax payments which peak during the summer months.

Jury members stated that Glover does a "superb job" in handling the county's funds.

Board of Education

Dr. Jerome Ryscavage opened the visit by handing out the annual report of the Garrett County Board of Education. Ryscavage reported that despite budget constraints, the local schools again maintained very high standards of education, attaining satisfactory to excellent ratings in reading, mathematics, writing, and citizenship, based on results of the Maryland School Performance Program for grade 11 status.

The old building housing the board offices is in need of repair, according to the jurors' report. Space is inadequate and the building is not handicapped-accessible. Parking is limited as well. In the school system, Ryscavage noted that there is currently no health nurse to serve the elementary grades.

Roads Department

Jury members were given a tour of the roads department office by Terry Spear. Improvements were pointed out, included the newly-remodeled garage with areas for parts and supplies. A lunch room area is being provided for employees as well, and new office space has been provided. The welding department is being relocated to eliminate employees' exposure to fumes.

The purchase of new and used equipment will upgrade the maintenance program, Spear said. He also noted that many miles of county roads have been resurfaced or striped.

Commissioners

Garrett County Commissioners Brenda Butscher and Elwood Groves met with the jury. Commissioner John G. Braskey was unable to attend because of a medical emergency, according to the jury report. The commissioners presented to the Grand Jury what they felt to be the matters of most importance to the county. According to the report, their comments paralleled and reinforced the presentation of individual department heads. They expressed their confidence that the county government is operating efficiently.

Library

The Grand Jury was given a tour of the Ruth Enlow Library by Emily Farren, the new director. The director noted that the facility is in need of more recent books.

Jurors found the library in good order with the exception of inadequate lighting in a some areas. They also noted a "definite need" for more storage space.

Hospital

Charlotte Bock led a tour of Garrett Memorial Hospital. Jurors reported that the facility was clean and well-kept. Space is limited, and is being used to the maximum.

Jurors commended the hospital staff for their redesigned and efficient use of existing space without sacrificing patient care.

from the Garrett County Sheriff's Office, it was believed that Mrs. Ray and her daughter had been out late the night before the fire. Upon their arrival home, Mrs. Ray apparently lit the kerosene heater and then fell asleep on her bed or possibly a couch. Her body was fully dressed when it was discovered.

Monetary loss was estimated to be $10,000.

Firemen remained on the scene for about two hours. Also responding was the Southern Rescue Squad.

Prescriptions Month Proclaimed; Programs Slated

The month of October has been proclaimed "Talk About Prescriptions Month," a joint effort of the U.S. Administration on Aging and the National Council on Patient Information and Education.

"Medication Management is a vital concern in the maintenance of health for everyone, particularly the elderly," stated a spokesperson from the Maryland Office on Aging. "It is estimated that 30 percent of all hospitalizations are caused by medication reactions, and 60 percent of all deaths are due to adverse medication reactions that occur among elderly patients. Furthermore, while senior citizens represent 15 percent of U.S. population, 20 percent of the prescriptions and 30 percent of over-the-counter medications are purchased by the elderly.

Throughout October, the Garrett County Area Agency on Aging will be sponsoring medication management programs at senior housing complexes. The Agency is being assisted in this effort by local volunteer pharmacists and Garrett County Health Department Outreach.

The schedule for the programs is as follows:

October 5--Underwood South, 10 a.m., Pharmacist John Newton.

October 6--Rose Terrace Assisted Housing Units, 8:45 a.m., Pharmacist Jerry Herpel; Meadows East, 9 a.m., Pharmacist Bill Riley; Truesdell Senior Home, 2 p.m., Pharmacist Jerry Herpel, Townview Apartments, 3 p.m., Pharmacist Jerry Herpel.

October 14--Starner Hill Apartments, 11 a.m., Pharmacist Jerry Beachy

"At this meeting, the health advisory board will undertake the important last step in the process of choosing county health priorities," stated a spokesperson. Each of 10 task forces have chosen 3-5 priority objectives in their specific topic area. The committee will vote to rank the Year 2000 health objectives for Garrett County. The resulting prioritized objectives will help the community direct funding and other resources towards the health issues identified as highest priority.

All interested persons encouraged to attend this meeting, and more information may be obtained by calling the Health Department at 334-8111.

two counts of fourth degree sex offense, two counts of battery, and one count of perverted sexual practice. Tina D. Bell, 26, is reportedly accused of engaging in sexual encounters with a 16-year-old male. This is against the law, as the defendant is more than four years older than the victim, who is underage.

Michael W. Dever, 21, Oakland, was arrested this past week. He is charged with possession of CDS. Further details about the case were unavailable.

A routine traffic stop over the weekend led to the incarceration of Michael L. Paugh, 22, Kitzmiller. Cpl. R. Sines pulled Paugh over at approximately 3:30 a.m. on Oak Street, Oakland, for numerous vehicle violations. A check with the main office revealed four outstanding warrants for Paugh's arrest.

The warrants were issued on the charges of assault, malicious destruction of property, violation of probation, and two counts of failure to appear in Garrett County Circuit Court. Paugh was released after posting $9,000 bond, according to a sheriff's office spokesman.

Kenneth D. Gross, 19, McHenry, and Evangelist T. Scott, 23, Hagerstown, were both arrested by Dep. Bittinger on the charge of breaking and entering. There was no further information in the deputy's report.

A bench warrant was issued for the arrest of Sandra L. Harvey, 43, Swanton. She is accused of probation violation.

Three bench warrants were issued for the arrest of Mark E. Mallow, 24, Elkins, W.Va. He apparently failed to appear in court.

Everette W. Morgan, 34, Accident, was arrested on the strength of a bench warrant for violation of probation, according to the report.

Richard M. Resh, 56, Grantsville, was arrested on the strength of a bench warrant reportedly charging him with violation of probation.

Hit And Run

The sheriff's office is currently seeking information on a possible hit and run that occured last Tuesday in Mtn. Lake Park.

Rocky C. Tichinel, 14, Mtn. Lake Park, was riding his all-terrain bicycle on N Street when a blue car hit the back wheel of his bike, causing him to wreck. The car sped away.

The teenager was taken to Garrett Memorial Hospital shortly after the incident, where he was treated and released.

The vehicle had Maryland tags and may have been a Ford Taurus or a Tempo. Persons with information about the driver of the vehicle should contact the sheriff's office at 334-1975.

TESTING THE WATERS - A total of 26 students from the advanced biology classes at both Southern High School and Fort Hill High School stayed at Herrington Manor State Park this first part of this week on the Aquatics Studies Field Trip where they participated in a "living classroom" situation. Potomac Edison imported 10 computers for the students' use in entering data after gathering water samples from both Herrington and Cranesville Swamp. Teachers from across the state can then use these findings as a resource to identify flora of wetlands. Students were also given a set of data based on previous research and asked to solve particular problems. Potomac Edison is providing the funding for transportation, equipment, food, and substitute teachers while the regular teachers participate in the field trip. The Maryland Department of Natural Resources provided the cabins and support staff and services. Students from Northern High School and a Washington County school will participate in the program October 4-6, and the same program will be repeated for students from Clear Spring in Washington County October 11-13. This week's participants are shown above performing various stages of the water gathering and testing procedure.

Add texture and flavor to salads with nuts sprinkled in. Go beyond walnuts and try cashews, pine nuts, sunflower seeds or sliced almonds. Toast in a hot oven for a few minutes to intensify flavor.

Pasta primavera is a favorite, quick-to-prepare dinner. The key: already-cut-up vegetables available in your grocery salad section. Some, like broccoli florets, should be blanched; throw them in with the pasta a moment or two before it's done.

Most jams are about half-fruit, half-sugar. What you should know is that fruit-only preserves are usually sweetened with fruit juice concentrate, which contains sucrose–with just as many calories.

Here's a trick for better chicken soup: wash the onions, but don't peel them, the skin makes the soup golden.

OAKLAND PHARMACY

OAKLAND PHARMACY
Evolution of a Modern Pharmacy 1893-1993

1887 - Establishment of business as Chisholm's Drugstore by Peter Chisholm (druggist from Baltimore) as a general store with a sideline of prescriptions and patent medicines. Located in the vicinity of Southern Office Supply's present location running from Railroad St. to Second Street. Mr. Neidecker bought out Chisholm (?date) and continued to run same type of store as Neidecker's Drug Store.

1890(?) - Henry Mayers (druggist) bought the store and hired Joseph E. Harned as pharmacist and chief clerk. Mr. Harned had owned and operated a small drugstore in Mtn. Lake Park after graduating from Philadelphia College of Pharmacy.

1891 - Dr. Henry McComas bought the drugstore and Mr. Harned continued to run it from him.

1893 - Joseph E. Harned purchased the drugstore and formed Oakland Pharmacy. Mr. Harned and his new wife, Emma, established a home in the apartment above the store. 1897 saw a fire sweep the block from the railroad to the old Garrett National Bank building. The prescription files and a few odds and ends were all that was saved from the original drugstore. Mr. and Mrs. Harned and infant son Harold were rescued from the fire.

1897 - Dr. McComas constructed a new building (present location) containing doctors' offices and the new quarters for Oakland Pharmacy. During the next several decades Mr. Harned built his business and trained several young local men in the practice of pharmacy. These included Thomas Gonder, Harold Dawson, Tracy Curry, Norman Sanner and his own son Harold Harned. Mr. Gonder later opened his own drugstore about 1909, Mr. Curry went to Thomas, Mr. Sanner to Westernport and the other two remained at Oakland Pharmacy. While working as a druggist, Mr. Harned pursued his childhood hobby of studying wildflowers. This research culminated in the publication of his book, "Wildflowers of the Alleghenies," in 1931. Printed in the adjacent building housing the "The Republican" by Mr. Ben Sincell. The two editions of this book, brought him much recognition as an expert in the field and led to honorary Doctor of Science degrees from 2 colleges. Mr. Harned remained active in business, local government, civic, and church affairs until his death in 1951.

1951 - After Mr. Harned's death, the store was inherited by his son Harold; who had worked with his father full-time since 1920. Since the younger Mr. Harned was not a registered pharmacist, he employed several temporary pharmacists until he hired Robert Proudfoot later in 1951.

1955 - Mr. Proudfoot became a partner in the business, adding the name Proudfoot's to Oakland Pharmacy. Mr Harned retired later in 1955, but retained his interest in Proudfoot's Oakland Pharmacy until 1970, when Mr. Proudfoot purchased his share.

1964 - Incorporated as Proudfoot's Oakland Pharmacy, Inc., the small town drug store is evolving into a large, modern pharmacy. A soda fountain and snack bar evolved into a family restaurant (closed in 1980) which was replaced by a card and gift shop that continually grows even today.

1988 - The pharmacy is purchased from Robert Proudfoot and his wife Alice by their son Milton and pharmacist Carl Cathell. Keeping pharmacy as the main theme, expansion still continues into variety items, cards, gifts, candies, cameras and electronics, toys, spotting goods, and bikes.

1993 - In the last 100 years, Oakland has evolved from a small town of dirt streets, gas lights, and horses into a modern town in touch with world, but still enjoying its own pace and lifestyles. Customer service is what Oakland Pharmacy was founded on and still is the foundation today.

If a man knew he was going to be hanged, he would certainly make every effort to prevent it. He would do everything he could and strain every nerve to the last minute to get himself out of his predicament. Men have been saved from hanging after the rope was around their necks. There are ways of divine that are not so quick that are even more certain. The man who neglects his health and who in sickness returns to take medicine, really ... the rope of disease around his neck. He will die if he doesn't throw it off. A man who would struggle against hanging may yet be careless about health. He may be traveling straight toward consumption and pay no attention to it, and yet death by consumption is much more terrible than death by hanging. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure 98 per cent of all cases of consumption. Consumption is ... to be caused by weakness and in its turn it increases the weakness. The Golden Medical Discovery is an invigorating, strength-giving and flesh-making medicine. It increases the appetite, puts the digestive organs in perfect order, purifies and enriches the blood and builds up firm, healthy flesh.

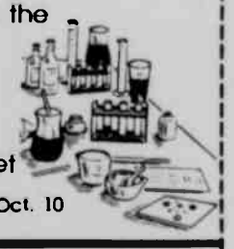
Protracted sleeplessness means no effort is made to rest and calm the irritable nervous system, and nervous prostration and insanity.

Today there are far more neuralgic headaches, far more rheumatism, sleeplessness and nervous prostration than ever ... the last generation.



To combat this growing evil, Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., of Dartmouth College, made nervous diseases his special study. Wellness Together Heartworks Program Offered To Grantsville Businesses

Wellness Together of Garrett County Memorial Hospital and the Garrett County Health Department will be offering the Heartworks program to small businesses located in the Grantsville area.

"In view of the fact that health care costs continue to escalate and companies are experiencing the tremendous weight of meeting the costs of unhealthy employees, we are offering businesses a program that steps in the direction of addressing this problem," stated Debora Nichols, Wellness Together coordinator.

"The Heartworks program, which focuses on the reduction of cardiovascular disease, has been underway for just over three years and has been met with great approval by past participating businesses," said Nichols. "The program has previously concentrated on corporations with fairly large numbers of employees such as the Mettiki Coal Corporation and the Garrett County Board of Education. However, we want to make this available for employees of smaller businesses as well."

The first phase of the program will be held at Beachy's Pharmacy on October 12 and 13 from 6:30 to 9 a.m. each day. The second phase is scheduled for October 26 and 28 from 6:30 to 9 a.m. each day.

At the first event, participants are screened for the three main risk factors for heart disease; high cholesterol (including cholesterol breakdown), high blood pressure and use of tobacco products. Participants will sign up to return on October 26 and 28 so a Heartworks counselor can review results and give suggestions for lifestyle improvements. Those participants who demonstrate a risk for cardiovascular disease are referred to their physician for follow-up.

The cost for the Heartworks program is $12 per participant which can be paid by the employer, the employee, or shared between the two. Employers are encouraged to send a list to Sue Beachy of Beachy's Pharmacy by October 6 of the times when the employer and employees wish to attend the program.

Persons desiring more information about the Heartworks program may call (301) 334-2155, ext. 408.

Local Residents Complete Coverts Project Training

William D. Buckel, Grantsville, and Hugh Friend, Friendsville, were among the 26 woodland owners from across the state to participate in the annual forest and wildlife management workshop sponsored by the University of Maryland Cooperative Extension Service (MCES) and the Ruffed Grouse Society as part of the Coverts Project.

The Coverts Project is designed to teach woodland owners "how good forest management can improve wildlife habitat, while enhancing other forest benefits such as timber growth, aesthetics, and more," according to a spokesperson, who added that the program's name comes from thickets that provide habitat for wildlife.

During the past four years, a total of 108 volunteers have completed the coverts training, which includes forest ecology and management, wildlife management for game and non-game wildlife, and communications skills. The 26 volunteers who most recently completed the workshop will now be responsible for teaching the roughly 125,000 woodland owners in Maryland the benefits of forest and wildlife management.

"Research shows that many woodland owners won't seek the advice of professionals," stated Jonathan Kays, a regional extension specialist in natural resources with the Maryland Cooperative Extension Service. "We hope to build a network of volunteers around the state who can help individuals contemplating management get assistance they need to implement their land-use objectives."

In return for their free training, the volunteers have agreed to implement a sound management plan for their own woodlands and will use their properties as demonstration areas to show friends, neighbors, and others the benefits of sound forest wildlife management. The volunteers agree to spend at least a year extending the message to others in their community.

Persons interested in increasing their woodlot and wildlife potential are asked to contact the local cooperative extension office for the name of the volunteer nearest them. Persons may also call the Coverts Project coordinator directly at 301-791-2298, or write to Coverts Project, Maryland Cooperative Extension Service, 18330 Keedysville Road, Keedysville, MD 21756.

Friend may be reached at 746-5204, and Buckel at 245-4130.

Door prizes will be awarded.

VALUABLE DIAGNOSTIC TOOL - Sonography is invaluable as a diagnostic tool for surgeons and physicians. Except for the prostate procedure, sonography is virtually non-invasive. Shown are Sue Skeweris, chief sonographer, and Bill DeWitt, staff sonographer, with Garrett County Memorial Hospital's sonography machine called the Acuson XP-10, a fully loaded, top of the line piece of equipment, purchased by the hospital's foundation.

"I Can See Right Through You" Is Theme For Sonography Week

by Pam Ashby

National Sonography Awareness Week will be observed October 4-10 at Garrett County Memorial Hospital, as well as throughout the nation. The theme for the week will be, "I can see right through you."

While not a new concept to the local hospital, a fully loaded, top of the line, color flow Acuson XP-10 sonogram machine was purchased early this year by the hospital's foundation and has proved to be an invaluable tool to many physicians and surgeons in the county.

Chief Sonographer Sue Skeweris explained that the color flow allows them to visualize vessels in the heart, the umbilical cord - any vessels in the body - to see if plaque or other factors are disturbing the blood flow.

"We have broadened our horizons," said Skeweris, "and we have a very sophisticated piece of equipment for this area."

Sonography aids in many areas of medicine and includes procedures for cardiac, vascular, fetal, gynecological, abdominal, ophthalmic, and prostate monitoring.

The sonogram actually utilizes sound waves to produce an internal image in the body. "Patients are quite comfortable with the procedure," said Skeweris. "There are no adverse affects and except for the prostate procedure, it is non-invasive to the body.

The Sonography Department at the hospital is under the administration of the Radiology Department. Mike Reed serves as the head of that department and works closely with Skeweris and Bill DeWitt, staff sonographer, as does Dr. Charles Magal, chief radiologist for Centre Radiology, Cumberland, who reads sonograms and X-rays for the hospital.

Sonography is not only a valuable tool to obstetricians who need to see an unborn fetus for one reason or another, but it also gives parents the "first real photo of their baby" that they can keep, according to Skeweris.

Images seen on a sonogram are transferred to film or videotape, so that records may be kept on each patient having a sonogram.

Great strides have been made in using sonograms to detect cardiovascular problems. "We have a great machine here," said Dr. Robert Goralski. "It has immensely enhanced our ability to diagnose heart disease and all sorts of other medical problems."

Sonography in obstetrics has also aided greatly in determining possible problems in utero and to predict (with some margin for error) the size of a fetus at any stage of a pregnancy.

Dr. Karl Schwalm, a family doctor who has delivered hundreds of infants at Garrett Memorial, says the Acuson sonogram machine at the hospital is as good as one anywhere.

"I'm very satisfied with the ultrasound we have here," said Schwalm. "For the size of the hospital, it provides better than average service and we have excellent technicians."

To learn more about sonography and to view videotapes and actual pictures taken from sonograms, the public is reminded that an open house will be held in the main lobby of the hospital on Thursday, October 7 from 2-4 p.m.

Rams Gain Second Win With Shutout Of Keyser

Overcoming a variety of injuries and illness, the Southern High School Rams utilized an outstanding defensive effort Friday night to defeat the visiting Golden Tornado of Keyser and improve their season mark to 2-2.

Senior split end defensive back Mark Elliott scored both touchdowns for the Rams, one from his defensive position and the second from his offensive position.

The bigger, stronger Keyser offense was stopped cold by the Rams throughout the first half. Elliott opened the scoring in the first quarter by picking off an Aaron Sanders pass at his own 45-yard line and returning the ball through heavy traffic for a touchdown. The run for the two-point conversion was stopped just short of the goal line.

10-119	Penalties-Yards	3-37
2-1	Fumbles-Lost	3-2
211	Total Offense	165

Elliott recorded his second six-pointer, and final points of the evening, in the second quarter when he scored on a 10-yard run. The attempted pass by Jeremy Fitzwater for the extra two points was batted down by a Keyser defender.

The second half was all defense, although the Tornado was able to move the ball better with a reserve quarterback after Sanders was taken to the hospital with an injury. It was learned later that Sanders sustained only a severe bruise to the chest abdomen area and was treated and released at Garrett County Memorial Hospital.

Rainy, wet conditions made it difficult for both teams to hold on to the ball, as Keyser runners dropped it three times, turning it over twice, and the Rams lost the handle twice, giving it up one time.

David Crosco paced the Rams' rushing effort, recording 89 yards on 12 carries, while Keyser's leading ground-gainer was Anthony Hofsted, who picked up just 31 yards on eight attempts.

The Ram defense limited Keyser to just 54 yards of rushing, while Southern backs picked up 202.

The loss dropped Keyser to 2-3 on the season.

"We were missing so many players at practice during the week that we were worried going into the game," Ram Coach Fred Gregg said. "It's almost impossible to maintain any continuity when you have so many kids out. Keyser is capable of beating us even when we are at our best, so we really felt good about this win."

Gregg said that the coaching staff told the Ram defensive unit that the key to recording a win would be to not allow the Keyser runners to get into the Southern secondary.

"We had better overall team speed than they did, but they certainly have three or four backs who are as fast or faster than our secondary," Gregg said. "Fortunately we were able to contain them around the line of scrimmage most of the evening."

The Ram staff named Sonny Livengood the Offensive Lineman of the Week, Galen Glotfelty and Scott Dawson Co-Defensive Players of the Week, and Jason Miller the Special Teams Player of the Week.

LOTS OF DAYLIGHT was found on this play by Southern Ram Pete Strawser against the Keyser defensive unit Friday night in Oakland. Unfortunately, the run for about 25 yards was nullified by a penalty. After being shutout two weeks in a row, the Rams recorded their own shutout, defeating the Golden Tornado, 12-0, to improve their record to 2-2. They will host a strong Hampshire team this Friday night, which will be the Rams' homecoming game.

The Rams will most likely face a stiffer challenge this week when they host Hampshire in Southern's Homecoming contest. The Trojans started their season with losses to powerful Hedgesville and Beall, but have won three straight since then over Tucker County, previously undefeated Petersburg, and a solid James Wood team last week on the road.

One similarity to the Keyser team is the tremendous size of the Hampshire offensive line, which averages 6-0, 220 pounds, and blocks for a veteran corps of running backs.

David Foster, a 5-11, 150-pound senior, is one of the leading ground gainers, along with 6-0, 188-pound junior back Dana Deurr and senior Travis McBride (6-0, 200), a three-year starter at fullback.

"Foster is a very good, fast running back and McBride is an excellent fullback," Gregg said, adding that the Trojans return nine starters on offense.

"They are using what is known as a T-bone offense," Gregg explained, "which is similar to the power-I, but uses a lot more motion. That could cause a lot of trouble for our defense, especially considering that they have such skilled people in their backfield.

"The T-bone offense gives them the opportunity for a very balanced attack," he said. "It combines power running with running on the perimeter, as well as passing."

The Trojans' 5-2 monster defense is anchored by McBride at linebacker and senior Matt Corder (5-11, 228) on the line of scrimmage.

"We are going to have to play very well to win this game," Gregg concluded.

The contest is slated to get underway at 7:30 p.m. at the Southern athletic field. The Homecoming court will be introduced at halftime.

Huskies Crush Turkeyfoot, 48-8, To Record Third Win

The Northern Huskies got back onto the winning track with ease Saturday afternoon by manhandling host Turkeyfoot, 48-8. The win was the third in four starts for the Huskies, who were coming off a tough 19-12 loss the previous week to undefeated Beall.

Coach Tom Vent pulled most of his first team after the first half against Turkeyfoot after the Huskies built a commanding 27-0 lead before halftime. Seven different Huskies scored touchdowns on the evening, while Alan Sebold, who was named the Offensive Player of the Week, rushed for 130 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries to lead the ground game.

Husky quarterback Derek Mason rushed for the first touchdown on a two-yard run and later threw for two more scores. Martin Strnad, a foreign exchange student from the Northern soccer team, booted the extra point on the first touchdown to give the Huskies a 7-0 lead.

Tim Hinebaugh scored on the next Husky possession, capping the drive with an eight-yard run. The kick for the extra point was blocked.

The Huskies' next drive concluded with a 45-yard touchdown pass from Mason to Brad Williams and Strnad followed with the conversion kick to give Northern a 20-0 advantage.

Next it was Billy Younkin's turn to take the ball to the end zone, as he hauled in a 25-yard pass from Mason and Strnad kicked his third extra point.

Turkeyfoot got on the board with a 40-yard pass from Tressler to McClintock late in the second quarter. Tressler ran successfully for the two-point conversion to make the halftime score 27-8.

Sebold scored his touchdown in the third quarter on an 18-yard run. The kick for the conversion was no good.

The Huskies added 15 more points in the fourth period on a three-yard touchdown run by Pete Forno, a four-yard jaunt by Tirrell Burdock, another Strnad kick, and a conversion run by Brett Newman.

The Husky offense piled up 405 total yards, while the defense held the home team offense to just 140 yards. Newman spearheaded the Northern defensive effort and was named Defensive Player of the Week, while Lee Collins received the Hammer Award and Strnad was chosen Special Teams Player of the Week.

"We really came to play and just dominated the game," Coach Vent stated. "We were pleased that our team didn't take them lightly and let down, which is always a worry when you are the favorite.

"A lot of our kids got to play and a lot of them scored," he said. "The only problem with that is that our starters don't get as much playing time as they might need later on.

Vent also noted that no member of the Husky team was injured in the contest.

The Huskies will be the favorite again this week when they travel to Parsons, W.Va., to challenge the Mountain Lions of Tucker County, who are winless on the season. However, Vent is expecting a more difficult contest than this past week's.

"They are a young team this year, but they are going to be out to get us," he said. "They have nothing to lose and everything to gain. It will be their homecoming game, too."

The Lions, who have six starters back from last season's 2-8 team, are led by junior quarterback Steelie Kisamore, whom Vent describes as "a very good quarterback," senior fullback Josh Supak, and split end Jeremiah Whitehare.

The defense is anchored by Supak and Aaron Cutright at linebacker positions, and Scott Lambert at tackle.

"We are in the middle of the best week of practice so far this season," Vent said Wednesday evening. "We are really looking forward to the game and we know they will be ready to play as well. Tucker County always plays tough, regardless of their record."

Husky Freshmen Defeat Wildcats

The Northern High School freshman football team upped its season mark to 2-0 Saturday by defeating visiting Westmar, 12-6.

The scoring was somewhat unusual in that E.J. Schofield had not one, but two, sacks for safeties for the Huskies. The first occurred in the first quarter, giving Northern a 2-0 advantage.

Cody Brenneman scored on a three-yard run in the second quarter and Zack Leverenz ran for the two-point conversion to give Northern a 10-0 lead.

Schofield recorded his second safety sack late in the period to make it a 12-0 halftime lead for the Huskies.

The Wildcats averted a shutout and concluded the scoring when P.J. Morgan raced 55 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter. The pass for the extra two points was no good.

Leverenz finished with 118 yards of rushing on 19 carries, while Dwayne Stein and Steve Hinebaugh also excelled offensively for the Huskies. Brenneman, Doug Sines, and Adam Yommer spearheaded the Northern defensive unit.

The Huskies are slated to play again next Thursday, Oct. 7, at Southern.

Husky Jayvees Edged By Alco

The Northern High School junior varsity football team was edged by the visiting Allegany jayvees Tuesday evening, 16-14, as Brian Heslop scored a pair of touchdowns for the Huskies and Mike Kuykendall scored two for the Campers.

Heslop scored the only points of the first half when he recorded a 23-yard touchdown run in the first quarter to give Northern a 6-0 lead. The run for the conversion points was no good.

A three-yard run by Kuykendall in the third quarter, followed by a successful conversion pass from Chris Arnold to Colby Ellsworth gave the visitors an 8-6 advantage.

The Huskies responded on the ensuing kickoff, as Heslop took the ball and raced 75 yards for a touchdown. He also ran successfully for the two-point conversion, giving the Huskies a 14-8 advantage.

There were only 50 seconds left in the game when Kuykendall scored on a five-yard run to tie the score and then Chad Ricker carried for the two-point conversion to give the Campers the win, their second in three starts.

Steelers Edge Cumberland Team

The Northern Steelers, who had a week off in Mountaintop Youth Football League action this week, played the K of C Saints in Cumberland and came home with a 13-6 victory.

The Saints took a 6-0 lead in the first quarter on a 64-yard touchdown run.

Scott Sisler knotted the score at 6-6 in the second quarter with a 19-yard touchdown run.

Area Bikers Fare Well In Canaan Mtn. Bike Event

by Donna Lee

No question about it: Mountain biking is a sport for the "self-preservationally impaired." (Thank you, Bill Holbrook.)

Last weekend mountain bikers new to the area looked across the power line at Davis, W.Va., in disbelief: "You mean that's on the course?" For Saturday evening's downhill race, the power line was not only on the course; it was the whole ride.

But first the riders would have to get to the top, way past the place where the town of Davis can be seen through the evening mist. Spectators picked their way up the mountain, pantlegs rolled to cross Blackwater River on partially submerged rocks. Racers scampered across those same rocks, carrying their bikes.

In the downhill time trials, Nuke Proof's Roger Byrd took first place; Diamond Back's pro, Gunnar Shogren, Morgantown came in second. Davis's own Laird Knight, 24-hour race promoter, was third. Bontrager's Jay Humphrey of Morgantown held his own, riding most of the way on a tireless rim.

First place in the junior division went to Brian Holland of Ohio, and second place to Joshua Tunick riding for Whitetail Bicycles of Morgantown.

First place in the women's division was Alice Vernon of Whitetail Bicycles; while Diane Miller of McHenry won second.

McHenry also sent Brian Heselbach, the first vet to cross the finish line.

The surprise winner of Scot trails was Shogren, with Carol Mabry of New York second. First place woman was Miller and in second place was Alice Vernon.

The big event of the weekend was Sunday's cross country race; 28 miles of mountain trails. First place pro/expert Shogren broke his own record at 2 hours, 30 minutes. Baltimore rider Brad Erickson followed for Silver Arrow. Cannondale's Shawn Withers was third and Robbie Acciavatti of Bontrager/Whitetail Bicycles was fourth.

Again, first place in the women's division went to Alice Vernon, while Miller finished second.

Davis is a mountain biker's dream – albeit sometimes tainted --, and the Canaan Valley bicycling events are big draws. Those who compete know that, when they have ridden Canaan, they have bragging rights to some of the world's most exciting trails. Racers as well as race promoter, Matt Markus, of Blackwater Bikes, are always appreciative of the many volunteers who do the timing and are available for safety and first aid.

Jets Top Rams, 25-6, In Youth League Contest

The Oakland Jets recorded their second Mountaintop Youth Football League victory against one defeat Sunday afternoon by topping the Thomas-Davis Rams, 25-6, on a soggy field in Parsons, W Va.

The Jets took the opening possession and drove 65 yards in seven plays for a touchdown. Following a 35-yard run by Chad Warnick, Chris Gidley scored on a 23-yard jaunt. Warnick ran for the extra point.

After exchanging fumbles, Gidley broke loose again and raced 68 yards for his and the Jets' second touchdown of the day. The conversion attempt failed and the Jets led 13-0.

The Rams responded with their own touchdown on the next play from scrimmage, as tailback Robbie Kight ran up the middle and broke several tackles enroute to a 65-yard touchdown. The point-after attempt was no good.

The Jets answered with another 65-yard drive for a touchdown, this time on nine plays. The drive was highlighted by successful running by fullback Tommy Gank and a 22-yard pass from Warnick to Andy Seib that put the ball on the Rams' four-yard line. Warnick carried the ball into the end zone on the next play. The conversion attempt failed and the halftime score was 19-6.

A fumble forced by Gank and recovered by Jordan Uphold early in the third quarter set up the final score of the day, as the Jets took over on the Rams' 25. Four plays later, Gank scored on a seven-yard off-tackle run. The PAT again failed.

The Jet coaching staff utilized its jayvee team the rest of the game.

Spearheading the Jet defense were Gank, Shiflett, and Gidley.

The Jets will play again this Saturday evening, Oct. 2, at home against the Oakland Raiders. Kickoff is set for 8 p.m. The 6 p.m. contest will feature the undefeated Northern Steelers against the Rams.

In the junior varsity competition, Southern's Meghan Dabney finished sixth overall among 38 runners.

BOOTING THE BALL around a Beall defender is Southern Ram Danny Gomez in last Thuraday svening s gams on a rain-soaked Southern sthletic field. The Rama out-shot the Mountaineers by a two-to-one margin, but fell to the visitors on the scoreboard, 4-1. The Rama, coached by Tom Powers, Selvyn Brown, and Dave Spirk, will play at home again this evening against 9-1 Bishop Walsh, the area's top-rated team. Although Southern lost to the Spartans earlier this year, 9-3, the Rama are one of the few teams to score three goals against them this season. All players, coaches, and referees in the Mountaintop Soccer Association will be admitted free to the game this evening. Players and coaches must wear their team shirts. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m.

Present, Past Soccer Players To Be Honored

Players, coaches, and referees in the Mountaintop Soccer Association will be admitted free of charge to the Southern-Bishop Walsh soccer game, slated for tonight at the Southern athletic field.

Coaches and players must wear their team shirts to be granted free admission. All MSA participants who come to the 7:30 p.m. game must sign in at the registration table that will be located outside the main gate to the Southern athletic field. A brief recognition will be given at halftime.

The second special admission arranged by the MSA and the Southern High School Athletic Department will be Friday, Oct. 8, at the Southern-Salisbury game. All former players or coaches of soccer from any of the old Garrett County high school teams will be admitted to the game free of charge. The contest will get underway at 4 p.m.

These former players will be recognized at halftime, so they should sign in at the registration table at the main gate. All former players and coaches who wish to attend are asked to contact Brad Stewart at 334-2166 to make reservations.

Information about soccer in Garrett County prior to 1952 that may be used in the halftime recognition would be "greatly appreciated," Stewart said, and may also be provided by calling the above telephone number.

HUSKY BOOTERS - The new Northern High School varsity soccer team, coached by Tom Ables, is still looking for its first victory this season, and has had to play every game so far on the opponents' fields because of a lack of goals at the Northern athletic field. However, those goals are now here, and so the Huskies will play five of their last six games at home, beginning next Tuesday against Southern. Team members pictured above, left to right, kneeling, are: John Leuba, John Durst, George Sank, Kristin Heslop, Derk Berger, Terry Howard, David Adamo, Tommy Myers, Amy Glotfelty, and Corey Gala; and standing, same order, Coach Ables, Shawn Jones, Randy Howard, Eduardo Maggiolo, Sarah Bosley, Sean Wachter, Chris Elliott, Noah Rawe, Martin Strnad, Marshall Pile, Louise Diehl, and Wendy Hoknan. After the 7:30 p.m. game with Southern Tuesday, the Huskies' remaining schedule is as folkws: Oct. 7, Calvary Christian, home, 7 p.m.; Oct. 11, Bishop Walsh, home, 7:30; Oct. Beall, home, 4:00; Oct 20, Westmar, away, 7:30; and Oct. 29, Salisbury, home, 7:30

Southern Booters Record A Pair Of Tough Losses

The Southern High School soccer team played two games in less than 24 hours last week, as they hosted the Beall Mountaineers Thursday night and then traveled to Calvary Christian in Cresaptown Friday afternoon. The Rams dropped both games by 4-1 margins, which dropped their overall record to 1-4.

"We're young and inexperienced, and playing back-to-back games with no chance to correct and teach did not serve us well. We should be 3-2 right now," stated Ram Coach Tom Powers. "We outshot both Beall and Calvary by nearly a 2 to 1 margin, and yet they both beat us by three goals. The mistakes we're making are fundamentals that show we're a new team. The experienced sides find ways to capitalize on our errors. The good news is that I think we've learned from these games."

In the Beall game, Joey DiSimone scored first for Southern after receiving a perfect crossing pass from Derek Spirk with 12 minutes off the clock.

Brad Thomas scored for Beall five minutes later when a miscommunication by the Rams defense left a loose ball just out of the reach of goalkeeper Jason Pressley.

With the score tied at 1-1 at half-time, the game was very much under the domination of Southern, who at this stage had outshot the visitors, 20-9. But the second half scoring was all Beall's. On the rain-slick field, a goal kick by Ram sweeper Jeff Meyers sailed short to Thomas, who was unmarked by any defenders. He nailed a 35-yard shot into the left side of the net unassisted to give Beall a 2-1 lead.

The Ram defense held firm until three minutes left in the game when a high looping long shot bounced over Pressley. When it fell to the ground, Thomas was there again to shove it into the goal to record a hat trick (three goals) on the night.

The Mounties kept up their attack and with one tick left on the clock executed a crossing pass from midfielder Dane Railey to Erin Wampler who had slipped inside the Southern defensive unit for a redirected pass just inside the left post.

The game at Calvary Christian was a particularly tough loss for the Rams and their coaching staff. Assistant Coach Dave Spirk, said, "The team had a tough time keeping their spirits up due to some pretty incredible officiating from the very beginning. We counted seven errors of rules after the game that these guys should have stopped. You can't fault a judgment call, but these were factual mistakes. It's tough to maintain your composure in those situations."

Scoring opened by Calvary about 10 minutes into the game when a penalty kick was awarded for an alleged foul in the penalty area. The Rams responded at the 23-minute mark of the first half when they were awarded an indirect free kick following a hand ball by the keeper. Daniel Gomez tapped the ball to Derek Spirk, who slammed the goal from eight yards out to knot the score at 1-1 at the halftime break.

In the second half, CC scored from a corner kick that hit a Ram and rebounded into the goal with three minutes gone from the clock. Then with seven minutes left in the game, CC was awarded another penalty kick, this time for an alleged pushing foul.

The final score of the game came with five minutes left after a disheartened defense allowed a breakaway that was chipped high into the net past the Rams backup goalkeeper Shannon Ringer, who was given the assignment following injury to both Jason Pressley and Mike Purdy.

"Ringer normally plays as a defender for us, and he did a fine job in goal today," concluded Powers.

The next home game is this evening, when Bishop Walsh, the top-rated team in the area at 9-1, comes to town for its first visit since the inception of the new fall sport for the Rams. Game time is set for 7:30 p.m.

The night has been designed as MSA Night. All players, coaches, and referees, from the Mountaintop Soccer Association who come to the game wearing their team shirts will be admitted free of charge.

Lake Soccer Club Defeated By Whit's, 2-1

The Deep Creek Lake Soccer Club again failed to finish a number of scoring opportunities and was edged 2-1 Sunday afternoon at the former Bruce High School field by Whit's Pizza.

A field of minimum required length and width made every throw-in a potential scoring threat, but numerous Whit's attempts were knocked away by Deep Creek's Mark Gwaizdowski, Gabriel Fitzwater, and goal keeper John Steele. E.J. Benning allowed no one to beat him on his side of the field either, and the first period ended in a scoreless tie.

For the second week in a row, the officials of the contest seemed to be on the side of the home team, according to a Deep Creek Club spokesman. "After the game, one of the officials admitted that he prefers umpiring baseball and that his soccer experience was limited to a few jayvee games," the spokesman said. "The other official was a high school player with no officiating experience.

"To their credit, though, neither of them was influenced by the players as had been the case the previous week," he said.

The spokesman went on to state that every hand ball was whistled as a violation, regardless of intent, and that three penalty kicks were awarded for unintentional handballs.

The first goal was scored when the ball was kicked by Steele, but stopped in the only puddle of water on the field. Steele tried to get the ball with his hands, but Whit's Keith Whittington kicked it away from him to an on-rushing Dean Robertson, who tapped it into the empty net for a goal. The score was 1-0 at halftime.

Deep Creek tied the score on a penalty kick by Jason Ostrander in the third quarter.

Whit's won the game in the fourth quarter when Clay Blubaugh took a ball from mid-field into the left corner and placed a cross in front of the Deep Creek goal for Whittington to strike in for the winning goal.

Deep Creek threatened several times in the final moments with several well-placed crosses in front of Whit's goal, but none was finished for a goal.

The loss evened Deep Creek's record at 2-2. They will next meet Barrelville Outdoor Club of Mt. Savage this Sunday afternoon.

SHS Volleyball Team Drops Two More Matches

The Southern High School volleyball team dropped a pair of matches this past week, falling to host Fort Hill, 3-2, on Monday and then dropping a 3-1 decision last night to Mount Savage on the Indians' court.

The Rams nearly defeated the Sentinels on Monday, as they held a 10-3 lead in the fifth and deciding game, but the home team came back to win that game, 15-10, and the match.

Southern won the first game, 15-10, lost the second, 15-10, won the third, 15-9, and dropped the fourth, 15-6.

Heather Milton had 11 service points to lead the Rams, while Dawn Lancaster recorded 21 for Fort Hill (2-4).

The Southern junior varsity team won the preliminary match, 2-1, by scores of 11-15, 15-5, and 15-7. Katy Glotfelty had 22 service points for the Rams, while Michelle Martin recorded 10 for Fort Hill.

The Rams proved to be trouble for the Mount Savage Indians last night. The Indians won the first game, 15-8, but the Rams came back to take the second contest, 15-11. Mount Savage (7-0) then put the contest away with 15-0 and 15-6 wins in the third and fourth games.

Lisa Abucevicz had 10 service points for the Indians. Marlene Whitacre recorded five to lead the Rams.

The Southern junior varsity was also defeated, 15-0 and 15-8. Shelly Emerick led the winners with 10 points, while Cindy Niner finished with five for Southern.

The Rams will play at Beall Monday.

prosecuted on a drug possession count, while her sister, Margaret W. Hurtubise, 22, also of Haverford, was found guilty of that charge and granted probation before judgment, fined $50, and placed on one year of unsupervised probation.

The two had been stopped on June 10 during Operation Intercept. Jennifer Hurtubise reportedly refused to give consent to search the vehicle. A scan was then conducted with the Maryland State Police K-9 dog which alerted officers to the passenger's side of the vehicle. A search of Margaret Hurtubise's pocketbook revealed a bag of suspected marijuana.

Clifford A. Cooper, 34, Swanton, was granted probation before judgment after initially sentenced to a 10-day suspended jail term on a disturbing the peace charge. He was also fined $50 and placed on one year of unsupervised probation. A second charge of assault was not prosecuted.

Cooper had been charged with those offenses by Twila Flores stemming from an April 15 incident where Cooper reportedly nearly struck some children with his vehicle and then cursed Flores for bringing that to his attention.

Robin E. Moats, 29, Deer Park, was found guilty of battery and handed a 30-day suspended sentence, fined $50, and placed on one year of unsupervised probation. She was also ordered to have no contact with Robin M. Johnston.

Moats had been charged with that offense by Johnston following an argument on July 27 at which time Moats reportedly struck Johnston on the side of the head. Johnston claimed she had to be taken to the hospital because of blurred vision and ringing in her ears after she had been battered.

Charles R. Baker, 51, Mtn. Lake Park, was found not to be in violation of his probation and his probation was terminated. The State's Attorney had recommended that a charge of violation of probation be heard against Baker because he had allegedly continued to harass his ex-wife and her husband after the court ordered him not to do so.

Baker had initially been found guilty of harassment and was later granted probation before judgment for that offense.

DWI CASES

A number of DWI and DUI cases were heard in District Court last week.

Richard A. Benson, 42, Pa., failed to appear in court on a DWI charge and several other traffic charges. A bench warrant was issued for his arrest and new bond was set at $300.

Michael L. Schroyer, 24, Pa., was granted probation before judgment on an amended DUI charge. He was fined $150 and placed on one year of unsupervised probation.

David L. Petrie, 48, Ohio, had his DWI charge amended to DUI and the judge granted him probation before judgment. He was also fined $150 and placed on one year of unsupervised probation. He was also fined $85 on a consuming an alcoholic beverage charge for which he was found guilty.

Paul E. House, 32, Md., was found guilty of DWI. He was handed a 180-day suspended jail term, fined $150, and placed on one year of supervised probation. He was also fined $85 for driving an unregistered vehicle. A number of other traffic charges were not prosecuted because of a plea agreement with the State's Attorney's Office.

Thayer Finds

Thanos does not accept the judicial system, and he chose rationally to discharge them. He agreed that while this action was unusual and unexpected, it did not denote incompetency.

In a lengthy series of detailed questions, Thayer asked Thanos directly if he understood all the ramifications of relieving his public defenders, and if he truly wished to waive his right to a 240-stay of execution, automatically granted in Maryland if requested by the defendant. When asked if he wished to decline his right to the stay, Thanos said yes.

"I don't want to be bound by this system anymore," he said.

When the judge asked Thanos if he had any reservations about giving up the stay, Thanos said "none whatsoever."

Thayer then explained that although he was declining his right to the 240-day delay, he could still be granted the postponement if he requested it "well in advance" of the day of his execution. The judge signed the execution warrant Monday afternoon, setting the date of death for any day during the week beginning Nov. 1. The murderer will be administered lethal gas until he is dead.

Immediately following Thayer's decision, Public Defender Saunders stood and announced that he would most likely appeal the competency ruling. Thanos then stood up.

"Didn't we just discharge him?" he asked. "I thought I was through with him and here he is meddling with me again. I am enraged by this."

Thayer then reminded Thanos that he has been told "numerous times" that he has no choice in the matter.

Papers were apparently filed at the courthouse this morning by Saunders, requesting that Thayer grant Thanos the 240-day stay and appealing the competency decision, according to Circuit Court Clerk David Martin.

IS THERE ANYTHING ABOUT WHICH YOU MIGHT STAND?

This coming Sunday afternoon across this once great nation there will be many people who will simply stand for life. While you ponder if you should, consider this: From a logical viewpoint- Congress is again considering whether they should take our tax money and pay for abortions. This takes away our choice. When we speak of freedom and how we always want to protect one's freedom, how does a baby in the womb get this choice if another makes it for him or her?

From a spiritual viewpoint- Just take a look at the greatest book ever written, look at Isaiah 44:2 "Thus says the Lord who made you and formed you from the womb--" Look at Jeremiah 1:5 "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you; before you were born I sanctified you--"

In both of these quotes it is our Lord who spoke. Now if you don't believe in the Lord you have a reason to wander through life without direction, however, if you believe in the Lord, do you have a choice? If you feel you do, perhaps you should reread these two quotes, and then look into the Bible and find those words yourself. Find in Exodus 20:13 where the Lord says "you shall not murder." My friend can you really find any room to rationalize this matter?

This Sunday thousands and thousands will be taking a quiet stand "for life". Will you?

Thomas E. Doyle

If you have a fire tonight will you get out safely?

You'll have a better chance of getting out safely if you've planned ahead. Develop a fire escape plan and practice it with the whole family. Everyone should know two ways out of each room and know where to meet outside.

Make sure everyone understands that getting out is the first priority. And remember, once you're outside, stay out.

COMMUNITY HELPS OUT

Last week the men of the Stemple Ridge Community aided neighbor Herb Starr, who recently fractured his arm while working to complete an addition to his home. They gathered to finish the exterior, during the times when work was possible and, on Wednesday evening, the women prepared a covered dish supper. Those who helped and attended were: Elwood and Hazel Blamble, Harold Harsh, Lester Hauser, Arlene Stemple, Frank and Wilda Blamble and Charles, Keith and Delores Douglas, Charlie, Betty and Danny Moore, Erwin and Mary Stemple, Everett and Shirley Blamble, Eldean Poling, all local. Visiting during this time and also helping were Dale and Vicki Harsh; the Starrs' daughter and great-granddaughter, Jenny Casto and Katie Hartley, all of Ohio.

PERSONAL MENTION

Ross and Naomi Teets returned Saturday evening to their home in Aurora from a two-week visit in Springfield, Va., with their children, the Doyne and Alan Teets families.

Visiting here for Mildred Wilt's 90th birthday were her son and daughter-in-law, David and Lois Ann Wilt, of Hinckley, Ohio; daughter and son-in-law, Thelma and Gene Simpson, of Martin's Ferry, Ohio; and her other children, Bernard Wilt and Rose of Grantsville, Dorothy and Robert Spaid, Aurora, attended the Sunday celebration and open house at the Maple Spring Church along with most of her 11 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Eric Randalow of Vienna, Va., was a weekend visitor here with his sister-in-law and her family, Marcia, Rick, Sarah, Rebekah and John Spaid, at Eglon.

Wayne Fike of Red House remains a patient in Ruby Memorial at this time, but is reportedly improving.

Morgan Fulk was again a patient in Monongalia General Hospital last week. He and his wife are presently staying with their daughter, Nada Daoust, in Fairmont.

Bill and Sandra Hauser, Wade and Joe, returned Friday evening from a 6,000-mile-plus trip to Portland, Ore. During their travels they visited in Salt Lake City, the Mormon Tabernacle Square, an antique logging museum, Camp 18, near Portland, returned through North Dakota and Wisconsin, stopped by to see the Clydesdale horses and a brewery, and this weekend visited in Wadsworth, Ohio, with Glenn and Norma Lantz.

Third Infantry Unit To Perform At Apple Fest

The "Old Guard," Third Infantry Army, the world renowned unit from the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Washington, D.C., has confirmed its appearance at the 20th annual Burlington Old Fashioned Apple Harvest Festival Saturday, October 2, for the grand feature parade and a field show.

The unit has appeared at the Apple Harvest twice in the past four years.

"We are delighted to have the Old Guard back again," commented Rev. I. Lynn Beckman, vice president of Burlington Family Services. "The Burlington Fire Department has been working on this for the parade for several months and we just got the word this week that they could come. Our plan is to have their color guard and drill team appear in our 4 p.m. parade and then present their dramatic field show immediately following the parade."

The Old Guard serves as the Army's official ceremonial unit and escort to the president of the United States. As an infantry unit it maintains tactical and technical proficiency as well as providing security for key national leaders in times of emergency or civil disturbance. The unit conducts military ceremonies at the White House, the Pentagon, the various national memorials, and maintains the 24-hour vigil at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at the Arlington National Cemetery. It participates in more than 6,000 ceremonies annually, making it one of the busiest military ceremonial units in the nation.

Also appearing in concert on Saturday at 2 p.m. will be the U.S. Navy's Country Current, which performs country, bluegrass, patriotic, and western swing music.

Slated to serve as the Grand Marshall of the Festival Parade is Tina Cutlip, the 1992 State Fair Queen. Miss Cutlip tours West Virginia as a part of her official reign appearing at major functions, festivals, and state events.

The Festival will continue through October 2-3 with a full line-up of free entertainment, a variety of foods, arts and crafts displays, a flea market, antique auto, tractors, and small engine shows, a quilt show, auction sale, games, pony rides, and homemade apple butter for sale.

For further Festival information, persons may call (304) 289-3511, or write P.O. Box 96, Burlington, WV 26710.

Country Current To Perform During Harvest Festival

Country Current, the U.S. Navy's premier country-bluegrass group, will headline the 20th annual Apple Harvest Festival on Saturday, October 3, from 2 to 3 p.m., at Burlington, W.Va.

Based at the historic Washington, D.C. Navy Yard, the group is the only unit among the major service bands that showcases music from America's Heartland. It will be the group's third appearance in four years at the Festival.

In 1989 Country Current took its unique sound to Beijing, China, to entertain senior Chinese officials at a dinner hosted by President and Mrs. Bush.

Country Current regularly performs at White House functions and stately events. They have performed with Juice Newton at a White House festival honoring Women's Equality. They have appeared on the Academy of Country Music Awards Show, Grand Ole Opry, Wheeling Jamboree, ABC's "Good Morning America" and TNN's "Nashville Now." They received national acclaim for the song of "We Are With You" during Operation Desert Storm.

For further information on Country Current and the Burlington Apple Harvest Festival, persons may write Festival Headquarters, Box 96, Burlington, WV, 26710 or call (304) 289-3511.

ing in doing their time just on weekends, we have as many as 24 people sharing the same facilities. The weekenders are locked across the hall in an approximately 12x14 room with 10 bunks with no facilities at all. They have to get the guard to unlock their door, then come across the hall and get them to unlock the other door so they can use the bathroom.

We've asked the warden for paint for the shower for the last five months, but to no avail. Now the water is soaking through the blocks, soaking the tile loose, and smelling. Now it will have to be scraped and resealed before it can be painted.

Another thing is the system they've set up to do laundry. It has to be left in the bag and when we get it back, it's only half clean, still wet, and so wrinkled you couldn't iron them out (if you had one).

As far as hygiene items, the only things we're allowed to have are soap, shampoo, and toothpaste. Any skin care lotion or cream or powder has to be prescribed by the doctor and then you have to go out front to use it. Even nail clippers you have to go to the holding cell to use.

Our commissary, which consists of candy bars, chips, and popcorn was supposed to be run twice a week, at least for sodas, but we're lucky if we get it once a week. We tried to get them to sell coffee so we'd at least have something fit to drink, but the hot water system's not big enough to supply the water. We suggested putting coffee urns in the cell blocks to heat water in, but they're afraid to put them in because, the way we're treated, someone would probably empty one on them.

We hope that everyone will take into consideration what's going on around here when election time comes.

It costs the weekenders $10 a day and the work release 30 percent of their pay, before taxes, to stay here, and they don't get treated a bit different than the rest of us.

I know everyone in this place has friends and relatives in Garrett County, so we would greatly appreciate any support we can get to help us get the credit we deserve. Most of us are county residents and taxpayers, too.

Thank you sincerely,
Ervin E. Sliger (inmate)

Woman Charged Following Four-Vehicle Pile-Up

An Aurora, W.Va., woman was charged by the Maryland State Police, Barrack W, McHenry, Tuesday following a four-car collision on Md. Rt. 560 at the Garrett Road. None of the other vehicle operators were charged, according to police reports.

Norma J. Byrd, 29, was charged in that mishap. She was also the only vehicle operator in the chain reaction mishap taken to Garrett County Memorial Hospital by the Southern Garrett County Rescue Squad. A nursing spokesperson indicated that she was treated for minor injuries and released.

Tfc. J.T. Bentlejewski investigated the 4:20 p.m. collision and reported that the accident occurred when four vehicles were all traveling north on Rt. 560 when the operator of the first vehicle, Betty J. Garlitz, 23, Mtn. Lake Park, slowed for a vehicle to make a right turn onto the Garrett Road. Byrd, operating the second vehicle, reportedly failed to reduce speed for the Garlitz vehicle and struck it in the rear. Without any warning of the collision in front of him, Loyd Shomo, 41, Oakland, operator of the third vehicle, struck the Byrd vehicle. A fourth vehicle, operated by James S. Melton, 39, Oakland, similarly struck the Shomo vehicle.

CAR OVERTURNS

An Upper Marlboro man was treated and released Sunday from Memorial Hospital in Cumberland, according to a hospital spokesperson, following a single-vehicle mishap in which his car overturned.

Paul J. Robinson, 44, was injured when he lost control of his 1992 Ford Escort on Interstate 68 near the 30-mile marker while he was reportedly changing a cassette tape. The vehicle reportedly struck the eastbound shoulder and a guardrail, crossed into the median, struck another guardrail and overturned.

DWI ARRESTS

A number of motorists were apprehended and charged with DWI (driving while intoxicated or while under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs) this past week by state police.

Mark E. Bennett, 32, no address given, was charged with DWI on Friday by Tfc. P.R. Brown.

Kenneth E. Schrock, 44, Oakland, was charged Friday with DWI by Tfc. S.H. Anderson.

Tfc. J.K. Moore charged Robert E. Downton, 48, Grantsville, with DWI on Saturday.

A DWI charge was filed against Frank W. Seiler, 63, Hopwood, Pa. on Saturday by Officer Smith.

Sonja A. Light, 47, Oakland, was charged with DWI on Tuesday by Tfc. J.K. Moore.

WIC Coupons

Senator John J. Hafer.

WIC is a program which provides coupons to eligible women for the purchase of certain food items.

Senator Hafer reportedly pointed out at the meeting that certain areas in the county were being ignored because of the recent efforts to streamline the program that resulted in several vendors losing their authority to honor WIC coupons.

Although published reports have stated that the stores were added as a direct result of the "public outcry" from both Garrett and Allegany counties, Tori Leonard, deputy director of public relations for the DHMH, stated that public outcry was "absolutely not" the reason.

Instead, she said, adding stores is part of the pre-established process of streamlining -- the first part being to designate the stores based on the department's criteria, and the second being to then review the individual hardship cases and to make accommodations for them.

Fogle Speaks At ARC Conference On Health, Safety

William A. Fogle, Jr., Maryland Secretary of Licensing and Regulation, addressed on Monday the Appalachian Regional Conference on Health and Safety Issues which is being held at the Allegany Community College, Cumberland.

Fogle acknowledged the need for "a blueprint, a master plan for the emerging world of regulation and safety."

In addressing several hundred participants, Fogle pledged to strengthen his ability to provide technical assistance and training designed to help local employers achieve voluntary compliance with occupational safety and health standards.

"I am committed to increasing our level of training and consultation services to local employers to help prevent accidents before they happen. I want you to know that I am not interested in conducting ever increasing numbers of safety inspections and levying fines," Fogle said.

Fogle urged Western Maryland employers and employees to join with him in a "working, ongoing partnership" to accomplish these goals.

The Conference concluded Wednesday.

Health Advisory Comm. To Meet

The Garrett County Board of Education Health Advisory Committee will meet at 8:30 a.m. on Friday, Oct. 8, at Garrett Community College, Continuing Ed. Building, Room 306. The public is invited to attend.

Appropriate accommodations for individuals with disabilities will be provided upon request. Five business days' notice prior to the event is required. The office contact person is Lucille Ludvigsen, 301-334-8901. The Maryland Relay Service number is 1-800-735-2258 TT Voice.

New York Trip Slated By GCC

A trip to New York has been scheduled through Garrett Community College for students and adults of Garrett County and neighboring communities.

Participants will ring in the New Year in Times Square, according to English professor Lonnie Brewster, coordinator of the trip. "We won't have to stay home and watch the big ball drop in Times Square on New Year's Eve," Brewster stated. "We'll be there."

Those attending the holiday excursion will have two full days to visit museums, cathedrals, and numerous other tourist attractions. Brewster noted, "Ample time will also be provided to shop famous department stores, such as Bloomingdale's and Macy's."

The $348 package includes three theatre productions, travel by charter bus, and accommodations in the Edison Hotel near Times Square. Participants will be housed four per room. Those desiring fewer persons in their rooms will be assessed additional costs.

The trip requires 40 participants and is open to students as well as Garrett County and surrounding area residents. The group will depart December 29 and return January 1.

A non-refundable down payment of $180 is due by October 15, with the balance to be paid by November 15.

Persons desiring further information or wishing to pay a deposit on the trip may contact Brewster at GCC by calling 387-3017 or at his home on weekends at 304-636-9270. Checks should be made payable to Garrett Community College.

CALL TOLL FREE 1-800-321-9763

Toll-Free Fall Foliage Hotline Now Available

Governor William Donald Schaefer has announced that beginning Monday, September 27, a toll-free Fall Foliage Hotline will offer weekly updates on fall colors, festivals, and celebrations.

By dialing 1-800-VIEW-TREES (1-800-843-9873), callers can listen to a three-minute summary of where the Maryland foliage is reaching its fall peak of red, gold, orange and scarlet. Updates weekly, the hotline also will feature the state's top fall festivals and celebrations.

The Fall Foliage Hotline is produced by the Maryland Office of Tourism Development, a program of the Department of Economic and Employment Development (DEED), with assistance from the Department of Natural Resources (DNR).

"Fall is when Maryland shows its true colors. The Fall Foliage Hotline gives callers inside information on where to find the most spectacular colors," said Governor Schaefer.

Information about things to do and see in Maryland this fall also is listed in the new Fall Travel Guide. The public may obtain free copies of the state's fall travel kit, including the new travel guide, by calling the Fall Foliage Hotline.

"Autumn is a great time to tour Maryland. The weather is cooler and nature provides a brilliant backdrop for every kind of activity – biking on the C&O Canal Towpath, antiquing in Frederick County, or just taking a quiet stroll on Ocean City's boardwalk," said George Williams, director of the Maryland Office of Tourism Development.

DNR Secretary Torrey C. Brown, M.D., urged citizens to visit some of the more than 300,000 acres of public lands in Maryland. "There is no better time of year to walk, bike or camp and appreciate the beauty of nature than in the fall, and no better place to do that in our state forest and parks," he said. "Not only are the leaves offering spectacular displays, but the geese and waterfowl are arriving and it is the best time of year to watch deer and other wildlife."

Maryland's fall line-up includes festivals and events from Western Maryland to the Eastern Shore. The Autumn Glory Festival in Garrett County celebrates the peak of Western Maryland's fall foliage October 14-17. For information, the public may contact the Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion Council at (301) 334-1948.

Patuxent River Appreciation Days will be held October 9-10 at the Calvert Marine Museum in Solomons, Calvert County. For information, the public may call (410) 326-2042.

The Waterfowl Festival November 12-14 in Easton, Talbot County, brings together 500 of the nation's most prestigious wildlife artists, presenting the finest in paintings, carvings and antique decoys. For information, the public may contact the festival office at (410) 822-4567.

Those who want to enjoy quiet and solitude in a quaint setting can head to Maryland's Eastern Shore and stroll the quaint streets of St. Michaels and Oxford.

The Maryland Office of Tourism Development estimates that more than 40 percent of travelers to Maryland visit the state during the fall months.

Harpist To Give Concert At FSU

Internationally acclaimed harpist and singer Harvi Griffin will be performing at Frostburg State University during Parents' Weekend, Friday, October 1. The performance will take place in the Lane Center's Greenhouse at 8 p.m.

Griffin blends a unique combination of pop, jazz, and classical music to audiences around the world. The winner of the 1990 NACA Performing Arts Award, he has also been invited to perform at the White House several times.

The event is free and open to the public. For more information, persons may call 689-4411.

"My Fondest Wish..."

There is a tongue-in-cheek adage which goes something like this..."Take care what you wish for. It just might come true."

Of course, the moral to the adage is that we do not always know what is best for us. Our fondest hopes in which we invest great time and effort could result in disappointment. The penpheral vision of the human mind is far from accurate. In fact, it is somewhat abstract. This being the case, how do we know our needs for now and for our future?

Proverbs 3:5-6 tells us to "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not rely on your own insight. In all ways acknowledge Him, and He will make straight your paths."

As you worship each Sabbath, know that God will make your fondest wish come true...if it is His will. Pray about it.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

PROMISES, PROMISES
October 3, 1993

Background Scripture:
Genesis 12:1-3; 15:1-18
Devotional Reading:
Genesis 11:31,32; 12:1-10; 14:17-20

How much is a promise worth today? Not very much.

Promises made by advertisers are known to be intentionally deceptive. Promises made by politicians are not taken very seriously any more. But then neither are treaties between nations, agreements between employers and employees, and even vows between husbands and wives.

Is not this distrust of promises, this erosion of trust the basis of much of our social uneasiness today? We do not trust the government, nor the institutions of our society, and we do not trust each other. As Erik Erikson has suggested, we must learn to trust something or someone early in our lives or live in cynicism for the rest of our days.

Religions are not so much rejected today as not trusted, and trust in God's promises is the essence of religious faith and spirituality. What we call faith is really trust. When Jesus commended people for their faith, he was commending them for trusting in him.

TRUST ME

So, the ancient record of God's promise to Abram and the latter's trusting response to that promise is very relevant for us. In Genesis 12 and 15 God gives his promise as the basis of the faith he seeks from his people. "And I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you...and by you all the families of the earth shall bless themselves" (12:2,3). God foretells what he will do for Abram and his progeny and in response he asks Abram to trust him: "Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land I will show you" (12:1). In our own time, this also is the basis of our relationship with God. He gives us a promise and He asks us to trust Him to fulfill that promise.

Abram's first response is not unlike the kind of response we might make today. "O Lord God, what wilt thou give me, for I continue childless" (15:2). Abram hears the promise and he wants to trust in it, but how can he believe if he has no offspring? So it is sometimes with us: we want to believe God's promise, but, in the light of how things are in our lives, we don't see how he can keep that promise.

Abram voiced his doubt and God was not angered because of it, but neither does he give Abram proof. He merely expands on that promise. "Look toward the heaven, and number the stars. So shall your descendants be" (15:5). Now Abram's choice as to whether he will trust that promise or not. The answer: "And he believed the Lord, and he reckoned it to him as righteousness" (15:6).

RECKONED AS RIGHTEOUSNESS

Abram decided to trust the promise--even though he didn't know how God would fulfill it. When the writer says "he reckoned it to him as righteousness," he is saying that God accepted Abram's trust as the basis of their relationship. It would depend, not upon the sacrifices that Abram offered, nor even the deeds he did for God. His trust alone was the keystone of God's love and mercy.

In New Testament times, the Apostle Paul seized on this example to build his concept of justification by faith (Rom. 4:3, 9,22; Gal. 3:6). None of us can ever earn the love and mercy of God--our deeds will always fall short of what it would take--but we can accept that promise as a gift and trust in it for our salvation.

So the question is never whether we believe in God, but whether we trust him. Trusting in him makes all the difference.

A HIGH FEVER IS VERY SCARY

When a child's temperature shoots up very high, it is very frightening to the parents. And often, this will happen without any other symptoms. Fortunately children are able to tolerate high temperatures much more easily than adults.

If a fever gets over 102 in a small child, a physician very often prescribes a sedating suppository to guard against the possibility of a convulsion. Some physicians suggest you have these prescription suppositories in the house for use if a fever is raging late at night. Children's aspirin helps to bring down the fever but if it gets up as high as 104 or 105, your physician might recommend putting the child in a bath of cool water. Follow his advice.

COVER STORY

Paul Zaloom is Beakman

Pencil alert! "Beakman's World," the wildly successful cable and syndicated science show for kids, has been picked up by network TV. The series, which debuted Saturday, Sept. 18, on CBS, begins its second season on The Learning Channel Sunday, Oct. 3. Beakman is the invention of syndicated writer Jok Church, whose science column for kids appears in newspapers nationwide.

Puppeteer, performance artist, satirist and filmmaker Paul Zaloom plays Beakman, a kid-friendly scientist in a lime green lab coat and Einstein-esque hair. In addition, Zaloom appears frequently as one or another of the Famous Dead Guys from Science who pay visits to "Beakman's World." Beakman's frequent bad jokes get a quick "Ba-da-boom, ba-da-bing!" then it's on to the next topic. Yet for all its fun, says executive producer Robert Heath, "we never make Paul's character or the science itself the joke. We never knock the information."

At Beakman's side is Lester the Rat, played by fellow puppeteer Mark Ritts, who also operates the twin penguins, Don and Herb (named for Mr. Wizard, Don Herbert).

"Originally the rat was going to be a puppet, and I was going to be the puppeteer," Ritts says. "Then one night I got a call from Mr. Heath saying, 'How would you feel about doing the rat in a rat suit?' I can remember the long silence on my end of the phone. At first I confess I just didn't know what to make of it."

The writing team made the most of Josie (Alana Ubach), Beakman's perky assistant in the first season. Just 16 years old when the show went on the air, Ubach is now filming "Sister Act II." The job of gently sparring with Lester and reading, during "pencil alerts," the names of supplies needed to recreate Beakman's experiments (always with adult supervision) has fallen to 21-year-old Eliza Schneider.

The set is filled with props from old episodes, actual letters from viewers and hundreds of swap-meet treasures, all illustrating the principle that "everything goes somewhere, nothing disappears," a message Zaloom says has both scientific and social consequences. There are fan blades, lava lamps, globes, pulleys, bowling trophies, a cut-away toilet, a bed of nails and over 1,200 books. Though it's rarely seen, the floor is painted with a U.S. map, a diagram of the solar system and a table of chemical elements.

Mail pours in at the rate of 1,000 letters a week, and the show's scripts are based on the questions posed by young viewers. "Why is the sky blue?" is a perennial. "What is an eclipse?" came pasted in colored newsprint letters, much like a ransom note. The inquiries range from the practical ("How big do crickets get, and how long do they live?") to the whimsical ("Why does my toast always fall jelly-side down?"), but all are treated with respect.

"What we're trying to do with the show," Zaloom says, "is to make science accessible to children and, for that matter, their parents."

IN FOCUS

Fresh interest in killer whales, sparked by the film "Free Willy," has led to renewed efforts to learn about the magnificent creatures. Sunday, Oct. 3, TBS airs "The Killer Whales," an episode of "National Geographic Explorer." Robert Urich narrates this look at the giant orcas, both in captivity and in the wild. Sunday also brings "The Secret Societies of Dolphins and Whales" to TBS. Jean-Michel Cousteau leads the Calypso documentary team; John Denver is host.

Palmer's 'Death' an affirmation of life

BY MICHAEL SCOGIN

The question commonly asked of Greg Palmer, writer, host and co-producer of PBS' "Death: The Trip of a Lifetime," is, simply, "Why a four-hour documentary on this particular subject?"

"Death, not space, is the final frontier," says Palmer, whose program airs Monday, Oct. 4, and Tuesday, Oct. 5, "and unlike every other frontier, death is the one we all have to go to one day. By looking all over the world at how people prepare for life's last adventure, we hope to get some sense of the adventure itself."

"Death: The Trip of a Lifetime" may sound dark, morbid and macabre, but in the capable hands of Palmer and executive producer Barry Stoner, it is a fascinating, often humorous, sometimes sorrowful, frequently joyous look at how different cultures deal with death's inevitability.

Palmer's program travels from Mexico's Night of the Dead, which includes a never-before-photographed Pure-pechan death ritual, to India's sacred Ganges River, where Hindu cremations are a 24-hour-a-day occurrence. A trip to a village in Ghana yields intriguing, rarely seen footage of a three-day Ashanti funeral.

"We are trying to look at death with the emotional range that people do," says Palmer. "I think this show will be successful if, at the end of each hour, people have cried twice and laughed once."

Under those terms, "Death: The Trip of a Lifetime" is an unqualified success. Palmer's journey down the road to life's inescapable conclusion is, in its best and purest form, a celebration of life and living.

TV-PIPELINE

BY TAYLOR MICHAELS

Q: Is "Martin" ever going to come to NBC or CBS? –Katrina Harrington, North Carolina.

A: Never say never, but it's very doubtful. "Martin," which stars Martin Lawrence, is delivering the ratings goods respectably for Fox, which thinks enough of the show to let it lead off its Sunday night lineup this fall.

Q: I haven't seen Scott Simon on the "Saturday Today" show in some time. What happened? –M.S., Winchester, Va.

A: One of National Public Radio's most popular reporters and commentators, Simon began a one-year contract with NBC in July 1992. In the months that followed, he spoke openly of his dissatisfaction with his own performance on the Saturday news program. After years of dressing as he pleased for his radio broadcasts, he was good-naturedly nonplussed at the amount of attention his TV wardrobe attracted from viewers. He also said he felt awkward in the between-segments chatter with co-host Jackie Nespral and weather wit Al Roker, although he got along with both. As I understand it, Simon's return to public radio, where he shines once again, was a cordial one for both NBC and him.

Q: Please tell me anything you can about John Crane of "Roundhouse." How old is he, and where can I write to him? –L.E., Holly Hill, Fla.

Q: Can you give me any information on Micki Duran and Natalie Nucci of "Roundhouse"? –Patty Bradley, Flint, Mich.

A: An old coot by "Roundhouse" standards, Crane, who plays the recurring role of Dad, is 30. He also helps write the show each week. He has worked in improvisational comedy at the Groundlings Theatre in Los Angeles and also does stand-up. He co-starred in the 1992 comedy "Body Waves."

Martin Lawrence

At 18, Duran is the junior Roundhouser. She hails from Diamond Bar, Calif., and has been dancing for nine years. Her credits include "The 42nd Annual Emmy Awards" and "The Soul Train Awards." A former cast member of the TV series "Hull High," she has appeared in several music videos by artists including Quincy Jones, Color Me Badd and many others.

Nucci brings an international flavor to the company; she was born in Austria and reared in Italy. She has been on "General Hospital" and in the movie "House Party II." Her stage credits include "Evita," "Jesus Christ Superstar," "On the Town" and "West Side Story."

Fans can write the "Roundhouse" gang C/O Nickelodeon, 10 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, Calif. 91608.

CABLE OVERVIEW

'Life in the Theatre' s'wonderful, Lemmon says

BY JOHN CROOK

Oscar winner Jack Lemmon joins Tony Award winner Matthew Broderick in "A Life in the Theatre," premiering Saturday, Oct. 9, on TNT. The TV movie adaptation of David Mamet's stage comedy is directed by Gregory Mosher, who helmed the Tony-winning revival of "Our Town" shown in 1989 on PBS.

Unsuspecting moviegoers were jolted out of their seats last year by the intense screen adaptation of "Glengarry Glen Ross," Mamet's Pulitzer Prize-winning drama. They can rest assured that "A Life in the Theatre" is a different animal altogether. Written when the playwright was only 25, the play opened in February 1977. It since has been performed around the globe and is Mamet's most-translated play, according to Mosher.

Lemmon plays Robert, a vain actor whose career is beginning to wane. Broderick is John, his promising young colleague. In a series of vignettes, some of them only a minute or two in length, "A Life" charts the changing emotional tides of their relationship.

"I could not believe, when I was halfway through reading this play, that the same man wrote 'Glengarry,'" laughs Lemmon, who starred in the movie version of that play as well. "It's too sweet, it's too lovely, it's too wonderful."

Mosher is especially sensitive to the fact that many great plays have been ruined in the process of "opening them up" for TV or movies. He and Mamet, who wrote the teleplay, took special pains to protect "A Life," which had only a two-man cast onstage.

Jack Lemmon

This play was originally set all over Chicago," Mosher explains. "So, physically, it's just returned to what it originally was on the printed page. There are many characters in this movie. There are many actors in this movie, men and women. Jack and Matthew are the only two who speak."

Children's performer Raffi stars in the music special "Raffi on Broadway," premiering Wednesday, Oct. 6, on The Disney Channel.

"Tracey Ullman: Takes on New York," debuting Saturday on HBO, presents the Emmy-winning actress in three comic vignettes set in the Big Apple.

The Nashville Network presents an hour-long music extravaganza, "Nashville Fan Fair '93," on Wednesday. The show was taped in June.

Viewers can enjoy "The Secret Societies of Dolphins and Whales," a Cousteau Society Special airing Sunday, Oct. 3, on TBS.

TIME OUT

Baseball playoffs keep Gumbel busy

BY MICHAEL SCOGIN

Airline passengers shouldn't be shocked or surprised to see Greg Gumbel serving tea and coffee on their next flight to Kalamazoo, Mich.

"After all these years, I'm a flight attendant," says Gumbel, who is busy with CBS' "NFL Today" and his work on CBS radio, including a weekly NFL preview. Sunday and Monday Night NFL football and a daily talk show, "Sportstime." He's also preparing to anchor CBS' coverage of the 1994 Winter Olympic Games from Lillehammer, Norway.

On top of all this, Gumbel serves as CBS' play-by-play announcer for the 1993 Major League Baseball American League Championship Series, which starts Tuesday, Oct. 5. The National League Championship Series begins on CBS Wednesday, Oct. 6. The last year of baseball on CBS gives Gumbel his first chance to work a playoff series. Next year's playoffs and World Series coverage will be split between NBC and ABC.

"Baseball was the sport that I just loved growing up," says Gumbel. "It was the first one that I learned. My dad started throwing baseballs at me when I was 4. I didn't learn to catch them until I was 7."

Gumbel will be especially pleased if his beloved Chicago White Sox make it to the playoffs. "I grew up a White Sox fan on the south side of Chicago. Bryant was the (Chicago) Cubs fan in the family, and between the two teams, we probably would attend 40-45 games a summer. He would go to Comiskey Park and cheer against the White Sox, and I'd go to Wrigley Field and cheer against the Cubs. Of all the teams that I was a fan of when I was a kid, the White Sox are the only ones that I still pick up the newspaper and see what they did the night before.

Greg Gumbel

1993 may mark the last year of the traditional divisional and playoff alignment for Major League Baseball. Owners recently decided to alter the makeup of the divisions, allowing divisional champions as well as divisional wild cards to make the playoffs next year. While the move has many baseball purists up in arms, Gumbel doesn't agree.

"I'm not really sure what a purist is," he says. "I think there's been a lot of overreaction to it. I don't think it's going to cripple baseball. If anything is going to cripple baseball, it is the stupid leadership it in effect doesn't have. You've got people who have been without a commissioner now for a year. Obviously their priorities are very misplaced."

Lupus Awareness Month Declared

Maryland Governor William Donald Schaefer has declared October as Lupus Awareness Month in the State of Maryland. The governor joins the members of the Maryland Lupus Foundation in their efforts to raise public awareness of lupus and money for research during this special month.

To mark the month, the Foundation will kick off a multi-media public service campaign which includes radio and television spots, as well as distribution of transit signs, posters and flyers.

According to Foundation Director Jeri Falk, the theme of the campaign, "Pain and Suffering Never Looked So Good" conveys the idea that while lupus patients can look well, they are often hurting inside. "Lupus is an autoimmune disease that can affect virtually any organ in the body. It's especially frustrating because lupus sufferers look so well between episodes. No one can believe that their energy level can become so low they can hardly function," she said. The Foundation also says that although lupus affects more people than does muscular dystrophy, cystic fibrosis, or leukemia, it is still one of the most misdiagnosed and misunderstood diseases.

Another element of the campaign, according to Falk, is to identify the undiagnosed lupus patient. "The symptoms of lupus sometimes mimic other diseases and may not be diagnosed as lupus," said the director. "It is important to see a doctor if you experience symptoms that include achy joints, fever, prolonged fatigue, skin rashes and anemia. Education is the key to early diagnosis and effective treatment."

In addition to the public awareness campaign, the Foundation will host its 16th Annual Meeting on October 21 at the Inn at the Colonnade in Baltimore. Dr. John H. Klippel of the National Institutes of Health will deliver the keynote address on The Impact of Health Care Reform on the Lupus Patient. He will discuss how the health care system meets the needs of the lupus community, where the system fails, and the ways in which it needs to change.

For a complete listing of all lupus awareness activities in your area or to receive a free packet of literature about lupus, persons may call the Foundation at 410-337-9000 in Baltimore or 800-777-0934 in Maryland.

TAILGATE TOUCHDOWN

Get into the spirit of fall with a tailgate party. It's the perfect way to cheer on your favorite football team, no matter whether it's a local high school game, a collegiate showdown or a nearby duel of professional players. Actually, tailgate parties are the perfect ending to many fall outings. For example, plan a tailgate party after your child's soccer game or after a family visit to a local museum.

Keep the menu simple and easy to prepare by using convenient products and kitchen-tested recipes that offer a variety of flavor combinations. For example, A.1. Steak Sauce with its rich blend of 10 herbs and spices brings out the savory flavor of ground beef and green onions in Beefy Turnovers. Cherries add ruby-red color and tangy taste to your menu. Try Cherry Cupcakes for a quick, easy dessert. Your tailgate party guests also will love the flavors of Hearty Sausage Cassoulet. In this recipe, A.1. Steak Sauce and dried cherries team up with sweet Italian sausage and white kidney beans.

Food shared with friends and family in the open air makes a winning combination, so this fall pack a tailgate meal wherever and whenever the spirit moves you.

PACKED TO GO

Whether your tailgate party is out of the back of a station wagon or inside a deluxe recreational vehicle, keep these tips in mind:

- One of the simplest and least expensive ways to store and carry picnic gear is in a cardboard file storage box available at office supply stores and many discount stores.
- Some type of cooler is necessary to keep cold foods well chilled, especially those that contain meat, fish, eggs or dairy products. A lightweight styrofoam chest may be all you really need or you may want to invest in a heavy-duty cooler.
- There also are a variety of insulated bags for foods that need to be kept cold or warm. These bags will keep chilled foods cold approximately six to eight hours and hot foods warm approximately four to six hours.
- Hot foods will drop in temperature, so they should be very hot when packed for a tailgate meal.
- Transfer hot casseroles to wide-mouthed thermal containers or wrap casseroles airtight in two layers of heavy-duty aluminum foil and then in several thicknesses of newspaper.
- For chilled foods, use plenty of ice in the cooler. Place perishables such as dairy products and packaged meats directly on the ice for optimum cooling.
- Don't overstock the cooler; air circulation is necessary to keep temperatures low.
- Use insulated picnic jugs and containers to supplement the space in the cooler.
- After eating, return all foods to the cooler. If there is no ice left, it's best to throw the food away. The best plan, of course, is to manage the menu so that there are few or no leftovers.

Beefy Turnovers

Makes 8 turnovers

- ½ pound ground beef
- ¼ cup finely chopped onion
- ¼ cup finely chopped green pepper
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 1 (8-ounce) can tomato sauce
- ⅓ cup A.1. Steak Sauce
- 2 cups shredded mozzarella cheese (about 8 ounces)
- 2 (11-ounce) packages all ready pizza crust dough

In skillet, over medium-high heat, cook ground beef, onion, pepper and garlic until meat is no longer pink, stirring to break up meat; pour off fat. Add tomato sauce and steak sauce. Heat to a boil; reduce heat to low. Cook for 5 minutes or until slightly thickened. Remove from heat; stir in cheese. Cool for at least 15 minutes.

Unroll pizza dough from one package, divide into 4 equal pieces. Roll each piece into a 6-inch square; spoon a scant ½ cup beef mixture onto center of each square. Fold dough over to form triangle. Press edges together, sealing well with tines of fork. Place on lightly greased baking sheets. Repeat with remaining dough and filling to make a total of 8 turnovers. Bake at 400°F for 20 minutes or until browned. Serve hot or at room temperature. Refrigerate leftovers.

The Golden Years

by Melissa Groves

Raymond Bushland, 80, of Kerrville, Texas, and Edward Knipling, 81, of Arlington, Virginia, were young scientists in 1932 when they took on a project for the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Objective: Eliminate screwworm flies devastating cattle herds in the south. They did it by introducing great numbers of sterile flies into affected areas to foil successful mating. The livestock industry was spared billions in losses. Sixty years later the two were presented with a $200,000 World Food Prize.

Betty Friedan's book, "The Feminine Mystique," fueled the women's movement 30 years ago. Now 71, Friedan is crusading to transform attitudes about aging. Speaking at a Washington conference, she assailed attitudes that living past 60 means deterioration and dependency. Growing older "is an adventure, not a problem," she proclaimed. She maintains a brisk pace of teaching, researching, speaking engagements and writing a book that presents aging as a positive development.

Twelve Teachers Trained At GCC Math Institute

At the 1993 Summer Mathematics Institute held at Garrett Community College and funded by an Eisenhower Mathematics and Science grant through the Maryland Higher Educations Commission, 12 middle and high school teachers were trained in new teaching methods and use of new technologies in the math classroom.

According to Dr. Nancy Priselac, coordinator of mathematcis, the Institute was based on the "Tune in Math and Science" (TIMS) project developed by the GMI Engineering and Management Institute and Michigan State University.

The focus of the in-service was the Standards "Four" Algebraic Thought Course designed to replace the filter of first-year algebra courses with a full sequence of mathematical experiences that seek to empower more students to begin and continue the development of mathematical knowledge, according to Priselac.

The format of the program instruction reportedly modeled the methods of instruction that teachers should use in their own classrooms. Teachers were able to experience the learning benefits of teaching mathematics through active exploration, stimulation of learning, active problem solving, cooperative learning, peer instruction, use of calculators and computers in the classroom, and class discussion.

"Presentations by guest lecturers contributed to the success of the Summer Institute," said Priselac.

Sharon Holmes and Ted Gardella from the GMI Engineering and Management Institute spoke about Project TIMS and demonstrated teaching techniques related to the project. Faculty members from Frostburg State University and West Virginia University presented workshops about the latest innovations in mathematics computer software, the use of the graphing calculator in the classroom, and the use of statistical Mini Tab software packages.

Faculty from GCC presented workshops on the integration of mathematics into other academic disciplines and were assisted by student mentors from GCC who have completed training in the use of Project TIMS at the college.

In addition, the Summer Institute was highlighted by the theme, "Partners in Education: Shaping the Vision to Touch the Future," which reflected the support for the Institute from regional agencies, businesses, and educational institutions.

Regional partners providing support were Bausch and Lomb, Inc., Naylor's Hardware, the University of Michigan, Pennsylvania State University, Frostburg State University, Allegheny Community College, the University of Pittsburgh, and GMI Engineering and Management Institute. The support, at no cost to the Institute, was in the form of software, technical support, and/or presentations.

George Bradley, of Wordperfect for Windows, provided free workshops on the latest innovations in software packages to the participants. The focus of the theme was to show what technology might be in the future.

The final assessment of the success of the Summer Institute was based on a multimedia mathematics presentation that the participants developed during the course of the program and could use in their classrooms. It was a presentation that all participants had a hand in creating with assistance from Priselac and student mentors, Jim Garner and Linda May Gerard.

EQUAL HOUSING OPPORTUNITY

Benefits Of Clinton Health Plan Are Counteracted By Negatives

Although President Clinton's health care reform plan contains some provisions long sought by farmers and ranchers, those benefits are offset by the proposal's reliance on employer mandates, increased state and federal regulation and new taxes, according to the American Farm Bureau Federation.

"We commend President Clinton for providing a 100 percent tax deduction for health insurance premiums paid by self-employed individuals," said AFBF President Dean Kleckner. "The self-employed have sought this for years as a matter of equity."

Kleckner also lauded Clinton for "addressing the special needs of rural America." He said the plan provides incentives for doctors and other health care professionals to practice in rural areas and for urban health care networks to serve rural areas.

The plan also provides for greater technical assistance to rural health care providers through telecommunications.

"While the provisions for rural residents are praiseworthy, they do not alleviate our basic concerns about the package," said Kleckner. "We oppose requiring employers to pay for their employees' health insurance, and we oppose the new taxes that purportedly will finance this plan."

In addition, the farm leader said, "We oppose the federal minimum benefit plan and the increased number of federal and state regulations that will be imposed on health care providers."

Kleckner said the benefits of the Clinton plan "would likely be wiped out for many farmers and ranchers who hire employees." He said the plan's cap for smaller employers, which limits health care costs to 3.5 percent of total payroll, still would be too costly for many farmers. "This cap will be raised by 7.9 percent, but even at the lower rate, many farmers will forgo hiring additional help."

A better approach, said Kleckner, would be to provide tax incentives for individuals to purchase health coverage and to establish "medical savings accounts" to pay for less-than catastrophic health care needs. "A 'Medic-Save' account would allow people to assume greater responsibility for cost-saving decisions," he stressed.

What's Included In Clinton Health Plan?

• Health care alliances: States would be required to establish alliances by Jan. 1, 1997. These could be non-profit corporations, an independent state agency or an agency of the state's executive branch. The alliances would publish information on the cost of health care services and list the doctors and hospitals participating. Alliances would offer consumers a choice of health plans, including fee-for-services plans.

• Self-employed: All premium payments made by self-employed individuals will be 100 percent tax deductible. The self-employed will pay the employer share and the individual share of the appropriate premium. The total amount paid is caused as a percentage of self-employed income, using the percentage caps applied to small businesses. If the self-employed individual also works for another employer, any amount contributed by that employer, prior to any employer subsidies, reduces the premium of the self-employed.

• Employer participation: Every employer would be required to pay on behalf of its workers at least 80 percent of the average premium. Employees would pay the remaining 20 percent if they choose a plan costing the average amount. Employees would pay extra for a plan costing more than the average amount. The federal government would offer assistance to low-income and unemployed people as well as small, low-wage businesses.

No company would be required to pay more than 7.9 percent of its payroll for health care costs. Contributions for employers with 50 or fewer employees would be capped according to a sliding scale ranging from 3.5 to 7.9 percent, depending on the firm's average wages. Employers would be required to make pro-rated contributions to a regional alliance for its part-time workers.

Smaller companies would be allowed to pay a smaller portion of the employee cost. For example, if the small employer's average full-time wage is less than $12,000, the employer's contribution would be capped at 3.4 percent of the payroll. If the average payroll is greater than $24,000, the employer cap would be 7.9 percent of the total payroll. The lower cap, however, will be phased up to 7.9 percent over a number of years.

• Rural areas: Health services would be expanded for rural residents through incentives such as steps to give physicians and health care assistants who locate in rural areas a modest tax credit during the first five years of practice. Medical workers would be allowed to deduct up to $5,000 in annual student loan interest when performing under service agreements with rural areas.

Alliances would be required to serve rural areas. Incentives would be established to expand rural community health networks. Cooperative relationships between rural and urban providers would be established. Rural areas would be offered long-term contracts.

Technical assistance would become available to support development of primary care systems in rural areas as well as telecommunications links between rural providers and urban health care centers and institutions.

What Farm Bureau Wants In A Health Care Plan

• A 100 percent health insurance tax deduction, or an equivalent tax credit, for the self-employed. This would provide equal treatment for all employed persons under the federal tax code.

• The establishment of medical savings accounts, which would allow individuals to set aside money on a pre-tax basis to pay small medical bills out of pocket. This would allow people to pursue higher deductible catastrophic health care plans that are much cheaper than low deductible plans.

• The elimination of, or drastic reductions in, cost shifting from Medicaid Medicare to individuals and third-party payers, as well as the restoration of equitable Medicare payments to rural hospitals and physicians.

• Assistance for medical communications systems and emergency patient transfer systems.

• Regulatory flexibility for health care providers in rural areas. Farm Bureau opposes federal regulations of health care plans.

• Tax incentives to all individuals to purchase health care plans.

• A program that includes the concept of private-sector health insurance purchasing cooperatives. Regional cooperatives would permit individuals and small companies to receive the same price advantages as corporations.

• Assistance to individuals who cannot afford to purchase health care plans, financed by reductions in federal spending in current health care programs, rather than by new taxes.

• The expanded use of non-physician, health care providers such as nurse practitioners, physicians' assistants and midwives to help improve the distribution of health care.

• Privately funded optional care delivery systems such as health maintenance organizations (HMOs).

• The use of innovations such as surgical centers or outpatient facilities to allow consumers to opt out of expensive hospital costs when they are unnecessary.

• Expanded efforts of medical schools to train additional qualified family physicians who intend to practice medicine in rural areas, as well as incentives at state and local levels to encourage doctors to practice in rural areas.

Md. Department of Agriculture Issues Seed Tag Warning

Maryland Secretary of Agriculture Robert L. Walker has issued a reminder of Maryland farmers to carefully review the analysis tag on all seed they purchase to plant a cover crop this coming winter.

"Many farmers are planting cover crops under the Maryland Agricultural Water Quality Cost-Share program to reduce nutrient runoff from their land. This has significantly increased the demand for cover crop seed, particularly rye. Unfortunately, some poor quality seed is being offered for sale," Walker said.

The Maryland Department of Agriculture's Turf and Seed Section recently placed a tractor-trailer load of seed rye under a stop sale order after its seed laboratory found the seed to be contaminated with seed of 17 different weeds including such noxious weeds as Canada thistle, Johnsongrass, corn cockle and wild garlic.

"The cost of controlling these weeds could easily exceed the payments for installing the cover crop under the cost share program," said Walker.

According to Malcolm Sarna, chief of the Turf and Seed Section, all seed bought and sold in Maryland must be tested and labeled under the Maryland Seed Law.

"Any farmer planning to use home produced seed is strongly urged to have it tested to insure proper germination and purity," Sarna said.

For testing, a two-pound sample should be sent to the Maryland Department of Agriculture, Turf and Seed Section, 50 Harry S. Truman Parkway, Annapolis, MD 21401. The cost for a complete purity, germination and noxious weed examination is $13.

For more information on the testing and labeling of seed, persons may contact the Turf and Seed Section at (410) 841-5960.

Garrett Soil Conservation District Celebrates 50th Anniversary

Over 150 people attended a dinner last Tuesday, September 21, to help celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Garrett Soil Conservation District which was officially organized exactly 50 years ago, September 21, 1943.

The dinner was held at the Pleasant Valley Community Center, and guests were introduced and welcomed by Jim Simms, master of ceremonies for the evening. Among the guests were the Garrett County Commissioners, Brenda Butscher, John Braskey and Elwood Groves; Nina Conway, representing Sen. Paul Sarbanes; Dan Bard, MDA Western Maryland coordinator; Jack Sanders, SCS area conservationist; and Robert Klumpe, SCS state conservationist.

The invocation was given by Claude Wagner and a baked steak dinner was served. After the dinner, a 10 minute slide show on the history of conservation districts was shown.

Board Chairman George Bishoff offered comments. "Today," he said, "the big debate is voluntary conservation versus mandatory controls and whether voluntary conservation is getting the job done."

Water quality, the environment, non-point pollution, and agriculture are all issues that are growing in importance each year, he told the group, and added that conservation is more important now than ever and will continue to move to the forefront with future generations.

He stated that the Garrett Soil Conservation District has been promoting voluntary conservation since September 1943. "Long ago the founders of the conservation district movement realized that you can't solve natural resource problems on private land by issuing decrees and mandates from Washington. Their solution was to involve local people in developing and implementing conservation programs. This is a sound leadership principle, proven over and over again through the years," Bishoff said.

Unfortunately, he said, the opposite trend is occurring in our federal and state governments. "It seems there's more and more pressure to solve problems by 'passing a law' or 'issuing' a regulation."

Garrett Soil Conservation District is so great, he reminded the crowd, for two main reasons: "One is the idea that local people should be involved in solving conservation problems, and the other is the idea that a voluntary, incentive-driven approach is the most effective means of addressing natural resource concerns."

Bishoff added, "We believe that it's better for the environment, better for the private landowner, and much less costly for the government, for local people to do things they believe, and are convinced themselves to be the right thing to do.

"This is why a portion of our time is spent on information and education activities, demonstrations, field days, and tours. Also, this is why it's important for people to understand that we have no regulatory or enforcement powers. We strive to work with landowners to help them meet environmental responsibilities, not against them."

He said there are those who are working hard to play down the success and benefits of voluntary efforts. They support more regulations and promote the ideas of "preservation" not "conservation." They do not like to hear words like reasonable, practical or economical.

Bishoff concluded by saying that there are "few governmental organizations whose guiding principles have continuously been proven through the years like soil conservation districts."

A proclamation by Governor William Donald Schaefer signed that day was hand delivered by Dan Bard and presented to the Garrett Soil Conservation District. In the proclamation, the governor said: "Whereas, Maryland is a state blessed with a bountiful agricultural heritage that is enhanced as a direct result of valuable efforts designed to protect our soil and water resources; and

"Whereas, for the last half century, the Garrett Soil Conservation District has nurtured these traditions by helping landowners in Western Maryland to develop soil conservation and water quality plans - featuring a wide range of agricultural best management practices to preserve the environment, while enabling farmers to maintain their production goals."

The governor also credited Garrett Soil Conservation District with educating young Marylanders about the vital role that water and soil plays in their lives. He said the state is pleased to join with the Maryland Department of Agriculture in celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the Garrett Soil Conservation District, in reflecting on a bountiful history of community service and outreach for this District, and in looking to the future with tremendous hope and promise.

Special awards were presented, and the highlight of the evening was a presentation by Bishoff to Bill Nace, the first USDA Soil Conservation Service District Conservationist in Garrett County, from 1943 to 1972, and the first District Manager for the Garrett SCD from 1972 until 1977. Nace was presented a 50th, 1943 - 1993, commemorative crock, handmade by Lynn Lais, the potter at Penn Alps in Grantsville. Bishoff also presented Nace with a quart of maple syrup.

Brooks Hamilton and Dave Thomas presented service awards. Certificates of Appreciation were presented to Harry Hummel for 38 years of service, Claude Wagner for 30 years of service, George Bishoff for 22 years, and Shaun Sanders, Butch Miller and Wanda Foley, for 16 years each.

Brooks Hamilton made a special presentation of a new "briefcase" to Shaun Sanders, district manager. Sanders regularly carries the papers and earthly belongings he needs each day to work with him in a basket, and recently the handle on the basket broke. The basket was replaced with a new one, enabling him to continue his job using the type of quality accouterments to which he is accustomed.

In honor of the District's 50th anniversary, some unique door prizes were presented, courtesy of West Virginia Farm Credit of Oakland. Garrett/Allegany Dairy Princess Jennifer Bernneman drew four tickets, and the winners had their choice of a balloon. Inside the balloons the winners would find either a $5 bill, a $10 bill, or a $50 bill, but the winner had to sit on the balloon to break it. All four winners were eventually successful, and $5 was found by Ed Lipscomb, $5 by Cindy Stacy, $10 by Henry Petersheim, and $50 by Mrs. Richard (Louise) Kolb.

Three musical tapes by the dulcimer group Hammers and Strings were given as door prizes. Hammers and Strings provided entertainment both before and after the dinner. Winners of the three tapes were Randy Storey, Robin Storey and Brent Hauser.

An additional door prize, a commemorative 50th anniversary crock by Lynn Lais, was won by Marshall Stacy. According to District Conservationist Garry Morfoot, these commemorative crocks can be special ordered by interested individuals for $31.50 by calling the Soil Conservation District office at 334-1900.

At the end of the evening, the 50th Anniversary cake, baked by Joyce Bishoff, was cut and those attending were served cake and punch. While eating and visiting, the crowd was able to look at a display of old photographs, equipment and maps from the history of the Garrett Soil Conservation District.

Conservation Tillage Event Highlights "Facing Change"

Local and national issues affecting farmers will be addressed by most of the speakers at this year's six-state Mid-Atlantic Conservation Tillage Conference. The 20th annual event is set Dec. 16 at the Ramada Inn and Convention Center in Hagerstown.

Specific topics will deal with changes in store for agriculture, economic impacts of environmental regulations, water quality, nutrient management, crop residue, small grains and forages. Farmers from Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia are invited to attend.

Sponsoring organizations include Cooperative Extension, the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service and local conservation districts in the participating states, with assistance from interested agribusiness representatives. More than 400 persons are expected to attend.

Activities on Dec. 16 will get underway at 8 a.m. with free coffee and doughnuts, plus opportunity to visit industry exhibits. The educational program will run from 9 a.m. to 3:45 p.m., with an hour and 45 minutes off for lunch and another chance to chat with exhibitors.

Tickets for the noon lunch will be available at $6 each from Cooperative Extension county offices throughout the Mid-Atlantic area, beginning in early October. They must be purchased in advance--not later than Dec. 6

Speakers and topics for the morning program are as follows:

* "Innovations in Agriculture"--Dr. Dennis R. Keeney, director of the Leopold Center for Sustainable Agriculture and professor of soil microbiology at Iowa State University.
* "Weed Control Update"--Dr. Ronald L. Ritter, Extension agronomist, University of Maryland at College Park.
* "Conservation Tillage & Small Grains"--F. Ronald Mulford, farm manager, Poplar Hill Facility, Lower Eastern Shore Research & Education Center, University of Maryland.
* "Crop Residue Management"--Joel C. Myers, state agronomist for Pennsylvania, Soil Conservation Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Harrisburg, Pa.

The last three topics will be aired twice, in consecutive 40-minute breakout sessions, providing opportunity to hear two of the three speakers.

Afternoon program topics will include economic impacts of environmental regulations, fertility and nutrient management, forages and water quality improvement programs.

Soybean Production Down Five Percent

The September 1 forecast production of soybeans in 1993 is down five percent from the 1992 soybean output in Maryland according to the Maryland Agricultural Statistics Service. A larger acreage is offset by a drought reduced yield forecast to drop the expected production. Below normal rainfall and very hot temperatures during critical development periods adversely affected the outlook for soybeans, corn, and other summer crops.

The yield of corn is also expected to be affected by the dry, hot August weather. The reduction in corn yields due to harsh weather is expected to be magnified by a smaller acreage harvested this year contributing to a crop only two thirds the size of last year's corn crop.

Soybeans production, forecast at 17.1 million bushels, will be off five percent from 1992 if expectations are realized. Soybeans are expected to average 30 bushels per acre and 570,000 acres are forecast for harvest statewide. Corn for grain in Maryland is expected to average 90 bushels per acre compared to 124 bushels in 1992. If September 1 expectations are realized, farmers will harvest 410,000 acres of corn and production will total 36.9 million bushels, 37 percent less than the 58.3 million bushels harvested in the state during 1992. Summer potato production is forecast to be 30 percent lower than a year ago due to drought affected yields. Growers expected potato yields to average 140 hundredweight (cwt.) per acre, down from last year's 200 cwt. per acre. Production from the 1,600 acres of potatoes in Maryland is expected to be 224,000 cwt.

United States corn for grain production revision for 1993 is 7.23 billion bushels, 24 percent below last year's crop. The U.S. average yield per acre is forecast at 113.1 bushels. Soybean production forecast of the 1993 crop is 1.91 billion bushels, down 13 percent from the previous year. Yield is expected to be 34.0 bushels per acre, down 3.6 bushels from 1992.

Rain Did Not Improve Crop Conditions

A second week of near normal rainfall did not improve the condition of corn or soybeans on the average, statewide. Average statewide corn condition remained the same as last week and was rated in poor to fair condition. Average soybean condition deteriorated slightly to average in poor to mostly fair condition.

Topsoil moisture rating improved to 0 percent very short, 17 percent short, 72 percent adequate, and 11 percent surplus. Subsoil moisture also improved to 11 percent very short, 33 percent short, 56 percent adequate, and 0 percent surplus. Conditions allowed an average of 5.3 days suitable for fieldwork during the week, according to the Maryland Agricultural Statistics Service.

Statewide, hay supplies were short to adequate. The cooler, wetter conditions improved pasture feed for the third straight week to average in good condition. Sorghum was in fair to good condition.

Crop progress in Maryland for the week ending Sept. 26 was as follows, listing the crop, the percentage for this year, the percentage for last year, and the average percentage.

Barley seeded, 11, 8, 17; rye seeded, 13, 5, 17; corn in dent stage or later, 100, 85, 92; mature, 78, 55, 68; grain harvested, 27, 8, 23; silage harvested, 76, 38, 71; soybeans turned, 52, 47, 48; shedding leaves, 22, 20, 22; sorghum turned, 77, 93, N/A; mature, 24, 43, N/A; alfalfa hay, 4th cutting, 75, 48, 54; other hay, 3rd cutting, 72, 71, 56; 4th cutting, 47, 18, 14; apples picked, 47, 39, 51.

Temperatures averaged 62.6 degrees, 2.4 degrees below the normal of 65.0 degrees for the Sept. 18-24 period. Minimum temperatures ranged from 40 degrees at Oakland to 55 at Westminster, but generally in the upper 40's. Maximum temperature was at 86 degrees at Westminster and generally in the upper 70's. 1993-94 Hay And Straw Directory--MDA

Each year the Maryland Department of Agriculture publishes the Maryland Hay and Straw Directory which is mailed to hundreds of people who are looking for hay and straw. This year hay and straw is in short supply on the Eastern Coast. If you have hay or straw to sell, it may be beneficial to have the information in the directory. The deadline is October 15. You can call my office at 301-334-1990 or mail to 202 South Third Street, Oakland, MD 21550. the following information: 1) Name, address and phone number; 2) Do you deliver (yes or no); 3) Type of hay or straw; 4) If grass/legume hay, indicate percentage grass, 5) Cutting of hay (1st, 2nd, etc.), 6) Year harvested, 7) Bale type, 8) Average wt/bale, 9) Quantity to sell (specify bale or ton), 10) Rain damage, and 11) Mold damage.

Estimating Corn Yields

It is very important that you know the yields that you are harvesting for economic analysis. There are a lot of ways you can measure yields. If you want to estimate yield of standing corn, the following methods work good.

To estimate corn grain yields:

1. Count the number of kernels per ear. Use several ears from different parts of field to arrive at an average.
2. Multiply this by the plant population.
3. Divide by 90,000 to determine an estimate of grain in bushels per acre.

Example: 1. After counting the kernels on several ears, the average was 360 kernels per ear; 2. Plant population was 24,000. 360 x 24,000 = 8,640,000, 3. 8,640,000 divided by 90,000 = 96 bushels/acre.

To estimate corn silage yields:

1. Select representative acres to sample
2. Determine row spacing
3. Begin midway between two plants and cut the corn according to the following table:

Row Spacing	42"	40"	38"	36"	34"	32"	30"
Row Length to Cut	6'3"	6'6"	6'10"	7'3"	7'8"	8'2"	8'8.5"

4. Weigh corn harvested.
5. The weight of the corn in pounds equals tons of corn silage per acre.

For example: If your corn row spacing was 36" and the corn you cut from 7'3" of row weighed 16 pounds, your estimate yield would be 16 tons/acre.

Farm Bureau Says U.S. Agriculture Will Benefit From NAFTA

The North American Free Trade Agreement will be good for farmers, American Farm Bureau Federation President Dean Kleckner told the Senate Agriculture Committee last week.

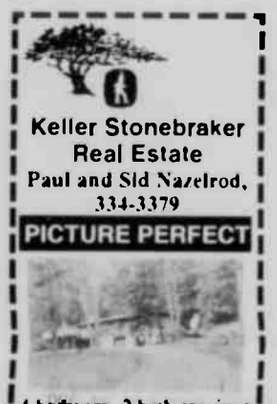
"NAFTA will be good for American farmers and workers," said Kleckner. He said Farm Bureau has studied the impact the agreement will have on U.S. agriculture and has concluded that, overall, it will be a plus, despite increased competition in some sectors of agriculture.

"It will expand exports and bring about higher farm income and a net increase in U.S. jobs. Rejection of NAFTA could actually reduce U.S. exports and cause job losses," said the farm leader.

"With NAFTA, we also have the means to improve the environment and reduce illegal immigration. Without the agreement, these problems will only persist and worsen.

"We recognize that not every sector will be helped and some will face increased competition. However, we believe that the transition periods under the agreement will enable most producers to adjust.

"The supplemental agreement on import surges negotiated by President Clinton also will give us a little extra warning of potential problems from imports."



Kleckner warned, "If we reject NAFTA, other countries will no doubt take advantage of the growing Mexican market at our expense. Mexico does not need to buy pork from the U.S.; it can get it from Canada or Denmark. Mexico does not need to buy wheat from the U.S.; it can get it from Canada, France, Argentina or Australia. Mexico does not need to buy soybeans, nonfat dry milk, dry edible beans, corn, sorghum, rice, beef, poultry, apples, pears and a whole host of other products from U.S. producers; it can get them elsewhere--and probably will--if we reject NAFTA."

The AFBF president said, "NAFTA is not perfect. No trade agreement can be." He said Farm Bureau would have preferred longer transitions for some sensitive commodities and shorter ones for some of our key exports. But overall, this agreement is a positive and necessary step for U.S. foreign policy and trade interests.

"It is a solution to, not the cause of, many of the problems raised by opponents about the agreement," Kleckner said. "There are many unfounded grievances about NAFTA. However, NAFTA is probably the most thoroughly studied and analyzed trade agreement ever written, and almost all studies show it will be a net plus for both Mexico and the United States."

Free Medication Reviews Available During October

Governor William Donald Schaefer; Rosalie S. Abrams, director of the Maryland Office on Aging; and David D. Wolf, president of CFS Health Group, last week announced a public-private partnership to provide free medication reviews to Maryland's senior citizens, caregivers of older people, and employees in the corporate setting throughout "Talk About Prescriptions Month" in October.

This partnership was formed to educate employees, caregivers, senior citizens, and parents of young children about the property usage of prescription and over-the-counter medications.

"Medication mismanagement is a major health concern for people of all ages," said Governor Schaefer. "With this strong alliance between state government and the private sector, we can touch many lives and educate more Marylanders about this serious and costly problem."

The kick-off event for the "Medication Management: People Taking Charge" program will take place in the lobby of C&P Telephone Company of Maryland, Baltimore, on Wednesday, September 29, at 10 a.m.

Throughout October, caregivers and other employees can bring their medications and over-the-counter medications to Maryland corporate sites, senior centers and health centers of Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Maryland's HMOs.

According to the National Council on Patient Information and Education, 30 to 50% of patients do not take medications as prescribed. This includes more than half of Americans over the age of 65 and 46 percent of children under the age of 18. Many patients don't take the correct dosage of medication at the correct times. There is also the danger of mixing certain medications with certain foods or with other medications. Medication mismanagement now costs an estimated $8.5 billion in hospital admissions annually and results in decreased productivity in the workplace.

"The Maryland Office on Aging developed the Medication Management program for senior citizens in 1990," said Rosalie S. Abrams, director of the Maryland Office on Aging. "Last year, we expanded the program to reach people living in senior housing facilities. This year, we are devoting much of our efforts to reaching employee caregivers at their work sites."

More information on the Medication Management program may be obtained by contacting the area agencies on aging, the Maryland Office on Aging at 410-225-1100 (or 1-800-AGE-DIAL, toll-free) or CFS Health Group, Inc. at 410-528-7071 (or 1-800-323-4472, toll-free).

Potomac Edison Joins National Education Effort

The Potomac Edison company has announced it will participate in a national educational initiative known as EEI 2000. Potomac Edison has joined with other utilities in the nation in support of this program, which encourages partnerships between business and school systems to assist the students of today and tomorrow.

"Potomac Edison and its affiliated companies in the Allegheny Power System remain committed to providing education opportunities for service area students and educators through the Edison Electric Institute (EEI)-sponsored program," stated a PE spokesman.

Potomac Edison has long participated in its service area communities by offering educational materials and presentations. The spokesman said that taking part in EEI 2000 will be an extension of this effort, with Potomac Edison working as a team with many of the nation's other electric utilities to meet specific objectives as set forth by former President George Bush and the nation's governor's in The National Education Goals. They are:

•All children in American will start school ready to learn.

•The high school graduation rate will increase to at least 90 percent.

•American students will be competent in the core subjects.

•U.S. students will be first in the world in science and mathematics achievement.

•Every adult American will be literate and possess the skills necessary to compete in a world economy.

•Every school in America will be safe and free of drugs.

Educational opportunities now offered to schools in Potomac Edison's service area include a comprehensive educational services catalog, featuring hundreds of free films, literature, experiment booklets and posters; an electrical safety poster contest and school-year-calendar which displays the winners of the contest; a Coal and the Environment workshop for educators; electrical safety and other presentations offered to school for students of all ages; assistance with science and other special school projects; and energy education reference materials provided to schools through an annual library grant program.

"Through partnerships with schools and other businesses, it is hoped that the goal of EEI 2000 will be met and that this increased emphasis on education will enable all students to achieve the best possible education," the spokesman concluded.

Thank You

Western Maryland Nursing Conference Scheduled At ACC

The fourth annual Western Maryland Nursing Management Conference, to be held Friday, Oct. 15, in Cumberland, will be devoted to the theme: "Nursing Management's Role in Future Health Care Delivery."

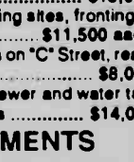
A highlight for nurse managers in Western Maryland and the surrounding area, this year's event will feature Leah L. Curtin, an accomplished author and widely sought workshop leader.

The day-long conference's morning session will feature an assessment of social accountability in the 1990s, including such topics as prospective pricing in the public sector, prepaid plans in the private sector, and universal access.

The conference's other morning feature will concern quality and outcomes-managment, and such concepts as process-oriented quality assurance, medical outcome indicators, hospital quality indices, and typing payment to outcomes.

In the afternoon, emerging professional roles for nurses will be discussed from the standpoint of institution-based nursing and advanced, specialized and functional practice.

The conference, planned by a nine-member committee of nurse managers and nursing educators in Allegany, Garrett, and Washington counties, is presented by Allegany Community College's Center for Continuing Education.



Participants earn six contact hours of credit from ACC, a member of the Maryland Community College Consortium for the continuing Education of Nurses and accredited as a provider of continuingnursingeducation by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

Ms. Curtin is editor of the professional journal Nursing Management and adjunct faculty member of the University of Cincinnati's College of Nursing and Health. She also serves on the advisory boards of several other professional health journals and has written four books and numbers chapters for books, journal articles, and proceedings. She was elected a fellow in the American Academy of Nursing in 1982.

The conference will meet from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Cumberland Country Club. Tuition is $95 for Maryland residents and $114 for residents of other states. A $1,000 agency rate permits up to 15 participants, with $15 for each additional person. Tuition includes refreshments, lunch, and handout materials. There also is a $3 registration fee.

The deadline to register is Oct. 8. For more information, persons may call Roxanne Bevans, ACC nurse manager for the Maryland continuingnursingeducation consortium, at 301-724-7700, ext. 337. The call is toll-free from the 814 area code when dialing 800-342-6319. An ACC continuing education registration specialist can also be contacted at ext. 122.

Comedy Program Slated At FSU For Homecoming

Walli Collins

Frostburg State University's Campus Activities Board (CAB) is presenting "A Treasure Chest of Laughs" on Saturday, October 9, at 9 p.m. in FSU's Physical Education Center which will showcase some rising stars in the comedy field.

"The result is a hilarious show packed with some of the funniest performers on the college circuit, including Red Johnny and Round Guy, Comedy Central's Walli Collins, and the a capella group Blind Man's Bluff," stated an FSU spokesman.

"MC's Red Johnny and the Round Guy have been labeled as the hottest and most powerful comedy team to come along in the past 10 years." In 1991, they performed to a house of over 1,000 students on spring break in Daytona Beach and Unanimously won the 1992 National College Comedy Competition.

Blind Man's Bluff is an a capella rock quartet that has opened Cubs baseball games and landed hit radio commercials for Juiceful Candy and Illinois Lotto. "Constantly breaking the barriers between genres and styles, Blind Man's Bluff combines their roots of folk, jazz, R&B, doo-wop and hard-edged rock," stated one critic.

Walli Collins, called the "epitome of the clean and clever comedian," has performed on Comedy Central, the exclusive comedy cable channel, where he hosts "Stand-Up, Stand-Up," one of the highest rated comedy television programs on the air. He has also appeared on MTV's Half Hour Comedy Hour, Showtime at the Apollo, and A&E's Caroline's Comedy Hour.

Tickets for the comedy event are available at Disc Jockey, Country Club Mall; Main Street Books, Frostburg; and the Lane Center at Frostburg State University. For more information, persons may call (301) 689-4411.

Stop Smoking And Decrease Stroke Risk

Women who smoke are about two and one-half times more likely to have strokes as compared to women who have never smoked. However, according to a Journal of the American Medical Association article, women who stop smoking decrease their risk of stroke to about that of women who have never smoked within four years. A study of over 120,000 nurses who were 30 to 55 years of age indicates this important benefit of smoking cessation.

Troopers, Truckers Month Proclaimed By Gov. Schaefer

Governor William Donald Schaefer has proclaimed October "Troopers-n-Truckers" Month in Maryland. "Troopers-n-Truckers" is the fourth stage of the Maryland State Police's six-month public safety campaign Project Good Guys.

This program is a cooperative partnership between the Governor's Office, the Maryland State Police, the State Highway Administration and the trucking industry. It is designed to reduce highway crashes through voluntary compliance of all traffic laws and to increase awareness of automobile, truck, and bus operators of their highway safety responsibilities.

"Last year in Maryland, there were more than 6,300 crashes involving large trucks and buses, resulting in 4,334 injuries and 88 deaths. That's entirely too many," Governor Schaefer said. "What we hope to do with this program is reduce those numbers and at the same time create a partnership for safety on Maryland's roads."

During October, troopers will be riding in truck cabs and truckers will be riding in state police cruisers so that each may gain a better understanding of what the other faces each day. While in the trucks, troopers will be looking for those violations which most often lead to accidents. Motorists who are witnessed driving unsafely will be notified by mail of their actions.

"We see this program as an opportunity to educate all motorists," Maryland State Police Superintendent Colonel Larry W. Tolliver said. "The trucking industry has made a commitment to the state by joining in this effort; now we need the motoring public to commit to this project as well," Colonel Tolliver said.

The Maryland State Police continue to urge all motorists to report any unsafe drivers to the nearest state police barrack. Those travelling on I-95 who have a cellular phone may dial #77.

Awareness Of Crime Will Be Workshop Topic

This course is scheduled to meet Wednesday, Oct. 13, for one session at the Oakland Center of the college from 6-9 p.m.. Students must pre-register for this course.

According to a GCC spokesman, national statistics indicate that one out of three persons in the United States will be victimized by being attacked this year. Tuition for this course will be $5 and students must be 16 years of age to register. Registration will be limited to 25 students and will be taken on a first-come, first-served basis. A second offering of this course will be considered if public interest warrants such an offering.

Customer Service Classes Scheduled At GCC Campus

"Quality customsr service that brings customers back can only be delivered when both front line service employees and managers possess skills in customer service," said Sandy Major, coordinator of Training for Business at Garrett Community College. A new customer service series of classes is being offered this fall to help both managers and service employees strengthen these skills.

The first class in the series, "Service Excellence," is designed to equip front line service employees and managers with the skills and knowledge they need to deliver customer centered services. "Hands on" learning activities will be included in the areas of: building and keeping customer good will; making all customer contacts positive; using actions that build trust; improving communication skills; and dealing calmly with difficult situations. This class will meet on two Monday evenings, October 11 and 18, from 6:15 until 9:30 p.m. at the McHenry Campus of GCC.

The second class, "Strategies for Adding Value," is designed to help managers build a business that values customers and empowers front line service employees. Major said this class will be focused on helping managers develop specific strategies, systems, and procedures to add value and build customer loyalty. This class will meet on two Tuesday evenings, October 26 and November 2, from 6:15 until 9:30 p.m. at the McHenry Campus of GCC.

Persons may call Ann White or Sandy Major at 387-3080 to obtain registration information for these classes.

Bartlett Introduces Gun Sale Felon Identification Bill

Maryland's Sixth Congressional District Representative Roscoe Bartlett last week introduced the "Felons Identification and Police Safety Act of 1993" as an alternative to controversial provisions in the Brady Bill, which mandates instant checks or five-day waiting periods.

According to Bartlett, this new bill would set up a nationwide computerized system immediately identifying convicted felons when they attempt to purchase guns.

HARBISON-WALKER EMPLOYEES REWARDED – Employees at the Harbison-Walker Refractories New Savage Plant, Grantsville, were recently rewarded with cash bonuses averaging $375 per employee for decreasing their on-the-job injuries by 63% during the previous 12 months. Above, Production Manager Bud White and Plant Manager Bob Shaw present the awards.

This is in contrast to provisions in the Brady Bill, which would require the purchaser and dealer to wait while information is processed and a police officer calls in the information, or force a five-day waiting period prior to sale of a firearm.

"The felon-only check is easier, more economical, and fairer way to screen felons before they purchase a gun. It will keep felons from legally buying guns, and, unlike the Brady Bill, no instant check delay or waiting period is necessary," explained Bartlett.

Under the new felon-only check, the dealer or police officer simply reads a coded felon status on a magnetic strip on the driver's license by running it through a machine. A green light would signal a sale, while a red light would indicate a felon code, and therefore no transaction would take place. This program, said Bartlett, would be funded by convicted felons paying a small fee at the time they are coded upon renewal of a driver's license--at no cost to American taxpayers. Additionally, it would not contribute to a centralized registration list of law-abiding citizens seeking to purchase a firearm, he said.

National Breast Cancer Awareness Crusade Being Launched By Avon

Avon Products, Inc., recently announced the launching of "Avon's Breast Cancer Awareness Cruasde," a multi-year, national campaign to promote breast cancer education and access to early detection.

This grassroots program is dedicated to educating women about breast cancer, and providing more women – especially low-income, minority and older women – with access to early detection services.

"Our goal is to do everything we can to reduce the human cost of the breast cancer epidemic," stated James E. Preston, Avon's chairperson and chief executive officer. "Avon has pledged to take a leadership role in developing alliances and programs which make education and access to breast cancer early detection a reality for all women.

"As a consumer-oriented company with a unique grassroots sales organization, Avon will be able to build bridges of understanding and compassion in every neighborhood and community in America," Preston continued. "We would like to see the day when lack of money, transportation, day care, knowledge, or even just plain fear of detection will no longer prevent women from seeking proper early detection screening and follow-up."

In addition to its 415,000 U.S. Representatives, Avon's 9,000 employees across the country will sell the Breast Cancer Awareness pin.

Avon is the world's leading direct seller and marketer of beauty and related products with $3.8 billion in annual revenues. Avon markets its products to women in more than 100 countries through 1.7 million independent representatives. The company employs approximately 30,000 people worldwide. For the name of the local representative, Avon's toll-free number is 1-800-FOR-AVON.

Women who want information on breast cancer and early detection services in their area can call the National Cancer Institute at 1-800-4-CANCER. Women with breast cancer who need help and support can call the Y-ME National Breast Cancer Organization at 1-800-221-2141. All calls are completely confidential.

The Garrett County Crime Solvers organization is currently seeking information about a theft case at G&P Auto Service, Grantsville.

Between the dates of August 15 and Sept. 17, unknown suspects removed parts from salvage vehicles located at the rear of the business, which is located on Main Street. Several batteries, radios, and alternators were removed from various vehicles. The loss is estimated to be $100.

Any person with information is urged to contact Crime Solvers at 334-1975. Rewards of up to $1,000 are available for persons who provide tips that lead to arrests. Callers do not have to give their names or appear in court.

Hypnotist To Perform At FSU

Frostburg State University's Campus Activities Board is inviting everyone to peek into the world of imagination when Mark Pittman, hypnotist/mentalist, brings to Frostburg a banquet and convention show on October 13 at 8 p.m. in the Lane Center's Multi-Use Room. The event is free and open to the public.

Pittman is a certified hypnotherapist with many hours of experience with clients. For most of his life, he has been performing engagements ranging from cruise lines, to fairs, and even state prisons. Over the past five years, he has appeared at hundreds of colleges and corporate events across the nation.

According to Pittman, college students and hypnotists just seem to go together. "Hypnosis is simply one of the funniest and most fascinating shows you'll ever see with audience members as the stars of the show," he says. His Hypnosis Show is often the best attended entertainment program of the year at other college campuses.

Pumpkin Chuck Contest Slated At Deep Creek

The staff of Deep Creek Lake Recreation Area is making plans for the area's first "Pumpkin Chuck Contest," to be held at Deep Creek Lake State Park on Oct. 30. The contest will be open to pre-registered teams from the area, with proceeds from the event going to charity, a spokesperson said.

To participate, teams will be required to construct a "pumpkin chucker." The chucker may be any mechanical device, but cannot incorporate any fuel, chemical, or explosive mechanisms. It must also fit in the bed of a standard eight-foot pickup truck.

Each team will be given the opportunity to chuck two pumpkins, and will be judged on distance. The winning team will receive the first Pumpkin Chuck trophy. A $20 donation entry fee will be accepted from each team, benefitting the Maryland State Park Foundation, a non-profit organization that supports programs in Maryland state parks.

"This contest will be a great way for local organizations, businesses, and civic groups to get together and have a fun time," said Paul Durham, recreation area manager. "Of course, they'll have to beat the DNR team."

The contest will begin at 2 p.m. Alternative Halloween games and activities will also be provided for children throughout the event. A hayride through the park is also scheduled.

Teams may obtain information and registration by contacting Park Naturalist Diane Miller at Deep Creek Lake State Park: 387-5563. The staff plans to make the Pumpkin Chuck an annual event.

GCC To Offer Parent/Child Cooking Class

A course entitled Parent Child Cooking will be offered by the Continuing Education Division of Garrett Community College. This course is scheduled to be held at the Cooperative Extension Service Office beginning October 8. Sessions will be held each Friday from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. for five sessions.

This course will help participants learn to plan meals that are quick and easy to fix, as well as nutritious. Parents and children will learn basic safety and cooperation in meal preparation. A shopping trip to a local grocery store is planned.

Tuition for this course will be $11 plus a $4 registration fee. This cost will cover one adult or one adult and one child between the ages of 8-15. A small food fee will be charged and is payable at the time of the class. Registration and prepayment is necessary to reserve space and materials. For more information, persons may call Patricia Baer at 334-8304.

Designer Completes Kitchen School

Becky Olson O'Connell of Casselman Lumber, Grantsville, has just completed the training school for kitchen specialists held at the Wood-Mode Training Center in Kreamer. The week-long course was conducted by training director Don O'Connor.

According to O'Connell, it is one of the more comprehensive in the industry, covering every aspect of kitchen design from the initial basic idea to the creation of a complete kitchen. Design layout, technical instruction, industry terminology, and consumer information are all part of the course, which also includes extensive homework assignments and a detailed final exam.

O'Connell is qualified to design a custom kitchen, prepare detailed cost estimates, and supervise the installation of custom built-in cabinetry.

Former College Employee Cited For Felony Theft

A former college employee was charged with one count of felony theft and one count of theft after she turned herself in to the Maryland State Police, Barrack W, McHenry, on Monday.

Donna Louise Schrier, 43, Oakland, who had worked at Garrett Community College for 14 years prior to her recent dismissal, was charged with those offenses by Tfc. R.M. Hershberger, investigator for state police.

Hershberger said that he had been contacted by GCC officials on September 15 and advised that through an audit of the college's books by an independent firm that cash was missing. It was reportedly learned that the college had lost approximately, $26,661.38 in cash that was supposed to have been deposited by Schrier. At that time, she was in charge of making deposite and reconciling the monthly bank records.

GCC President Dr. Stephen Herman earlier made a statement to local media regarding the investigation. He confirmed, off the record at that time, that the suspect had been suspended from her duties without pay and that the suspect was an employee of the business office.

Schrier was reportedly released from custody after posting $20,000 unsecured bond.

B&E PROBED

State police are also investigating a report of breaking and entering and destruction of property, filed by Earl W. Railey, Oakland.

Railey told police that sometime between Saturday at 1:30 p.m. and Sunday at 8 p.m., someone entered his residence near Oakland and ransacked the house. A plastic window cover was destroyed.

OFF HE WENT INTO THE WILD WHITE WATER and then straight down a 50-foot waterfall. Jeff Snyder, Accident, is shown above in a photo on loan from American Adventure Productions, a company from Aspen, Colo., that filmed Jeff as he performed this amazing act for an ESPN-TV show titled "Rivers of the Maya," which is part of the Expedition Earth series. When not involved in such seemingly treacherous adventures, Jeff serves as a whitewater guide for Precision Rafting. (Of course, he also swims the rapids in his spare time.) Jeff has been a whitewater enthusiast since he first took to the river at age 7, and he has "stretched the envelope of the possible" ever since, according to his brother, Jim, who is also a whitewater enthusiast, with a 12-year career as whitewater guide. Male Black Bear Euthanized By DNR After Killing Sheep On Local Farm

Maryland Department of Natural Resources (DNR) Wildlife Division this week reported that a 152-pound, one-year-old, male black bear was captured and euthanized by DNR personnel, after it was confirmed that the bear was responsible for killing a 150-pound sheep on the Lee Shillingburg property on September 23.

At the request of Shillingburg, DNR wildlife personnel set culvert traps to capture the bear, and were successful on Friday, October 1. The bear was then euthanized by personnel "as provided by Maryland's existing policy regarding serious black bear depredation to livestock or agricultural crops," according to a press release from DNR.

That policy was recently reviewed by the public as part of the development of Maryland's long-term black bear management plan. "This was the first bear that has been euthanized under this policy," stated Tom Mathews, regional wildlife manager for DNR. He also noted that neighboring West Virginia euthanizes an average of 16 bears annually, and that over 90% of those are male bears.

During the past five years, only one other confirmed case has been documented where a black bear has killed livestock in Maryland. Black bears are primarily omnivorous by nature, but they will occasionally use alternative food sources whenever natural foods are scarce, according to the release.

"Handling nuisance bear problems effectively and professionally is an important aspect of Maryland's black bear management program," stated Mathews. "Reduction of bear-people conflicts is paramount if bears are to continue to receive public support and tolerance."

A second adult female bear captured on the Shillingburg property on Monday, was radio-collared and released as part of Maryland's continuing black bear research program.

Mathews explained that the bear relocation program is employed when bears cause beehive and crop dam-

Blaze Destroys Two-Story House Near Loch Lynn

A two-story woodframe house located just off State Rt. 560 about one mile east of Loch Lynn was gutted by fire Friday night, the cause of which remains undetermined.

Volunteer fire fighters from Oakland, Gorman, and Deer Park VFDs responded to the 10:53 p.m. alarm and found the structure fully involved in flames. It was occupied by Ruth Lloyd, 73, and Johnny Thomas, 32, who were uninjured. Although Lloyd and Thomas were able to carry some furniture from the house before arrival of firemen, they lost nearly all of their possessions. Total loss was estimated to be $40,000.

The house was owned by James White Jr., Deer Park, who reportedly had no insurance on the property.

The house did not have a telephone, so Thomas had to run about a quarter-mile to a neighboring residence to call for help.

Deputy State Fire Marshal Steve Wendling is continuing his investigation into the cause of the fire, which originated in a second-floor bedroom.

Fire fighters remained on the scene for nearly three hours. Also responding was the Southern Rescue Squad and a Potomac Edison Company crew. There were no injuries reported.

The Garrett County Chapter of the American Red Cross has provided some clothing to the Lloyd family; however, they are still in need of furniture, appliances, and other household items. Persons who wish to make a contribution may contact the Lloyds by telephone at 334-8693.

BED CATCHES FIRE

Oakland and Deer Park fire fighters were summoned Monday evening just after 8 p.m. to 217 West Green Street in Oakland after fire was discovered in a bedroom of a ground floor apartment.

The blaze was quickly contained, as a burning bed was dragged outside by firs fighters and extinguished. Fire damage was minimal, however smoke damage was rather extensive throughout the apartment.

The building is owned by Alan Laverdure, and Mr and Mrs. Leonard Beeman are the tenants of the apartment. The cause of the blaze was believed to be a burning cigarette that was dropped into the bed by a guest of the Beemans.

Firemen remained on the scene for about one-half hour. There were no injuries reported.

Sentences Imposed In Drug Case, VOP, And Phone Misuse

Four persons were sentenced last week in Garrett County Circuit Court to varying jail time on cases involving drug distribution, violation of probation, and telephone misuse. Judge Fred A. Thayer presided over three of the four, with Judge J. Frederick Sharer hearing the fourth.

Jonathan M. Jones, 39, Oakland, was sentenced to three years in the Maryland Department of Corrections for his conviction of distribution of marijuana. Jones pleaded guilty to the charge in July, and at that time, a pre-sentence investigation was ordered by Thayer.

All but 18 months of Jones's sentence was suspended, according to the court document. He was also ordered to be on three years of supervised probation following his release from incarceration.

Jones was charged with the offense after he reportedly distributed marijuana to

Record Enrollment Noted At GCC

A record number of students have enrolled at Garrett Community College this fall semester, according to Deloris Edgar, registrar. According to the official tally 720 students have enrolled, 364 of whom are full-time, and 356 part-time.

These figures a statewide trend that shows an increase in part-time and decrease in full-time students from last year.

Wisconsin Fugitive From Justice Is Nabbed By GCSO

A Colefax, Wisconsin, fugitive from justice wanted on several charges was placed under arrest by officers of the Garrett County Sheriff's Office Tuesday afternoon along U.S. Rt. 50 near Red House. Robert M. Affeld, 55, reportedly "jumped bail" recently and was being pursued by the Dunn Couny Sheriff's Office, Menomonie, Wis. He is charged with burglarly, disorderly conduct, trespassing, carrying a concealed weapon, and reckless endangerment.

Affekl is also a suspect in an attempted homicide, according to a sheriff's office spokesperson.

The local sheriff's office received information Tuesday from Dunn County about Affeld, and Det. Jeff Murphy and Pfc. Jay Sowers responded, travelling to the Red House area along Rt. 50. Affeld was located in a camper just west of the West Virginia state line, the spokesperson said. He was arrested and transported to the Garrett County Jail, where he is being held without bond.

Affeld will be transported back to Wisconsin in the next few days, the spokesperson reported.

Commissioners Vote To Allow Survey Of Gypsy Moth Infestation In County

The Garrett County Commissioners this week voted to approve a plan to allow the Maryland Department of Agriculture (MDA) to conduct a survey for the purpose of determining the extent and location of gypsy moth infestation in the county. That survey carries a price tag of up to $10,500, according to Mike Kozier, a member of the Garrett County Gypsy Moth Task Force.

Kozier, along with fellow task force member Ernie Metz, shared the most recent information received from the MDA outlining three options available to the county in establishing a spray plan for the coming year.

Kozier told the commissioners that "it is the consensus from the task force that we should conduct the survey in order to determine the gypsy moth population in Garrett County; to give us credibility if we decide to go with a spray program; and to provide us with a baseline for determining the cyclical population of the gypsy moth throughout the years."

Metz told the commissioners that the task force is trying to obtain data for both residential areas and for forest land, noting that MDA intends to look at gypsy moth infestation as a "people problem -- they give low priority to forest land." But Metz explained that the task force would like to see the same emphasis on timber protection.

Kozier then stated that

Thayer Signs Stay Of Execution For John F. Thanos

Garrett County Circuit Court Judge Fred A. Thayer signed a stay of execution for John F. Thanos on Tuesday, pending the outcome of an appeal filed by Thomas Saunders, head of the capital defense division of the Office of the Public Defender. Thayer had signed Thanos's death warrant last week, the defendant having been convicted of two counts of first degree murder and sentenced to die in the gas chamber at the Maryland Dept. of Corrections.

Thayer apparently had little choice but to sign the stay, as a Maryland rule of criminal procedure orders an automatic stay of execution when appeals are filed, even if the defendant has not requested an appeal. Thanos in fact wished to dismiss his lawyers and have "no further connection with the judicial system," but Saunders is pursuing the appeal regardless of the defendant's wishes.

Even though the stay has been signed, Thanos could still be put to death as early as Nov. 1, depending on the response of the Maryland Court of Appeals. Unconfirmed reports have indicated that the highest court has agreed to expedite the case and hear oral arguments as early as Oct. 27, but Tim Miller, spokesperson for Garrett County Circuit Court, stated yesterday that no formal arrangements of such a hearing have been made officially through the local office.

If Thanos is indeed put to death for his crimes, he will be the first convict to be executed in Maryland since 1961.

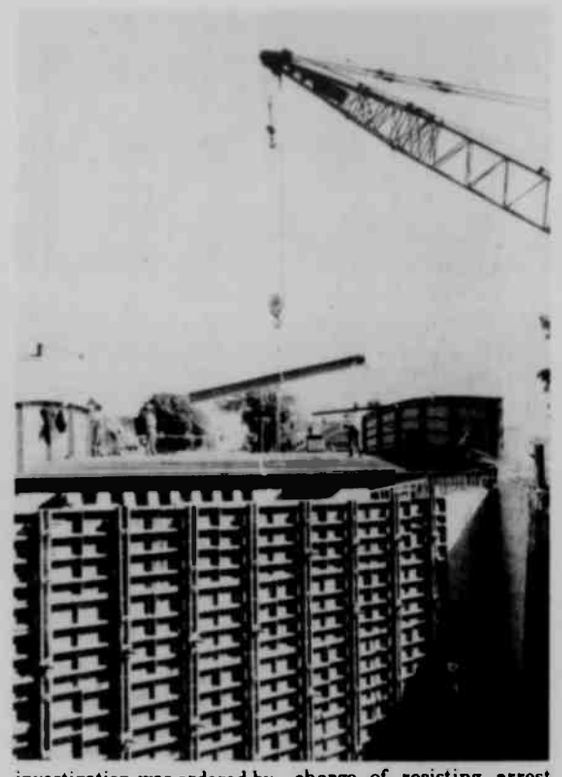
Miss Maryland To Participate In 26th Annual Autumn Glory Festival Parade

Renee Cole, Miss Maryland 1993, will participate in the 26th Annual Autumn Glory Festival Grand Feature Parade on Saturday, Oct. 16, beginning at 1 p.m. in downtown Oakland.

Miss Cole is a 22-year-old junior at the University of Maryland majoring in public relations. During her reign as Miss Maryland, she will present a program titled "Maryland Cares for Children" in schools throughout the state. The theme of her "personal cause" is improving the human value system. A spokesperson said she encourages young Marylanders to develop social values such as responsibility, setting goals, seizing opportunities, to value themselves, and remember that they are important.

Miss Maryland will be sponsored at this year's festival by Gregg's Pharmacy, Oakland. The Grand Feature Parade is sponsored by the First United National Bank & Trust.

IT'S BEGINNING TO LOOK A LOT LIKE AUTUMN GLORY - Workers from Appalachian Crossroads recently did their part in dressing up the town of Oakland for the 26th Annual Autumn Glory Festival. The group arranged corn stalks and red ribbons on every downtown parking meter. The ribbons, donated by OOGA (Greater Oakland Business Association), were affixed to the corn stalks and meters with wire. The decorated meters along with the Autumn Glory buntings throughout town are sure signs of the approaching festival - not to mention the kess' blazing red and orange foliage.



Illegal Bear Kill Reported By Nat'l Resources Police

Maryland Natural Resources Police (NRP) Officer John Milbourne received a call about an illegal bear kill on Saturday morning, Oct. 2, in the Kempton area. Two bow hunters reportedly discovered a dead male, untagged black bear in the woods and called the NRP 800 number.

Milbourne found that the bear appeared to have been shot with a large caliber weapon. The animal apparently ran approximately 20 yards before collapsing. DNR Wildlife was called to the scene for assistance.

Any person with information about this illegal bear kill is asked to call the "Catch A Poacher" hotline number, (800) 635-6124. Citizens who supply the NRP with information leading to the arrest and conviction of the violator will receive cash rewards. Anonymity of information is guaranteed.

OVER SIZE LOAD seems like an understatement in this case, as this enormous, 15-ton piece of steel that will span the new Oak Street bridge in Oakland arrived via flat-bed tractor-trailer this week. Pictured right, State Highway Administration crews set the cross beams of the bridge atop massive concrete supports. The date for completion of the project was originally November 15, but is reportedly projected to be late December or early January. Photos by Craig Phillips

Numerous Drug Cases Heard In District Court

A number of drug cases were heard in Garrett County District Court by sitting Judge William Shepherd from Baltimore and Allegany County District Court Judge Timothy Finan.

William Sobkowics, 39, Hobart, Ind., was granted probation before judgment on a marijuana possession charge. He was fined $100 and placed on three years of unsupervised probation. In a plea agreement with the State's Attorney's Office, a second charge of possession of drug paraphernalia was not prosecuted.

Susan S. Sobkowics, 44, also of Hobart, was also charged with those offenses, but they were not prosecuted because of statements made by Mr. Sobkowics.

The two had been charged by the Garrett County Sheriff's Office and the Department of Natural Resources Ranger Task Force after they had been stopped at a drug check point at Swallow Falls State Park on July 2. There were reportedly two signs warning motorists of the check point ahead. Two officers were placed as spotters and noticed the driver of the vehicle throwing something out of the window prior to contact at the check point. The bag was found to contain suspected marijuana and rolling papers. Mr. Sobkowski also admitted to have a film container at his campsite which contained suspected marijuana.

Fred A. Hornsby III, 46, Morgantown, W.Va., was granted probation before judgment on a marijuana possession charge. He was fined $100 and placed on three years of unsupervised probation. A second charge of possession of drug paraphernalia was not prosecuted because of a plea agreement.

He had been arrested on July 1 by the Garrett County Narcotics Task Force at a drug interdiction point on Interstate 68. When stopped, Hornsby gave consent to have his vehicle searched. Suspected marijuana was reportedly found in an eyeglass case in a guitar case in the back of the vehicle.

James H. Ziegler, 23, Middletown, was found guilty of possession of marijuana and the judge ordered a pre-sentence investigation in the case. A charge of possession with intent to distribute was not prosecuted because of a plea agreement.

He had been charged with those offenses by the Garrett County Narcotics Task Force at a drug interdiction point on Interstate 68 on June 10. Ziegler reportedly gave the consent to search his vehicle and officers noticed that he had two bags of suspected marijuana on his person and another bag of suspected marijuana in a book bag on the passenger's seat.

Anthony M. Boyle, 25, Pittsburgh, Pa., was granted probation before judgment on a marijuana possession charge. He was fined $100 and placed on three years of unsupervised probation. A second charge of possession of drug paraphernalia was not prosecuted because of a plea agreement with the State's Attorney's Office.

Boyle had been arrested by state police after being stopped for speeding on Interstate 68. The arresting officer reportedly smelled burnt marijuana upon stopping the vehicle and a marijuana cigarette butt was found on the dashboard of the vehicle. Rolling papers were also found under the passenger's front seat and several suspected marijuana cigarette butts were found in the ashtray.

Margot G. Ziemer, 38, Pittsburgh, a passenger in the vehicle, was not prosecuted for those same offenses because of statements made by Boyle.

In other District Court news, Douglas M. Bircher Jr., 23, Kitzmiller, was found guilty of battery and trespassing on private property. For the battery count, he was sentenced to 13 months in jail (12 months suspended) and placed on three years of supervised probation. On the trespassing charge, he was given a 30-day concurrent jail term. He was also ordered to abstain from the use of alcohol and to attend an alcohol treatment program. A third charge of breaking and entering was not prosecuted because of a plea agreement. In a separate case, charges of felony theft and unlawful use of a motor vehicle were not prosecuted.

He had been charged on May 22 with trespassing on the property of Roy Willis in Kitzmiller and then hit and kicked Willis after he was told to leave. He was charged with the other offenses on June 29 when he reportedly took a vehicle without permission from Roger Welch.

Michael Stemple, Oakland, was found not guilty of battery. That charge had been filed by Tamma Stewart who claimed Stemple jumped on her back from atop a shed and put his arm out, striking her neck, causing her to fall to the ground.

Jason Douglas Dilley, Oakland, was found guilty of battery. He was handed a 30-day suspended jail term and placed on one year of unsupervised probation. He was also ordered to have no contact with Cathy Jean Ford.

Ford had charged him with that offense stemming from an August 4 incident involving an argument about a vehicle. Dilley then reportedly pushed Ford to the ground.

James P. Savage, 42, Oakland, was found guilty of non-support of a minor child. He was sentenced to six months in jail (five months were suspended) and placed on three years of supervised probation. He was also ordered to pay back child support.

Allen W. Custer, 49, Swanton was found guilty of violating an ex parte order and battery. A pre-sentence investigation was ordered by the judge in the case. A third charge of resisting arrest was not prosecuted because of a plea agreement with the State's Attorney's Office.

He had been charged with those offenses this summer after going to his estranged wife's residence after being ordered by the court not do to so. He reportedly grabbed a 16-year-old male around the neck at that time and later reportedly resisted arrest when confronted by a sheriff's deputy.

DWI CASES

A number of DWI (driving while intoxicated) and DUI (driving while under the influence of alcohol) cases were heard in District Court last week.

Brian T. McDermott, 19, Md., was granted probation before judgment on a DWI charge. He was also fined $125 and placed on 18 months of supervised probation.

Randall D. Green, 36, Md., was granted probation before judgment on a DWI charge, fined $300, and placed on two years of supervised probation.

Howard V. Sisler, 22, Md., was found guilty of violation of probation stemming from an earlier DWI charge. He was sentenced to one year in jail (all was suspended but 60 days).

John A. Hawk, 20, Md., was granted probation before judgment on a DUI charge, fined $100, and placed on one year of supervised probation.

George P. O'Brien, 44, Md., was found guilty of DWI. The judge handed him a one-year suspended jail term, fined him $250, and placed him on two years of supervised probation.

Tina M. Miller, 23, Md., was not prosecuted for a violation of probation stemming from an earlier DWI charge.

Robert F. Sipper Jr., 40, Pa., was found guilty of violation of probation on a DWI charge. His probation was extended one year.

Richard L. Craver, 41, Md., failed to appear in court on a violation of probation charge stemming from an earlier DWI charge. The judge ordered a bench warrant and set new bond at $2,000.

Scott W. Bittinger, 28, was injured and taken to the local hospital by the Southern Garrett County Rescue Squad, according to reports filed by the Maryland State Police, Barrack W, McHenry.

Tfc. W.E. Dixon investigated for state police and said the accident occurred when Bittinger, operating a 1983 Chevrolet Camaro, west on Rt. 135, had stopped to make a right turn onto D Street. James M. Finch, 23, also of Mtn. Lake Park, was also traveling west on Rt. 135 in a 1983 Volkswagon Rabbit when he said the sunlight blinded him and he failed to see the Bittinger vehicle stopped in the roadway. He subsequently struck the back of the Bittinger vehicle.

Changing the Tune...

Wishy-washy is the description that comes to mind when studying the reaction of Congress and the public at large to the present situation in Somalia. Several months ago there was a national outcry that we, the United States, the most powerful nation in the world, the champion of the free world, had an obligation to save the starving people of that nation. The photographs and reports of abuse and starvation were gruesome. Comparisons were made to our not intervening sooner during the Hitler era, when millions of people were being exterminated.

So, President Bush, with the United Nations, made the decision to send troops into Somalia to see that critically needed food and supplies reached the starving masses. We were told there would probably be some U.S. casualties.

Then this past week, when a dozen of our soldiers were killed by forces directed by the Somali warlord Aidid, Congress and much of the public quickly changed their tune. We were horrified and outraged to see films of the dead bodies of our young men being dragged through the streets. The cry this week is that our troops don't belong there, they never should have been sent there in the first place, and we should get them out of there post haste.

Frankly, we can't have it both ways. The United States, as well as all other members of the United Nations, have a responsibility to wage war against the abuse of human rights, particularly when innocent people are dying by the thousands. To simply stand by and allow such gross abuse to continue would make a mockery of the United Nations.

Secondly, we cannot simply pack our things and immediately get out. Such an action would tell the rest of the world that the United States is mostly talk and no action, and that all its adversaries have to do is murder a few of its soldiers, drag the bodies through the streets, and it will go away and leave them alone.

Thus, we support President Clinton's intention to send additional military strength into Somalia to finish the job, and also his setting a date for the withdrawal of our troops. We realize that the entire effort may be futile in the long run, but at least we will assure the other criminal leaders in the world that we will not stand for the murder and abduction of our troops and the crude flaunting of that action in our faces.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Thank you to the people of Garrett County for responding so magnificently to the request for coats for Armenian refugees. This county may be comparatively poor in income, but it is rich in generosity and compassion.

One hundred thirty-five children, 116 men, and 291 women in Armenia will have warm winter coats because of the response of local citizens. Three pickup trucks were needed to take the 542 coats to the World Service Center at New Windsor, Maryland, for the flight to the former Soviet republic arranged by the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR). I understand that the World Service Center depends heavily on the work of volunteers to run the many world relief operations centered there.

Thank you again to all who contributed coats, boxes, labor to pack, and especially to those who took a whole day, a tank of gas, and their pickups to take the packed boxes to their immediate destination. A special thanks to The Republican newspaper for their help in publicizing this appeal.

Sincerely,
Dorothy Leighton

To the Editor:

In "light" of Mental Health Awareness Week recognized as Oct. 3-9, we would like to encourage people to learn more about mental illness and its effects. Part of this awareness is the Clinton Administration's Health Care Reform proposal which will, for the first time, make psychiatric rehabilitation and mental health services available to millions of people with mental illnesses. This plan takes steps to end the gross underfunding of essential health care services for people with serious mental illness such as schizophrenia, major depression and manic depressive disorder.

Although the plan has introduced a mental health benefits package, it does contain significant limits for mental health services. People with severe or persistent mental illness and children will be particularly affected. As we discuss health care reform, please do not forget that the rehabilitation of persons with mental illness is part of that reform.

In an effort to "enlighten" citizens of Garrett County, and to answer questions about psychiatric rehabilitation services, Lighthouse will provide "outreach" staff to the community on Oct. 18 at the Oakland Library from 10 a.m. through noon. Please feel free to speak with us!

Sincerely,
Debbie jo Adams-Noroski

Garrett Co. Lighthouse, Inc.

To the Editor:

By reading The Republican and Cumberland Times I have noticed that a lot of the people convicted of crimes are repeated offenders. I would chance to guess that 90 percent of the men in the Garrett County Jail have been there before. If conditions at the jail are so deplorable, why do they continue to commit crimes and get sent back to jail?

Another thing I cannot understand is how they can complain about not getting any fresh air and cry about not being able to smoke cigarettes at the same time.

I mean, let's get real, they are in jail for committing a crime. Jail is not supposed to be the Ritz. Let them behave themselves and they would not have to worry about it.

Mami G. Guthrie

To the Editor:

This letter concerns the dumpster site east of Grantsville on Rt. 40. The disrespect the public shows for this site is truly a disgrace. There is anything one can imagine scattered all over the place and I'm sure the men hauling trash can back me up.

I would suggest those people vacationing in jail who are complaining about their treatment and nothing to do might be bused out there and put to work. Then they could also smoke in the fresh air. In so doing they could be doing something toward their support.

It really gets to me and a lot of other taxpaying people to see how the place is kept when a nice site has been supplied and then the treatment it gets.

Sincerely,
A concerned citizen,
Cleda Baker

To the Editor:

On behalf of the Broad Ford Elementary School P.T.A., we would like to extend our thanks to the Support Section of Company "C" 121st Combat Engineers of the Maryland Army National Guard based in Oakland. These great guys agreed to give us a weekend of their time to assist us with our playground improvements. They were out with their equipment early Saturday morning removing playground equipment from the former Head Start playground, which was donated to our school by Community Action. They hauled it to our school and reassembled it for us. They also removed and fenced in some equipment. They worked in the cold, windy weather throughout the day on Saturday and Sunday. We surely wouldn't have been able to complete this project without their help!

Our P.T.A. is currently taking on the enormous task of upgrading our playground equipment. We have applied for grants, written letters to area businesses for donations, and have planned various fund-raisers to pay for the new equipment. The first piece of new equipment will be installed Friday, October 15. Hopefully, the next piece will be installed by spring.

We have also built borders around existing pieces of play equipment and filled them with mulch. National statistics show that if there is a 6" or more base of mulch around play equipment, it reduces serious injuries by 75 to 80 percent. Within the last two years, area elementary schools have reported numerous fractures, broken bones, sprains, and bruises on such equipment as monkey bars and sliding boards. What most people don't realize is that playground equipment is never officially inspected for dangerous pieces. It's up to the parents to visit the playground to check the equipment. We are given limited financial help from the Board of Education. We are working solely on our own to raise funds to pay for this new, safer equipment.

While this playground equipment is used primarily for the students of Broad Ford, it is often used during non-school hours by many children in the area who do not attend Broad Ford. Therefore, we are asking the entire community for their support with our playground campaign. Please be as generous as you can so that we can make our children's time on the playground both safe and fun!

Again, thanks to the Support Section of the Maryland Army National Guard and also to Duane Yoder at Community Action.

To the Editor:

It was a muddy Saturday morning, September 18, when a large group of highly enthusiastic parents began repairing the Broad Ford School playground. They dug out all the sod around the playground equipment and installed boards on the ground to hold the tons of wood chips that would protect the children from injuries if they fell. They painted all the existing playground equipment the bright colors of primary crayons. But the main emphasis of the PTA is safety on the playground.

The PTA is asking for the support of the community as they up-grade the playground equipment and as they raise money to purchase the latest in imaginative and safe playground equipment.

An Update From The Superintendent

By
Dr. Jerome Ryscavage, Superintendent

Post High School Planning

Although some might think that it's too early, this is the time to actively begin looking at what kind of schools and colleges are out there. It's important that you not only begin early in the school year, but just as important to begin early in your high school career - that is, begin seriously looking as a sophomore and a junior -- even as a freshman -- don't wait until your senior year. It's very important to use our high school guidance counselors in this regard as they know of the schools and colleges available, they have a great deal of written materials concerning them, and most importantly, they can give students the kind of assistance necessary in terms of looking at admission requirements, costs, and financial assistance which may be available. Students can apply to schools and universities in their junior year - and be admitted, provided they meet admission standards in that our early college admission programs allows students to take their fourth year of high school at an approved college.

The most well-known college admission test is the Scholastic Aptitude Test, or SAT. Students can take this test as many times as they desire, at a cost of $15 per administration. This year the SAT will be given to Allegany High School on November 6. December 4, and January 22, with the test also being given at Garrett Community College on November 6 and January 22. It is a good idea to prepare for the SAT by taking the PSAT (Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test) – this costs $7.50 per administration. This test will be administered at both Northern and Southern high schools on October 12. Finally, the other test which is used fairly heavily (WVU uses this) is the ACT. The ACT will be administered at GCC on December 11 and April 9 and costs $16 per administration. Of course, it is wise for students to only take that test required by the school or college in which the student is interested.

It's also a good idea to begin investigating financial aid opportunities early in your high school career. Surprisingly, a large number of our students have good chances of picking up sizable financial assistance – if they actively look into it! One of the things that you will have to do for most colleges is to complete a financial aid form (FAF). This is available from the guidance counselor beginning mid-December and should not be submitted until January 1 because schools begin reviewing applications and making financial awards thereafter. In conclusion, get started early as "the early bird often gets the worm."

What's Happening in Our Schools for the Next Two Weeks?

•The volunteer fire company from Gorman will visit Red House School and the Loch Lynn School this week in recognition of Fire Prevention Week.

•Allegany Wood Products will be making presentations at Broad Ford Elementary School (October 11) and Red House (October 12) on conservation and the importance of forests.

•Poet-in-Resident Mimi Zannino will visit Red House and Dennett Road schools on October 14 and Broad Ford on October 15.

•All students will be dismissed on Autumn Glory Friday, October 15, at 1 p.m.

•Finally, did you know that the typical American child is exposed to an average of 27 hours of television per week -- some as much as 11 hours per day? Surely they can make better use of their time.

Note: The Superintendent's Update can be heard every other Sunday on WMSG WXIE Radio at 8:15 a.m. and every other Saturday on WKHJ at 8:35 a.m.

To Allow Survey

the last time a spray program was conducted in the county, the rate of gypsy moth infestation on individual property was determined by the property owner. As a result, no baseline data has been available.

"The gypsy moth is here to stay so the task force feels the program should be in place," said Kozier.

The task force also recommended to the commissioners that any spray program be conducted on a cost-share basis between the county and the individual landowner, as was done before, and noted that total cost of the program could probably be reduced if large areas are sprayed instead of smaller, scattered patches of land.

When the commissioners were asked if they had already budgeted the money for the survey, Elwood Groves responded by saying the money would have to come from the county's contingency fund. Kozier advised the board that funding for gypsy moth suppression should probably be included in future budgets.

If the commissioners decide to conduct a spray program in the spring, a determination has not yet been made about what kind of spray will be used.

Sentences Imposed

an undercover police officer in November 1992. The incident took place in Oakland, according to the report.

In another case, a suspended sentence for a Deer Park man was reimposed after he was found to be in violation of probation (VOP). Steven R. Steyer, 38, pleaded no contest to the VOP charge, and Thayer reimposed the original five-year, two-month sentence, suspending all but one year. The defendant will serve the time in the local jail, according to the report. Steyer will also be on five years of supervised probation, and any further violation will result in the reimposition of the entire sentence, the court document indicates.

The violation charge arose after Steyer was convicted of DWI (driving while intoxicated) on August 16. The conditions of his probation included total abstinence from alcohol during the time of his probation. He was originally convicted of two counts of assault and battery and one count of assault as a result of a March 1989 incident in which he apparently violently attacked his parents.

In another VOP case, a Deer Park man was charged with the offense for a second time and a 90-day sentence was reimposed. Robin L. Moyer, 21, was found in violation of probation by Thayer and was remanded to the Garrett County Jail for 90 days. The violation charge stemmed from Moyer's recent conviction of possession of a non-controlled dangerous substance.

The defendant was originally convicted of battery, and received a 90-day suspended jail term. He was found in violation of probation in January of this year for not paying fines and costs, and the term was reimposed, yet suspended once again. Last week's trial ended in the probation being stricken and Moyer's immediate incarceration in the local jail.

Judge J. Frederick Sharer presided over a case involving former Oakland resident Anita D. Messer, 39, now of Keyser, W.Va. Messer was charged with using a telephone and communication equipment to relay a comment which was lewd, obscene, filthy, and indecent, according to the court document.

Messer made an alford plea of guilty to the charge, which meant she did not necessarily admit guilt but acknowledged that there was sufficient evidence against her in the case. Sharer accepted the plea and sentenced the defendant to 18 months in prison. He suspended the sentence, and placed Messer on three years of supervised probation.

The charge was incurred by the defendant after she apparently telephoned Virginia Railey and spoke lewdly about her son, Bradley Uphold. The episode was reportedly part of other incidents and ongoing harassing behavior by the defendant, which did lead to other charges against her.

Conditions of the probation require that Messer have absolutely no contact with the Bradley and Paula Uphold family, and that she must pay court costs.

The Mind Wanders

A Tribute To Jen
by Pam Ashby

Jennifer Ann Frantz was just beginning her adult life when it was suddenly snuffed out by an alleged speeding, drunk driver at 11:30 p.m. on September 11, 1993. She would have been 18 on October 22. The anger at the way she died and grief over losing her all too soon have almost been too much to bear, but I must - we all must - remember to celebrate Jen's life, brief as it was.

In trying to give some kind of comfort to my brother Ed and my sister-in-law Ann the day after the accident, I felt the need to slip away and go into Jen's room. I did not cry. Actually, I took some solace there, for this was the essence of dear Jenny. I was greeted by the dog posters on her door. One dog looked like her dog Maggie; another like her puppy Abby; still another like our late dog Gretel. Jen was quite the animal lover and that says much about a person. She loved our cat Alfie, too, as much as her allergies to him permitted.

The shelves and shelves of stuffed animals and dolls overwhelmed me. They were well cared for and I knew they had served her well in her childhood. The stuffed tropical bird hanging from her ceiling and the post cards from Saint Martin were a reminder of her mother-daughter trip to that island after her high school graduation. Then I spied the doll house that Grandpa Frantz had built for her so many Christmases ago. It looked as if she had just played with it yesterday. Perhaps she had rearranged the miniature furniture in it on her first visit home from Hood College just a few days earlier.

The white eyelet bedspreads lay intact on her twin beds, shunned for the bright comforter she later chose for her college dorm room. Her own art work decked her walls - from the felt and yarn picture of kindergarten, to the third grade painting of stick figures surrounding a heart and titled, "Love Each Other," to the sophisticated pencil sketches just recently drawn. Had I felt a bit more bold, I would have snooped at some of her writings. I had seen some of her theme papers and poems of her high school years some time ago and was impressed with her gift for putting her thoughts on paper. I smiled. For that, and her warped sense of humor, were definitely two traits that we shared. My gaze fell to the stereo by the bed. I wondered what album she had last enjoyed. No surprise there. It was a Beatles album. The kid had class.

Then I thought I noticed a rip in her pink, floral striped wallpaper. At closer inspection, I realized it was a small cut-out of a fashion model. I recalled her "addiction" to fashion magazines and thought, "Oh Jen, you're such a beautiful young woman. Don't compare yourself to those half-starved nymphettes." I believe I heard her laugh.

I moved around the room feeling so calm and then Garfield, staring down at me from a bookshelf, beckoned me over. What a diverse, avid reader this young lady was! All jumbled together among the music boxes and figurines were current best sellers, the Sweet Valley Twins series, Jane Eyre, Nancy Drew mysteries, Pride and Prejudice, volumes of poetry, The Yearling, Grimm's Fairy Tales, My Friend Flicka, Agatha Christie's mysteries, and on to Where the Sidewalk Ends by Shel Silverstein. I realized that her favorites were my favorites and I was warmed by her love of reading.

While there were piles of yearbooks and stacks of recent photos in her room, I didn't see any photos on the walls - except one - likely a cherished one. It was Jen and her little 2-year-old cousin Emma. They were shown gathering Easter eggs. She loved her little "Emmer" (the pronunciation she borrowed from her British uncle Andy). Emma had just told me a few weeks earlier in a very grown up voice that Jenny was her "best friend." How in the world will Emma ever grasp the concept of never seeing Jenny again in this life?

Through finally released tears, I saw it; the framed scherenschnite greeting which read:

the happy memory of the past, the precious moment of the present, the hope and promise of the future

"The hope and promise are gone," I thought. "Thank God for the happy memory." I quietly exited her "world," remembering to pat the puppy posters for her.

German Students Spend Two Weeks In Garrett County

Through the efforts of an English teacher from Germany and a local retired school board official, 22 German students from Furstenwalde and the surrounding area came to Garrett County for two weeks, Sept. 23-Oct. 7, for a visit in "heartland America." Albert Ringer, retired assistant superintendent for Garrett County, and Detlef Redmann, the German teacher, joined forces to arrange the trip for the 15 girls and seven boys.

The group traveled extensively throughout the county and beyond, visiting area state parks as well as local schools. Trips to Pennsylvania were also arranged, allowing the travellers to see Pittsburgh, Baltimore, and Washington, D.C. A German dinner was prepared for the students at Point View, Deep Creek Lake, by Ruth Beitzel. Several Garrett County Board of Education members attended the event, which took place on Sept. 25.

The students, with the average age of 17, reportedly enjoyed a visit out to Swan Meadow School, where they were able to use their native language on the computers. The group was also given the opportunity to visit various towns in the county.

"I like everything," said Oliver Waldrich. "You do not lock your cars or your doors. In Germany, everything would be stolen."

"I like the people," Sascha Kionsek said. "They are so friendly. Everyone talks here. They do not do so in Germany."

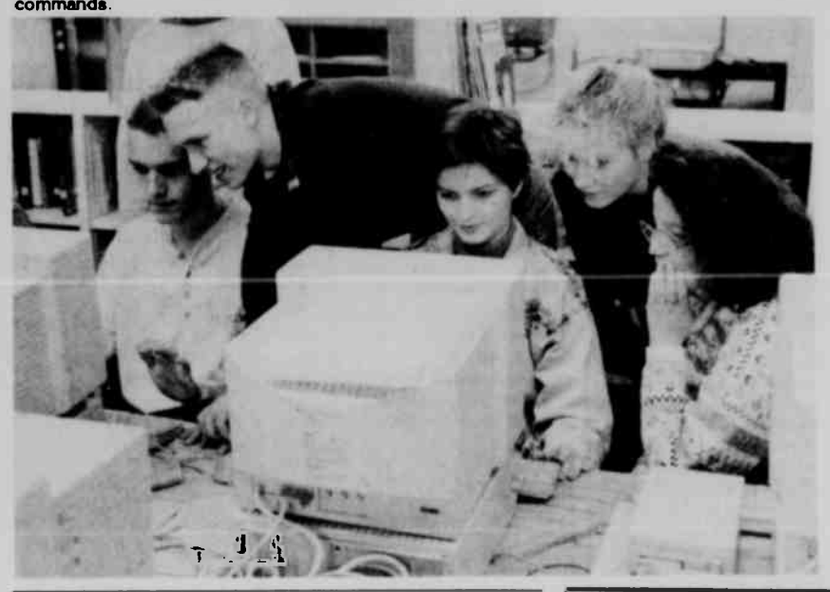
The students did notice a lack of "discos" in the county.

"Don't people dance here?" one girl asked. Another noted that he "missed the beer," adding that 16 is the alcohol-buying age in his native country.

The students were afforded the opportunity to go shopping, and were reportedly thrilled over the price of jeans. While they pay $80 or more for one pair in Germany, they were able to purchase them locally for $18 to $25.

Detlef Redmann and Al Ringer met in 1967 while Ringer was on a comparative study of education in East Germany. The local educator was visiting a school in Rostock where Redmann assisted him in language translation, and the two became friends. They communicated regularly, and when the Berlin Wall fell in 1989, Redmann contacted Ringer, who sponsored his visit to Garrett County in 1990 and in 1991. Ringer visited Redmann's home in November 1992, and the two worked with the students and teachers of English in Redmann's school. As Ringer talked about America with Redmann's class, the students expressed an interest in visiting to see first-hand what he was talking about.

Redmann then wrote a proposal to the educational authorities in Germany, who in turn funded the trip. Ringer established homestays for the group, as well as planned the itinerary. In addition to Ringer, those who offered to keep students were Asa and Marilyn McCain, Paul and Linda Harr, Sull and Brenda McCartney, Wayne and Karen Ray, Jim Sconyers, Thomas and Wilda Massi, Jerry and Mary Ryscavage, and Martha Lou Ashby. Redmann stayed with Harland and Kaye Carlson.



The group left Garrett County Tuesday, travelling to Harpers Ferry for a sightseeing tour. They are scheduled to fly out of Dulles International Airport today.

"I think they had a wonderful time," Kaye Carlson said. "We hops to get the chance to visit them sometime in the future."

America's first compulsory education law was passed in 1647 in Massachusetts

GERMAN VISITORS AT SWAN MEADOW - Twenty-two German students and their English teacher came to Garrett County recently for a two-week stay, visiting local schools, state parks, and area shopping malls. The trip for the teenagers was planned by their teacher, Detlef Redmann, and Albert Ringer, a local resident who mat Redmann in 1967 in Rostock, Germany. The friendship was maintained, and the two mat again after the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989. Plans for this trip were initiated when Ringer visited Redmann in November 1992. See separate story. In the photograph above, the German visitors are pictured at Swan Meadow School where they were treated to a song by the students there, and then offered one of their own. In the photo below, the German teenagers are shown as they investigate the school's computers, which can be operated with some German commands.

The Continentals To Perform At Mtn. Lake Church

The Continentals' 1993 World Tour, featuring a concert of contemporary Christian music, will be coming to Faith Evangelical Free Church, in Mtn. Lake Park, on Thursday, October 21 at 7 p.m.

Featuring 25 vocalists, with live instrumentation, The Continentals' program will include a variety of popular, inspirational and gospel favorites.

In addition to majestic anthems, spirituals and children's songs, the program will recognize the many contributions of some of the top gospel songwriters of the last 26 years.

"I am very excited about this year's program," said Jim Chaffee, executive vice president of The Continentals. "Through dynamic contemporary music, The Continentals will issue a powerful call to action for believers everywhere."

All of the young people who are part of The Continentals are carefully selected from among thousands who audition annually from around the world. The program is then fine-tuned during an intensive nine-day rehearsal camp in Denver, Colo., before each group leaves for an approximate three-month tour throughout the United States and many foreign countries.

In the last 26 years, more than 12,000 young people have been a part of The Continentals, traveling over two million miles to every continent in the world, except Antarctica, and more than 70 countries.

Highlights of the organization include a Dove Award for "Best Musical" from the Gospel Music Association in 1982 for "Dreamer," a musical based on the life of Joseph. In 1985, the organization led a successful campaign, in conjunction with World Vision, to raise nearly two million dollars to fight world hunger. The Continentals have released more than 35 gospel albums.

Md. Conservation Corpsmembers To Graduate Sat.

Maryland Department of Natural Resources (DNR) Secretary Torrey C. Brown, M.D., has announced that the Maryland Conservation Corps (MCC) Year-Round Program will hold a graduation ceremony at 1 p.m. on Saturday, October 9, at the Helen Avalynne Tawes Garden at the Tawes State Office Building in Annapolis.

A total of 23 corpsmembers successfully completed the 11-month training program in state forests and parks around the state. Of the 23 graduates, 15 have already received permanent jobs or job offers, two others plan to attend college using the stipend they receive for completing the entire 11 months of the program, and the other six are still actively seeking employment.

"We are very pleased with the way the year-round program has turned out in its first year," Dr. Brown said. "The success of the program has enabled us to expand it this year from four crews to six."

Four MCC crews began the program last year and began hands-on training in a variety of career fields.

The crew at Savage River State Forest trained in forestry, with most of the emphasis on hardwood tree stands, performing numerous tree plantings. They also planted a permanent Christmas tree for the town of Oakland and built shelters at Deep Creek Lake.

Along with their respective on-the-job training, the corpsmembers also received first aid, CPR, and first responder training and several corpsmembers have been certified as Emergency Medical Technicians (EMT). Many of the members are volunteering as firemen and EMTs in addition to their regular jobs.

New corpsmembers will be replacing the graduating class at the four previous MCC crew sites and two new crews will be formed.

Maryland's program recently received national recognition as Program Director Job Underwood and several corpsmembers were invited to the White House to join President Bill Clinton for the signing of the National Service Bill.

Local Fire Depts. Receive RCFP Grant Money

Department of Natural Resources Forestry Programs allocatad $34,200 to 38 out of 51 rural voluntaer fire companies that applied this year for a state-wide cooperative federal grant, according to Secretary of the Maryland DNR Torrey C. Brown. Western Maryland received $25,569 of the allocated money.

The Rural Community Fire Protection Grant (RCFP) is a specially designed program to aid rural volunteer fire defense and improvement of water accessibility for areas with populations with fewer than 10,000 individuals. The grant provides necessary funds for the purchase of equipment or resources to protect human life, wildlife orchards, and natural resources.

Applicants for the grant are classified on a need-based point system allowing those companies with the greatest need to be granted adequate monies. This year's categories for judgement included: conversion of federal excess equipment to brush equipment, dry hydrant installation, purchasing of protection gear, communications, and purchasing of small tools.

A calculation of need is made based on population, money received, hazards (state forest land, wildlife) and insurance. Grants were awarded up to $1,300, Brown said.

Of the 38 volunteer fire departments that qualified state-wide, 18 were in western Maryland. The following is a list of the recipients in Garrett County: Kitzmiller, $700; Gorman, $1020; Bittinger, $1050; and Deer Park, $975.

RCFP is an on-going DNR program, Brown said, in which qualifying volunteer fire companies must raise one half of the needed funds. Western Maryland has received $242,553 from this grant money since 1981.

For more information concerning the RCFP grant, persons may contact Alan Zentz, DNR Forestry Programs, at (410) 974-3776.

Garrett Memorial Supports National Mammography Day

October 19 has been proclaimed the first National Mammography Day in American history. The objective is to encourage millions of American women (especially underserved populations and older women who are at greatest risk for breast cancer) to receive, sign up for, or make a commitment to get a screening mammogram. As an incentive, many accredited radiology centers will offer discounted screening mammograms during October.

Garrett County Memorial Hospital's (GCMH) mammography unit is fully accredited by the American College of Radiology (ACR). To be accredited, the facility must meet requirements including a peer review evaluation of the facility staff qualifications, equipment, quality control and quality assurance programs, image quality, and breast dose.

"Receiving accreditation from the ACR is confirmation of the quality mammography services that have always been provided by our facility," said Michael Reed, director of radiology at GCMH.

"Accreditation assures the community that the best possible breast care is available at Garrett Memorial," said Dr. Charles Magal, chief of radiology. "This certification – in conjunction with the teamwork of referring physicians, breast surgeons, radiologists and mammogram technologists – provides the basis of this service.

"This year more than 46,000 women will die from breast cancer. Early detection could have saved as many as one-third of them. Mammography plays a crucial role in that process, because it can find a breast tumor up to two years before it can be felt by a woman or her health care provider. Far too many women die needlessly because they did not find their breast cancer soon enough. We know that following mammography guidelines can change that, and hope that National Mammography Day will encourage millions of American women to give themselves the gift of a lifetime."

Recent media reports have created a great deal of confusion on mammography screening guidelines. GCMH has joined the Board of Sponsors of National Breast Cancer Awareness Month to set the record straight. While a woman should consult her physician on the timing of her first mammogram, experts agree that regular screening mammograms are the most effective means of finding breast cancer early, and are crucial for all women over age 50.

According to the America Cancer Society, the benefits of regularly scheduled mammograms should be supplemented by seeing a health-care provider for regular clinical breast examinations and practice monthly breast self-examination.

Information about nearby participating radiology centers may be obtained by contacting the American Cancer Society at 1-800-ACS-2345; Y-ME, National Breast Cancer Organization, at 1-800-221-2141; or The Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation at 1-800-I'M AWARE.

BREAST CANCER MONTH, MAMMOGRAPHY DAY PROCLAIMED - The Garrett County Commissioners this week have proclaimed the month of October as Breast Cancer Awareness Month and October 19 as Mammography Day, encouraging all women in Garrett County to become aware that they are at risk and to check with their doctor to see whether they should receive a mammogram. "We also urge each and every resident of Garrett County to make sure the women they care about participate in this program," they wrote. In 1993, 182,000 women in the United States will be diagnosed with breast cancer, and 46,000 will die from this disease. Early detection could spare as many as one-third of those lives. Research shows, however, that only a low percentage of women in Maryland are getting screening mammogram in accordance with nationally accepted guidelines. Shown in the above photo, standing left to right, are Mary Norwish, mammography technician; Michael Reed, director of radiology; Rosalee Finch Sines, mammography technician; and Dr. Keith Pumroy, radiologist. Seated, same order, are the Garrett County Commissioners, Brenda Butscher, Elwood Groves, and John Braskey.

Senate Approves Access Road For Randolph Lake

The Senate last week approved legislation directing the Army Corps of Engineers to provide an improved access road on the Maryland side of Jennings Randolph Lake as part of a program to improve public use of the lake's recreational opportunities. The language was included at the request of Senators Paul Sarbanes and Barbara A. Mikulski.

"Jennings Randolph Lake is an important resource that not only provides recreational opportunities, but also helps improve water supply," Senator Sarbanes said. "By providing a paved road on the Federal property, and working in cooperation with the State of Maryland and the Garrett County Commissioners, we will be tremendously improving opportunities for public access from the Maryland side of this outstanding and beautiful lake."

"This lake in magnificent, unspoiled Western Maryland is an untapped resource," Senator Mikulski said. "This new road will lead Maryland families to its great natural resources and tremendous natural beauty."

Jennings Randolph Lake is located on the North Branch of the Potomac River in Garrett County and Mineral County, West Virginia. Construction of the dam, which created the lake, was authorized by the Flood Control Act of 1962. Originally named Bloomington Lake, the project was rededicated in May 1987 in honor of former U.S. Senator Jennings Randolph of West Virginia who was primarily responsible for this important water resource project. The Army Corps of Engineers completed construction of the dam in 1981 at a cost of $174 million.

The State of Maryland, in cooperation with the Army Corps of Engineers, the Garrett County Commissioners, West Virginia's Department of Natural Resources and the Mineral County Development Authority, has developed a plan to construct an access road, boat ramp, lake side parking, comfort stations and an interim management facility. The State of Maryland will construct the boat ramp and parking lot and manage the facilities. Garrett County has budgeted funds to upgrade approximately three miles of county roadway to the boundary of the Federal property and has agreed to assume maintenance responsibilities for the road. West vaco is providing rights-of-way and easements for road access through their property at no cost.

Last year, the Maryland National Guard conducted a training exercise and completed the first phase of the effort to provide access to the lake by clearing and grading the access road. The result of the Guard's earth work was reportedly a savings of over $400,000 in construction costs.

Adoption Support Group To Organize

An organizational meeting will be held next week in LaVale for persons interested in forming an adoption support group. The group will be convened by staff from Burlington United Methodist Family Services at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 14, at Christ Lutheran Church, Vocke Road, LaVale.

"Even though adoption is a very normal, acceptable way to build a family, it is still not usual," stated Dawn Ross, one of the coordinators of the meeting. "Therefore, while family and friends can offer a great deal of support, they may not fully understand the questions and concerns of adoptive parents."

Persons desiring more information about the meeting may contact Ms. Ross or Nancy Biggs at 304-788-2342.

AHA Campaign Set; Call For Volunteers Issued

The American Heart Association's 1993/94 residential campaign will be held in Garrett County from October 17 to November 21.

As an annual event of the AHA, the campaign serves to educate area residents about the prevention of cardiovascular disease, which account for half of all deaths in Garrett and Allegany counties, and to raise funds for AHA's research, public and professional education and community programs.

The change from a winter campaign to a fall campaign was made this year in light of the fact that the weather can be severe in Garrett County during the winter months. "Due to the inclement weather we had during February, the Board of Directors have made a decision to change our residential campaign to fall," stated Francis Grimm, Garrett County Board chairman.

"In the 1993/94 residential campaign, volunteers have a goal of raising $6,000," said Residential Chairperson Dorothy Cathell. "However, to accomplish our task, additional volunteers are needed. If you have a few hours to give to this worthwhile event, please contact us."

The American Heart Association is the largest non-profit organization dedicated to the reduction of disability and death from heart diseases and stroke. In addition to sponsoring programs for professional and community education, it also supports research through various fund-raising efforts.

Persons who wish to volunteer some time to the 1993/94 residential campaign may call the American Heart Association for information, at 1-800-734-3769.

GARRETT COUNTY OUTREACH TEAM RECEIVES AWARD - The Community Outreach Team of the Garrett County Health Department recently received an award from the American Heart Association for its participation in the 1993 "Salt Out" program. The outreach workers were awarded "for outstanding service in advancing the heart program and stimulating public support to reduce disability and death from cardiovascular diseases and stroke," according to the inscription on the award. The local outreach team members helped coordinate the approximately 30 restaurants, businesses, and organizations that participated in the program. The main goals of the "Salt Out" program are to educate the public about high blood pressure as a leading cause of heart attack, stroke, and kidney failure and convey the importance of reducing salt intake as a means of controlling high blood pressure. The program also supports and encourages heart healthy dining in general. Pictured above, seated, left to right, are outreach team members, Nancy Rhine, Donna Knox, and Linda Bolding Colaw. Standing, same order, are team members Pam Braskey and Gail Dever; Community Outreach Coordinator Sally Boone; team member Donna Gilpin; and the American Heart Association's Area Director Jo Anna Burley Shore. Not present for the photo was team member Sharon Savage.

Huskies' Soccer Debut Spoiled Tuesday Night By Rams, 5-2

The Northern High Huskies' first home soccer game in some 40 years was spoiled by cross-county rival Southern Tuesday night, as the Rams recorded a 5-2 victory.

Northern's schedule originally called for home games earlier, but there was a delay in the arrival of their goal posts, forcing the Huskies to play all of their games to date on the road.

Looking to avenge an earlier loss to the Rams in Oakland, the Huskies took charge just five minutes into the contest when Martin Strnad broke loose and directed a shot past Southern keeper Jason Pressley for an unassisted goal.

The Rams answered just three minutes later when forward Joey DiSimone broke through the right side of the Northern defense and fed a charging Danny Nelson, who directed a shot just inside the far post to tie the score.

The Rams took the lead for good just 30 seconds later when junior midfielder Derek Spirk raced down the left side, out-dribbled two defenders, and fired a long shot low into the left side of the net.

Southern took a 3-1 advantage with 20 minutes left in the half when Aaron Chorpenning passed to Spirk in front of the Husky goal. Spirk one-touched the ball to DiSimone, who eluded two defenders and put the ball into the net just inside the right post.

The Huskies came back with 12 minutes left in the half as David Adamo took advantage of a mis-played ball by the Ram defense. Adamo picked up the loose ball near the top of the penalty area and centered it to Strnad, who smashed a shot at goal. The shot hit a Ram defender, but bounced up and into the net.

A potential tying goal by the Huskies several minutes later was called back because of an obstruction call.

The Rams made it 4-2 late in the first half when Spirk threaded the needle with a pass toward the left post and Nelson redirected past Husky keeper Chris Elliott.

The Northern defense made some adjustments and tightened things up in the second half. The Rams had two goals called back, one following a throw-in by Stephen Goralski and another on an obstruction call. Then with 9:21 remaining, the Rams added an insurance goal when Shannon Ringer shot from left midfield, the ball was deflected by a defender toward the right side of the penalty area, and Chorpenning scored with a shot into the near side of the net.

The Rams out-shot the Huskies by a 29-7 margin. Pressley had two saves and back-up keeper Mike Purdey recorded one for the Rams, while Elliott had 10 saves for the Huskies. The win upped the Rams record to 2-5, while Northern is still seeking its first win.

"Our last two games have been significantly better on defense," stated Southern Coach Tom Powers. "We have a lot more speed now than in the past, although we made some mental mistakes against Northern that we need to work on.

"The fact that we have only three seniors on our team is very encouraging for the future of soccer at Southern."

Tom Ables, coach of the Huskies, said, "At least we got to be the first to break in our own new nets! In watching the game film we really looked like a first-year team. But our kids certainly played with a lot of heart and emotion. Southern has a lot more experience and much better skilled players than we do right now. We start five freshmen and only 50 percent of our kids had ever even kicked a soccer ball before this year."

Ables noted the performance of his goalkeeper, Chris Elliott. "Not one of the goals that was scored by Southern was Chris's fault," he said. "This was the first game that he didn't lose his concentration and he took away every one of their scoring opportunities on corner kicks and throw-ins."

He also noted that he is the only coach in the area who starts two girls at fullback positions. "The films show that Kristin Heslop and Amy Glotfelty played very well for us. All of the Rams' scoring came from the middle of the field, and not in the area of our fullbacks."

The first-year coach also commented on the quality of the Southern team. "They have an excellent program with some very good players. They are going to beat someone else besides us before this season is over," he said.

The Rams next game will be at home this Friday against a strong Salisbury (6-3) team, with the kickoff set for 4 p.m. They will play at Hyndman next Thursday.

The Huskies will host Calvary Christian Academy this evening at 7 p.m. and entertain Bishop Walsh on Monday at 7:30 p.m. Then they will host Beall next Thursday in a 4 p.m. game.

MODERN DANCE? One who has never watched a soccer game might think so. Actually this is an action shot taken during the Southern-Northern soccer game, played Tuesday night on the Huskies' field. The Rams won the contest, 5-2. Pictured above center is Southern Ram Joey DiSimone between Husky defenders Amy Glotfelty and Corey Geis. DiSimone led the Rams' scoring effort with two goals. The Huskies will play again at home tonight against Calvary Christian Academy, beginning at 7 p.m., and the Rams will host Salisbury this Friday in a 4 p.m. game.

Rams Frighten BW Spartans In Soccer Contest

The first-year Southern High School soccer team put a scare into the area's number one ranked Spartans of Bishop Walsh High last Thursday evening on the Southern athletic field.

The Spartans, who had defeated the Rams on their own field earlier this season, 9-3, jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the first half and seemed to think they had things under control. However, the second half belonged to the Rams, who cut the Spartans' advantage to 3-2 and nearly scored a tying goal before the visitors connected for a final score with just 35 seconds remaining to record a 4-2 win.

Jeff Harbel opened BW's scoring about eight minutes into the game, as he picked off an errant Ram defensive clearing pass and walked the ball inside the right corner post.

At the 17:46 mark, Southern defender Jeff Meyers slipped on the dew-soaked grass which allowed BW's scoring leader Jason Helmsetter to boot the ball into the top right corner for the Spartans' second point.

Five minutes later, Ryan Nelson split the Ram defense and beat Southern goalkeeper Jason Pressley one-on-one when another weak crossing pass bounded freely inside the goal area.

The Rams re-grouped at halftime and seized the momentum of the contest in the first few minutes of the second half. With just over two minutes gone, left forward Dan Nelson collected a loose ball on the left side of the net with his back to the goal. He wheeled a full 180 degrees and fired a shot high and to the wide side of the net past a surprised Spartan defender.

Nelson struck again 18 minutes off a pass from Daniel Gomez that careened off a Spartan defender, making the score 3-2.

The Rams continued to dominate play in the Spartans' end of the field, but the BW defense was able to keep the ball out of their goal, as keeper Andy Tichnell made some outstanding grabs right on the goal line.

The Spartans scored their insurance goal with just 35 seconds left on the clock when Helmsetter broke through the Ram defense and left the ball trailing behind him for Harbel, who shot it high into the left side of the goal.

Southern Coach Tom Powers, who is also a FIFA certified referee, said, "After studying the game films it was obvious that the player was offsides and the final goal should have been disallowed. But the referee was screened and couldn't see it.

"To paraphrase Vince Lombardi, we didn't really lose this game; we just ran out of time. Our kids really reached down inside and pulled this one together. We won the second half. It really did us all a lot of good to receive the standing ovation from our home fans at the end of the game," he said.

Pressley had 12 saves for the Rams, while Tichnell recorded 11 for the Spartans, who led in shots on goal, 20-14. It was the 10th win in 11 games for Bishop Walsh.

The Rams played again Tuesday night at Northern (see separate story).

Rams Edged By Trojans In Final Moments, 18-14

The Southern High Rams led the Hampshire Trojans from the first quarter through most of the fourth quarter Friday night in their homecoming contest, but with less than two-minutes remaining in the game, the Trojans rallied for a touchdown to win the game, 18-14.

The loss dropped the Rams to 2-3 on the season, while the Trojans recorded their fourth straight victory in six starts.

It appeared early that the Rams might have a relatively easy night, as they quickly forced the Trojans to punt on the first drive of the game and then marched 59 yards on 13 plays, with Jeremy Fitzwater scoring on a quarterback sneak. Fitzwater hit Andrew Lane with a pass for the conversion, giving the Rams an 8-0 advantage.

The Trojans responded with their first touchdown early in the second quarter by moving the ball 67 yards and capping the drive with a one-yard scoring plunge by Dana Duerr. The attempted kick for the extra point was unsuccessful, as the snap was mishandled.

A 33-yard pass from Fitzwater to Rich Warnick highlighted the next Southern drive, a 51-yard, four-play effort that culminated with an eight-yard touchdown run by David Crosco. The run for the two extra points was stopped just short of the goal line, making the halftime score 14-6.

It took only four plays by the Trojans in their first drive of the third period to pull within two points of the Rams, as they traveled 80 yards for a touchdown. David Foster's 46-yard run put the ball on the Ram 24-yard line and Duerr took it from there to the end zone on the next play, making the score 14-12.

GAINING GOOD YARDAGE on this play against the Hampshire High Trojans was Southern Ram Paul Berkeridge during last Friday's night's homecoming game on the Rams' field. The Rams led throughout most of the contest, only to lose in the final two minutes, 18-14, and drop to 2-3 on the season. Also identifiable in the photo is Southern quarterback Jeramy Fitzwater, #14. The Rams will travel to Northern Friday night for the annual county clash with the Huskies.

HOMECOMING ROYALTY - The annual football homecoming was held at Southern High School this past weekend and elected 1993 homecoming queen was Cindy Savage, who was escorted by Southern Ram Steve Eyler. The festivities of the evening were somewhat dampened by the fact that the Rams were edged on the football field by Hampshire, 18-14, but a fun time was reportedly had by all at the annual homecoming dance Saturday night.

The Trojans ran for the conversion in hopes of tying the score at that point, but the attempt failed.

The Rams controlled possession of the ball throughout much of the fourth quarter, but had their drive stalled with about three and one-half minutes to play. Hampshire took over and quickly moved down the field, with most of the distance covered by a 62-yard run by Duerr. Three plays later, Duerr scored his third touchdown of the evening, this time on a three-yard carry.

With 1:50 remaining the Rams had an opportunity to win the game, as they took the short ensuing kickoff at about midfield. They moved to just inside the Trojans' 30-yard line, but then lost their chance when a Trojan defender picked off a Fitzwater aerial on a play that featured a missed off-sides call against Hampshire by the officials.

"Overall, we played well enough to win the game," stated Ram Coach Fred Gregg. "But we didn't play well enough on certain downs that really cost us."

The Rams came out of the contest with "bumps and bruises" Gregg said, but no one was sidelined with an injury. Out for the season with injuries for the Rams are Josh and Andy Woods. Fabrice DuFour remains out this week with a shoulder injury.

According to Gregg, the Rams will need to play at the same level of intensity again this week if they hope to defeat cross-county rival the Northern Huskies Friday night at the Cove. "In addition, we are going to have to be able to come up with some big plays on offense and keep their big plays to a minimum," he said.

After several years of dominance by the Rams in the annual county clash, the Huskies' program has gained considerable strength in the past few years, making the annual brawl extremely close. The Rams won the 1991 contest, 8-3, and the Huskies were one-point victors last year, 23-22. The 4-1 Huskies will be a slight favorite this year; however, most Southern and Northern fans realize that records mean little in this game.

"Northern has so many offensive weapons and a very solid defense," Gregg said. "Their entire offensive backfield is capable of hurting you."

The backfield is anchored by senior quarterback Derek Mason (5-8, 150), senior fullback Tim Hinebaugh (6-0, 185), and seniors Larry Wakefield (5-10, 165) and Alan Sebold (5-11, 176) who alternate at tailback.

"Mason does everything well," Gregg said. "He can run, he can pass, and he runs the team very well. Hinebaugh is a good strong runner and Sebold and Wakefield are both excellent backs.

"Mason also has some very good targets in Rob Speicher (5-10, 140), Brad Williams (5-11, 158), and Ryan Folk (5-9, 140). All of these kids are real threats," he said.

The Husky defense, which is giving up an average of only five points per game, is led by its linebacking corps of Wakefield, Sebold, and Brett Newman (5-8, 172), as well as Bill Younkin (6-4, 200) at split end.

"This will be one of the best set of linebackers we will see all year," Gregg said.

When asked if he anticipated the usual emotional, tough contest again this year, Gregg said, "Oh, without a doubt. Both teams, I'm sure, will play very hard. They (the Northern coaching staff) will have their kids prepared to the nth degree. Obviously they do a very good job.

"But we are very anxious to play, too," he said.

When asked if his team was "down" following the loss to Hampshire, Gregg said, "No. You should only be down if you played terribly and lost. But we played very well last week.

"We have no quitters on our team; we will be ready and anxious to play every single week," he said.

Friday's kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m.

Ram Jayvees Whip Spartans

Behind a 130-yard, two-touchdown performance by Howard Crosco, the Southern High School junior varsity football team rolled over the Bishop Walsh jayvees, 22-0, last Thursday afternoon in Cumberland.

After a scoreless first quarter, Adam Moomau put the first points on the board for the Rams with a three-yard touchdown run. The run for the two-point conversion failed.

Crosco scored his first touchdown later in the same period on a 25-yard run and then ran for the conversion to give the Rams a 14-0 halftime lead.

Crosco scored all eight of the game's points in the second half on a 10-yard run and conversion carry in the third quarter.

Leading the 0-3 Spartans' attack were Justin DuVall, John Beem, Sean Kelly, and Justin Rice.

The Rams, who are now 1-1-1 on the season, will host Northern this evening. The first contest with the Huskies ended in a scoreless tie.

Huskies Blank Lions, 21-0, To Record Fourth Victory

After being edged by a tough Beall squad the previous week, the Northern High Huskies jumped back into the win column last Friday night by blanking host Tucker County, 21-0, to record their fourth win in five starts.

While the Husky offense had a productive night, it was the Northern defensive unit which continued to shine as it limited the Mountain Lions to just 69 yards of total offense. The stingy Husky defense is allowing an average of just five points per contest and has two shutouts.

Quarterback Derek Mason opened the scoring in the first quarter with an 11-yard touchdown run. Soccer standout Martin Strnad, who joined the Northern football team as a kicking specialist a few weeks ago, booted the extra point to give the Huskies a 7-0 advantage.

Mason threw for the Huskies' second touchdown, connecting with Pete Forno on a 40-yard strike in the second quarter. Strnad kicked the conversion to make it a 14-0 halftime score.

After a scoreless third quarter, the Huskies added an insurance touchdown in the fourth period when Larry Wakefield carried the ball in from the four. Strnad completed the game's scoring with his third point-after kick.

Alan Sebold spearheaded the Huskies 254-yard rushing effort by recording 159 yards on 20 carries. Mason threw for another 106 yards to give the Huskies 360 yards in total offense.

Pacing the Northern defensive effort was Wakefield, who finished with 10 tackles from his linebacker spot.

Sebold was named Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts, while Bob Fritz was selected Defensive Player of the Week, place kicker Martin Strnad was named Special Teams Player of the Week, and Larry Wakefield was presented the Hammer Award.

It was Tucker County's fifth straight defeat in as many games.

"We were really apprehensive about going down there to play," Northern Coach Tom Vent said, "and it was kind of an ugly win. We made a lot of mental mistakes and really didn't execute very well on offense. We had far too many penalties.

"But our defense played very well for us," he said.

The Huskies emerged from the game relatively healthy, Vent said, with the exception of Lee Collins who sustained a leg injury and is listed as "questionable" for this week. The team suffered a major loss in practice this week, however, as corner back and receiver Brad Williams was lost for the season with a shoulder separation.

While most of the odds makers will have the Huskies as the favorite going into their game this Friday night against county-rival Southern, Coach Vent is not nearly as confident.

"Southern's record is not a good indication of what kind of team they have," he said. "They have a fine program at Southern and I think this game is going to come down to a battle of the lines. They have a very good front five. Galen Glotfelty (5-11, 218) is as good as any in the area. And I've always liked J.R. Reams (also 5-11, 218). He's is a great kid and a solid football player. The Crosco boy (David, 5-10, 176) is an excellent linebacker.

"They also have very good skill people," he added.

When asked if his team will do anything differently against the Rams, Vent said, "We won't do anything differently, except maybe throw a little more. Derek (Mason) has been playing so well for us and we have pretty good skill and a lot of depth in our receivers."

Vent said he had some concerns this week about his players not staying focused on the task at hand as well as he would like. "But I'm sure our kids will be ready and will play very hard. Southern is still in the hunt for a playoff spot, so I know they are going to play hard, too. In fact, I would be disappointed if they didn't play us hard.

"There's no question it's a big game for us, and it should be a great game for the fans to watch," he said.

The kickoff at the Northern athletic field on Friday is set for 7:30 p.m.

Steelers Defeat Rams To Stay On Top Of League

The Northern Steelers maintained their grip on the top ranking in the Mt. Top Youth Football League and their undefeated record by defeating the Thomas-Davis Rams Saturday evening, 41-26, on the Southern High School athletic field.

Brad Mason scored three touchdowns for the Steelers, while teammate Joey Wilhelm recorded two and Scott Sisler scored one.

Sisler broke loose for a 33-yard touchdown run in the first quarter and also ran successfully for the extra point to open the scoring for the Steelers.

Wilhelm followed with his first TD midway through the period when he scooped up a fumble and raced 28 yards. Mason ran for the conversion to make it 14-0.

Then Mason scored his first of three touchdowns on a three-yard run late in the first period. John Snelling's conversion run made it 21-0.

The Rams got on the board early in the second period when Robbie Kight scored on a two-yard run and Mike Davis ran for the conversion.

The Steelers responded with another touchdown as Mason galloped in from 30 yards out. Jimmy Warnick's conversion run made the score 28-7.

Ram Jarred Milliron closed the first half scoring with a 65-yard touchdown run. The conversion attempt was no good.

The rest of the game's scoring occurred in the third quarter, as Mason led off with a 32-yard run. Davis came back with a 47-yard scoring run for the Rams to make the score 34-19.

Wilhelm then scored on a 26-yard run, and Sisler concluded the Steelers' scoring with another successful conversion run.

Thomas-Davis scored a final touchdown late in the period on a 63-yard run by Kight, who also ran for the conversion.

Defensive standouts for the Steelers were Matt Houser, Ryan Savage, Jed Wilhelm, and Josh Henderson.

The number-one Steelers will move into the league playoffs this Sunday afternoon at the Northern athletic field against the Oakland Raiders, the number four team. The kickoff is set for 1:30 p.m. The second game, slated to get underway at 3:30, will pit the second-ranked Oakland Jets against the number three seed Parsons Vikings.

Jets Top Raiders To Advance In League Playoffs

The Oakland Jets advanced into the semi-finals of the Mountain Top Youth Football League playoffs Saturday evening by blanking the Oakland Raiders, 13-0, on the Southern High athletic field. The contest was played in a driving rain storm and marred by numerous turnovers.

After several stalled drives and turnovers in the first quarter, the Jets finally put some points on the board in the second period. A drive that featured a 32-yard pass from Chad Warnick to Andy Seib and hard running by fullback Tommy Gank was capped by a one-yard touchdown run by Warnick. Seib hauled in a Warnick aerial for the extra point to give the Jets a 7-0 lead.

The Jets had another opportunity in the first half to add to their score when Oakland quarterback Derek Everd was sacked on his own nine-yard line on a fourth down play. But the Jets were unable to punch the ball into the end zone.

The first Jet drive of the second half was stopped by the Raider defense, but Warnick punted the ball 53 yards to pin the Raiders on their 12-yard line. The Jet defense held and forced a punt by the Raiders, which was returned 30 yards by Chris Gidley to the Raider 13. On the next play Gank broke loose for 10 yards and then scored on the following play. The conversion pass was picked off by a Raider defender.

Defensive standouts for the Jets were: Chuck O'Brian, Gank, Gidley, Warnick, and Seib. O'Brian had two fumble recoveries.

The Jets, seeded number two in the league, will play the third-ranked Parsons Vikings this Sunday, Oct. 10, at 3:30 p.m. on the Northern High School athletic field. The Raiders, who have also qualified for the semi-finals as the fourth rated team, will play the top-ranked Northern Steelers in the 1:30 contest.

Hearing To Be Held On Nontidal Fishing Regs

Maryland Department of Natural Resources (DNR) Secretary Torrey C. Brown, M.D., announced this week that a public hearing on the 1994 nontidal fishing regulations will be held on Wednesday, October 20, at 7 p.m. in the E-1 conference room of the Tawes State Office Building at 580 Taylor Avenue in Annapolis.

Proposed changes include amendments to the designated Put-and-Take and Catch-and-Return Trout Fishing Areas. Changes also include establishing limited harvest fishing in certain ponds and lakes, establishing a portion of the North Branch of the Potomac River as a Delayed Harvest Trout Fishing Area and establishing a new Put-and-Take/Catch-and-Release Trout Fishing Area for a portion of Owens Creek in Frederick County. The 1994 regulations also establish a 20-inch maximum size limit on walleye in the Potomac River mainstem from January 1 through April 15.

The following areas in Garrett County will be added to the list of Put-and-Take Trout Fishing Areas: the North Branch Potomac River mainstem from Jennings Randolph Lake upstream and approximately six miles to the lower most boundary of Potomac State Forest and the Youghiogheny River mainstem from the bridge at I-68 downstream approximately three miles to the Youghiogheny Reservoir.

The North Branch Potomac River from a red post located below a pool known as Blue Hole approximately 1.3 mile above Bench Mark 1110 on the Westernport USGS Quadrangle downstream approximately four miles to the confluence of Piney Swamp Run will be added to the list of Catch-and-Return Trout Fishing Areas limited to the use of artificial lures only.

The list of Delayed Harvest Trout Fishing Areas will now include the North Branch Potomac River mainstem, from the lowermost boundary (near Lostland Run) to the uppermost boundary (at Wallman) of Potomac State Forest (approximately 6.5 miles).

Written comments on the proposed regulations will be accepted by H. Robert Lunsford Jr., director, DNR Freshwater Fisheries Division, Tawes State Office Building, E-1, Annapolis, MD 21401, or by phone (410) 974-3061 until the close of business November 1.

Local Kayaker To Be Featured In ESPN-TV Special Filmed In Mexico

by Sherry Frantz

While most of Garrett County was trying to dig its way out of tremendous mounds of snow last March, Jeff Snyder, a resident of the Accident area, was in Mexico performing the breathtaking feat of kayaking down a 50-foot waterfall for a show being filmed for television titled "Rivers of the Maya," part of the ESPN Expedition Earth series. The show is scheduled to air Monday, October 18, from 9-10 p.m.

Jeff and his brother Jim, an Albright, W.Va. resident who designs kayaks and makes paddles, were selected for the expedition, having each been life-long river boating enthusiasts, with an impressive line of credits to their respective names.

Upon meeting Jeff, the burning questions of "Why" followed by "Are you crazy" seem to spontaneously surface from one's gut, especially the gut of one who has never experienced the white-water rapture.

Jeff, as might be expected, is ready with the answers.

First of all, he said, doing the show was a "once in a lifetime opportunity" that he just couldn't pass up. More significantly, he said, kayaking over a 50-foot waterfall in a primitive part of the world is "a way of earning the respect and admiration of your family and friends."

Fine, but there is still the question of the man's sanity. Crazy" is defined by Webster as "having flaws or cracks; shaky or rickety; unsound; mentally unbalanced; deranged." But Jeff seems quite sound and balanced in his thinking about his career.

"I could be considered nuts, I guess, but this is the only lifestyle I know. I've been a devoted boater since I was 7 years old, and I spend an average of between 150-200 (sometimes as many as 300) days a year on the river, so it's just been a matter of taking a few more steps each day until you're ready for the next adventure."

"Uh-huh," said the skeptic.

"After all," he continued, "some people might think it's crazy to live on the California coast or in the heart of New York City. It's all just a matter of perceptions."

"Hmmmm ," acquiesced the budding believer.

Brother Jim, has his own perceptions, cautioning those who might start to believe that Jeff is totally normal that "Jeff is radical by anybody's standards -- he stretches the envelope of the possible."

"I'm not the thrill-seeker I'm made out to be," stated Jeff, in his most sincere voice. "Innovative would be a better description."

"The man swam the rapids at Swallow Falls when the tide was the highest, and has swum the bulk of the toughest rivers in the eastern United States," said Jeff's older brother. "He's a fishy character."

Jeff did concede that he was a "little scared" after he broke his neck, but quickly added that he had more of an aversion to the hospital brand of healing ("being cooped up in a room with no fresh air") than to the prospect of going back to the river.

When he was asked what he thought about those few fearless souls who had somehow decided to plunge from the top of the 200-foot high Niagara Falls in a barrel, he responded that such a feat is "suicidal."

Now we're getting somewhere.

Jeff has been featured in various magazines, including Patagonia and Paddler, has done television specials for National Geographic and P.M. Magazine, and has filmed a commercial for the West Virginia Department of Tourism.

During the Mexico whitewater trip, Jeff "warmed up" to the 50-foot waterfall by kayaking down a 25-foot waterfall on one of the sections of the Santa Domingo River. Since Jeff was the first person to conquer that waterfall, he named it "Temptation," noting that the smaller one was what he calls a "fun size."

It was on the Usumacinta River where, after only being able to slip his paddle into the water to determine its depth, he maneuvered his kayak down the 50-foot falls. Since the extent of his information about the water's depth was that it was at least 3 to 4 feet, Jeff was forced to begin leveling out the kayak sooner than he should have to avoid colliding with rocks. Because of that, further damage was done to his back, he said.

Jeff had the honor of naming that waterfall also, choosing "Air Time."

He recalls being "very homesick" during the three and one-half weeks in this third-world country, especially after he heard about the "great blizzard of 1993" that had taken place back home. "My best friend Michelle was stuck here by herself and I had only left enough wood for about a week. I was very worried about her, but I was also very proud of her when I got back and realized that she had managed quite well by herself," he said.

Brother Jim's experience in Mexico's wilderness area had its high and low moments as well. He explained that he was completely overwhelmed by the severe poverty that surrounded him.

"I wish someone would have slapped me before I left and made me realize that I really was going to be in a third-world country where a 40-year-old man works hard all his life to finally afford a tin roof on his house with a dirt floor, and where children are ecstatic just to have happened onto a pair of second-hand sneakers from America," said Jim.

He noted that what most people call poverty is actually leagues beyond what he saw while in Mexico.

Jim, who has had a 12-year career as a river guide, described his role in the Mexico expedition as one of "lesser participation," and although he obviously enjoys all the thrills of kayaking, he seemed to hint that he was not quite as physically adventurous as his brother.

During the expedition, some major spelunking was filmed in the El Chorreadorro Cave. Jim did not participate because he suffers from acrophobia, but had decided to observe.

"When they went into the cave, I started watching them go down this hairy traverse," recalled Jim. It made me feel like I wanted to leave -- and I did."

Although Jim's career as a whitewater guide was probably not without its glory, he has now become quite well-known as a premier designer of kayaks and as a paddle-maker. He now owns his own company, Preferred Modes, which is located behind the house he shares with his wife Doris and their two young children, Nathan and Amelia Marie. Jim has been designated by the experts as the "the most successful squirt-boat builder," his designs have been used exclusively in the National Squirt Championships for the past two years.

Last year, Jim's kayaking skills won for him the first place award in a group of 25 competitors in last year's event.

Jeff and Jim are considered the "partial forefathers" of the squirt boat, which was originally developed as a "play boat," according to Jim.

Squirt boating is a "wield sub-sport" of kayaking, he said, and the vessel acts "like an underwater wing."

Jeff added that the squirt boat is designed not to float, providing more of a "three-dimensional" boating experience. He noted that he and his brother had observed some boaters "squirt boating" some time ago, "saw the potential, gave chase to it, and went past it."

Jim reported that his design of the first "Tupperware" squirt boat (one crafted from plastic rather than fiberglass) has just hit the market, and he is currently in the process of obtaining a patent on his inflatable, or pneumatic, cockpit system.

He stated that his company is one of the few in the United States importing products to Japan. In fact, a multi-million dollar life jacket company in Japan, Takashina, will be flying him to Japan shortly after he competes again in the National Squirt Championships October 16-17, on the Ocoee River in Kentucky.

Jeff's artistic talents also extend beyond his life on the river. He has crafted an impressive array of carved wooden items that he hopes to display soon at an art gallery scheduled to locate in Friendsville.

Each brother, in his own way, has not only found a niche for himself in the art world, but have both contributed greatly to the sport and spirit of whitewater boating. Area residents should make the effort to catch one of their shining moments in the upcoming ESPN television feature.

Brief encounters with either one of these Cleveland natives, who came to love the wild beauty inherent in this region, are enough to be able to understand their enthusiastic reverence to the forces of nature, and their ability to glean the ultimate pleasure from it. It's probably a safe bet that neither of them will ever stop challenging their own limitations.

"TEMPTATION" is the name Jeff Snyder chose for this particular waterfall, pictured above left, that is located in the Sante Domingo River in Mexico (the whitewater rule being that if you're the first to do it, you get to name it). Jeff, along with his brother Jim Snyder, Albright, W.Va., were chosen to participate in a whitewater expedition being filmed for ESPN-TV. The show will air Monday, October 18, at 9 p.m. Jeff (at left) and Jim are shown above right during one of the quieter moments during the Mexico whitewater trip last March. Jim is shown below right in his shop in Albright where he makes paddles and designs kayaks.

Huskies Remain Unbeaten; Top BW And Beall

The Northern High School volleyball team upped its record to a perfect 7-0 this past week by defeating visiting Bishop Walsh on Monday, 3-0, and then crushing Beall last night, 3-0, also at the Cove.

The Husky junior varsity team is likewise unbeaten in seven starts, defeating both Bishop Walsh and Beall by 2-0 scores.

The Northern varsity topped Bishop Walsh by scores of 15-7, 15-11, and 15-10

Northern jumped out to a 13-4 lead in the first game and won on a game point by Kandi Buckel. The Huskies led throughout the second game, but the Spartans stayed close. Two aces by Emma Tan closed the gap to 12-11, but Northern captain Lisa Stephens put the game away with three straight points, including one ace.

Four straight points by Buckel gave the Huskies a 7-3 lead in the third game, but again the Spartans rallied and pulled to within one point at 12-11. Points by Stephanie Kamp, Ellida Schofield, and Alison Buckel ended the match in favor of the Huskies.

Kandi Buckel and Stephens led the Huskies with 10 points each and Kamp had nine. Amy Platter paced the offense with 11 spikes, while the defense was led by Kandi and Alison Buckel, Schofield, and Wrenny Smith. The Huskies served with 96 percent efficiency.

The Northern jayvee team won the preliminary

TAE KWON DO IN RUSSIA - A delegation of Tae Kwon Do students of local instructor Tonay Artice, recently toured in Russia and the Ukraine. Blue Lawless, a friend of Artice's from Moscow, help to arrange the trip and demonstrations. Artice explained they made the trip to instruct the art of Tae Kwon Do to Russians as sports are important to that country, especially for Olympic competition. Artice said that, in the past, the KGB practiced the martial arts. While in Russia and the Ukraina, Artice and his three students along with the remaining American demonstration team, performed for the Ministry of Security, at the Kremlin, the Military Academy, the Sports Center, an army base near Kiev, and for the CSK and the public in the Ukraine. While those attending found the trip quite rewarding, there were some tense situations the team members found themselves involved in on numerous occasions. Some of them were arrested and apparently threatened to be shot when they went to get gas and became lost. Since they didn't have enough money to bribe the officers, they were taken to a jail. Finally, a phone call to the American Embassy gave them their freedom. Artice said visitors must constantly bribe officials or say, for instance, be thrown off a moving train (which is what happened to some of the Americans). "It seems that no matter what you're doing, you're breaking the law," said one team member. One member lost his Visa and was able to bribe his way through with $100. Artice also said there were some cases of food poisoning. "Everything in Russia is based for the government, not the people," said Artice. "I will probably go back, however, to help train the Ukraine martial arts team." Pictured above are members of the American team with a Russian Army unit. Local members identified are Artice, first from the left kneeling, Steve Lindner, fourth from the left; Steve Dodd, center; and Tony Logan, second from the right. Below, Logan kicks at his would-be aggressors as an Army Special Force unit looks on. Above, far right, Artice defends himself against Blue Lawless in a demonstration for the public.

DeBerry led the Lakers in the first game against New Kensington with eight service points, including two aces, and went four-for-five in service receptions.

In the second game, Butt had two aces and went 11-for-11 in sets, Taylor was seven-for-seven in hits with three kills, Deshong was seven-for-seven in hits, and Wachter went six-for-eight in service receptions

Coldwell Banker Firm Providing Fire Safety Info

A local real estate firm is participating in the Coldwell Banker "Be Fire Safe' It Starts at Home" week, which is a program held in conjunction with National Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 3-9.

Coldwell Banker Deep Creek Realty sales associates are providing homeowners with fire safety tips to help protect their families and property from fire. In cooperation with the Garrett County Board of Education and several local fire departments, Deep Creek Realty has provided fire prevention materials to local kindergarten and first grade students and, where requested, presentations to entire elementary schools.

Personnel from the Oakland, Gorman, Friendsville, and Grantsville fire departments have been taking pumpers and various apparatus for the students to see. Volunteer fire fighters, a fire science student Birgitta Jonson, and Brad Frantz, director of the Garrett County Office of Emergency Management, have been making presentations about fire prevention, safety tips, and the 911 telephone emergency system. Also assisting are Phil Rook, Oakland VFD first assistant chief, and Ernie Hinebaugh, Oakland fire fighter.

Participating schools include Grantsville, Broad Ford, Red House, Crellin, Loch Lynn, Friendsville, and Accident elementary schools, and Swan Meadow School.

"Get out, stay out. Your fire safe response" is the 1993 theme of the National Fire Prevention Association, which advises persons to vacate burning buildings immediately and not re-enter them in the event of a fire.

Super roast chicken has a sliced onion and lots of sliced garlic in the cavity for flavor, and a bunch of watercress, chopped, tucked under the skin. Bake at 350 degrees, basting often.

Mesquite takes longer than charcoal to get to cooking heat. Start the fire 1½ hours before you need to cook.

American's eat more meat than people in any other country in the world, an average of 11 ounces a day. The advice of health experts, though, is to limit consumption to no more than 6 ounces of flesh foods-including poultry and fish-per day.

Try this dramatic-and so easy-decoration for a chocolate cake. Melt 1 ounce white chocolate in a plastic bag, snip a tiny hole in one corner, and drizzle criss-crossed white lines across the cake.

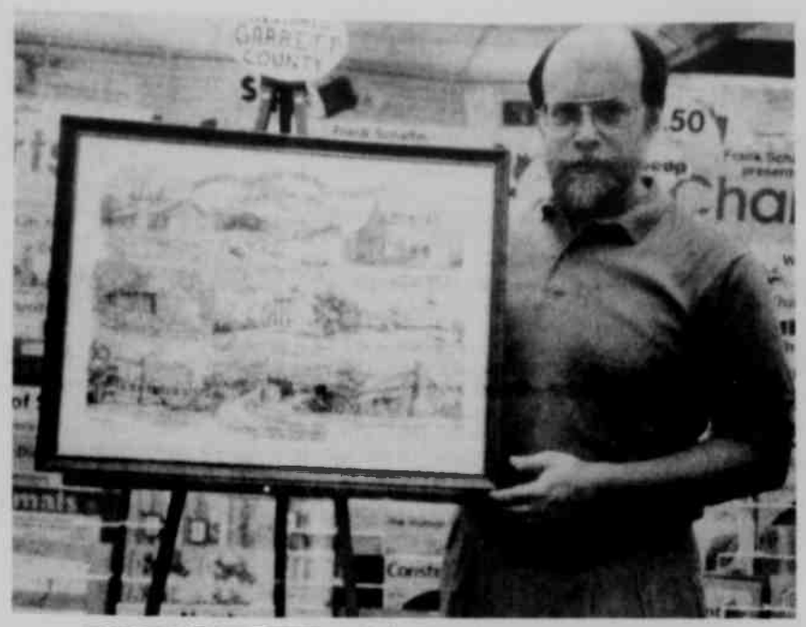
Color Prints Of Historic County Sites Available

Al Feldstein, Cumberland, has announced the availability of an 18x24 inch, standard frame size full-color print featuring nine historic sites throughout Garrett County.

The work includes the Mountain Lake Park Amphitheater, Casselman Hotel, Drane House, Deer Park Hotel, Casselman River Bridge, Garrett County Court House, Loch Lynn Heights Hotel, Deep Creek Lake Bridge, and Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Station at Oakland.



There are only 800 numbered prints, each signed by the artist, Emily Wittman.

The works are available at the Book Mark'et in Oakland and Penn Alps in Grantsville.

Feldstein stated that this historic print represents another element of his continuing series of projects that attempt to promote local history and create awareness within the community concerning rich Western Maryland heritage. Feldstein noted, "In keeping the price of the print low, we not only make a quality work of art available to a lot more folks, but also provide an historical message and something locally to take pride in."

In 1984, and again in 1988, Feldstein published two historic postcard albums of Garrett County, both of which sold out. His Garrett County video on local history was released in 1991.

Feldstein will be at the Broad Ford Elementary School Craft Show both days during Autumn Glory with his prints of Historic Garrett County.

HISTORIC GARRETT COUNTY, a limited edition print depicting nine historic Garrett County sites, is now available. The work is the latest effort by Al Feldstein, above, to promote local history. There are only 800 numbered prints available, each signed by the artist, Emily Wittman.

Northern Garrett Republican Women's Club Convenes

The Northern Garrett County Republican Women's Club met Sept. 28 in the Mt. Zion Methodist Church social room. The speaker was Commander Cynthia R. Smith from the LaVale police barracks.

A nearly 12-year veteran of the police force, Ms. Smith gained recognition when she was promoted to lieutenant and named the first female officer commissioned in the state police force. She gave a summary of her schooling and counties where she has worked. Ms. Smith was instrumental in arranging the "Trooper On Board" program in which state police officers ride school buses, mainly to make sure other drivers obey the red flashing signals.

Ms. Smith spoke about law and order to the club members, and stressed that there should be community involvement along with the police force, and a line of communication between the community and those in charge of law enforcement.

The business meeting followed the officer's presentation, and President Carolyn Ganoe asked for volunteers to work in Rep. Roscoe Bartlett's office in Frostburg. The Christmas luncheon was discussed and the location will be decided at the next meeting, which will be Oct. 26 at Mt. Zion. The annual auction will be held at this meeting.

All members are asked to be present for the auction, and if that is impossible, to send items or a donation for the event.

Rash Of Thefts Reported To GC Sheriff's Office

Several cases of theft have been reported to the Garrett County Sheriff's Office in the past week involving several breaking and entering incidents. The stolen items' worth is several thousand dollars, according to the reports.

For the third time in several months, Sisler Lumber, Inc., Oakland, has been broken into and items removed. Sometime between noon on Oct. 2 and 6 a.m. on Oct. 4, culprits entered the building and removed chainsaws, a heater, and several other items, with a total value of $2,729. The locks on two basement doors were apparently cut off, and an upstairs door was pried open.

An intense investigation is underway in the case.

In another incident, an Evenrude boat motor valued at $1,100 was taken from the property of James R. Duckworth, Swanton, sometime between 12:30 and 11 a.m. on Oct. 1. Also stolen from the victim were a six-gallon gas can, a Diehard 12-volt battery, and two fishing poles with reels, valued at a total of $169.

Duckworth told police that his boat was in the front yard of his Swanton home when the thefts took place.

THE BAKING HAS BEGUN - Once again, the Civic Club of Oakland is busy preparing lots of delicious apple pies to be offered for sale during the 20th Annual Civic Club Antique Show and Sale that will be held during all three days of the Autumn Glory Festival at National Guard Armory in Oakland. The antique show will be open from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Friday and Saturday, and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Sunday. Lunch is available and there will be free parking and a $1 admission fee.

Samuel Savage contacted police this week when he discovered an apparent breaking, entering, and theft at a home in the Youghiogheny Mountain Resort owned by Charles Brooks, Dundalk.

Stolen from the home was a television, two Kawasaki four-wheelers, an ATV helmet, three chainsaws, a weed-eater, and a portable radio. The total loss was listed at $1,115. The crime took place sometime between Sept. 6-30. The basement door was apparently forced open to gain entry.

A recent break-in at the Penn Oaks subdivision, Deep Creek Lake, was reported by Sean Fridley. The home, owned by Jan Luigard, Beltsville, was entered through a basement door and chainsaws and chains were stolen. The loss was set at $500.

A Delcro brand radio was apparently stolen from a 1993 Chevy Blazer parked at Hutton Auto, Oakland. Also stolen were windshield wipers for a 1984 Ford Ranger. The loss was estimated to be $355, according to the report. Jeff Gank reported the theft, which apparently took place on the night of Sept. 28-29.

Keith A. Snyder, Mtn. Lake Park, reported the theft of a 26" Murray 10-speed bicycle. The bike was apparently taken from Snyder's porch on Sept. 27. It is black with silver stripes, and is valued at $130.

Bear Euthanized

age, but that "the situation with livestock is different. Nothing in nature is guaranteed 100% but when a bear kills livestock there is a good chance it will begin travelling from farm to from killing more livestock. That's what happened five or six years ago."

He reported, however, that if livestock were killed on a person's property, and the landowner requested that the responsible bear not be euthanized, DNR would likely honor that request.

"Every case has to be judged on its own merit," he concluded.

Sheriff's Office Arrests Noted

The Garrett County Sheriff's Office logged various arrests this week on charges including breaking and entering, leaving the scene of an accident, and CDS (controlled dangerous substance) possession.

Kenneth W. Elsey, 29, Oakland, was arrested on the strength of a warrant this week. Elsey is accused of breaking into a home in the Youghiogheny Mountain Club in January.

Curtis L. DeWitt, 20, Oakland, was arrested on the charge of breaking and entering. He allegedly broke into the Moose Lodge on June 9 of this year.

A Baltimore woman was charged by police after she left the scene of an accident. Carolyn M. Nantz, 35, apparently wrecked her 1991 Isuzu Stylus in Kitzmiller on Oct. 3. The vehicle was discovered stuck over a stone wall and abandoned shortly after the accident.

When Nantz was located, officers found that she was driving with a suspended license. She was charged with negligent driving, leaving the scene, and driving suspended.

An Oakland teenager was charged Oct. 3 with possession of CDS. Andrew Eiswert, 18, was stopped at 3:18 a.m. on Second Ave for a safety equipment violation. He was found to be in possession of a suspected CDS, according to the report.

Lonnie H. Shaffer, 54, Aurora, W.Va., was charged with DWI (driving while intoxicated) on Oct. 2. He was stopped on Rt. 219 south of Oakland and reportedly failed all field sobriety tests. He signed the citation and was taken home.

Respiratory Care Week Underway

The American Association for Respiratory Care (AARC) has announced that Respiratory Care Week is now underway, October 3-9. The theme for the week is "Respiratory Care Cares."

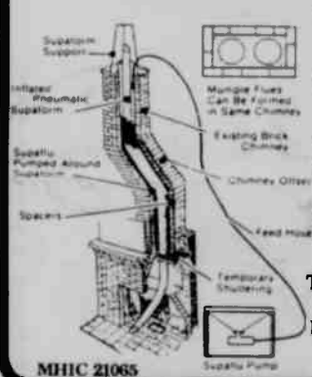
The AARC is the professional association for respiratory therapists and technicians and others involved in pulmonary and respiratory related fields. Respiratory care practitioners work with patients in hospitals, the home, and nursing homes.

"National Respiratory Care Week gives the AARC opportunity to increase awareness of the respiratory care profession and the importance of respiratory health," said Sam Giordano, the AARC's executive director. "This year we are focusing on all of the various roles that respiratory care practitioner play in helping people breathe easier."

The AARC has for many years been active in supporting programs and issues that deal with respiratory health promotion and disease prevention. The AARC was instrumental in the successful passage of recent legislation banning smoking on all national airline flights.

In addition to the public health issues the AARC will focus on during the week, many respiratory care practitioners will use this opportunity to recognize and reflect on the work that respiratory care practitioners do across the country. Eric Tribbey, director of cardiopulmonary services at Garrett County Memorial Hospital, said that his department has been involved in celebrating each year. "I believe we need to make time for Respiratory Care Week. Often, we get so involved with day-to-day work that we lose contact with the significance of our efforts and what we represent. It's good to periodically step back to view the big picture and put our mission into perspective," said Tribbey.

The AARC is a professional membership association for respiratory therapists and technicians. Respiratory care practitioners work under the direction of a physician and assist in the diagnosis, treatment, and management of patients with pulmonary disorders. The AARC provides educational programs for the respiratory care community and works to promote the art and science of the respiratory care profession.



RESPIRATORY CARE WEEK PROCLAIMED - The Garrett County Commissioners have proclaimed October 3-9 as Respiratory Care Week, urging all citizens to be aware of the contributions made by the members of this profession for health care services. Respiratory Therapy is recognized as one of the fastest growing allied health professions and an essential part of the health care team. The therapy assists in diagnosing diseases of the lungs by pulmonary function studies and blood gas analysis, and specializes in the treatment of disorders such as emphysema, asthma, chronic bronchitis, drowning, heart attack, cystic fibrosis, and croup. The American Association for Respiratory Therapy represents more than 25,000 professionals continuously serving the nation's health care needs. Shown in the above photo, standing left to right, are Fred Callis, C.R.T.T., mobile medical technician; Randy Crabtree, R.R.T., mobile medical assistant director; Linda Nazelrod, R.R.T., cardiopulmonary assistant director, and Eric Tribbey, R.R.T., cardiopulmonary director. Seated, same order, are the Garrett County Commissioners Brenda Butcher, Elwood Groves, and John Braskey.

MENTAL ILLNESS AWARENESS WEEK PROCLAIMED - The Garrett County Commissioners have proclaimed the week of October 3-9 as Mental Illness Awareness Week and have joined the National Alliance for the Mentally Ill (AMI) and the American Psychiatric Association in its observance. The commissioners support efforts to increase scientific knowledge about mental illness and to improve care for those affected by it. According to the proclamation, "serious mental illness exacts a large price from our community in lost productivity, treatment costs, social dependence, and its devastating effect on individuals and families affected." Communities must cope with the ever-increasing number of persons released from psychiatric hospitals who are unable to care for themselves and have no adequate programs or services to turn to, and the fear and stigma attached to mental illness have contributed to the shortage of research dollars and services, according to the proclamation. Shown in the above photo, standing, is Jerry Cox, board member of the local AMI chapter. Seated, left to right, are the Garrett County Commissioners Brenda Butcher, Elwood Groves, and John Braskey.

New Dentist Joins Dental Health Group

Dr. W. Charles McLuckie has joined the Dental Health Group, Oakland, and began practicing in August at that facility. His practice is limited to orthodontics for children and adults.

McLuckie earned his doctor of dental surgery degree, magna cum laude, from the University of Maryland Dental School in 1988. From 1988 through 1990, he served as a lieutenant in the U.S. navy Dental Corps. The first year he served his general practice residency at Portsmouth Naval Hospital, and served his second year as a dental officer on the USS Iwo Jima in Norfolk, Va.

He specialized in orthodontics and completed his master of science degree in oral biology at the University of Buffalo, N.Y., from 1991 through 1993. He began practicing orthodontics by opening a practice in LaVale in April of this year. McLuckie maintains his practice in LaVale while practicing with the Dental Health Group in Oakland on Fridays.

He resides in Frostburg with his wife, Kelly, and their 3-year-old daughter and three-month-old son.

MML Publishes Cookbook; Local Recipes Included

Home Town Cooking is a new cookbook featuring favorite recipes contributed by city and town officials from every municipality in the State of Maryland.

"The 220-page cookbook is a collection of almost 500 recipes for cooks, young and old, the beginner and the gourmet," stated a spokesman for the Maryland Municipal League. "Some recipes are original, most are long-time family favorites; several reflect other regions and nationalities. All have been tested and enjoyed by the contributors and residents of their cities and towns."

Home Town Cooking includes 17 recipes from municipal officials in Garrett County. Oakland town officials contributed recipes from Bacon Roll-Ups, Deer Camp Chili, English Cottage Loaf and Angel Biscuits; Mountain Lake Park officials submitted recipes for Herb Dip for Raw Vegetables, Ragout of Beef, Soft Cake Icing, Caramels, Chocolate Peanut Drops and Apple Butter; Kitzmiller town officials sent recipes for Bishop Salad and Pumpkin Roll; Grantsville contributed recipes for Hamburger Casserole and Brown Sugar Pound Cake; Friendsville sent a recipe for Sour Cream Coffee Cake; Deer Park for Beef Porcupines; and Accident contributed a recipe for Chinese Hash.

Home Town Cooking is a publication of the Maryland Municipal League and all proceeds will benefit MML's scholarship fund. Last year MML awarded $6,700 in scholarships to students pursuing studies and careers in local government. To order Home Town Cooking, persons should send a check for $12 (payable to MML Scholarship Fund) to: MML, 1212 West Street, Annapolis, MD 21401.

The Maryland Municipal League is a non-profit, non-partisan association representing 150 city and town governments and four special taxing districts throughout Maryland. MML works to strengthen the role and capacity of municipal government through a program of services that include legislative representation, research, training and technical assistance.

A Day of Hope

I relish each moment of this autumn day as I crush crusty leaves underfoot. The sun is bright and warm, and the young trees lining my walkway appear to wave and bow to greet me, prompted by a crisp, invigorating breeze.

Following several dismally dark days of dampness, this day is one of clear blue skies enhanced by strands of angel hair clouds.

Several trees are already beginning to lose the first layers of their colorful autumn costumes; yet this day does not speak of loss, but of the hope that only God can provide.

Experience that hope and happiness this autumn and all through the year as God's steeples and chimes beckon to us each Sabbath.

Each day the Creator sends is a day of hope. Look around you. Job 12:8 tells us, "Speak to the earth and it shall teach thee."

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

THIS OFFER EXPIRES... October 10, 1993

Background Scripture:
Genesis 17

Devotional Reading:
Genesis 17:1-15

Put yourself in Abram's place. He was 99 years old. His life was virtually over. Despite God's promise which he had trusted, he still had no son and heir. Then God comes to him and says again, "Behold my covenant is with you, and you shall be the father of a multitude of nations" (17:4).

What would your reaction be? Some people would be angry. Not only had God not kept his promise, but now he was heaping further insult by reiterating it at a time when it was obviously impossible to keep. Not allowing themselves the reaction of anger, others would hear the promise and conclude that all their faith had been for nothing.

HE LAUGHS

So what did Abram do? He "fell on his face and laughed" (17:17). Actually, in dealing with God one needs a sense of humor, as God must need one in dealing with us. The sheer absurdity of God's promise caused Abram to breakup. It is with amusement that he ask, "Shall a child be born to a man who is a hundred years old? Shall Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear a child?" Come on, God, you're pulling my leg!

Actually, God's promises to us often seem equally absurd. When we have lost the job in which we've spent 30 years, the assurance that he will see us through this experience begins to seem empty if one after another prospective employer tells they have no place for us. When its obvious that nothing or no one is going to be able to save our marriage, what's the good of trusting in God? When our doctor tells us our career is inoperable and we've got only a few weeks to live, what good is our trust in God?

The answer to Abram's faith was not the birth of his son Isaac, but that God had a purpose for Abram and nothing could keep that purpose from being fulfilled. God promised to make Abram the father of many nations, not for Abram's sake, but for his own. His promise of inheriting Canaan was not to make Abram to feel like a winner in the cosmic lottery, but because it served God's plan. Abram and Sarah would have a child, not so that they could boast of God's favor, but so that Isaac could serve God's purpose too.

WHAT GOD PROMISES

I'm sure there are couples every bit as faithful, or more, who remain childless. That does not mean they are loved any less by God. Nor does it mean that he is any less faithful in keeping his promises. The specifics of our lives--whether we marry, whether we keep this job or that, whether we have children, whether we live to a ripe old age--are generally not part of God's promise to us. What God does promise each of us is that he had a purpose for our lives, and he will be with us no matter what happens along the way to the fulfillment of that purpose.

God established an everlasting covenant with Abraham and his descendants. "I shall establish my covenant with him (Isaac) as an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him" (17:19). A covenant is an agreement between a superior and an inferior. It is offered by the superior. The inferior can either accept it or reject, but this is not a quid pro quo transaction. God always offers so much more than he requires of us. And that is why, even when we break the covenant, God does not call it null and void. It is an offer that has no expiration on it.

These firms invite YOU to a House of Worship each week.

EVERYBODY TALKS ABOUT POOR HEALTH

But unlike the weather, you can do something about it. Even though the human body can take a great amount of abuse, it sometimes calls for help. When it develops minor pain or discomfort that goes away but returns, if you suddenly begin to lose weight or energy, these are danger signals.

Without delay, visit a physician for a health check-up. It takes medical knowledge to find out what is wrong and how to properly help your body enjoy better health. Your physician has this ability.

COVER STORY

'Heartbeat' examines GM's history, future

BY BRETT ALAN BOBO

The rise, decline and attempted comeback of one of America's largest employers — General Motors — are chronicled in "The Heartbeat of America." This season premiere episode of "Frontline" marks the series' 12th season and airs on many PBS affiliates Tuesday, Oct. 12 (check local listings).

The documentary, co-produced by the Center for Investigative Reporting, examines GM's history, but many of the automaker's top executives declined formal interviews. (Viewers may remember Michael Moore's quest in "Roger and Me.") The film's producer, Steve Talbot, was disappointed by GM's lack of cooperation.

"We wanted to get inside General Motors and tell the story from the inside out," Talbot says. "But after 10 months of negotiating ... they wouldn't give us even an interview. We were left telling the story as thoroughly as we possibly could without them."

Despite GM executives' refusal to grant interviews, the film contains a lot of footage of executives speaking at public events, and Talbot says they are generally friendly and accessible when approached informally.

The idea for producing "Heartbeat" came last fall, he says, when several of America's largest companies, including IBM and Sears, Roebuck and Co., experienced financial difficulty.

"The reason we picked General Motors is it's the big, epic American saga," Talbot says.

During the initial stages of the film's production, GM also underwent a "dramatic boardroom shakeup," he says. That shakeup saw the ouster of general manager Roger Smith and the naming of Jack Smith, whose tenure at the European division had led to a profit, as president.

A segment of the documentary was filmed at GM's 1993 stockholders' meeting in Oklahoma, where Jack Smith's management team presents an optimistic message after last year's $23.5 billion loss.

President Bill Clinton and GM president Jack Smith

Closely tied to GM's fate is President Bill Clinton's plan for economic recovery. Talbot says, and the film covers various sides of this relationship.

"Heartbeat" also looks at several obstacles facing GM as it tries to make a comeback, including a mandate from the California Air Resources Board. This mandate requires a certain percentage of an automaker's cars sold in California to meet strict emissions standards beginning in 1998, or dealers will not be allowed to sell any of that manufacturer's vehicles.

Among the notables appearing on film are billionaire Ross Perot, consumer advocate Ralph Nader and attorney Elmer Johnson, who discuss their experiences, and differences, with the company.

The documentary also features public radio's Tom and Ray Magliozzi, the hosts of "Car Talk," who have both praise and criticism for several of GM's newer models.

In addition, the film takes an in-depth look at what GM's Saturn division does differently from other divisions in the company, as well as some of the controversy surrounding the closing of the company's plant in Ypsilanti, Mich.

Reynolds plays Jack, a homeless amnesiac who is adopted by a group of underprivileged boys as their little league baseball coach. Jack eventually whips the ragtag bunch into a competitive team, winning the affections of waitress Nancy Lee (Reba McEntire), mother of one of the boys, along the way. Reynolds also directs the film.

'I Am a Promise' profiles inner-city success story

BY DAN RICE

Most inner-city schools, which receive minimal levels of property tax-based funds, are unable to overcome an environment of deteriorated housing and families, drug addiction and rampant unemployment. "I Am a Promise: The Children of Stanton Elementary School," airing Monday, Oct. 11, on HBO, profiles a learning oasis in Philadelphia that could serve as a role model.

Alan and Susan Raymond's 90-minute documentary examines how Stanton created academic success stories. One working experiment targeted the low self-esteem of inner-city males with an all-boys first-grade class taught by a male teacher, John Coates.

The film portrays principal Deanna Burney as the prime force behind Stanton's effectiveness. An educator who taught her students that they were "talented, intelligent and gifted," Burney's spirit of motivation and the special attention she gave her students earned their love and respect. She spent her weekends cleaning and painting the dilapidated school building while providing a sixth school day for those who needed it. Maintenance work wasted too much of the time she wanted to give her students, and after her repeated requests for adequate building maintenance and a much-needed assistant were denied, she felt forced to resign.

Burney says a more pervasive issue than funding is "changing the conversation, talking about relationships, talking about race and culture, talking about values. We have to agree to agree that all of the children belong to all of us. I do think we are our brother's keeper as far as our children are concerned."

Q: What's the story with Park Overall's spinoff from "Empty Nest"? -M.G., Baton Rouge, La.

Q: How is Kristy McNichol doing? For me, "Empty Nest" isn't the same without her. I hope she will be back someday soon. -Daisy DuPerron, Yucaipa, Calif.

A: The good news is that Kristy reportedly is recovering from her health problems, but there are no plans for her to rejoin "Empty Nest," which has been radically revamped this season. Many of those changes were made in anticipation of Overall's spinoff, which she tells me is in limbo at the moment. Right now, she says she's having a blast with new cast members Marsha Warfield ("Night Court") and Estelle Getty, in her "Golden Girls" role of Sophia Petrillo. Gone are Emily (Lisa Rieffel) and Patrick (Paul Provenza). Whether Overall's nurse LaVerne Todd ultimately stays on "Nest" or moves to a new series, rest assured that feisty fireball Park will slam-dunk any writer who tries to use her TV character to malign Southerners. To thank her for that, M.G., write "Empty Nest," NBC-TV, 3000 W. Alameda Ave., Burbank, Calif. 91523. This Tennessee-born lady absolutely adores her fans and answers her mail personally.

Q: Is the little boy on "Roseanne" really her son? They look so much alike. -M.S., Tucson, Ariz.

A: I agree, the resemblance is spooky, but Michael Fishman is not related to Roseanne Arnold. Ditto for the remarkable mother-and-son team of Kathy Baker and Adam Wiley of "Picket Fences."

Q: Please settle a longtime dispute between my cousin, her husband and me. My cousin and I could swear we saw a Barbara Walters interview with Patrick Swayze and that he is John Wayne's son. If so, please print it so my cousin-in-law will shut up. -Tony Shepard, Caldwell, Idaho.

Kristy McNichol

A: I don't think he's likely to shut up on this particular topic, Tony. Swayze did appear on a Walters interview in which he very poignantly, and tearfully, talked about his late father ... who was not John Wayne. I don't know how the Wayne rumor got grafted onto the Swayze interview, but if it helps, you and your cousin are far from being the only people laboring under this misconception.

Q: Would you be so kind as to settle an argument that I have going on with my husband and son? I read somewhere that Robert Conrad is Peter Falk's son. -S.T., Sanford, N.C.

A: Let me put it this way: Falk was 7 years old when Conrad was born in 1935.

"I have a physical need to be near water," said Billy Joel when asked why he recorded his latest album, "River of Dreams," at his Long Island home. "Maybe it's the sweep of the horizon and having a clear vision of things. Maybe it's the primeval relation to salt water or the fact that I grew up on Long Island."

PBS examines the creative process behind the new album in "Billy Joel: Shades of Grey," an episode of "In the Spotlight" airing Wednesday, Oct. 13.

CABLE OVERVIEW

Disney hails Yearwood; Emery says farewell

BY JOHN CROOK

A rising young country music star is featured in her own music special when "Trisha Yearwood: The Song Remembers When" has its Disney Channel premiere on Sunday, Oct. 10.

From the Tennessee Performing Arts Center in Nashville and nearby Belle Meade Plantation, Yearwood performs four songs from her new album, including the title track, "The Song Remembers When." She also sings many of her familiar hits, such as "Down on My Knees," "The Woman Before Me," "She's in Love With the Boy," "Walk Away Joe" and an acoustic version of "Hearts in Armor."

In addition to the musical numbers, the young singer talks candidly about her rapid rise to fame, as well as the inspirations for many of her songs.

"Fans identify with the music, but (at a live performance) they always want to know more — they try to get a little more of the personality," she says. "Hopefully, they'll walk away knowing me a little better."

Another familiar face in country music, Ralph Emery, wraps up his 10-year career as host of "Nashville Now" with a week of broadcasts from the Fiesta Texas theme park in San Antonio. These final programs air beginning Monday, Oct. 11, on The Nashville Network.

"Hosting 'Nashville Now' has been a dream come true for me," Emery says. "I've had the opportunity to rub shoulders with entertainment legends such as Jimmy Stewart, political leaders including then-President Bush and now President Clinton, and country's hottest performers."

Trisha Yearwood

"The Legend of Prince Valiant," winner of the distinguished Humanitas Children's Animation Award, returns to The Family Channel for a new season starting Sunday. Guest voices this season include Teri Garr, Blair Underwood ("L.A. Law") and Jameson Parker ("Simon & Simon.") Robby Benson provides the hero's voice.

"Private Screening with Goldie Hawn" presents the actress conversing about her film career. The special airs Sunday on Showtime, along with two of her recent films, "Death Becomes Her" and "Criss Cross."

A group of open-sea kayakers explores a system of sea caves in a "National Geographic Explorer," airing Sunday on TBS.

Tahitha Soren is the host for another MTV "Free Your Mind Forum" on Wednesday, Oct. 13. The hour-long special covers a variety of topics.

SOAP TALK

Marcy Walker joins 'Guiding Light'

BY CANDACE HAVENS

There is a new girl in Springfield and she is sure to stir things up. Marcy Walker, who portrayed Eden Capwell on "Santa Barbara" and Liza Colby on "All My Children," is set to be the love interest for Robert Newman's character, Josh, on "Guiding Light."

Walker will portray a woman from Josh's recent past. He met her in the French Riviera, and is enthralled by the unpredictable, sexy woman. This is the kind of super couple soap opera fans could only dream about until now.

"I couldn't be happier to be working with Marcy again," says Jill Farren Phelps, executive producer of the series, who worked with Walker on "SB." "She brings a magnificent quality to everything she does and her talent and beauty will be a great asset to 'GL.' She and Robert will make an intriguing and wonderful couple and our fans will love them."

Last year Walker made her prime time debut in "Palace Guard" on CBS. Her character surprises Josh in Springfield on Oct. 29.

In other soap news: Two ABC soap stars are pulling double duty this fall when they hit the Broadway stage.

Susan Batten, who plays Luna Moody on "One Life to Live," stars opposite Julie Harris in the Circle Repertory Company's production of "The Fiery Furnace." The play is a story of three women struggling to bring meaning and fulfillment to their lives during the pre-feminist Eisenhower era. "The Fiery Furnace" opened Oct. 5.

Paul Anthony Stewart, who portrays Casey Bowman on "Loving," makes his Broadway debut in "Cyrano — The Musical" on Nov. 21. The musical focuses on the story of Cyrano de Bergerac and his quest for the heart of the lovely Roxanne. Stewart portrays Cyrano's love-struck friend Christian.

Dear Candace: Is Glynnis O'Connor, who portrays Margo on "As the World Turns," married to Richard Thomas?

I can't remember seeing anything about her divorce. He was married and had triplet girls. -Sally Farris, Hagerstown, Md.

Dear Reader: O'Connor is married to Doug Stern. They have a 3-year-old daughter, Lindsay. The actress stars in an upcoming TV movie, "Deadly Doses" with Thomas, but they are not romantically linked.

TIME OUT

Albert sits down with talented trio

BY MICHAEL SCOGIN

Marv Albert assembles his "crack staff" for another round of wild and wacky interviews in "Marv Albert One on One," airing in syndication Oct. 2-24. Check local listings for times and airdates.

It is the second wave of interviews for the well-traveled announcer, who is just as at home calling the NBA on NBC as he is broadcasting New York Knicks basketball and New York Rangers hockey.

This time around, Albert sits down with three of the best: San Francisco Giants outfielder Barry Bonds, Kansas City Chiefs quarterback Joe Montana and recent baseball Hall of Fame inductee Reggie Jackson.

Perhaps Albert's most revealing session involves Bonds, the highest paid player in the game who has proven his worth this season with another all-around outstanding year.

"I didn't know what to expect (during the interview with Bonds)," Albert says. "He says what's on his mind. There's no agenda."

Surprising as it may seem, Albert discovers that Bonds, son to former Giants slugger Bobby, was a mama's boy growing up.

"My dad would just say, 'Come on, you're going to go with us on a trip,' and I was like, 'Nope, I just want to stay home with Mommy.'"

Bonds' choice for the best player in baseball? "Ken Griffey Jr.," he says. While Bonds believes the two are near equals in hitting, he gives Griffey the overall edge because of his defense in center field.

Marv Albert

Albert was equally impressed with Joe Montana, whose career has been resurrected this year in Kansas City following almost two years of lost playing time due to back and elbow injuries.

"He's the biggest star in the NFL right now, and he just handles it (very well)," says Albert. "He's just such a low-key good guy for his abilities and what he means (to the game)."

Albert believes Montana hopes to play this year and next before retiring.

"He's trying to make it last as long as possible. He still loves it," Albert says.

Jackson is as outspoken as ever, lashing out at owners for dishing out lavish salaries.

"There's no structure in the game of baseball," says Jackson. "That's what concerns me about the game. If one guy makes $7 million as Ryne Sandberg, then there are probably 15 other guys that should make $7 million that are the same quality of player as Ryne."

Paperworkers To Host Seminar On Workman's Comp.

Gary Morris, president of Local 676, United Paperworkers, has announced that his local is sponsoring a seminar Wednesday, October 27, at 3:30 p.m. on workers' compensation claims.

The seminar will be conducted at the "new" Union Hall at 37 Main Street, Westernport (formerly Fox's Pizza Den).

All union members and widows or survivors of union members may attend. Any other individuals needing information on workers' compensation law in Maryland wishing to attend may do so as welcomed guests of Local 676.

Local attorney Paul C. Sullivan will conduct the seminar and is coordinating it at the request of Morris. The seminar is being conducted to inform the union membership and other individuals who have been hurt in the workplace of the law involved in workers' compensation injuries of every nature. Special emphasis will be placed on conditions such as carpel tunnel syndrome claims, chemical exposures, and asbestos exposures. Recent trends in the defense of those types of cases will be fully discussed as well as the increasing conservative trend of the commissioners.

Sullivan will also discuss the "Americans with Disabilities Act" and how that comparatively new federal law changes an employer's previous option to declare workers industrially unemployable when injuries kept a claimant from returning to employment.

Sullivan has offices in Cumberland, Westernport, and Swanton and has concentrated his legal practice not only in personal injury litigation throughout the east coast, but also in work-related injuries in Maryland. He has also recently produced videotapes which are now available to the public on Maryland and West Virginia Personal Injury Claims and Maryland Workers' Compensation Claims. In addition to Maryland, Mr. Sullivan is also licensed to practice law in West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Florida and the District of Columbia.

The seminar is provided free of charge. For further information, persons may call the Union Hall at 359-0521 or Sullivan at 359-3544.

Direct Deposit Encouraged By Social Security

Social Security offices are trying to increase the number of beneficiaries who use direct deposit. Research conducted for the Social Security Administration indicates that beneficiaries who have their monthly checks deposited directly into their bank accounts are 16 times less likely to report problems with their benefits than those who are receiving paper checks, according to Thomas W. Armbruster, Social Security manager in Cumberland.

"When you use direct deposit: you won't need to worry about your checks being lost, stolen, or misplaced; you can be away from home without the worry of a check sitting unprotected in your mailbox; and you won't have to make a special trip to your bank or stand in line to deposit your checks," Armbruster said.

Currently abut 20 million Social Security beneficiaries take advantage of direct deposit, but that represents only about half of all current Social Security beneficiaries. "One of our goals is to ensure benefits are delivered on time and to the right place, and direct deposit helps us do that," Armbruster said.

For more information about how to begin direct deposit of monthly Social Security checks, persons may call Social Security's toll-free number, 1-800-772-1213, any business day between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. "When you call, have your Social Security number and your checkbook, bank statement, or any papers that show your bank account number handy. You can also ask about direct deposit where you bank and the bank's service representative can help you enroll on the spot," Armbruster said.

Arthritis Forum Set In Cumberland

A forum sponsored by the Western Maryland Branch of the Maryland Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation will be held Thursday, October 14, from 4:30 to 6 p.m. at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, located at the corner of Washington and Smallwood streets in Cumberland. The guest speaker for the forum is Raymond L. Malamet, M.D., a rheumatologist, whose topic is Arthritis: The Basic Facts. The program is free and open to the public.

Dr. Malamet will discuss the most recent advances in arthritis treatments and how they can bring relief to people who have the disease. A practicing rheumatologist based in Hagerstown, Dr. Malamet is also on staff at Memorial Hospital of Cumberland and see patients regularly at his office in Cumberland.

According to the Arthritis Foundation, Maryland Chapter, an estimated 640,000 people in Maryland have some form of arthritis. Nationwide, arthritis affects an estimated 37 million Americans, or one in every seven people.

"We all know someone with arthritis," said Diane Homer, Director of the West Maryland Branch. "But many of us don't know very much about the disease. As a result, many people experience needless pain and crippling because of myths or misconceptions.

There are many things that can be done for people with arthritis, Homer said, and these items will be discussed at this forum.

For more information, persons may contact the Western Maryland Branch of the Arthritis Foundation at 301-759-9411 or 1-800-356-3811.

The Arthritis Foundation supports research to find cures for and preventions of arthritis diseases and seeks to improve the quality of life for those affected by arthritis.

Oct. Proclaimed Breast Cancer Awareness Month

Governor William Donald Schaefer has proclaimed October "Breast Cancer Awareness Month" in Maryland and announced that since the start of the state's low-cost mammogram screening programs, breast cancer has been detected in 57 Maryland women out of 12,000 women who have taken part in the programs.

"If not for these programs, most of these women would not have had a mammogram which detects breast cancer early enough so it can be treated successfully," said Governor Schaefer.

Mammography screening, follow-up, and treatment are available to low-income Maryland women at hospitals through the Coordinated Breast Cancer Screening Program of the Health Services Cost Review Commission (HSCRC) and at local health departments through a $3 million grant from the federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

More than 10,000 Maryland women have received mammograms since the HSCRC program started in May 1991, at a cost of about $5 million. More than 2,000 have been screened since the CDC-funded program began in July 1992. Of the 12,000, approximately 24 percent received a mammogram for the first time. These programs, part of the overall Maryland Cancer Control Program, target women age 50 and older, especially those who have never had an initial mammogram. Only 44 percent of women in that age group in Maryland are getting regular mammogram screenings. However, the number of women 40 years of age and older who had a mammogram within the last year increased from 31 percent in 1987 to 58 percent in 1992.

"We are encouraged by the numbers of women who are taking advantage of the low-cost program," said Nelson J. Sabatini, secretary of the Maryland Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DHMH). "Women are becoming more educated about the importance of mammogram screening. Our programs make this critical service accessible to them.

Maryland has one of the highest cancer mortality rates in the nation. Approximately 3,400 new breast cancer cases will be diagnosed in Maryland women this year. Some 850 Maryland women will die this year from breast cancer. It is estimated that if women follow screening guidelines, 30 percent of breast cancer deaths could be prevented.

The mammography screening guidelines recommended by the CDC, the National Cancer Institute, and the American Cancer Society are:

*A woman should have an initial mammogram at age 40, then at one-to-two year intervals;

*Beginning at age 50, a woman should have a mammogram annually.

The Maryland Cancer Control Program, which includes public awareness, education, and early detection programs, is committed to reducing the cancer mortality rate by focusing on breast and tobacco-related diseases. For information on breast cancer screening and tobacco cessation programs, persons may call the state's cancer hotline, toll-free, at 800-477-9774, Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Savor the Season— The Best of Fall's Foods

Harvest time used to mean long days of backbreaking work in the fields and in the kitchen. "Putting by" the fruits of the harvest, as well as feeding the workers, kept cooks busy from sunrise to sunset.

Today's harvesters and cooks may still work from sunrise to sunset, but they're likely to be toiling over keyboards, desks or high-tech machines instead of scythes and stoves. And they're spending less time preparing food and more time scheduling the comings and goings of busy families.

Bringing the bounty and flavor of harvest foods to today's tables is easier, thank heavens. But the spirit of gathering, and of sharing the harvest, can be important food for the soul as well as the body.

The recipes below provide the savor and substance of fall favorites, but with much less cost in time and in calories. Each main dish can be the centerpiece of a family evening meal or a weekend gathering of friends. The recipes focus on two traditional specialities of the season: pork—lean, moist and versatile; and Spanish Sweet onions—just in from the fertile fields of Idaho and Oregon.

Post-Game Supper

Choucroute Garni
Dark Rye Bread Sticks
Autumn Fruit Salad
Cider Beer
Lemon Frozen Yogurt

Don't let feeding a crowd faze you. Choucroute Garni, a traditional European fall and winter feast, brings a potful of flavors to any special event. All you do is gather the ingredients, then simmer and serve to cheers. Chunks of several types of savory pork sausages, Spanish Sweet onions and sauerkraut are the base flavors; wine, herbs and apples add the top notes. If it eases scheduling, simmer the Choucroute Garni a day in advance, and then reheat right after the game—the flavors are even better!

CHOUCROUTE GARNI

- 2 Idaho-Oregon onions, peeled and cut into chunks
- 3 carrots, pared and sliced
- ½ cup chopped parsley
- 15 peppercorns
- 10 juniper berries
- 4 whole cloves
- 2 bay leaves
- 4 pounds refrigerated sauerkraut, rinsed and drained
- 4 cups chicken broth
- 2 cups fruity white wine, such as Riesling
- 1 pound smoked sausage, sliced
- 1 pound bratwurst, sliced
- ½ pound ham, cubed
- 2 tart green apples, cored and coarsely chopped
- Dark rye bread sticks

In a large, heavy 5 to 6-quart saucepot, saute onions and carrots slowly over medium-low heat 8 to 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Place parsley, peppercorns, juniper berries, cloves and bay leaves in cheesecloth bag or large tea strainer. Add to pot with sauerkraut, broth and wine. Bring to boil; cover and simmer 1 hour. Add meats to pot and stir. Cover and simmer 1 hour longer. Add apples and simmer 20 minutes longer. Remove bag of seasonings. Serve with dark rye bread sticks. Makes 10 servings.

Tip: Choucroute Garni may be refriger ated overnight and reheated before serving.

Any Night Dinner

Bavarian Chops with Onion Slices
Spinach Noodles
Thick-Sliced Tomatoes
Fresh Fruit

A full-fledged feast in less than half an hour? Yes! The boneless pork loin chops take less than 20 minutes; you cook thick slices of mild but flavorful Spanish Sweet onions along with the chops. The noodles take only minutes, and while they cook, you slice the tomatoes. Dessert can be even easier—just pass a bowl of perfect, fresh fruit. The whole combo is effortless enough for a busy weeknight, but impressive enough for a special guest meal, too.

BAVARIAN CHOPS

- 2 Idaho-Oregon onions, peeled and sliced ½-inch thick
- 2 tablespoons vegetable oil, divided
- 2 tablespoons flour
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon pepper
- 4 boneless pork loin chops, ½ to ¾-inch thick
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 8 ounces mushrooms, sliced
- ½ teaspoon dried thyme
- 8 ounces beer, room temperature
- Salt to taste
- Freshly ground black pepper
- Cooked spinach noodles, optional
- Minced fresh parsley, optional

In nonstick skillet over medium-high heat, brown onions on both sides in 1 tablespoon oil; remove from skillet. Combine flour, salt and pepper; mix well. Dredge pork chops in seasoned flour and brown chops quickly on both sides, adding remaining oil if necessary. Remove chops from skillet. Add garlic, mushrooms and thyme; saute 1 minute. Mix remaining seasoned flour into mushroom mixture if a slightly thickened sauce is desired. Return chops and onions to skillet, add beer and bring to boil. Reduce heat, cover and simmer 8 to 12 minutes. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Serve with noodles and garnish with parsley, if desired. Makes 4 servings.

Favorite Fall Foods

PORK. Traditional because farmers waited for the first nip of fall to butcher hogs. Nowadays, diners enjoy pork year-round because it's lean, easy to prepare and flavorful. But, long-popular dishes still carry the joys of fall flavor partners. Try teaming pork with fall fruits such as apples and pears. The mild taste of pork goes well with sweets, sours and savories such as onions.

ONIONS. Farmers in Idaho and Oregon start bringing their giant yellow, red and white onions into storage sheds in the fall and ship them to supermarkets and restaurants throughout the winter. A federal marketing order requires near perfection in size and shape of onions from this region, simplifying the selection process for busy shoppers.

Sunday Dinner

Italian Porketta with Roasted Spanish Sweet Onions
Sauteed Red Pepper Cubes
Romaine and Radicchio Salad
Crusty Italian Bread
Apple Tart

The proof that America is a melting pot is this recipe. Italians, who came to Northern Minnesota to work in the iron mines, coated pork roast with a savory blend of aromatic seeds and herbs. Supermarket meat sections in Minnesota towns feature pre seasoned roasts and label them "Porketta." You can easily do your own. Use the herbs and seeds listed below or create your own combination. You may use a single loin roast or buy a double roast, as shown in the photo, and then remember that the cooking time will be longer.

Roasted vegetables are hot on trendy restaurant menus and easy to make at home. Just tuck wedges of Spanish Sweet onions in the roasting pan along with the pork.

ITALIAN PORKETTA

- 3 tablespoons dill seed
- 1 tablespoon fennel seed
- 1 teaspoon lemon pepper
- ¼ teaspoon dried oregano leaves
- ¼ teaspoon each onion powder and garlic powder
- 2 to 4 pound boneless pork roast
- 2 or 3 Idaho-Oregon onions, peeled and cut into six wedges
- 1 large sweet red pepper, cut into bite-size pieces

Combine seasonings and coat pork roast with mixture. Place pork on rack in shallow pan and surround with onion wedges. Roast at 325°F for 45 minutes to 1½ hours, depending on size and shape of pork or until meat thermometer registers 155° to 160°F. Add red peppers to pan during last half hour of roasting. Let roast rest 5 to 10 minutes before carving. A 2-pound roast makes 8 servings.

Nutrition Information Per Serving: 204 Cal., 25.9 g pro., 8.6 g fat, 4.4 g carb., 72 mg chol., 1.0 g fiber and 87 mg sodium.

Tips

Don't overcook pork! It's wonderfully moist, tender and done when the meat thermometer reaches 155° to 160°F. The recipes give you guidelines for the cuts they include. As a general rule, cook just until the juices run clear. "Juices" is the key word because just-right pork will be moist, tender and, you guessed it, juicy.

Onions DO make you cry, but the flavor makes every tear worthwhile. The giant Spanish Sweet onions from Idaho and Oregon are so big that chopping may cause tears. But also try slicing, quartering or chunking them to enjoy raw or cooked. Unlike other sweet onions, they hold their shape and texture throughout cooking.

Even though fall's main dishes may be heavier in flavor, to match the crisp weather, they don't need to be heavier in calories. The recipes here all focus on low-fat preparation. Today's pork is lean and low in calories, so it fits in with today's diets whatever the season.

4-H Teaches Life Skills

As America celebrates National 4-H Week, October 3-9, it's appropriate to reflect on the value of the nation's largest youth organization in today's society.

4-H gives young people a chance to have fun, meet new people, visit interesting places and win awards. But more importantly, it teaches them skills that will benefit them for a lifetime. These "life skills" help make them better friends, better students, better employees, better neighbors, better spouses, better parents, better leaders--in short, better people.

What are some of these life skills and how does 4-H provide them?

Skills developed through 4-H can be grouped into three categories: competency skills, coping skills and contributory skills. Examples of competency skills include the ability to communicate, to make decisions and to solve problems. Coping skills include a sense of self-esteem and the ability to relate to and interact positively with others, while contributory skills include leadership, a sense of responsibility to the community and a commitment to the environment.

By providing young people with a supportive environment in which they can explore new interests--alone or with others--4-H encourages the development of all three types of life skills.

Take clubs, for example.

"Many 4-H club activities involve groups or teams of young people working together to achieve a common goal, says Alice Hevner, Garrett County 4-H agent. "Through these experiences, participants develop coping skills involving cooperation, negotiation and compromise, as well as a variety of competency skills, including problem solving and decision making."

4-H members also learn life skills through work on individual projects, according to Hevner. Such skills include discipline, organization and time management.

"4-H'ers involved in individual projects must record their efforts and keep track of their progress in record books, Hevner explains. "The skills involved in keeping these documents up to date and seeing their project through from beginning to end carries over into other aspects of their lives now and later."

4-H'ers involved in market animal projects learn such practical skills as how to feed, house and properly care for their animals, as well as the business skills involved in raising animals for profit. Youth in environmental projects develop a greater appreciation for the world's limited natural resources and learn how to care for and preserve them.

By serving as officers of 4-H clubs and competing in such activities as public speaking, 4-H'ers develop a variety of leadership skills. Many public officials and corporate leaders attribute their success in business and government to their participation in 4-H.

No matter how to categorize the skills taught in 4-H, the bottom line is this: 4-H helps young people care about themselves, other people and the world around them.

For more information about 4-H and how you can become involved as a youth member or adult volunteer, call the Garrett County Cooperative Extension Service office at 334-1990.

Model Campaign Launched For Fire, Rescue Volunteers

More than 200 delegates from across the country attended National Volunteer Fire Council banquet on Oct. 1 in Hollywood (Md) and heard about the model volunteer recruitment/retention program developed by the State of Maryland Governor's Office on Volunteerism in partnership with the Maryland State Firemen's Association (MSFA) and the Allstate Insurance Company. A one-year partnership between the agencies was launched at the event.

"Volunteers in the fire and rescue services are among the most valued volunteers in our state," said Governor William Donald Schaefer. "They are a professionally trained corp of dedicated people who put their lives on the line to save people in their communities. While dedicating their service, they save millions in tax dollars each year. I strongly support and encourage individuals to join the ranks both as response and non-response personnel."

The Governor's Office on Volunteerism and the MSFA have traveled around the state since June of this year, offering training to volunteer companies in preparation for the campaign. More than 200 representatives from the various companies have come together to learn how to approach the media as well as what to do to attract today's volunteer, a spokesperson said. The training sessions began in Ocean City at the annual firemen's convention and went on the road from Cresaptown to Fruitland, from Church Hill to LaPlata, and points in between.

Secretary of State Tyras Athey, Comptroller Louis Goldstein, David Minges, Director of the Governor's Office on Volunteerism; Philip Hurlock, president of the MSFA; and Allstate Insurance Company's Ed Sharples presented a series of 30-second video public service announcements while launching the one-year partnership.

Oct. Proclaimed As Youth Suicide Prevention Month

Governor William Donald Schaefer recently proclaimed October "Youth Suicide Prevention Month" in Maryland.

"I encourage all citizens to learn more about the issues affecting young people and suicide and share information and skills with communities in our efforts to prevent young people from taking their own lives," Schaefer said.

The fifth annual Youth Suicide Prevention Conference will be held on Friday, Oct. 22, from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Holiday Inn in Bethesda. The conference, titled "Facing the Challenge: Coming Together/Saving Lives," will feature David C. Clark, Ph.D., as keynote speaker. Dr. Clark is the director of the Center for Suicide Research and Prevention and associate professor of psychiatry and psychology at Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke's Medical Center, Chicago. He is senior editor of Crisis, the official journal of the International Association for Suicide Prevention, senior editor of the Suicide Research Digest, and associate editor of the journal Suicide and Life-Threatening Behavior.

"Suicide is one of the most tragic and disruptive events a family and a community can experience," said Nelson J. Sabatini, secretary of the Maryland Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DHMH). "Although the rate of youth suicide in Maryland appears to have gone down over the past few years, we are still losing too many of our young people to suicide--we must continue to commit ourselves to awareness and prevention efforts in our communities."

Nationwide and in Maryland, suicide is the third leading cause of death (following accidents and homicides) for people between the ages of 15 and 24. Maryland in 1988 had a higher rate than the nation (13.2 per 100,000) at 14.6 deaths per 100,000 people of that age group. In 1989, the U.S. rate was 13 deaths per 100,000 and Maryland recorded 11.4 deaths per 100,000. In 1990, the U.S. youth suicide rate was 13.2 per 100,000 and Maryland's rate was 10.5 per 100,000. These are the most recent figures available, a spokesperson said.

"There are steps we can take as individuals and communities to make a difference in the lives of our young people," said Stuart B. Silver, M.D., director of the DHMH Mental Hygien Administration. "Educatic and cooperation are ke elements in efforts to sa young lives."

The winners were as follows: first place, Phil Kanar; second place, Cecil Holtschneider; and third place, Charlie Woods. Cash prizes were awarded to the winners. The organizer of the tournament was Sam Wakefield and the secretary was Jennifer Jackson.

The horseshoe players noted appreciation to Marlin Lawson and the rest of the Friendsville Lions Club for making the horseshoe pits available.

Lion Doug George put up the facings on the restrooms at the park last week.

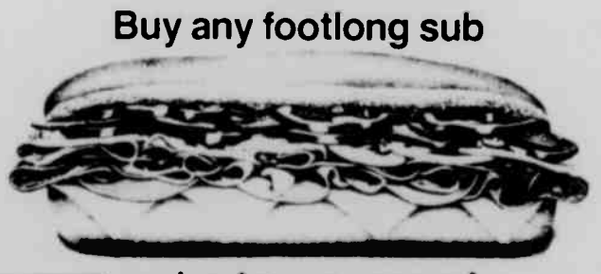
Family Health and Safety
October is Family Health Month



The American Academy of Family Physicians has designated October as "Family Health Month." This is an excellent time to review six areas that relate to family health and safety.

1. Nutrition: Reduce the amount of saturated fat in the family's diet. Serve more fruits and vegetables. Cut back on the use of sugar and salt.
2. Physical Fitness: Set a routine time for walking, gardening, and swimming. These are safe activities that help burn calories and avoid excess body weight. Try to make fitness fun and not overdo it.
3. Mental Health: Handle daily pressures and excess stress by finding time to relax and meditate. Emphasize the importance of a balanced life style for all family members.
4. Health Checkups: Schedule immunizations and health examinations that are appropriate for each family member.
5. Home Hazards: Protect the family with proper storage of household cleaning products and medicines. If a poison or medicine is accidentally swallowed and the victim is conscious and can swallow, have them drink a small glass of water. Call the nearest poison control center or hospital emergency room immediately.
6. Alcohol/Tobacco: Discourage the use of alcohol and tobacco.

MDA's Weights And Measures Office Helps To Bring Down Trade Barriers

Maryland Secretary of Agriculture Robert L. Walker has announced that the Weights and Measures Section of the Maryland Department of Agriculture is working with the federal government and the governments of this hemisphere to eliminate trade barriers, including regulatory trade barriers.

"One of the goals of the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) is to set up a common standard of weights and measures between nations. Common standards will save time, money and allow the freer flow of commerce," said Walker.

The United States and Canada have formed a Mutual Recognition Working Group to set up common weights and measures regulations and a member of the Maryland Department of Agriculture's (MDA) staff is participating in the effort.

"The goal of the Working Group is to make it easier for a scale manufacturer to sell their product in the U.S. and Canada by conducting scale evaluations that will satisfy the requirements of both countries," said MDA weights and measures specialist Constantine Cotsoradis.

"Our laboratory in Maryland will be conducting tests for the U.S. and Canada thus expanding our standing from a national to an international laboratory," Walker, a strong proponent of NAFTA, said.

The Working Group hopes to have common scale tests in place by April 1994.

"The scope of evaluations will be limited in the beginning, but the program will be expanded after the laboratories become familiar and comfortable with the testing of each country's test procedures," said Cotsoradis.

MDA's Weights and Measures Section regulates all measuring devices in the state, making sure that every citizen gets what they pay for whether it be a pound of hamburger or a gallon of gasoline. In addition, the laboratory does testing of scales for the National Institute of Standards and Technology.

Lock Up That Left-Over Nitrogen

There is a lot of nitrogen left over in most of our corn fields, particularly in fields that received manure applications or high rates of commercial nitrogen that was plowed down. Bill Knepp, nutrient consultant, has run the Nitrogen Quick Test on several corn fields that already matured and found that quite a few still had several pounds of available nitrogen. Nitrogen in the available form used by plants can easily escape during late fall and winter. However, a lot of this nitrogen can be captured by rye plants. The rye grain absorbs the nitrogen and holds it until spring. Then you can plow the rye down, which will start decaying, releasing the captured nitrogen. I would suggest a rate of 2½-3 bushels of rye per acre.

Crop Notes

* The heavy frosts that have occurred recently should have put alfalfa into the dormant stage. Remember when you harvest the alfalfa, cut higher than normal, leaving a height of 4 to 6 inches.

* If you need an easy reference for pricing high moisture shelled corn or ear corn, contact my office and we will mail you the conversion sheet (334-1900).

* Just a reminder... frosted sorghum or sudan grass has the potential to be very poisonous if fed to animals. The toxic level can be reduced by ensiling properly or harvested as dry forage.

Corn Grain Acreage Nearly Half Harvested

Through the week ending October 3, Maryland farmers harvested 48 percent of the corn grain acreage. This was far ahead of last year's progress of only 14 percent harvested and ahead of the normal five year average of 36 percent harvested at this time of year.

Topsoil moisture rating improved to zero percent very short, five percent short, 84 percent adequate, and 11 percent surplus. Subsoil moisture also improved to zero percent very short, 37 percent short, 63 percent adequate, and zero percent surplus. Conditions allowed an average of 5.1 days suitable for fieldwork during the week, according to the Maryland Agricultural Statistics Service.

Average statewide corn and soybean condition was rated in poor to mostly fair condition. Statewide, hay supplies were adequate. The cooler, wetter conditions improved pasture feed again and averaged in good condition. Sorghum was in mostly fair to good condition.

Maryland's progress for the week ending October 3 was as follows, listing the item, this year's percentage, last year's percentage and a percentage for the 5-year average.

Wheat seeded, 8, 1, 4; barley seeded, 26, 11, 27; rye seeded, 20, 7, 26.

Corn mature, 91, 73, 81; grain harvested, 48, 14, 36; silage harvested, 88, 58, 82.

Soybeans turned, 76, 63, 66; shedding leaves, 44, 38, 40.

Sorghum turned, 79, 100, N/A; mature, 48, 83, N/A; harvested, 13, 1, 4.

Alfalfa hay, fourth cutting, 82, 71, 66; other hay, third cutting, 74, 75, 63; fourth cutting, 50, 27, 21.

WEATHER

Maryland weather for the week ending October 1 had below normal temperatures and above normal precipitation. Temperatures averaged 59.8 degrees, 2.4 degrees below the normal of 62.2 degrees for the September 25 to October 1 period. Minimum temperatures ranged from 26 degrees at Oakland to 43 at Patuxent, but generally in the mid 30's. Maximum temperature was 88 degrees at Patuxent and generally around 80 degrees. Precipitation averaged 1.39 inch, 0.66 inch above the normal of 0.73. Precipitation ranged from 0.38 inch at Cambridge to 2.31 inches at Oakland. Regional rainfall averages were: western, 2.17; north central, 1.85; southern Maryland west of the Bay, 0.77; and the Eastern Shore, 0.90 inch.

Maryland Has Fewer Farms

Maryland Secretary of Agriculture Robert L. Walker has announced that the number of farms in Maryland in 1993 is estimated at 15,000 down 600 from the 15,600 farms in 1992.

"Agriculture is still Maryland's number one industry. But we must continue to make every effort to preserve our agricultural land so that in the next century this state's economy and quality of life are maintained," Walker said.

Overall in Maryland, the total land in farms for 1993 is 2,200,000 acres which is unchanged from the previous year. The average farm size increased to 147 acres compared with the average size of 141 acres in 1992 and 146 acres in 1991.

"I am proud to say that Maryland leads the nation in the number of acres in our agricultural land preservation program. In addition we have a strong group of dedicated farm families who are committed to agriculture," said Walker.

Nationally, the number of farms in the United States in 1993 is estimated at 2.068 million, down one percent from 1992. Total land in farms is 978 million acres, down 1.8 million from last year.

Volunteers Are Valuable To The 4-H Program

Volunteers are the backbone of successful youth development programs, says Alice Ilevner, a Garrett County 4-H Agent with the University of Maryland System Cooperative Extension Service. Without them, it wouldn't have been possible to reach the nearly 38,000 young people who participated in at least one 4-H club, project or activity last year in Maryland--over 300 in Garrett alone.

4-H volunteers are a diverse group; they include men, women, retirees, young adults, and teenagers from all major races and ethnic groups. Last year, 7,286 of these people contributed to the Maryland 4-H program in some way. While most of them worked with traditional 4-H clubs, others volunteered with special interest projects, school enrichment programs, individual study efforts, summer camps and the youth component of the Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program (EFNEP).

From a one-time commitment of several hours on a single day to a weekly or monthly involvement all year long, their contributions are critical to the ongoing success of 4-H.

No matter what form their involvement takes, all 4-H volunteers have one thing in common: their belief in the value of 4-H.

If you are interested in donating some time to 4-H youth development programs, contact the Garrett County Cooperative Extension Service office at 334-1990.

Maryland Joins Ag For NAFTA

Maryland Secretary of Agriculture Robert L. Walker has announced that the Maryland Department of Agriculture has joined a national organization of agricultural interests supporting the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA). Known as Ag for NAFTA, the coalition represents a broad spectrum of farm organizations and agribusiness firms working to secure approval of the trade agreement by the U.S. Congress.

"There is absolutely no question that NAFTA will benefit Maryland agriculture. The demand for our products in Canada and Mexico is tremendous. This pact will mean increased exports of Maryland agricultural products throughout this hemisphere. The result will mean expanded markets for Maryland agriculture and more jobs," Walker said.

"My fellow agriculture secretaries in the Mid-Atlantic region and around the country see NAFTA as a real boost to the U.S. economy. Increased trade can only help our agricultural industry which is still number one in the world. Nations everywhere are clamoring for U.S. food products to help feed their people. Now is not the time to stifle the expansion of these markets," said Walker.

More than 100 groups make up the Ag for NAFTA coalition including state agencies and farm organizations such as the American Farm Bureau Federation, the National Corn Growers Association and the National Cattlemen's Association.

Glimpse Of The Past . . .

Local Banker Is Awarded For Volunteer Efforts

The American Bankers Association Education Foundation recently presented four banks and six bankers with the 1993 Personal Economics Program (PEP) Bank/Banker for Outstanding Contributions. One recipient was Gretchen D. Rush, PEP coordinator for the First United National Bank & Trust, Oakland.

The PEP awards are given annually to banks and bankers who go above and beyond the "norm" in educating their communities about banking, personal finance and economics through the ABA Education Foundation's PEP program.

Other 1993 winning bankers were from Nebraska, Georgia, Iowa, Tennessee, and New Hampshire.

"The banks and bankers being recognized today exemplify what true volunteerism is all about," said Linda Sanders, chairperson of the ABA Education Foundation Board of Trustees and president of Young Americans Bank, Denver. "As stars of the PEP program, they've communicated to a great number of people how valuable an understanding of money and finances can be to one's future." Sanders presented the PEP winners with an engraved plaque during the Sept. 30th awards ceremony at the Hyatt Regency in Reston, Va.

The PEP program is offered through the ABA Education Foundation. Banker volunteers make presentations on a variety of topics, such as managing credit, balancing a checkbook, applying for a mortgage, and understanding the United States banking industry. Since the program started in 1977, PEP bankers have reached close to 9 million people, according to a spokesperson. This past year alone, more than 4,000 volunteers reached nearly 1 million people through over 28,000 presentations.

The ABA Education Foundation, a subsidiary of the American Bankers Association, believes that education is the key to responsible consumerism and a responsible banking industry, the spokesperson said. The Foundation promotes understanding of banking and financial services by enhancing the public's knowledge of economics, specifically as they relate to banking and personal financial management.

Lighthouse Staff Attends Training

Debbie Jo Adams-Noroski, executive director of Lighthouse, Inc., and Norma Schlosnagle, administrative assistant, attended the Child and Adult Food Program training at Washington County Hospital on September 22.

Currently, a nutritional breakfast and lunch are components of the Lighthouse-sponsored program. "Lighthouse consumers who are receiving Social Security Insurance or Medicaid participants are eligible to receive meal benefits," said Schlosnagle.

"This is the second year of participation in the meal program since our incorporation became a private, non-profit agency," said Noroski. "Last October we expanded to a breakfast menu."

Through Lighthouse's sponsoring a meal service, consumers that live alone or need assistance with cooking can access a nutritional meal.

Concert To Honor FSU Professor

A concert to honor James Pierce, professor emeritus of music, will be presented by the Frostburg State University Department of Music on Sunday, October 10, at 3 p.m. in Pullen Auditorium. The program's performers are two former students of Pierce, Kim Andrews and Eric Kitchen.

Kitchen will begin the concert with two of his original compositions. The first will be Variations on the Aria "Nel Cor Piu Non Mi Sento." His second piece will be "Professor's Lament," based on a poetic fragment by Pierce.

Andrews will perform the second and third movements of Beethoven's "Piano Sonata No. 23" in f minor. Then she will play two works by Johannes Brahms, the "Intermezzo No. 1" and the "Intermezzo No. 2." She will conclude the program with her own composition, "Five Hymn Tune Variations."

Pierce came to Frostburg State University from his graduate studies at Kansas City Conservatory, Boston University, and the Peabody Conservatory. He taught at FSU from 1959-1992. He began teaching a few courses in the then Pullen Laboratory School. When Frostburg's music major was approved in the early 1960s, he began to prepare students for music teaching certification in the state. As the need arose, he was responsible for the Men's Chorus, the Women's Chorus, and assisted in many student and faculty recitals.

The public is invited to a reception for Pierce following the concert.

Volunteers from the Deep Creek Lake Recreation Area (DCLRA) will be participating in "Make A Difference Day" on Saturday, October 23, by performing a variety of projects around the lake, according to a Deep Creek spokesperson.

"Make A Difference Day" is a nationwide promotion sponsored by USA Weekend magazine. To encourage participation, the magazine will be selecting 10 outstanding projects for nationwide recognition. Each winning project will receive $1,000 for charity, and key organizers will participate in the awards ceremonies in Washington, D.C., during National Volunteer Week.

In addition to the outstanding projects, hundreds of winners will also be honored in a special issue of USA Weekend, the spokesperson said.

According to the staff at DCLRA, the Allegheny Bass Casters have signed up to assist park personnel with removal of lake buoys and state park docks on that day. Several other projects are available to any individual or organization who would like to help out, the spokesperson said.

Carson Hummel, the recreation area's volunteer coordinator, is coordinating the "Make A Difference Day" effort. Any interested individuals can reach Hummel at Deep Creek Lake State Park at (301) 387-5563.

ARMED SERVICES REVIEW

U.S. Navy Petty Officer 3rd Class Lawrence D. Stonebraker, son of Juanita L. Stonebraker, Oakland, is currantly midway through a six-month Meditarranean Sea deployment aboard the amphibious assault ship USS Saipan, homaported in Norfolk, Va.

Stonebraker is part of the Mediterranean Amphibious Ready Group, which includes approximately 2,150 Marines.

During the deployment, the ready group has participated in several bilateral training exercises including Alexandros 1993, the first U.S. and Greek amphibious exercise since 1978. The ready group has also provided a naval presence in the Adriatic Sea off the coast of the former Republic of Yugoslavia in support of Operation Provide Promise and Operation Deny Flight.

Stonebraker, a 1985 graduate of Elk Garden High School, Elk Garden, W.Va., joined the Navy in June 1990.

U.S. Navy Airman Apprentice Franklin Sanner, son of Paul and Janet Dixon, Terra Alta, W.Va., recently received the Meritorious Unit Commendation, along with his shipmates aboard the aircraft carrier USS Theodore Roosevelt, homeported in Norfolk, Va., and the crews of its embarked units.

Secretary of the Navy John H. Dalton was on hand to welcome the crews home from their six-month deployment and presented the award while many of the 6,000 sailors and Marines on board the Theodore Roosevelt watched the ceremony as it was broadcast over the aircraft carrier's closed-circuit television.

The award noted the personnel of USS Theodore Roosevelt and its embarked units conducted operations of international significance in the Mediterranean, Adriatic and Red Seas, playing vital roles in Operations Deny Flight, Provide Promise and Maritime Guard from March to August. Crewmembers were recognized for sustaining "an unprecedented 90 percent operations tempo" throughout the deployment.

Carriers, and their aircraft and escort ships, are uniquely capable of providing global presence and can respond to protracted contingencies such as in Iraq and the Adriatic Sea on a moment's notice. These forces can dominate the coastal battle space from the sea and can project sustained, precise and awesome offensive power in America's interest round the globe," stated a Navy spokesman.
